Train Is Somewhat Later

Plattsmouth parties who were in the metropolis yesterday and expected to return home on No. 14 last evening over the Burlington were greatly disappointed in this, as the train, which is due here at 9:30, failed to arrive until about 2 o'clock. The delay was caused by the fact that a freight car on west-bound freight No. 77, which came west just a short time before No. 14 was due to leave Lincoln, broke down, necessitating several hours' work before the passenger train could get through.

S. S. Gooding and daughter, Miss Stella, departed yesterday morning for Omaha, where they will visit for the day with Everett at the hospital, where he is recovering from the effects of an operation.

Good Reason for His Enthusiasm.

When a man has suffered for several days with colic, diarrhoea or other form of bowel complaint and is then cured sound and well by one or two doses of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, as is often the case, it is but natural that he should be enthusiastic in his praise of the remedy, and especially in this case of a severe attack when life is threatened. Try it when in need of such a remedy. It never fails. Sold by all dealers.

ANOTHER SCALP ADDED TO THE RED SOX BELT

Townsend Gun Club of Omaha Goes Down in Defeat by Score of 6 to 4.

Another scalp was added to the list secured by the Red Sox when they took the representatives of the Townsend Gun Club down by a score of 6 to 4, and were assisted in the good work by the errors of the visitors at opportune times that allowed the Sox to do business with the score board and hang the can onto the hopes of the visitors. Craig, the new first sacker put on duty at the initial base yesterday for the Red Sox and put up some game, proving a lower of strength at times when needed, as his holding was one of the features of the game. Pete Herold was back of the bat, and his stopping of the slants of Pike were all that could be asked. Herold, Pike and C. Smith were the heaviest hitters in the contest yesterday, securing two hits each. The crowd was not as large as the game really deserved, as many were in attendance at the Eagles' picnic, but those who were present were greatly pleased with the showing made by Pa Johnson's hopefuls and that the victory was won by the Sox cheered them, as it showed the boys were in fine form and ready to take on any proposition that might be offered them. The line-up of the teams was as follows:

Table with columns: Name, AB, H, O, A, E. Rows include Carle, Parriott, C. Smith, Craig, Herold, Mason, Aeries, L. Smith, Pike, and Totals for Red Sox and Townsend Gun Club.

Table with columns: Name, AB, H, O, A, E. Rows include Burns, Adams, Plat, Cog, Penny, Noone, King, Weber, Kline, and Totals for Townsend Gun Club.

MR. LEONARD JAY AND MRS. NELLIE SHERWOOD MARRIED IN OMAHA

Among the marriage licenses appearing in the Omaha papers yesterday was that of two Plattsmouth residents, who had visited that city as two and returned as one. The contracting parties were Mr. Leonard Jay and Mrs. Nellie Sherwood, who decided to take their friends by surprise by slipping off to the metropolis to have the matrimonial knot tied. The groom has been a resident of this city for the past year and is employed in the Burlington shops and is a young man well liked by all who have the pleasure of knowing him. The bride is the daughter of James Williams of this city and has made her home here for a number of years, and her friends will be greatly pleased to learn of her marriage and will trust that she and her husband may enjoy a long and happy married life.

Remarkable Cure of Dysentery.

"I was attacked with dysentery about July 15th, and used the doctor's medicine and other remedies with no relief, only getting worse all the time. I was unable to do anything and my weight dropped from 145 to 125 pounds. I suffered for about two months when I was advised to use Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. I used two bottles of it and it gave me permanent relief," writes B. W. Holl, of Snow Hill, N. C. For sale by all dealers.

Ike Somer of Omaha spent Sunday at the home of his sister, Mrs. O. H. Tower and family, in this city.

Displays Great Bravery.

In stopping the team of horses that ran over Little Lone Tower Saturday evening George Sitzman of this city deserves much commendation, as the deed was one that few men would want to undertake, and he did it without the least fear and his prompt action resulted in saving injury to others, as well as the destruction of the buggy to which the team was hitched. The gentleman certainly showed his clearheadedness in the excitement.

