WIN TWO BASE BALL GAMES IN SUCCESSION

Boosters Beat the Hawaiians Saturday Afternoon and Defeat the Ramblers Sunday.

Our sterling athletes Saturday afternoon proceeded to annex a game from the celebrated Hawaiian base ball team, who were brought to this city under the charge of Guy Green of Indian fame, and the Boosters took right to the boys from the Pacific isle and laid the game away in the early innings by heavy hitting, as well as a number of very much bonehead plays pulled off by the visitors. The boys from Honolulu are some players on the Ukulele, but when it comes to ball playing they are not on the job. After the smoke had cleared away in the ninth inning the final score was 9 to 4 in favor of Plattsmouth, and two of the scores were presented to the visitors through bad throws and errors.

The first inning started the fireworks for Plattsmouth. Beal, the first man to bat for the locals, laid a nice one down to the pitcher, but the first sacker failed to hold the throw and Beal was safe. Then Fred Mann, whose batting record is second only to that of Joe Jackson or Ty Cobb, came to bat and finding one of the Hawaiian inshoots, placed it down near the right field fence for a two-bagger and Beal scored. Louie Smith, who followed, came to bat, and after he was deprived of what seemed a fair hit to right, he was retired, pitcher to first. Jeff Salsburg selected a nice one and made a safe hit over second base, bringing Mann home. This ended the scoring in this inning, as the side was retired on two forced putouts at second. The twirler from the islanders was taken out during the first part of this inning and his successor, a real native of Honolulu or Okoa, was put on the slab, but his slants were no more difficult to solve than had been those of the first pitcher.

The home team again secured two scores in the third, when, after Beal and Mann had been retired, Smith got busy with his little stick and placed a safe one to left field, and Salsburg, who followed him, repeated the performance, and about this time the Hawaiians were completely in the air and were unable to stop an ice wagon, and stealing a base off them was worse than pushing little chickens in the lake. Connor, who had been having considerable fun with the islanders on the slab, came to bat, and seeing the goats assembled in center field, woke them up with a drive that brought both Smith and Salsburg home. Mason, who followed, struck out.

The fourth was another nerve-racking session for the visitors, as Carle, the first man up, succeeded in placing a two-bagger out into center field. Arries hit one to short, and on an error was safe at first. Ault, the mighty first sacker of the team, also profited by the condition of the visitors and placed one down to the visitors which they failed to handle quick enough and with the wild throw he was safe on first and Carle had registered at home plate. Beal then came to bat, and after sizing things up for a few minutes, decided to make an assault on the breweries, and hit the Storz sign on the fence for a case, the first time this has occurred this season and there was much rejoicing among Beal's teammates, as he was unable to use the contents, but it is needless to say the case was not thrown away. Mann was thrown out at first and Louie Smith was out on a fly to left field, but Beal came home on the throw-in. This being plenty for one inning the side retired.

The fifth saw the visitors score their first run, the first man up being safe on first and succeeded in stealing second, and the man following him hit to left and the ball was returned by Mason to the infield and thrown by Arries to Ault, who being only six feet tall was unable to reach it, and the man on third came home. In our half of the inning Carle secured a fine two-bagger, but failed to see first base, as he went around and was called out by the umpire for cutting the bag. Arries retired on a fly to center field and then Charles Ault startled the visitors by poking one of the balls on the nose for a safe hit to left field, and Beal, who followed, knocked one to third and the first baseman

A Nervous Woman Finds Relief From Suffering.

Women who suffer from extreme nervousness, often endure much suffering before finding any relief. Mrs. Joseph Snyder, of Tiffin, O., had such an experience, regarding which she says:

"Six months I was bedfast with nervous prostration. I had sinking spells, a cold, clammy feeling, could not stand the slightest noise. At times I would almost fly to pieces; stomach very weak. My husband insisted on my taking Dr. Miles' Nervine, and I began to improve before I had finished the first bottle until I was entirely cured."

MRS. JOSEPH SNYDER,
262 Hudson St., Tiffin, Ohio.

Many remedies are recommended for diseases of the nervous system that fail to produce results because they do not reach the seat of the trouble. Dr. Miles' Nervine has proven its value in such cases so many times that it is unnecessary to make claims for it. You can prove its merits for yourself by getting a bottle of your druggist, who will return the price if you receive no benefit.

SUNDAY MEETINGS AT THE TENT AND THE METHODIST CHURCH

Union Services Very Largely Attended, the Tent Crowded to Its Utmost Capacity.

The interest in the union meetings was manifest yesterday more than at any time since the beginning of the campaign. At the meeting in the morning there was a large crowd and all who attended were well paid in the mixed quartet, composed of Mesdames Westcott and Morgain and Messrs. Gilmore and Klingler. While this was a very pleasing feature, there were other musical features which were also well worth the time and trouble of anyone who attended. The subject was "Be a Strong Man," and was presented in a forcible manner, which was very pleasing to all who were in attendance.

The afternoon meeting, which was for men, was a confidential talk to the men and was not as well attended as one might wish, but those who were in attendance were in earnest and one confession was made, which made it well worth any trouble which was gone to in order to prepare the service. At this service the male quartet sang a number of songs and was composed of the evangelists and Don York. Rev. Smith dwelt upon the matter of certain habits which people acquired and to which they finally became slaves, and from which bondage it was difficult to break away by one's own power—in fact almost impossible, but with the help of the Master it was easy, and by putting Christ in the place of the habit, one's life was purified and the old habit with its slavery was gone.

The evening service, which was well attended—those within and about the tent numbering about 800—was one in which great interest was manifest. At this service there was a pronounced feature of musical numbers. The subject of the evening's discourse was "Amusements," and the way the evangelist went after some of the questionable practices was a matter of opening one's eyes to the truth. The matter of gambling and the round dance was one which came in for a ventilating, so that the weak places could easily be seen. One story which he gave as an illustration was the matter of the progressive card party in the home of the society women. He said that a certain minister had been invited to a place for dinner and that the lady of the house was very gracious in displaying a silver server which she had won the night before at a progressive card party. While her husband, soon after her declaration, pulled out a large roll of bills from his pocket, saying in nearly her own words, "See, this is what I won last evening at the poker game over the grocery store."

The woman's meeting at the Methodist church, which was held at the same time of the men's meeting, was presided over by Miss Olive Gass. The features of the meeting was first a short song service. Mrs. Jennie Scheid-knecht gave a good talk on the subject of temperance, which was well received. Mrs. Allison gave a very interesting reading, Miss Margaret Mapes spoke to some length on the subject of missions.

Mrs. Major Hall read a poem and gave a talk on the general topic, which touched the subject under discussion. Mrs. M. Archer also gave a reading of a very beautiful and touching poem. Mrs. A. J. Beeson, in her very interesting and instructive manner, gave a reading on the subject of Godliness. Miss Mae Morgan sang a solo and was accompanied at the piano by Miss Estella Beard; Mrs. E. H. Westcott had for her subject "Love," and did the subject full justice. There were others who gave short talks, which were well received and great interest was manifested. This was a very interesting meeting and one which had a tendency to arouse those who are engaged in the Christian work to more effort and the demonstration of more zeal.
