AN INTERESTING STORY OF KING BAGGOT

Gem Theater.

An interesting story of King Baggot, the great motion picture actor, appears in the August number of the Motion Picture News, which will give those in this city who have seen him so often in pictures at the Gem theater an idea of his long experience on the stage:

Born in St. Louis in 1879, young Baggot became apprentice to an electrical contractor at the age of 15. At 18 he entered the real estate business with his father and during the next three years he distinguished himself as a soccer player, playing against such teams as the Thistles of England and the Shamrocks of Canada.

THE SIN OF FATHER ADAM.

Born With Criminal Instincts, Life Is Lies the Blame?-The Value of a Correct Diagnosis-We Can Oppose Sin Best When We Know Its Origin. Aids and Disadvantages In Fighting Sin-Divine Help Necessary-How the Needful Is Provided.

Gumberland, Md., September 14. - Pastor Russell gave two discourses here today. We report one of them, on the text. "I was shapen in iniquity; and in sin did my mother conceive me." (Psalm 51:5.) He said: Diagnosis is valuable in the attempted cure of any malady. This is as true of sin-sickness, depravity, as of ourselves and in others, the more successful we shall be in combating it. We must know what helps to feed the ailment and what tends to destroy it.

Our forefathers erred, evidently, in their declaration of total depravity. None of us ever met a human being entirely depraved-entirely devoid of Creed Harris of near Union sympathy for righteousness and truth This being effected, the Redeemer will -dead to all good influences. Experience, however, does corroborate the Bible statement that "there is none ners. Moreover, the Bible goes to the root of the matter; and experience corroborates its statement in our textthat we and all humanity were born sures us that "all His work is perfect." According to the Bible, we received our lives from our parents; and they theirs from their parents; and so back and death by sin."-Romans 5:12.

This curse of death which came upon the race, and which affects us from nal torment-nevertheless the curse of God is sufficiently terrible, and W. H. Campbell arrived in this world-wide, The penalty, "Dying, thou They now see that Jesus and the city today and will act as third shalt die," is much less horrible than if it had read, "Living, thou shalt live in eternal torment."

When, therefore, we find in ourselves and others wayward, sinful tendencies, the fall, the curse, and that all who are under such influences are to be Mrs. W. H. Cary of Des Moines pitied. True pity, however, must not is spending the week with rela- be sympathy with sin, but with the predisposition to sin. Sin calls for radical measures for its extermination for the release of the sinner; but our of the facts, and through the exercise of the proper sympathy. There are probably more people injured through lack of sympathetic help than are helped by the administration of coldbleoded justice without tenderness or sympathy. We have been slow to learn this lesson.

Thank God, leath does not end all! and the lessons 10w being learned through disappointments and tears will, we believe, in many instances prove profitable in the great Hereafter.

"Brethren, What Shall We Do?"

This was the question asked of the Apostle Peter by those who heard him preach and learned that we were sina Battle Against Them-There Is ners under condemnation. We should None Righteous, No, Not One-Where discern that the question is not, What shall we do to escape damnation, or condemnation? We were born in damnation, condemned to death as unworthy of life. The Divine decree is that no sinner may have everlasting life. It is a gift of God, designed, not for sinners, but for those who are perfect, sinless. Adam was condemned to death as soon as he became a transgressor; and all of his children were born in the same condemned condition. Condemnation passed upon all men because all are sinners. All are imperfect, fallen. Our text tells us that they were born in this fallen, disapproved or condemned condition,

The question with us, then, is not, What shall we do to escape coming under condemnation? for the whole world is condemned already. (John 3:18.) The question is, How shall we, who are already condemned of God as unworthy of everlasting life, get free from that condition in which we were born and get back into that condition of perfection which God will approve, in which we should be accounted worthy of everlasting life?

The Bible answers our question. It tells us that God has had compassion upon our race and has provided the Savior. It explains that for God to be just and yet grant forgiveness to the sinuer requires that One shall pay substitutionally the penalty originally pronounced against Father Adam, have the right to restore to perfection Adam and all his posterity desirous of returning to God.

The Message respecting this merciful arrangement is called the Gospel-the Good Tidings that there is a way of return from sin to holiness and from condemnation to death back to justification of life.

"Times of Restitution."

As we have seen, the thing needful for all who desire to return to God's favor is that they may be restored to that condition of physical perfection in which Adam was before he sinned. When thus restored, they would have the same opportunity of demonstratlasting life. And they shall receive it obedience sin entered into the world, through Jesus Christ; for the way was opened up by His sacrificial death, "the Just for the unjust," and their salvation accomplished by His work of Restitution.

Not until recently have Bible students discerned how far our forefathers have been confused in respect to the Divine Plan-through neglect of the Bible for fourteen hundred years. Apostles and Prophets taught that der the Kingdom. Thus they stand God's great time for dealing with the world is yet future-under Messiah's Kingdom. The thousand years in which that Kingdom shall rule the world, restraining sin, chastising sinners and helping the willing and obedient back to perfection, is called by St. Peter "Times of Restitution of all things, which God hath spoken by all His holy Prophets."-Acts 3:21.

