

FUN GALORE AT TED WILES' GROVE TUESDAY

The Sunday School Picnic a Big Success, With Attendance of Nearly 300.

From Wednesday's Daily.
There was fun galore yesterday at the fine grove of Ted Wiles west of this city on the occasion of the annual picnic of the Methodist Sunday school and everyone who attended voted it one of the most enjoyable as well as one of the best handled events of its kind that has been given by the church.

Promptly at 9 o'clock the transportation committee, under the charge of C. E. Babbett, was on hand at the church with several hayracks and carryalls, which were loaded with the young people and the loads of good things to eat and taken to the picnic grounds, where the festivities of the day commenced. Base ball games and matches of pitching horseshoes amused the boys and men of the party, while the little folks had the time of their lives with the many swings that had been erected by H. H. Colton and his force of assistants, and the ladies spent the time most enjoyably in an old-fashioned visit.

The chief feature of the day was the big picnic dinner, and there was enough on hand to eat to provision an army, and despite the fact that some 250 hungry persons were fed at the dinner there was much left. The tables were arranged in a square and the serving table placed in the center, where Mrs. E. C. Hill, the chairman of the refreshment committee, and her assistants held forth and served out the delicious dinner to the jolly crowd. Wooden plates and tin cups had been provided for every guest, and as they gathered at the table the sparkling ice cold lemonade was passed around, and if all reports are true it was "some lemonade," and the committee who prepared it are deserving of a medal, and there was enough on hand to last the entire day. At the close of the afternoon the crowd wended their way homeward, tired, but mightily well pleased with the good time they had enjoyed.

REGARD THE ROAD RULE MORE STRICTLY AND AVOID ACCIDENTS

In dealing with the question of handling the automobile travel in the city, as well as that of other vehicles, there is one rule that should be strictly enforced by the officers of the law, and that is compelling vehicles to keep on the right side of the street. There is every day teams or automobiles going up and down the street and traveling on the wrong side, which makes it hard for those who follow the rule of the road to keep to the right side of the street in traveling. Automobiles or teams driving down Main street should follow the south side of the street, while those going up the street should keep on the north side. By keeping this rule there would be less danger of collision, and everyone would know just what way they should travel. As it is, teams proceed up either side of the street and automobiles are forced to get out on the wrong side, and there is no telling when an accident may occur that might result in a vehicle getting damaged and someone badly injured. This rule is as important as the speed regulation and both should be enforced to the letter of the law in justice to the automobile drivers, as well as the general public who use the public highway.

Card of Thanks.

It is our most heartfelt desire to express to our neighbors and friends who assisted us during the fire that destroyed the county building last Thursday afternoon our deep appreciation of their efforts to save the building and to save what of our household goods they could. Such kind actions will never be forgotten and we trust we may be enabled in time to repay these kind friends for their assistance.
Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Tams.

BURLINGTON CONTEMPORARY CHANGES IN RUNNING OF TRAINS

From Tuesday's Daily.
The following from the World-Herald of this morning will be of great interest to our citizens, as it relates to the lessening of the number of trains going through this city each day over the Burlington. It is not known just what passenger trains through here will be changed, if any:

Many of the Burlington trains, both freight and passenger, crossing the Missouri river at Plattsmouth and coming north to Omaha on the Nebraska side, will be brought direct to Council Bluffs from the east and across the river at Omaha over the Union Pacific bridge in the future. The new contract was entered into by the roads last week. It will probably take effect August 15 or September 1.

The west bound trains crossing the bridge at Plattsmouth, and bound for Lincoln will use that road. The number of trains crossing the bridge there and coming to Omaha will be greatly lessened. The change will be more noticeable in the freight traffic, as all of the freight trains are now brought to Omaha by the Plattsmouth route.

The new contract, which was made several months after the former one expired, calls for thirty passenger trains and eighteen freight trains of the Burlington road to cross the Union Pacific bridge here every day. As only twelve passenger and no freight trains now use that route, there will be thirty-six more Burlington trains across the Union Pacific bridge daily. The increase in traffic may hurry the building of a new bridge at this point.

