TWO MORE NAMES FILED FOR COUNTY OFFICE SUBJECT TO PRIMARY

Saturday afternoon saw two more names filed in the office of the county clerk for the honor of serving the people during the ensuing two years. County Clerk Frank J. Libershal filed his application for the placing of his name on the primary ballot for the democratic nomination for the office of county clerk. Mr. Libershal was appointed to the office he now holds by the county commissioners on the resignation of D. C. Morgan, and prior to that time had served during the four years' occupancy of the office by Mr. Morgan as the deputy.

A petition was also filed signed by a number of the republican voters, asking that Sheriff Quinton again make the race for the office he has held for the past seven years. He has not as yet filed his acceptance of the offer of the petition.

Stubborn, Annoying Coughs Cured.

"My husband had a cough for fifteen years and my son for eight years. Dr. King's New Discovery completely cured them, for which I am most thankful," writes Mrs. David Moor, of Saginaw, Ala. What Dr. King's New Discovery did for these men, it will do for you. Dr. King's New Discovery should be in every home. Stops hacking coughs, relieves laryngitis and all throat and lung ailments. Money back if it fails. All druggists. Price 50c and $1.00. H. E. Bucklen & Co., Philadelphia, or St. Louis.

Brief Visit in Platts-mouth.

Charles Teipel of Verdigrée, Neb., was visiting with Platts-mouth friends a few days ago, coming down from his home to South Omaha with a car of stock, and while in that city decided to come on to Platts-mouth for a brief visit with the old home friends. Charley is doing well in his new home. He was a pleasant caller at the Journal office.

YOUNG MEN'S BIBLE CLASS HOLD MEMORIAL SERVICES SUNDAY

The Young Men's Bible class of the First Methodist church yesterday afternoon held their annual memorial services to honor the memory of the members of the class who have passed to the Great Beyond since the organization of the class. Several very pleasing and appropriate musical numbers were given by the Young Men's Glee club, as well as a solo by Mrs. Mae Morgan in keeping with the spirit of the occasion. The address of the afternoon was delivered by Rev. W. H. McClusky, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, who spoke on the subject of "Things Worth While," and the address throughout was filled with many helpful thoughts to the young men who were present and his remarks pointed the way for them to higher ideals and inspirations in their life. The roll call of the absent members by Secretary Jesse Perry showed that three, Edward W. White, Oscar Hallstrom and Ben Glenn, had passed to the Better Land. The meeting was one filled with many tender memories of those who had gone before and the members of the class all felt a feeling that by these meetings each year they are brought in closer touch with their absent brothers.

The Forty Year Test.

An article must have exceptional merit to survive for a period of forty years. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy was first offered to the public in 1872. From a small beginning it has grown in favor and popularity until it has attained a world-wide reputation. You will find nothing better for a cough or cold. Try it and you will understand why it is a favorite after a period of more than forty years. It not only gives relief—it cures. For sale by all dealers.

FRED WYNN COMES NEAR MEETING WITH A VERY SERIOUS ACCIDENT

Quite a peculiar accident befell Fred Wynn yesterday, and one that he will remember for a time at least. He was at the home of Maldon Brown, and in response to a request, was in the space between the roof and the ceiling of the room below examining the electric wiring, walking carefully along on the joists supporting the ceiling, and in doing so his foot slipped and the next thing the parties in the room knew was the appearance of the lower limbs of Fred through the ceiling, having in the fall broken through the ceiling, but without doing much damage except to himself, as he found it necessary to use about $1.98 worth of plaster to do up the injuries received. The room below received a large amount of plaster, and in the future when Fred engages in this kind of service for his friends he will insist on being protected against loss of life and limb.

