PASSENGER TRAIN NO. 14 IS DELAYED SEVERAL HOURS NEAR LAPLATTE

From Friday's Daily.
Last evening the passengers on No. 14 over the Burlington had a most delightful experience on the way down from Omaha. The train left the metropolis on time, but when it reached the whistling post, just north of La Platte, discovered that a freight train in front of them had pulled out a drawbar from a car and was stalled on the track, and it required several hours to get the train out of the way in order that the passenger could get through, and it was after midnight when it arrived in this city with a very "sore" bunch of passengers, who had spent several uncomfortable hours waiting for the train to get on the move.

VICIOUS DOG AT- TACKS LITTLE DAUGH- TER OF E. A. WURL

From Friday's Daily.
Yesterday afternoon while Helen, the little 5-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Wurl, was playing with some of her little companions on the sidewalk near her home she was attacked by a small dog and before she could be rescued had been severely bitten in a number of places on her body and was badly frightened. The dog, which was the property of A. Matous, had been teased by some boys shortly before attacking the little girl, and being naturally a rather vicious animal, as soon as he saw the little girl he jumped on her, biting her in the arm, and as she tried to escape he bit her several times on the lower limb, and the child in trying to get away fell on the walk and received several very severe bruises. Mrs. Wurl, as soon as she heard the cries of her little girl, rushed out and grabbed up the child and the dog then attempted to attack her, but was driven off. The dog later attempted to attack some ladies passing near the same place, and a man named McGuire ran out of his residence, armed with a gun, and as the dog turned on him succeeded in putting it out of business. The dog which caused all the trouble, it is understood, has been the cause of several other children in the neighborhood being bitten, as only day before yesterday the little son of A. M. Renner was bitten by the dog while he was passing along Sixth street on his way home. There are a number of equally vicious animals in this city that should be killed off, as they are a nuisance as well as a menace to the safety of the children and some of the larger ones very dangerous to the grown-up people, especially in this hot weather.

Got the Wrong Man.

From Friday's Daily.

Welsh had assisted in the carpenter work on the building, when it should have been Charles Hill. We make this correction in order that no injustice will be done to either of the parties.
