Elmer Hallstrom returned to his duties as assistant cashier at the bank Monday morning, after a two weeks' vacation.

We were wrongly informed as to the lumber yard changing hands. But the rumor was aloft just the same.

Mack Churchill and Frank Valley have gone to some one of the registering offices and will try to draw a farm each.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Pitman gave a Sunday dinner for the family and for Mr. and Mrs. Adams and a sister of Mrs. Adams.

Mrs. Joseph Cook went to Plattsmouth Saturday to do some shopping during bargain day, returning on the midnight train.

Mrs. J. H. Farris and Mrs. Wassum, a sister-in-law from Washington, Miss N. Frederick, and her sister-in-law, of Plattsmouth, Mrs. L. A. Baker, were all passengers for Omaha Friday morning.

Dr. J. F. Brendel went to Omaha Monday to interview Dr. Owen, a throat expert, in reference to some trouble he was having with his throat. We are glad to learn that he feels greatly relieved, and that nothing serious is liable to result.

Henry C. Long has moved some things from his farm to his new home in Murray, but it will take all next week for him to move, and get straightened up. Mr. and Mrs. Long will have one of the finest homes in Cass county in which to spend their remaining days in happiness and prosperity, and may they both live long to enjoy the blessings of this world.

The ladies of the K. N. K. are meeting each Thursday at the Lewiston church to quilt. The president requests each member to be present at these meetings. The preparations for the annual Thanksgiving feast are under way. Try to come out.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Leesley, Misses Edith and Frances DeVore and Thelma Leesley, Mrs. S. DeVore and Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Leesley and son, Albert, of Greenwood, Neb., were guests of William Oliver and family Sunday. The trip was made to Murray in Mr. Leesley's large touring car.

Mr. and Mrs. William Sporer, from north of Murray, were county seat visitors Friday of last week, and while there Mr. Sporer paid the Journal office a brief visit, renewing his subscription for another year. Mr. Sporer tells us that he had commenced gathering his corn crop on the Monday before, and was well pleased with the yield for the season, the acreage averaging more than he had expected. We trust that all the corn fields of the county may turn out the same way. Mr. Sporer was about the first of that vicinity to commence gathering, and have not heard how the balance is turning out.

Charles Creamer and wife were guests of Alex Rhoden and family Sunday.

Mrs. A. J. Stokes spent Thursday and Friday in Omaha shopping.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Leesley, Misses Edith and Frances DeVore and Thelma Leesley, Mrs. S. DeVore and Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Leesley and son, Albert, of Greenwood, Neb., were guests of William Oliver and family Sunday. The trip was made to Murray in Mr. Leesley's large touring car.

Mr. and Mrs. William Sporer, from north of Murray, were county seat visitors Friday of last week, and while there Mr. Sporer paid the Journal office a brief visit, renewing his subscription for another year. Mr. Sporer tells us that he had commenced gathering his corn crop on the Monday before, and was well pleased with the yield for the season, the acreage averaging more than he had expected. We trust that all the corn fields of the county may turn out the same way. Mr. Sporer was about the first of that vicinity to commence gathering, and have not heard how the balance is turning out.

J. D. Shrader and his father, George W. Shrader, accompanied Charley Hainey to Omaha Tuesday, where they selected a fine monument to place over the grave of the wife and mother, who was killed in the cyclone last spring. Mr. Hainey took them up in his automobile, and on their return they stopped in Plattsmouth a short time to look after some business matters. Uncle George bused the trip remarkably well.

The Weller company gave a splendid entertainment at the Presbyterian church on Friday evening. Miss Weller is an artist, and it was a pleasure to see and hear her. Mrs. Dokgan, as a violinist that plays for you, and Mr. Wheeler delighted his hearers with his rich baritone voice was great. As a whole, the entertainment was an inspiration for the good of the community and especially to the large audience present.

Otto Puls and little son, who have been in Canada for the past week, where the little fellow was receiving treatment for the injured hand, from which he has been suffering for the past few months, returned home last Friday. They came to Plattsmouth and were met here by Mrs. Puls. We are pleased to note that the little fellow is getting along nicely, and that the injury will not result in a permanent disability. It will be remembered that the flesh was burned from the inside of his hand a few months ago from the rope of a hay fork device.

The hotel is receiving the finishing touches of the carpenters, and will soon be ready for the painters and plasterers. A new veranda has been placed on the east and south side of the building, the dining room enlarged, four new rooms upstairs, washroom and toilet, and when the new improvements are completed, Mr. and Mrs. Berger will have one of the finest little hotels in the state. They deserve credit for their enterprise, and the people of Murray should assist in every way to bring trade to the hotel. Traveling men talk of Murray's hotel and make it a point to reach there always about meal time.

