MANLEY WINS A GAME FROM EAGLE TEAM

Manley Continues Her Winning Streak by Defeating Eagle at Manley Sunday.

Last Sunday afternoon the Manley base ball team of the Cass County league trimmed the team representing Eagle and won its seventh straight game in the league by a score of 5 to 2.

The locals scored two runs in the first, one in the second, added another in the fifth and counted her last run in the seventh.

The first half looked bad for the boys, when Trimble got a scratch hit to right and Crabtree doubled to center, advancing Trimble to third base. But here the locals tightened up and took the next three men up, retiring the side, leaving Trimble and Crabtree on third and second.

Manley scored two runs in her half. W. Williams and Rockwell were safe at first through errors. Williams was taking a good lead off second and Rocky off first when Skinner, Eagle's slab artist, in an attempt to catch Williams, heaved the ball over second base into center field, but "Billie" had his eyes open and dashed for third, and instead of pulling up at that station was given a "high ball," rounded the corner and took the home stretch with all sails set and crossed the rubber before the visitors knew they were in a real ball game. Rocky was also using his head, and when the visitors came back to earth he was standing safely on third and scored shortly afterwards on Rauth's sacrifice.

In the second inning Hugh O'Brien was safe at first on an error of A. Trumble, and scored on sacrifice hits by Miller and Lorenson.

The fifth gave Eagle a score. Skinner was safe on an error by shortstop and scored when Crabtree singled to center. Manley also added another in this inning, when W. Williams was safe when Skinner booted an easy grounder, went to second and third on two passed balls and scored on Rockwell's drive to the left garden.

Manley and Eagle each scored one in the seventh. The visitors counted their second run when V. Trumble hit to center, stole second and scored on Trimble's bingle to left. In Manley's half Ben Williams singled to center and scored when W. Williams clouded the horsehide for two sacks, leaving the score at the end of this inning, Manley 5, Eagle 2.

The other two innings passed quickly without any special features, and so Manley plucked the Eagle and sent that beautiful bird, the king of the air, home with tail feathers drooping. Watch the feathers fly next Sunday at Eagle—Eagle vs. Manley.

SUMMARY.
Stolen bases, Manley 3, Eagle 3; two-base-hits, Williams, Crabtree; double plays, Manley 2; struck out, by Miller 6, by Skinner 5; umpires, Tighe and Axe.

Conductor Waugh Is Hurt. From Wednesday's Daily.

J. A. Waugh, a conductor on an east-bound Burlington extra, while attempting to board his waycar at Milford about noon Tuesday, in some way missed the step and fell, striking his head on the journal box of another car. His head was fractured at the base of the skull, but it is thought he will recover. He also suffered from a severe scalp wound and was badly bruised all over.—State Journal.

Mr. Waugh and family resided here for a short time and are well known in this city and the accident will be greatly regretted by the many friends of the family here, but it is sincerely hoped that Mr. Waugh will recover and soon be able to resume his duties on the road. For a number of years Mr. Waugh has been a conductor on the Burlington and is one of the best men in the train service.

DAN CUPID AGAIN GETS IN HIS WORK

Miss Pearl M. Mumm and Mr. K.
H. Larson United in Holy Bonds of Wedlock.

A very quiet home wedding was solemnized at the home of Mrs. Margaret Mumm last evening when her daughter, Miss Pearl Mumm was united in the holy bonds of wedlock to Mr. Kund Henry Larson, in the presence of the immediate relatives of the contracting parties. The parlors of the Mumm home were very tastily decorated with white carnations and green foliage that made a very pretty setting for the happy event that was to unite the hearts and lives of these two worthy young people.

Promptly at 6 o'clock the bridal couple entered the parlors, and taking their stations before the minister, Rev. J. H. Steger, of St. Paul's church, repeated the vows that was to unite them for life, the minister using the impressive and beautiful ring service of the Lutheran church to unite the young people.

The bride was most charmingly gown in a costume of shimmering white embroidered crepe and carried a handsome bouquet of white bride's roses. The groom wore the customary black. Owing to the quiet nature of the wedding the bridal couple were unattended during the service.

Following the ceremony the young people were showered with congratulations and well wishes for their future happiness, and the wedding party were invited into the dining room, where most delicious refreshments were served.

Mr. and Mrs. Larson departed at 9:30 over the Burlington for Lockwood, Missouri, where they will spend a week visiting with relatives and friends, and will then return to this city, where they expect to make their home for the present at least.

