NEW YEAR WEDDING NEAR MURRAY

Mr. Charles M. Reed and Miss Rose Ellen Virgin Married at Home of Bride's Parents. From Friday's Daily. Last evening at 8 o'clock, at the home of the parents of the bride, near Murray, occurred the wedding of two of the most popular young people in that section of the county, Mr. Charles M. Reed and Miss Rose Ellen Virgin. The wedding was one of those delightful home weddings, and the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Virgin, the parents of the charming bride, was filled with a large number of the relatives of the contracting parties to witness the ceremony that made these two happy hearts as one. In the parlor of the residence there was a very tasty arrangement of flowers and streamers, which made a very beautiful setting for the happy event. The bride and groom promptly at 8 o'clock took their stations before the minister, Rev. D. L. Dunkleberger of the Christian church, who pronounced the solemn words that were to unite them for life, and following the ceremony the young people were showered with the congratulations of their relatives. A most sumptuous wedding supper was served to the bridal party and the guests after the wedding and the table was loaded down with every good thing to eat that it was possible to conceive of and there was much merriment and pleasure derived by the large number of guests who were seated at the table, in their being present on this happy occasion which united two such worthy young people.

The bride is one of the most popular young ladies in the locality where she resides and where she has been reared to womanhood, and her friends are legion throughout that section, and to her will come the best wishes of all for a long and happy married life.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Byron Reed and is a fine young man of sterling character, who possesses the esteem and respect of all who have the pleasure of knowing him, and he is to be congratulated on securing such a charming helpmate in life.

His Stomach Troubles Over. Mr. Dyspeptic, would you not like to feel that your stomach troubles were over, that you could eat any kind of food you desired without injury? That may seem so unlikely to you that you do not even hope for an ending of your trouble, but permit us to assure you that it is not altogether impossible. If others can be cured permanently, and thousands have been, why not you? John R. Barker, Battle Creek, Mich., is one of them. He says, "I was troubled with heartburn, indigestion and liver complaint until I used Chamberlain's Tablets, then my trouble was over. Sold by all dealers."

DELIGHTFUL ENTERTAINMENT LAST NIGHT

Knights and Ladies of Security Elect Officers, and Then Enjoy a Fine Social Time. From Friday's Daily. Last evening the members of the Knights and Ladies of Security lodge of this city held a most delightful social session at their hall, after the transaction of the business coming before the meeting, and the event was a very pleasant one for all who attended. At the business meeting C. H. Smith was elected financier of the order to succeed August Clouid, resigned, and Mrs. Henry Maury was elected as prelate to take the place of Mr. Smith.

Following the meeting a very pleasing program was given that numbered among the different parties taking part some of the best talent of the city, and the event was enjoyed to the utmost by everyone present. Readings were given by Mrs. A. J. Beeson, Miss Ellen Windham and Miss Bernice Newell, all three of whom are finished artists in the line of elocution, and their offerings to the program were much enjoyed by everyone. A very charming vocal number was contributed to the program by Misses Nancy Howieter, who has a beautiful voice, and her selection was one that made a very deep impression upon the audience. Little Miss Helen Beeson was called upon and responded by giving a recitation that won much applause for the little lady, who shows remarkable talent for one so young.

Very pleasing piano numbers were contributed to the program by Miss Mina Thierolf and Mrs. A. O. Moore, both of whom are among the most gifted musicians in the city, and their numbers were greatly enjoyed by everyone in attendance. After the rendition of the program dainty and tempting refreshments were served in the dining room of the hall, and it was the unanimous sentiment that the committee in charge of the program and the refreshments had covered themselves with glory and that the event as a whole had been one of the most enjoyable in the history of this splendid order.