Out for the Auto. Some of the friends of Nicholas Klaurens have entered his name in the Omaha Daily News Auto contest, and of course some one of the neighbors and friends have expressed a desire to see him come out of the same victorious. The contest closes too soon for him and will be impossible for him to see all the readers of the paper before that time, and if he wins his friends would help him. From now until the 28th of October all subscriptions count double, so it is a good time to send them in. If your subscription is about to expire send the amount to Mr. Klaurens as soon as possible, yours may win the auto for him.

At the Sporer Home. Something out of the ordinary occurred at the Wm. Sporer home on Saturday night, September 11, 1913. It was an old fashioned "Skip-to-my-Lou" party, and was one of the most enjoyable events that has occurred in this vicinity in to these many years. Old fashioned games, those that were indulged in in childhood days by many of those present, which greatly pleased the young people and brought back to the older ones the pleasant scenes of early days—the happy hours "when we were boys and girls together." At the proper hour oysters, cake and coffee were served and at a late hour all wended their way homeward feeling that they had had one of the most joyous events of their lives.

Those present were as follows: Mesdames Myra McDonald, Kate Bentner, James Hatfield, Misses Geneva Erish, Helen Berg, Helen Gilmore, Margie Walker, Pauline Oldham, Mable Adams, Mattie Urish, Lucy Urish, Opha Baker, Vera Hatfield, Grace Long, Marguerite Spangler; Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Gopen, Mr. and Mrs. Glen Perry, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Long, Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Young; Mr. and Mesdames Alvir Range, J. W. Edmunds, A. G. Long, Lloyd Gopen, Chas. Spangler, G. M. Minford, Earl Cole, O. A. Davies, Chas. Carroll, Dr. J. F. Brendel, John Urish, Dr. G. H. Gilmore, T. J. Brendel and Warren Wiley.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Wiedeman spent Sunday with the home folks at Greenwood.

For hand painted china, see Miss Agnes Kennedy. 10-16-ttwkly.

A Pleasant Evening. Miss Esther Ray entertained about a dozen of her friends at her home last Saturday evening, the occasion being in honor of her cousins, Irwin and Lester Cressler and their friend, Max Wickersham, of Wood River, Nebraska, who have been visiting here among relatives and friends for the past two weeks. Numerous games and social conversation were indulged in and at the usual hour a delicious luncheon was served, after which the guests departed for their respective homes, very thankful to their young friend for a very pleasant and most enjoyable evening. The guests were: Misses Willa Moore, Frances Moore, Margaret Moore, Vera Moore, Henrietta Creamer, Esther Ray; Messrs. Raymond Creamer, Cussie Good, Virgil Suddeth, Irwin Cressler, Lester Cressler, Daniel Suddeth and Max Wickersham.

Lost or Stolen. Gray mare, 4 years old, weight 800. Burs in tail. Anyone knowing anything as to its whereabouts please notify Richard Smith at Union, or M. G. Churchill at Murray. 10-13-2twkly

OBITUARY.

Joseph M. Prouty was born near Peoria, Iowa, on March 16, 1867. He moved with his parents to Cass county, Nebr., in March, 1874. He was married to Miss Clara Skiles on December 27, 1893, at Alvo Nebraska. Two children Herbert and Margaret, and his wife, his father, Abel Prouty, two sisters and three brothers are left to mourn his loss. He was a minister of the M. E. church for sixteen years, preaching most of the time in Illinois. He was a member of the Central Illinois Conference of the M. E. church at the time of his death, and during his ministry of sixteen years served charges chiefly in Illinois but also in Montana. He, together with Rev. Howard Wilcox, raised the funds for building the M. E. church now located at Alvo. He was stricken with paralysis over a year ago, and was almost helpless. About three weeks before his death, he was taken to the Methodist hospital in Omaha for treatment, but gradually grew worse, and was brought back to his home in University Place, Nebraska, on Thursday morning, and died Friday morning at 12:30 a. m. He was buried in the Alvo cemetery Sunday, October 12. The bereaved relatives have the sympathy of many friends.

Our Strength.

It is supposed that our strength is the result of what we eat. This is true to a certain extent, our strength being the result of what we eat. Many heavy eaters are thin and sickly, because the food does not agree with them; their digestion is poor. This shows how important it is to keep our digestive organs in perfect working order. Should we have any difficulties either before or after meals, like sour eructations, nausea, flatulency, pains, constipation, Triner's American Elixir of Bitter Wine will give us prompt relief. It expels from the body, all waste matter which obstructs digestion. It strengthens the digestive organs, creates a healthy appetite and aids digestion. At drug stores, Jos. Triner, Importer and Exporter, 1333-1339 S. Ashland ave., Chicago, Ill. Triner's Lintiment is the promptest pain reliever.