The bride is one of Plattsmouth's most charming and talented young ladies and has resided here during her entire lifetime and here she possesses a host of warm friends who will wish her all the happiness and joy possible in her married life. Mrs. Larson is one of the city's most talented musicians and has for the past few years been engaged in the teaching of music. It will be a source of a great deal of pleasure to her friends to learn that for the present she will continue to make her home here with them.

The groom is a splendid young man of the highest character and integrity and all who have met him are numbered in the list of his friends. He is employed by the Burlington as a fireman, running out of this city.

GLENWOOD MILITIA WILL ARRIVE SUNDAY

Company I of Glenwood to Arrive Here Sunday for Practice at Rifle Range.

This city is to be given the honor of acting as host for the members of Company I, Iowa National Guards, of Glenwood, as the members of the company will be here next Sunday morning, unless the weather conditions are such as to make it impossible for them to get through. The company, in its full strength, will start from Glenwood at an early hour in marching order and expects to hike the distance to this city, figuring on arriving here about 9 a. m. and will at once proceed to the rifle range, north of this city, where camp will be made and the work of rifle practice started. The boys will not all remain here during the two weeks' practice, but there will always be a squad of the members here to practice during this time. The camp will be on the regular basis such as is used at the state encampments, with mess tents and military regulations to govern the conduct of the members of the company.

Company I is in command of Captain Humphrey, one of the leading men of Glenwood, and the membership of the organization is recruited from the best of the young men of that city. It is one of the newest companies in the National Guard, but has the reputation of being one of the best, and at the last state encampment won much praise for the splendid work performed.

The presence of this company of splendid young men will be the means of attracting a large number of visitors to the range to witness the work of the practice and to inspect the camp of the citizen soldiers of the state of Iowa. The range will be found a perfect place for the use of the boys, as it is equipped in every way by the federal government to carry on the work of practicing the marksmanship of the soldiers and increasing their standard of efficiency.

Platte River on the Raise.

During the past few days the Platte river has shown quite a raise at this point, where it empties into the Missouri, and the slough and usually dry channels of the river just east of the depot have been showing quite a depth of water in the past week. The heavy rains that have prevailed in this state the past two weeks have aided greatly in bringing the river up to its present state. The Platte and Missouri have both been very much below the usual standard of the spring raises, as generally during the last of May and the first of June they are both up and booming, but the mild winter and lack of a great deal of snow did not furnish the usual amount of water to aid the raising of the river to flood tide.

Come to the Air Dome tonight and spend a most pleasant evening.

Isn't it a pretty good proposition, after all, to be able to win a $1,000 Automobile, $400 Piano, $75 Diamond Rings, $30 Merchandise Orders and Elgin or Waltham Gold Watches free in exchange for a little work and effort during spare time? This is exactly the opportunity "The Journal's Big Booster Campaign" is affording you. There are two ways of obtaining votes—on coupons clipped from the paper, and paid-in-advance subscriptions to this paper on renewals and new subscribers.

The prizes will be awarded to the successful winners, according to the vote standing and division of districts, on August 1st. Each candidate is at liberty to secure votes and subscriptions, anywhere. Everyone who is of good character is eligible to compete. Call at, write or telephone The Journal Campaign Department for full particulars. Telephone 6-2 rings.

Span of Mules Is Found.

The span of mules belonging to L. B. Egenberger, which disappeared Tuesday night from the lot in which they were kept, made their appearance yesterday in the pasture of Joseph Tubbs, near Mynard. The animals had evidently strayed away from the lot and proceeded to explore the country, and finding the gate into the Tubbs' pasture open entered and made themselves at home.

FUNERAL OF THE LATE MRS. SOPHA HERMANN

Large Concourse of Friends Attend Services at the Home Yesterday Afternoon.

Yesterday afternoon at 2:30 the relatives and friends of the late Mrs. Sophia Hermann sorrowfully gathered at the home of her daughter, Mrs. J. W. Wurga, to attend the last sad rites that marked her passing from her earthly life to one of joy in the life hereafter, and the home was filled with a large number of those who had the pleasure of knowing her in the years of her residence in this city.

The services were conducted by Rev. J. H. Steger, pastor of St. Paul's church in this city, who preached a short but very eloquent sermon on the long and useful life of the lady, who had been called home at the close of a lifetime filled with helpfulness to others. A choir gave a number of the old well beloved hymns of the departed during the services, at the close of which the casket was borne gently by six of the stalwart grandsons to its last resting place in Oak Hill cemetery.