PHOTOGRAPH OF THE PLATTE VALLEY HOUSE A PIONEER HOTEL

From Tuesday's Daily.
Yesterday afternoon G. M. Patton was a caller at this office, bringing with him a photograph of the old Platte Valley House, which for years occupied the site of the building now occupied by William Holly, William Henriksen and the Journal office. For many years this was one of the leading hotels in this part of the state and many of the distinguished men of the early days were guests of this place. The hotel building was torn down in 1882 to make room for the Waterman opera house, which stood on the site for some ten years, being destroyed by fire in 1892, and a few years later the present building was completed by Mr. Waterman. The photograph is most interesting to the old settlers of the city, as well as the younger generation, as it shows the great changes that the years have made in this city.

Most Delightful Surprise.

Last evening J. P. Falter of this city was given a most pleasant surprise when his three sisters, Mrs. J. J. Horn, Mrs. John Weber and Mrs. H. Hartstock of Creighton, Neb., arrived to make Mr. Falter and family a visit of a few weeks. This is a very pleasant gathering for brother and sisters and the occasion will be one long remembered by all the family.

ANTON TRILETY FOLLOWS SUIT IN BRUSHING UP HIS PLACE

From Wednesday's Daily.
The front of the building of Anton Trilety, on Main street has received a new coat of paint and now present a very neat and trim appearance, in keeping with the other buildings on the street that have been decorated by the owners. The building has been painted in a very tasteful combination of colors that gives a very pleasing effect. The work was done by Frank Gobelman and his force of workmen and is a neat and attractive job. Mr. Trilety, the owner, is bound to keep up with the procession in regard to keeping his property in first-class shape.

A VERY PRETTY HOME WEDDING

Another One of Cass County's Charming Daughters Caught in Matrimonial Noose.

From Tuesday's Daily.
Last evening at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Peter Perry, near Myard, occurred the marriage of Mr. Albet R. Lang of University Place and Miss Manola Perry. The wedding ceremony was performed by Rev. Charles Cole of University Place in the presence of a large number of the relatives and friends of the contracting parties, and for the happy event the rooms of the Perry home were decorated in a very artistic manner in green and white, making a beautiful setting for the ceremony which made these two worthy young people man and wife. The bridal couple was preceded into the parlors where the ceremony was performed by little Miss Helen Perry, a niece of the bride, as ring-bearer, and Misses Edith Perry and Hope Allen of Omaha, bearing the bouquet of the bride. After the ceremony the bridal couple departed on an extended wedding trip and will be at home after September 1, at Douglas, Wyoming, where the groom expects to locate and where they will make their future home.

The bride is one of the most talented and charming young ladies in this section of the country and her friends are without number, and while her absence from their midst will be greatly felt, she will carry with her to her new home the best wishes for her future happiness. The groom is a young man of sterling character and of splendid business ability and well worthy of the charming bride he has won. May the sunshine always light the way of these two worthy young people through life is the universal wish of their many friends.

FILES APPLICATION FOR HIS FINAL CITIZENSHIP PAPERS

From Wednesday's Daily.
This morning in the office of District Clerk James Robertson, Rasmus Peterson of this city filed his application for his final citizenship papers and forever renounced his allegiance to Christian X, king of Denmark. Mr. Peterson came to America in 1867, arriving in New York on August 1 of that year, and came at once to Omaha and thence to Plattsmouth, where he has since resided. Mr. Peterson decided to take warning of the notice sent out by the naturalization department at Washington of the fact that all old applications for first papers made out before the act of 1886 would be of no value after September 27.

Depart on Pleasure Trip.

From Wednesday's Daily.
County Judge A. J. Beeson and family departed today for Edison, Neb., where they will spend some two weeks visiting, and the judge will rest up from his duties. During the absence of the judge Miss Gertrude Beeson will be on hand to sell marriage licenses to those needing them, so there is no need of the young people delaying their matrimonial ventures until the return of the judge.

Farm for Sale.

Anyone wanting to buy a farm would do well to see W. R. Bryan, county assessor.

