

PARMELE THEATRE
THURSDAY, SEPT. 11

ONE NIGHT ONLY

Tickets on Sale Monday at Weyrich & Hadraba's Drug Store

THE INTERNATIONAL "LIVE FOREVER" SUCCESS

"That's what yer face needs—smiles." Mrs. Wiggs is coming with smiles for you all. That determinedly happy woman and droll feminine philosopher—"Mrs. Wiggs."

Miss Hazy

UNITED PLAY CO. (INC.) PRESENTS
DRAMATIZATION OF
Alice Hegan Rice's Books—

"Mrs. Wiggs
OF THE Cabbage Patch"
and "LOVELY MARY"

MRS. WIGGS' PHILOSPAY:

"It looks like everythig come right if we jes' wait long enough."
"I've made it a practice to put all my worries down in the botton of my heart, then set on the lid and smile."
"Somehow I never feel like the good b'long to me till I pass em on to somebody else."
"You never kin tell which way any pleasure is a-comin. Who ever would 'a' thought, when we aimed at the cemetery, that we'd land up at a first-class fire?"
"I jes' do the best I kin where the good Lord put me at, and it looks like I got a happy feelin in me most all the time."

SPECIAL!

Account of heavy guarantee. Manager Shiaes will offer the season's best offering at the following low scale of prices—

25c, 50c, 75c and $1.00

Hiram Stubbins

UNION.
Ledger.

E. J. Mougey and wife visited last Saturday and Sunday with relatives and friends in Papillion. Miss Josephine Mueller of Cedar Rapids, Iowa, came last Saturday and spent a few days visiting Wm. Mueller and family.

Mrs. H. Martin of Los Angeles, Cal., arrived Sunday and has been visiting with her cousin, Mrs. J. D. Lewis, northeast of town.

Dwight Patterson of Platts-mouth has been assisting his brother, J. M. Patterson, in the Bank of Union, while Miss Iva Mougey is enjoying her summer vacation.

Miss Iva Mougey, the assistant cashier of the Bank of Union, has been enjoying a vacation the past two weeks, visiting her relatives in different parts of the state.

L. J. Hall and family departed by auto Wednesday morning for Petersburg, Neb., to spend several days with relatives there and other places in that part of the state.

Ulysses G. Austin and wife of Corona, Cal., have been here the past two weeks making a visit with relatives and many friends in and near this village, and they find a cordial welcome back to the "old home town." Their arrival escaped mention last week because we lost a page from our note book.

Miss Alice Crozier became very ill last week while visiting relatives in Weeping Water, and upon the advice of her physician she was taken to a hospital in Lincoln. It was thought at first that a surgical operation would be necessary, but the ailment yielded to treatment without it and on Wednesday she was able to return to the home of her sister in Weeping Water. If improvement continues she will probably come home tomorrow.

W. S. Cheney of Minneapolis, Kansas, arrived here Wednesday to visit his son, G. W. Cheney and family. He was a resident of this part of the state about fifty years ago, living at Platts-mouth and at Glenwood, Iowa. He made a few trips "across the plains" in early days, and remembers that he was accompanied on one trip by this editor's brother, Cal Graves, now of North Yakima, Wash., and that Cal swore only twice on the trip.

EAGLE.
Beacon.

Born—To Mr. and Mrs. Ray Wall, Monday, August 25, a girl.
Born—To Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Smith, Saturday, August 23, an 8-pound girl.

Mrs. Oscar Keil returned home Tuesday evening from a three-weeks' visit with relatives and friends in Iowa and Missouri.

Fred Spaulde traded his Abbott car Wednesday afternoon to a Havelock man for a model 39, 1912 Buick. Fred is well pleased with the trade.

Mrs. Inga Olson of University Place was in town last Tuesday and while here leased her 80-acre farm, two miles south of town, to Wm. T. Sacks for three years.

Charley Renner, jr., is in receipt of a letter from Conductor M. F. Perry, who is now at La Porte, Wis., taking medical treatment, in which he states that he is feeling much better and having a fine time boating, fishing, etc.

The Eagle schools open Monday, September 8, with the following teachers in charge: Principal, Prof. Wilson of Lincoln; grammar, Miss Smith of Lincoln; intermediate, Miss Lola Carr of Eagle; primary, Miss Maize Dillon of Lincoln.

Mrs. Lura Lee of Portland, Maine, arrived today (Thursday) for a few days' visit at the home of her cousin, B. E. Jundkus and family. Mrs. Lee is returning home from a trip to the Pacific coast, and when she reaches her home at Portland she will have crossed the continent.

G. W. Peterson received word Tuesday of this week of the death of his uncle, Isaac Johnson, of Bayles, Ill., which occurred in February. This was the only uncle living on either Mr. Peterson's father's or mother's side, and he regrets very much the news of his death, as he was planning to make him a visit in the near future. Although his death occurred in February Mr. Peterson was just informed of it in Tuesday's letter.

Best results are secured by advertising in the Journal.

STATIONERY and all Kinds of
OFFICE SUPPLIES

Can be found at
The Journal Stationery Dept.

Typewriter Supplies

Ribbons for All Machines
Typewriter Paper of all kinds
Carbon Paper, Erasers, Pencils
Oils, Desk Stands and Brushes

Wedding Stationery

A complete line of all Wedding and Announcement Cards
Calling, Visiting and Business Cards
Announcement and Correspondence Cards, Etc.

Fancy Stationery

Here is where we carry the most complete line in the city. New designs in Box Paper, Pound Packages and Tablets. In fact, most everything in the paper line.

Crepe and Tissue Papers

In all colors and shades. Many new designs. Paper Napkins—a large assortment.

Blank Books, Counter
Books, Memo Books

Receipts, Notes and Money Orders—in fact, if it is in the paper line you will find it at this office.