The restitutionary work of those thousand years will be accomplished by the power of Messiah's Kingdom, and the Elect Church of this Gospel Age will be associated with the Redeemer in His Throne and in the great work of restoring the obedient of mankind to perfection. That thousand years is also called the time of the world's resurrection or raising upanastasis. Bible students now discern that the word resurrection in the Greek signifies more than merely the awakening from death. It signifies the lifting up of the individuals to human perfection-to that which was lost by Adam and redeemed by Jesus' death. During those Times of Restitution, Satan is to be bound, that he may no longer deceive humanity, as he has been doing with false doctrines, putting light for darkness and darkness for light. On the contrary, the time when he, the Prince of Darkness, is cast down from influence amongst men will be the time when Christ and His Bride, the Church, will become the Sun of Righteousness to the world and scatter all its ignorance and superstifion. (Matthew 13:43.) Respecting that time the Bible assures us that ed, and all the sin-deaf ears shall be unstopped, and the true Message of God's Love shall be made known, and "the knowledge of the glory of the Lerd shall fill the whole earth."

God's Dealing With the Church.

God has a special plan and a special salvation for the Church. He desites that the Church shall consist of of the Truth. a very special class. He has issued a special call therefor, and has premembers of this class.

the father should surround the mother | must these. Was He willing to be have attained.

obedient to the Father's will to the extent of sacrificing earthly pleasures and advantages? and to the extent of death? So must His followers walk in His steps, as He has set them an example, looking unto Jesus, the Auwith Him, share His nature and glory and honor. They are advised from the first that the footsteps of Jesus are the way of the cross.

These disciples of Jesus in the present Age are figuratively styled "soldiers of the cross," and Jesus is de lows: clared to be the Captain of their salvathe next Age, only more intense, more concentrated. The world will have a thousand years in which to fight and win. The battle of the Church as a whole is more than eighteen centuries City. long, but each individual share is much shorter. The coming Age will be the world's time for gaining a victory and for One Hundred Dollars escaping from the condemnation, the imperfection, that came upon all the race through Adam's sin.

Children of Wrath as Others. We are not to think of those whom God accepts as the Church as being different by nature from the remainder of mankind. On the contrary, we are particularly informed that we were born "children of wrath, even as others." But this special class get free from the condemnation, or damnation. that came upon the race through Adam | PLATTSMOUTH, NEB, JUNE 30, 1913 in a different way from that of the world in the next Age. They first exercise faith in God's promises and in Jesus as the Redeemer. They realize by faith that the merit of His death is the basis of deliverance from the damnation, or condemnation, passed upon all and of reconciliation with God and restitution to perfection and at- Rent account ..... tainment of everlasting life.

The Kingdom of Messiah, through which these blessings are to be extended to mankind, having not yet Capital Stock paid up ..... been established, these believers cannot get these blessings. However, to them comes a special message or invitation to become members of the Kingdom class-"heirs of God and jointheirs with Jesus Christ" their Lord; "if so be that they will suffer with Him, that they may be also glorified together" and share the Kingdom.-Romans 8:17; 2 Timothy 2:12.

Charmed with the prospect, these are not daunted by the trials and difficulties of the way, especially when they hear the Redeemer's Word encouraging them and saying, "Fear not, I have overcome the world." "Greater is He that is on your part than all they that be against you." "My strength is made | Expenses. perfect in your weakness." "All things shall work together for good to Insurance and Taxes paid and adthem that love God-to the called ones Rent and Repair.... according to His purpose."

Thus encouraged, these believers make a full consecration of themselves to God and His service, realizing and confessing their own imperfection and insufficiency, and pledging themselves to fight a good fight against sin in every form under the captaincy of Jesus. Jesus becomes the Advocate of all who come unto the Father through Him during this Age. He supplements their sacrifice in such a manner as to make it perfect-holy and acceptable to God. (Romans 12:1.) They give their wills, and resign all earthly interests and rights. He adds to their sacrifice all those Restitution qualities which would be theirs in due time uncomplete in Him.

When the Father accepts these by the begetting of His Holy Spirit they become His children. His saints, "heirs of God and joint-heirs with Jesus Christ" to "the inheritance incorruptible and undefiled, reserved in Heaven" for them -- 1 Peter 1:3-5.

Then the Fight Begins.

Every battle against sin is a good fight-whether it be the battling of the 1913, and on the 7th day of April. world during the Times of Restitution, 1914, at 9 o'clock a. m. each day or the battlings of the Church during this Age. But because God designs to give the Church a higher nature, a greater salvation, therefore He requires of every member of it a special demonstration of love and loyalty. And who will say that this is not a reasonable requirement of these sons? These spirit-begotten sons are all alike in the sense that they have one mind, one spirit, one disposition-the Spirit of Christ, the spirit of holiness the spirit of loyalty to God. But these are all distinctly different as respects their flesh. All are imperfect, but some more and some less so. Some are more and some less educated; some more and some less wise; some more and some less talented. But the tests are all under Divine supervision. The Lord sees to it that each shall be righteousness.

The chief lessons for all of these sons of God to learn are: (1) Faith in God-full trust in Him and His providences;

(2) Loyalty to Him-to the principles of His Government, and to all those whom He has accepted as sons.