FORMER CASS COUNTY CITIZEN IS VERY WELL PLEASED WITH MONTANA

The Journal has just received a letter from W. K. Shepherdson, who formerly resided in the vicinity of Murray, but who is now residing in Grass Range, Montana, and the letter is a very interesting one in describing the climate and conditions in that section of the country. The letter in part is as follows:
"I have just bought a relinquishment on 320 acres of gently sloping bottom land and I have built a small house on it. Have got a well 24 feet deep with five feet of cold water in it. There is a fine forest within half a mile of my farm and the fuel and posts and logs for the barn and outbuildings will be free for the hauling. The small grain crop here is looking fine and the wheat harvest has just begun. I feel sorry for you Nebraskans during the spell of severe heat you have been having, as we have had a few warm days, registering 90 in the sun, but any time you would find a shade you would be surprised at the coolness of the atmosphere. We have slept under a quilt each night all summer long. There are lots of Iowa and Nebraska people homesteading here, and there is not a train that does not bring eastern people here, who come to look up a possible location. This is an ideal wheat, garden, fruit and vegetable country, with plenty of rain, no cyclones, good fishing and hunting—in fact, a place where work comes as near being play as is possible anywhere. The range for cattle and sheep here is rapidly diminishing on account of the steady increase of the homesteaders."

NEBRASKA'S BLUE SKY LAW SO MUCH TALKED ABOUT

From Tuesday's Daily.
Section 13. It shall be unlawful for any person, corporation, or association of any character whatsoever, to sell or to attempt to sell in this state or to sell or attempt to sell to any person residing in this state, any character of securities without first obtaining a permit as herein provided; and when any person, corporation, or association of any character whatsoever has obtained a permit hereunder, it shall be unlawful for any such person, corporation, or association and for any agent or representative thereof, to make any false or fraudulent statements, orally or in writing, to the commission or to anyone else, concerning any security offered for sale or alleged to have been sold; and any person, corporation, or association of any character whatsoever, and any agent thereof, knowingly or willfully violating any provision of this act, shall be punished by a fine of not less than one hundred dollars, nor more than ten thousand dollars, or shall be imprisoned for not less than thirty days or more than two years, or both; provided, that when any such false or fraudulent statement is made by the agent or representative of any of the persons, corporations, or associations hereinbefore mentioned, such agent or representative shall be equally liable to the penalties herein prescribed, as though he were himself the principal, and in addition thereto the principal shall be liable to be assessed the fine prescribed in the same manner as though he or it had committed the acts herein prohibited; provided, however, no action to rescind any contract of sale made in contravention of the provisions of this act shall be maintainable unless the same is instituted within one year.

Section 5. The enforcement of this act and all its provisions is hereby committed to the Nebraska state railway commission, which is hereby authorized and empowered to execute the same in accordance with the provisions hereof.

J. C. Russel Very Sick.

Lew Russel and little son departed this morning on the early Burlington train for Lincoln, where he was called by the illness of his father, J. C. Russel, who is not expected to live. Mr. Russel, sr., was a visitor here a short time ago and many of our people had the pleasure of meeting this fine old gentleman, and the news of his illness will be a severe shock to them.

COMPLAINT FILED AGAINST CHAS. HANSEN OF NEHAWKA FOR DISTURBING PEACE

From Tuesday's Daily.
A complaint has been filed by Acting County Attorney J. E. Douglass in the office of Judge M. Archer against Charles Hansen, residing near Nehawka, charging him with resisting an officer in the discharge of his duties. It is charged that last Thursday when Marshal Noel of Weeping Water visited Nehawka to serve a warrant on Mr. Hansen for some disturbance in Weeping Water a few days previous, and as the officer attempted to serve the warrant, it is alleged Hansen resisted him, threatening him with a large rock and an empty beer bottle, and the marshal was forced to retire, fearing for his safety, and he asked the county authorities to take the matter up.

ENTERTAINS IN HONOR OF MRS. MUMM OF MONTANA

From Tuesday's Daily.
Yesterday afternoon Mrs. L. B. Egenberger entertained in a very charming manner at a porch party in honor of Mrs. Helen Mumm of Missoula, Montana, who is here visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. F. Goos. The afternoon was most delightfully spent by the ladies, who had brought their fancy work with them, and the plying of the busy needle and social conversation served to pass several delightful hours, when a most delicious luncheon was served by the hostess and the occasion was voted one of the most pleasant that had been enjoyed by the ladies for some time. The guests departed at the close of the afternoon, feeling that Mrs. Egenberger was a royal entertainer.