All kinds of

Legal Blanks and Letter Files

Call and see us when wanting anything in this line.

The Platts-mouth Journal
THE CASS COUNTY PAPER HOUSE

NEHAWKA.
News.

George Mark is the latest victim of the automobile habit, he having purchased a Ford through the agency of Robert Willis.

Mrs. Frank Allen and the two girls left Saturday for a visit to Mrs. Allen's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Pittman, at Medford, Okla.

L. C. Todd shipped fifteen steers of his own raising to Omaha last week that brought him a little over $100 each, and they were 2-year-olds.

Otto Caroff has been limping around for some time with rheumatism, and Saturday night he went to Lincoln, where he will take treatment at a sanitarium.

E. S. Critchfield, a revenue officer, was in town yesterday and took Robert Thompson in charge. The officer was here a few days ago and secured evidence against Thompson for bootlegging. He will be arraigned at Lincoln.

Hebert Opp had a foot pretty badly smashed last Thursday while putting in ice. A cake weighing several hundred pounds fell on his right foot and bruised and mashed it so badly that he has been using a crutch ever since.

The 2-year-old daughter of Rudolph Schomaker died Sunday at the family home near Murray and was buried Tuesday at the St. John cemetery north of town. The little girl had only been sick a few days, and the blow is a severe one to the parents, who have the sympathy of their many friends near here.

Malcom Pollard, who with Mrs. Pollard returned recently from a trip to the old home in Vermont, report a delightful visit. Mr. Pollard says while the folks back there think it is pretty dry he could see no evidence of it, and that everything looked fine. York state showed effects of the drought, however, and from there west.

Nash Johnson and his sister, Ora, were run into by an automobile at the corner near John Whitecap's about 9:30 Sunday evening, thrown from the buggy in which they were riding and bruised up considerably, the young lady being unconscious for some time. The car, a Ford, driven by Henry Vette of Avoca, and is said had nothing but the dash lamps burning. The buggy was demolished.

LOUISVILLE.
Courier.

August Ossenkop returned Monday from Cheyenne, where he went to attend the frontier day show. He says it is worth the price.

S. C. Keckler left Wednesday for Ipswich, S. D., to accompany his wife and children home from an extended visit with Mrs. Keckler's parents.

Mrs. Ben Davis arrived Tuesday morning from Denver for a short visit with her sister, Mrs. C. A. Richey. Mrs. Davis will make her future home in Omaha.

The Courier regrets to learn of the illness of Grandma Reichart, who has been confined to her bed for the past week. Her many friends will hope for her speedy recovery.

Will Wood is expected home from Colorado next month. Will is to have charge of the decoration of the new $65,000 court house in Box Butte county at Alliance.

H. L. Specht left Wednesday morning for Arnold, Neb., to accompany Mrs. Specht to her new home in Louisville. Henry is a "bully" good fellow and during his short stay here has made many friends.

Clem Mayfield arrived Thursday from Oklahoma on a short visit with his parents. He says that Nebraskans have not the least conception of what the word drought means as compared with Oklahoma.

Pearl Vandeventer is happy. There is no question about it. It is a girl, weight normal and arrived at the Vandeventer home on Tuesday afternoon. Pearl says boys are too common anyway and that all the world likes a pretty girl.

E. B. Smisor has moved his family here from Larned, Kas., and opened a jewelry store in the new postoffice building. Postmaster Ossenkop will move his office to the new quarters just as soon as his Uncle Samuel will give his consent.

Do You Fear Consumption?

No matter how chronic your cough or how severe your throat ailment is, Dr. King's New Discovery will surely help you; it may save your life. Stillman Green, of Malchate, Col., writes: "Two doctors said I had consumption and could not live two years. I used Dr. King's New Discovery and am alive and well." Your money refunded if it fails to benefit you. The best home remedy for coughs, colds, throat and lung troubles. Price 50c and $1.00. Guaranteed by Gering & Co.

If you need anything for harvest call on Ed Donat. He will treat you right.

ELMWOOD.
Leader-Echo.

Mrs. Paul Stewart and Mrs. Wm. Hemeyer of Nebraska City are guests at the home of the latter's cousin, Mrs. Wm. Deles-Derrier.

H. F. Krull is very critically ill, having taken to his bed immediately following his return from a western trip the fore part of the week.

Miss Josephine Mueller arrived Sunday evening from Cedar Rapids, Iowa, for an extended visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Mueller.

Mrs. Dr. Harger and two children, of Chicago, came in Saturday for a visit at the home of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Glapp.

Mrs. Anna L. Morford, an experienced teacher, has been employed to take charge of the Fairview school this coming year, and they are to be congratulated.

Miss Lillian Wheeler of Platts-mouth was a guest for a few days the fore part of the week at the home of her cousin, Mrs. A. H. Weichel, going from here to Alvo for a few days' visit with relatives in that vicinity before returning home.

William Roettger left on Monday for Fremont, Neb., to attend the Dodge county teachers' institute. From there he goes to Hooper, Neb., to assume his duties as principal of the Hooper High school on September 1.

Sanford Clements left Tuesday for Curtis, Neb., to play with the Curtis ball team in a three-days' tournament, after which he goes to Alliance to again take up his work as one of the instructors in the Alliance schools.

Miss Jessie Justice of Nebraska City, who has been ill at the P. M. Trapp home here for some time, died Wednesday evening. She came up from "the city" about two months ago, and has never been able to return. The remains were taken to Nebraska City this morning, where the funeral will be held and interment made. Miss Justice is a sister of the late Mrs. Trapp and also Mrs. Owen, who now, as for a number of years past, has made her home at the Trapp residence.

Scene from Mrs. Wiggs of the Cabbage Patch. Parmelle Theatre, Thursday, September 11th. One Night Only