FIRST-CLASS CONFLAGRA- TION BARELY AVERTED AT M. S. BRIGGS HOME

What came near being a very serious conflagration was barely averted at the home of M. S. Briggs on Saturday afternoon, and but for the prompt work of the members of the family their home would have suffered greatly from the fire loss. It seems that Burdett Briggs was engaged in thawing out the drain pipe leading from the bathroom to the outside of the house, using a blow torch for that purpose, and in the operation the wood of the wainscoting in the room became ignited and started to burn in a very dangerous manner and for a few minutes it seemed doubtful whether the fire could be put out or not, but a liberal application of water carried by the members of the family soon subdued the angry flames and the loss will not amount to over $10, and Mr. Briggs and the family feel that they have certainly gotten out of it in good shape.

LITTLE CHILD OF MR. AND MRS. MIKE PRIES BITTEN BY VICIOUS DOG

This morning about 11 o'clock a vicious dog belonging to a family named Hraskey on Wintersteen Hill attacked and inflicted a very severe wound on a little child of Mr. and Mrs. Mike Pries, who reside in that neighborhood. The little one was playing around where the dog was, when it jumped on the child and inflicted a very long and ugly gash on the scalp that necessitated the services of a surgeon to fix up. The animal was not afflicted with the rabies, but is quite old and had been tied up for some time and was quite irritable and cross, and seeing the little Pries child proceeded to vent his anger on it, with the result as above noted. As soon as the authorities were notified the animal was ordered shot, and by this time it has been put out of the way where it will do no more damage to the children or anyone else.

THE FELLOWS WHO ARE KNOWN HAD BETTER TAKE THE HIDES BACK

Last Friday three men made a raid on the slaughter house of George Thomas & Co., north of this city, on the Platte bottom road, and purloined some six hides, which were in the slaughter house drying. The officers have a very good description of the men taking the hides, as one of them is described as being tall and slender, while one of the others was a large, robust appearing man, but there is no description of the third man in the party of men taking the hides. A reward of $10 is offered for the return of the hides or information that will lead to their recovery.

MRS. A. P. CAMP- BELL WAS LAID AT REST YESTERDAY

The Funeral Services Were Conducted in a Most Impressive
Manner in the Presence of Many Sympathetic Friends.

Yesterday afternoon the funeral of the late Mrs. A. P. Campbell was held in this city, the body arriving on the 4:15 train from Omaha, and was at once taken to the First Methodist church, where the funeral services were held at 2 o'clock.

There was a large number of the old friends and acquaintances present at the church to pay their last tributes of respect to the memory of this worthy lady, who, during her residence here, covering a period of twenty years, was a devout and faithful member of the Methodist church and one of the willing workers, who was untiring in her efforts for everything calculated to upbuild and strengthen the church of her choice, and in his sermon Rev. Dr. Linder alluded most touchingly to her service, under the subject of "Faith," and his remarks were most convincing to all and portrayed the Christian spirit steadfast in its belief in the doctrine of the church. A choir composed of Mesdames Mae Morgan, E. H. Wescott, C. S. Johnson, Miss Leona Brady and Messrs. W. G. Brooks and G. L. Farley, gave a number of hymns which were so well beloved by the deceased while living, and as the memory of the times the departed had often sang them in the church came to the friends there were many a tear-dimmed eye. The casket was borne, at the close of the services, to its last resting place in Oak Hill cemetery by the following old friends: W. D. and Ralph Smith, cousins of Mrs. Campbell; C. S. Forbes, C. M. Foster, G. L. Farley and L. V. Copenhaver, and the body laid to its last long rest in the midst of the city where so many happy years had been spent.

Among those from out of town in attendance at the funeral were Mr. McFarland, a son-in-law; Mrs. Parsons of Lexington, Neb., and Mr. and Mrs. Ben Davis of Omaha. The efforts to locate the husband, who was in California, were without avail, as his address was known only to Mrs. Campbell, and he could not be located in time to be present at the funeral, while the daughter, Mrs. Olga McFarland, was at the hospital in Omaha, where she was operated on a few days ago.

