We Want to Make Thursday, Friday and Saturday Our Biggest Days—So Come Early and Avoid the Rush
V. ZUCKER, Manager FANGER'S DEPARTMENT STORE "The Home of Guaranteed Values"

Will Soon Move to Plattsmouth.
Mr. F. M. Welshimer and son, of Stratford, Texas, who for some time have owned considerable real estate property in this city, arrived in town this morning for a brief visit to look after their interests here. They had been up to Omaha to attend the concrete show and made this city a visit in returning home. It is the intention of both gentlemen to move to this city and make it their future home sometime during the coming summer, where they will make some great improvements in their property here, and also take up their line of work, that of contracting and construction engineers. They are concrete works of a great many years' experience and will be prepared to do all kinds of work in the construction line. They were pleasant callers at the Journal office and we found them to be most excellent gentlemen.

We Want This.
Manager Shlaes informs us that he is negotiating with the manager of "The Deep Purple" for one night. He says there is very little chance for such a company having a date open. No matter, let them know we are on earth. We may catch them on their return.

CHRISTIAN ENDEAVORS ARE BANQUETED
One of the Pleasant Events of the Season and Address of Rev. Salsbury Highly Appreciated
From Wednesday's Daily.
The banquet last evening given at the parlors of the First Presbyterian church by the Young People's society of the Christian Endeavor was a splendid success in every way and the young people who gathered at the church felt amply repaid in the general good time and the sumptuous repast which was served them and which attested the splendid ability of the ladies of this church in the way of preparing good things to eat.
The occasion was in the celebrating of the anniversary of the local society and was offered as an opportunity for the young people of the church to get together in a social way that would contribute to their welfare, as well as afford them a most delightful time. The parlors were very handsomely decorated in red and white, the colors of the society, streamers of these colors being festooned from the chandeliers, while on the tables the color scheme was carried out in red and white carnations, making the scene one of great beauty and a splendid setting for the gathering of jolly young people. The feast in itself was something that was worthy of more than mere mention, as the ladies certainly done themselves proud in the preparation of the feast, which was in the nature of a chicken pie supper, and the repast was one of the most delicious that has been served at any gathering of this kind in the city.

To act as toastmaster, George L. Farley was pressed into service, and although he was loath to take up the duties of the position, he acquitted himself with great credit and his introductions of the different speakers was very happy and pleasing to all gathered around the festive board. Miss Mattie Larson, the president of the local chapter of the society, in a very pleasing address, welcomed the members of the C. E. and their friends, and gave a short outline of the organization of the chapter here and of the aims and ambitions of the young people in their work for the church and for their uplifting.
Rev. J. H. Salsbury of Auburn was one of the principal speakers of the evening and in his address, "Golden Moments," he pointed out the many great gifts and opportunities that had passed by in the rush of everyday life and he pleaded for the higher ideals and the realization of the need of improving each moment in the good work.
Attorney C. A. Rawls favored the young people with a short and very instructive address on "Vitality," and this was much enjoyed and appreciated, as the auditors realized the deep interest the speaker has taken in the young people of the city, and the study he has given to problems that each day confront the young man and woman.

Lynn O. Minor had one of the pleasing numbers on the program, giving as his offering a splendid bass solo, and with the fine voice of the singer the number was thoroughly enjoyed.
Attorney A. G. Cole, who has been a resident here for the last few months, gave a very pleasant talk on "The Stranger Within Our Gates," and he handled the subject in a very clever and pleasing manner that won him a warm acknowledgement from all who were present around the banquet board.
On the subject of "Men Wanted," Miss Crete Briggs made an appeal for those young men who could lend their assistance and efforts in the work of the church and the society, and her remarks were clear-cut and right to the mark.
D. C. Morgan, one of the leading workers in the church, was on the program for a toast, responding to the subject of "Who Are Our Neighbors?" and he handled this in a very masterly manner that made a deep impression upon his hearers.
The program was closed with a very pleasing trombone solo by Ralph Marshall, assisted by Miss Honor Seybert on the piano, and this offering was one that was enjoyed to the utmost and showed great skill on the part of the young people.
The Journal advertisers are doing the business.

CEDAR CREEK.
(Special Correspondence.)
Herman Speck, from Louisville, has bought the "hotel" in Cedar Creek.
Henry Likewise, the ice contractor, is awful slow about putting up the ice crop for this year.
Mable and Willie returned this week from their honeymoon trip and are to start housekeeping at once.
Miss Gertie Meisinger came home Saturday to visit over Sunday with her folks and to take in the skating.
Allie Meisinger is very lonesome the past few days since his sweetheart departed. He says there is nothing like having a sweetheart. Never mind, Allie, she will come back.
Ashler Ault done some shooting Sunday. He went out along the bluff and soon discovered a large wolf sneaking along, and getting a line on the animal shot and Mr. Wolf was knocked out cold. Good for you, Mr. Ault.
Quite a painful accident occurred at the home of W. H. Meisinger on Monday, when Henry Thierolf received a very severely mashed hand during the corn shelling which was being looked after by the Thierolf boys, but he is getting along nicely now.
The boys in this section became involved in a chewing match over the school m'a'm the other night. Ben says, "I am going to take her home," and Walter says, "No, I am going to take her," but the outcome of the affair was that Ben had had the honor of escorting her. Walter, next time is your chance.

They have the dog cholera in Cedar Creek. Three died inside of three days. Somebody is going to get into trouble and then it will not be so funny; so, whoever you are, you had better look out. Will Schneider said he was going to get him a pair of bulldogs to keep the lobster away. He says they are meaner than wolves.
160 acres of Land.
Will trade 160 acres of land in Perkins county for Plattsmonth property.