Frank Burr of Lincoln, Charles and Edward Ohm of Omaha, William and Jesse Wurga and Frank Ohm of this city composed the pall-bearers that tenderly assisted in laying to her last long sleep the grandmother who had been so dear to them in her lifetime. There was a wealth of beautiful flowers laid on the bier of "Grandma" Hermann, which attested in their beauty the loving feeling that had been here among the residents of this city, where she had made her home for the past thirty-two years.

Card of Thanks.

To the many kind friends and neighbors, who by their acts of kindness and sympathy shown us during the illness and death of our beloved mother and grandmother, we desire to express our heartfelt thanks. Especially do we desire to thank the employees of the Burlington blacksmith shop, the German Aid society, Degree of Honor, the telephone operators and members of the German Presbyterian Aid society for their beautiful floral tributes. May they find the same loving kindness in their hour of grief and sorrow.

GRANDMA RHO- DEN PASSES AWAY AT AGE OF 91

Aged Lady and Pioneer of Cass County Dies After Long Illness of Heart Trouble.

This morning as the new day was springing into existence the spirit of Mrs. Nancy B. Rhoden, one of the most highly respected and esteemed ladies in Cass county, took flight as she sank peacefully into the sleep that knows no awakening on this earth. Mrs. Rhoden passed away full of years, being over 91 years of age, and during her long and useful life she has had a great part in the making of the developments of the great west and of Cass county, of which she was a pioneer resident. The past few years Mrs. Rhoden has been unable to take an active part in the life of the community on account of her poor health, but she had retained a warm interest in the happenings of the community in which she lived. For the past three years she had made her home here in Plattsmouth with her son, George R. Rhoden, where she passed away.

Mrs. Nancy Rhoden was born January 29, 1823, in Howard county, Missouri, where her parents were among the earliest settlers of what was then the border of the great unknown west, and here the child grew up to learn the hardships that befell the pioneers in the making of this great western empire. Bearing the lot of those sturdy pioneers, Mrs. Rhoden was reared to womanhood, and in her native state was married in 1841 to William A. Rhoden, and the young people, with the courage of youth and their love for each other, started to hew out for themselves a future in the western country. In 1865 Mr. and Mrs. Rhoden moved to Nebraska, and in 1866 settled on a farm near where the present town of Murray is located, and here they resided for many years.

The family has, during their long residence in the county, been one most highly respected, and it has been a great pleasure to the departed lady that her children have fared so well in life. It was during these early days that one son of Mr. and Mrs. Rhoden was killed in warfare with the Indians, in what is now the state of Idaho. The husband and father resided at the old home near Murray with his helpmate and family until 1886, when he passed away, and since that time Mrs. Rhoden has made her home with her children in this county, and for the past few years has lived in this city at the home of her son, George R. Rhoden.

The death of Mrs. Rhoden removes a well loved figure from the community, representing another of the pioneers whose lives were devoted to paving the way for the coming of the benefits of an enlightened commonwealth, and there is nothing too laudatory to say for this grand good woman and her long and useful life and her uncomplaining bearing of her illness and suffering. She leaves to mourn her passing the following children: Mrs. Josie Cline, Cleveland, Ohio; J. L. Rhoden, Table Rock, Neb.; A. R. Rhoden, Chop Butte, S. D.; William A. and T. J. Rhoden, Ogallah, Kansas; Mrs. Clinton Morrow, Modale, Iowa; Mrs. John Connally, Turner, Neb.; D. C. Rhoden, Murray, and G. R. Rhoden. The funeral of Mrs. Rhoden will be held on Saturday, the cortage leaving the late home at 10 o'clock, and the services will be held at noon from the Eight Mile Grove Methodist church.

DEATH OF MRS. SOPHA HERMANN HERE YESTERDAY

Aged Lady, Resident of Plattsmouth Since 1882, Passes Away at Daughter's Home.

From Tuesday's Daily.

Yesterday afternoon death brought to a close the life of one of the aged and most highly esteemed ladies in this community, Mrs. Sophia Hermann, at the ripe old age of 89 years. Mrs. Hermann had for the past twenty-seven years made her home with her daughter, Mrs. Joseph Wurga, where she passed peacefully away yesterday at 4 o'clock. For the past few years "Grandma" Hermann, as she was affectionately known, has been afflicted with blindness, and although stricken with the loss of her eyesight, she bore uncomplainingly her affliction and awaited the Master's call that should bring to her the longed-for relief.