Elia Florence Rankin was born December 19, 1866, at Burlington, Iowa, and resided there for a number of years until her marriage in 1873 in Mediapolis, Iowa, to William Allen Martin, and to this union two children were born, one a son, died in infancy, while a daughter, Olga, was born in September, 1879. Mr. Martin died in March, 1879. Mrs. Martin and family moved to Platts-mouth in 1888 to make their home, and in September of that year she was united in marriage to A. P. Campbell of this city, and here the family resided until December, 1908, when they moved to Lexington, Nebraska, where they have resided since that time, Mrs. Campbell making her home with her daughter, Mrs. Olga McFarland, in that city. Besides the husband and daughter, one sister, Mrs. J. H. Gorman, of Fresno, California, and one brother, Charles Rankin, residing in Missouri, are left to mourn her loss.

Chronic Stomach Trouble Cured. There is nothing more discouraging than a chronic disorder of the stomach. Is it not surprising that many suffer for years with such an ailment when a permanent cure is within their reach and may be had for a trifle? "About one year ago," says P. H. Beck, of Wakelee, Mich., "I bought a package of Chamberlain's Tablets, and since using them I have felt perfectly well. I had previously used any number of different medicines, but none of them were of any lasting benefit." For sale by all dealers.

For Sale. Assorted eggs for setting, $2.00 per hundred. Also duck and geese eggs. Mrs. Fred Spangler, Phone 2404.

One of the thinnest shows of the season was in town last Saturday night.

Dr. Winterstein has turned farmer in earnest and drives a lumber wagon with great eclat.

Frank White's ice house came near going in the river during the late high spell of the Old Muddy.

John Leasley, good youth, brings us the first asparagus of the season and it was delicious. Do so some more, John.

Stadler, the irrepressible, is around as usual, and he has done some and put up a bran new awning for Mushizer, the barber.

Billy Neville has moved his billiard hall up stairs in the room formerly occupied by Dr. Chapman. The damps drove him out of the basement and now he has a new, clean place and the bestest Old Dublin porter in the place.

Arthur Woodford, near Weeping Water, who broke his leg some time ago, fell and broke it over again not long since and had to go through the torture of having it re-set. He has suffered a world of torture first and last.

A funny thing happened to Doc Jones the other day, and it wasn't so funny, either. Some how in coming home from down country Doc lost his pocketbook with $122.50 in cash and a large amount of due bills, notes, etc., inside. As soon as discovered he put back down the road and when near Jordan's was hailed by a boy who told him mother had his pocketbook. He went in and found Mrs. Jordan had it all right, and singular to relate, a perfect stranger, a "traveler" apparently, had found it near the house in the road. He opened it, counted the money, looked at the notes, and brought it to Mrs. J., asking if she knew such a man. She said yes. "Well, tell him here is his pocketbook with $122 in it and he is a lucky man," and that was all they knew of it.

Miss Lizzie Buttery has gone to Sidney, Iowa, for a long visit.

E. A. Perkins, R. R. man, was here Thursday and dined with Messrs. Holdrege & Co., on some of Hatt's beef. The boys live high in Nebraska, don't they, Colonel?

A steam ferry between Louisville, Cass county and Sarpy county is talked of now. Noyes says it will be put in the coming season. We hope so and wish it success.

Mr. Hesser sends the Herald some very fine bunches of early lettuce, raised we guess in the green house. They are wonderfully crisp and nice, and the good people ought to patronize Mr. Hesser abundantly.

T. W. Shryock moved his family to the western part of town last Thursday to the house formerly occupied by Jacob Vallery. He is going to enlarge his business and use the whole of his building for furniture.

They had a lively time at the council meeting last week Wednesday. The mayor and Dan Wheeler had a bout, and Wayman and Wheeler had two bouts. It was represented to the Herald as warm enough for anyone for a spell. It all grew out of Capt. Paine's assessment bill.

Our English friend, Mr. Young, of Weeping Water, has friends come from over the water, we see. Regular h'old h'englishers; honest and capable looking they are though, and we hope Mr. Young can settle them around him here in Cass county, in fact we are sure they will fare better here in the end than by going farther from markets, mails and home, for cheaper lands.