PLEASANT GATHERING AT GEORGE E. DOVEY HOME NEW YEAR EVE

The home of Mr. and Mrs. George Dovey was the scene of much pleasure Wednesday evening, when a few of the younger set gathered at "The Heights" to participate in a dance given by Miss Edith Dovey in honor of her guest, Miss Bonnie Hussey, of Hastings. The parlors and reception hall were entirely cleared and tastefully decorated with holly, little red bells and mistletoe; the chandeliers were covered with red tissue paper, throwing a soft red glow over the couples as they danced; the programs were of white and red. In the dining room the table was spread with a large white cloth, over which were laid strands of red ribbons. This was laden with many delicious edibles and at about 10:30 the young men were asked into the dining room, where they were provided with refreshments for themselves and their lady partners. Punch and candies were served during the evening by George Dovey and Nora Livingston. Promptly at 12 o'clock George Dovey blew taps on the bugle for the death of the old year and reveille for the birth of the new, and immediately following this a beautiful and appropriate toast was given by Mr. Byron Arries and drank to by all those present. The party dispersed at about 1 o'clock. The boys and girls having spent a very enjoyable evening. Those present were: Misses Margaret Doupelan, Nora Rosenbergs, Jeanette Patterson, Emma Cummins, Muriel Cummins, Marie and Gretchen Donnelly, Bonnie Hussey, Nora Livingston, Honor Seybert, Barbara and Harriet Clements, Madeline Minor, Lillian Bajack, Edith Dovey; Messrs. John Falter, Sam Widdham, Major Arries, Evan Noble, Milton Austin, Ralph Marshall, Donald Arries, Waldemar Soennichsen, George T. Dovey, Dwight Patterson, Alfred Humphreys of Kearney, Carl Schmidtmann, Henry McMaken, Marion Dickson, Byron Arries, Charles Dovey, Tom Kennish; Messrs and Mesdames Rea F. Patterson, George Falter, George Dovey.

PLATTSMOUTH PROOF

Should Convince Every Platts-mouth Reader. The frank statement of a neighbor, telling the merits of a remedy. Bids you pause and believe. The same endorsement. By some stranger far away. Commands no belief at all. Here's a Platts-mouth case. A Platts-mouth citizen testifies. Read and be convinced. E. M. Buttery, Tenth and Walnut streets, Platts-mouth, Neb., says: "I still use Doan's Kidney Pills occasionally and recommend them just as highly as ever. I used Doan's Kidney Pills for pain in my back and hips and other symptoms of kidney trouble. The quick relief they brought warrants me in endorsing them." "When Your Back is Lame, Remember the Name." Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—ask distinctly for Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Buttery had. 50c all stores. Enjoyable Dancing Party.

From Friday's Daily. Last evening a number of the young men of the city gave a most enjoyable dancing party at Coates' hall, which was attended by some thirty couples of the younger society set, and the occasion was a very enjoyable one for everyone present. A number of the newer dances and tangos were indulged in by the young people until the midnight hour. The music for the occasion was furnished by Miss Marie Fitzgerald on the piano, and W. R. Holly, the virtuoso, on the violin.

MASQUERADE BALL NEW YEAR EVE WAS A GRAND BIG SUCCESS

The masquerade ball given Wednesday evening at Coates' hall by the Cosmopolitan club was one of the most successful ever given in the city and there was a very large attendance of dancers, attired in all manner of costumes, and some very handsome, as well as unique ones, were displayed on the floor and the number of maskers was so large that the work of the judges was made very difficult in making the award, but after viewing the grand march they decided that Miss Ella Newman as a representative of winter, was the winner of the first ladies' prize, while Mrs. George Bruhl was awarded the second ladies' prize for her costume as a colored lady. George Bruhl carried off the first gentlemen's prize for his representation of a swell colored man, and Harry Boeskscocker of Nebraska City, dressed as a policeman, secured the second prize, but it was largely the comical actions of the man, instead of the costume, that secured the prize. The Holly orchestra furnished the music for the dance, which was very pleasing to the dancers that were gathered on the floor.

Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Hendricks, residing south of this city, were visiting here Saturday. Mrs. Hendricks called at this office and renewed their subscription.

FAMILY REUNION OF THE WETENKAMPS NEW YEAR YEAR NIGHT

The home of Mrs. Martha Wetenkamp of Mynard was the scene of much merriment on New Year's evening. The event being a surprise family reunion, which had been carefully planned by the children and grandchildren, who came with well filled baskets of things good to eat, and each one was willing to eat their share of the same, after which the evening was spent in general conversation and music. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Wetenkamp, Mr. and Mrs. Roy E. Howard, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Wiles of Weeping Water, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Wetenkamp, Elmer, Arthur, Mary and Glenn Wetenkamp, Mable and Charles Howard, Ellen Wiles and little Lydia Shaw, Mrs. Martha Wetenkamp, Miss Emma Graham, Grant Wetenkamp.

To Undergo Operation. From Friday's Daily. This morning Mrs. John A. Murray departed for Omaha, where she will enter the Omaha General hospital for treatment and to undergo an operation, in the opinion of her physicians, has become necessary. Mrs. Murray has not been in the best of health for the past few years and her family and friends have been quite worried over her condition, but they are trusting that she may secure relief through the operation and be restored to her former state of health.

SNEFFELS, COL. A. J. Walsh was badly done up with rheumatism and sent for Foley Kidney Pills which was the only thing that would cure him. Geo. Potter of Pontiac, Mo., was down on his back with kidney and bladder trouble and Foley Kidney Pills made him well and able to work. It is a splendid medicine and always helps. Just try it. For sale by all druggists. Sell your property through the Journal Want Ads.