Sophia Charlotta Lau was born in Pappentin, Mecklenberg-Schwerin, Germany, August 14, 1825. Here, in her native land, she was united in marriage to John F. Hermann. To this union there was born eight children—Marie L. Hermann, Mrs. Sophie Ohm, Mrs. Christina Burr and Mrs. Lena Wurga of this city, Mrs. Louise Nehls of Oak Harbor, O.; W. C. Hermann, Carl W. Hermann of Chicago, and John G. Hermann of Denver, Colo., all of whom survive this grand good woman.

In 1873 Mr. and Mrs. Hermann departed from the Fatherland to found a home in the new world, and coming to America settled at Sandusky, Ohio, where they resided for a number of years, and in 1882 they moved to Plattsmouth, where, in 1887, the husband and father was taken from the midst of his family by death, and since that date the departed lady had resided with her daughter, Mrs. J. W. Wurga, in the west part of the city. Besides the children, there are twenty-four grandchildren and sixteen great-grandchildren to mourn the loss of Mrs. Hermann.

The funeral will be held tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 from the Joseph Wurga home, conducted by Rev. J. H. Steger, and the interment will be made at Oak Hill cemetery. All those who desire to take their farewell should call at the home tomorrow between the hours of 10 and 4 o'clock.

Miss Allison Johnston, who has been teaching at University Place, Neb., the past school year, came down to this city Monday evening for a visit at the home of Mrs. Gertrude Morgan. Miss Johnston taught in the high school in that city for a couple of years.

The Helpers of the Christian church will hold an ice cream social on the lawn at the home of Rev. A. G. Hollowell Saturday evening, June 20th. Ice cream and cake, 10c. Everybody invited. 6-11-14fd

Harold Hill who has been here for a few days visiting with his friend, Floyd McDaniel, departed this afternoon for his home, Floyd departed on the "stubb" this afternoon for Seattle, Washington, where he will visit his sister,

MURDOCK'S UP-TO-DATE GEN- ERAL STORE

One of the Finest Store Buildings and Biggest Stock of Goods in Cass County.

A special from Murdock, in speaking of their new store, says: The Murdock Mercantile Co., will throw open to the public, on Tuesday evening, June 9, the doors of the best equipped and most up-to-date general store in Cass county. At 7:00 o'clock on Monday morning, December 29th, 1913, the fire alarm was sounded in our little village and within two hours all that remained of the large building and immense stock of the well known firm of Martin & Toole were a few barrels of salt and a heap of smoldering ruins. Not a single article was saved from the main building. On account of Mr. Toole's time being fully occupied with his other interests and Mr. Martin's age, they announced they would not rebuild. Upon this announcement there were some who could only see the dark side of the situation and forthwith began preparations for the burial of our prosperous little town, but others more optimistic set about to find a means of saving the day. The plan of a stock company was suggested and interested parties placed the matter before men of means, and it was not long before a number of our substantial business men and farmers subscribed for enough stock to build a large modern building and put in a complete up-to-date stock. The building is of brick, 42x80 feet, with large basement. The building will be heated with an up-to-date steam plant. The wiring for electric lights has been put in and as soon as the expected electric line is put through the current can be turned on. The counters and shelving, show cases, fruit bins, etc., are said to be the finest in the county. The business will be under the management of J. E. McHugh, who is well qualified for the position. Mr. McHugh is thoroughly acquainted with the mercantile business in the buying as well as in the selling department and under his management assisted by Miss Viola Everett and E. H. Miller, the company starts out with bright prospects for a successful future. The people of this vicinity ought to feel that they have opportunities better than the average, for we feel safe in saying there is not another town in the state of Nebraska, the size of Murdock, with as fine a store as this one. On Tuesday evening of this week, a reception was tendered to the public, and everybody in that locality were tendered a cordial invitation to be present, and from all reports the occasion was a grand success. Nothing was offered for sale on that evening, as all were invited to call and inspect the building and stock. The writer is inclined to think if those who, five short months ago felt the social and financial interests of our town and community were passing through the valley, and the shadow, etc., attended this reception they received an object lesson well worth remembering. They found that where formerly stood a building of moderate size and rather ancient architecture, now stands a commodious brick building entirely modern, with fixtures equal to the best city stores. In place of a stock with the usual accumulation of twenty odd years of continuous business, they will find a stock entirely new and as complete and up-to-date as can be purchased by experienced buyers. The stockholders of the enterprise, with but one exception, live in this vicinity. They are our neighbors, our friends, and we owe them a share of our patronage.