THE OLD SETTLERS' REUNION, AS USUAL, A GREAT SUCCESS

Saturday at Union saw the close of one of the most successful Old Settlers' Reunions that has been held in the county, and the crowd was quite large, coming from all sections of the county to be present at this occasion, which has been in existence since 1889, and is one of the annual events looked forward to with the greatest of pleasure by the old-time residents, as a time when they can all meet together and visit in recalling old times. The Burlington band of this city furnished the music at the celebration on both days and it was much enjoyed by the crowd of people present and those who have heard the band boys know well that they are right on the job. On Saturday there was an unusually large number in attendance from Plattsmouth, being called there by the ball game between the Red Sox and the Union team, which resulted in a score of 17 to 3 in favor of the Plattsmouth aggregation of ball tossers, and the boys took the opportunity to add to their batting averages, Carle adding to his laurels by a home run. The speeches on Saturday were delivered by Senator "Ned" Brown of Lincoln and Mrs. E. A. Kirkpatrick, on the suffrage question. J. E. Hunkate of Weeping Water also spoke in the morning. The reunion was quite successful and the committee and the residents of Union gave the visitors a splendid treat at the gathering.

THE AMUSEMENT-LOVING PATRONS OF THIS CITY TO BE PROVIDED FOR

The near approach of the opening of the theatrical season has created a desire on the part of the amusement-loving public of the city to learn the intentions of the management of the Parmele theater for the coming season. Manager Schlaes has secured a very fine list of shows, which he will present this year, a great many of them being musical comedies and high-class attractions of the very highest type. The season will be opened here on Tuesday, August 31, with the musical production, "The Musical Graces," which the manager feels will be most pleasing to the theater-going public. The following is a partial list of the attractions that will be presented at the Parmele during the coming year: "The Girl From Luxemburg," "The Blue Widow," "The Cow and the Moon," Powell and McIntyre in vaudeville revue, "Where the Trail Divides," "Alias Jimmy Valentine," "The Under Dog," "The Call of the Cumberland," "Alma, Where Do You Live?" Later other attractions will be booked to fill up the time.

Hon. John Matthes, jr., and City Attorney A. P. Moran of Nebraska City were here for a few hours yesterday en route to Omaha, and the general candidate for senator stopped for a short visit with his friends in this city.

Costly Treatment.

"I was troubled with constipation and indigestion and spent hundreds of dollars for medicine and treatment," writes C. H. Hines, of Whitlow, Ark. "I went to a St. Louis hospital also to a hospital in New Orleans, but no cure was effected. On returning home I began taking Chamberlain's Tablets, and worked right along. I used them for some time and am now all right." Sold by all dealers.

Dan O'Brien came down from Gibson yesterday and visited here over Sunday with relatives and friends.

IN PLATTSMOUTH FORTY YEARS AGO

Items of Interest to Our Readers Gleaned from the Newspaper Files of Many Years Ago.

A Greenwood Letter to the Plattsmouth Herald Forty Years Ago.

Ed. Herald:—Sir:—Thinking you and the many readers of the Proclaimer of Cass county would like to know how the Queen City of western Cass is progressing, has been the means of inducing us to drive the quill for a few moments.

To those who have never seen our beautiful town, we would say that Greenwood is charmingly situated on the banks of the romantic Saline river, known in vulgar parlance as Salt creek. This is a splendid business point, and we venture to assert that the line is not far distant when Greenwood will rank first among the cities of the great west. The town does not exist that possesses better agricultural surroundings than this town does, and herein lies the secret of its greatness. There are two extensive dry goods and grocery stores here under the management of W. Eheredze & Son, who are doing a splendid business. Mr. Eheredze formerly resided in Plattsmouth, but some six years ago, recognizing the fact that Greenwood would some day make a fine town, he wisely settled on a piece of land about one and a half miles from Greenwood, and about four months ago he bought out the stock of Gus Hinkley. The other store is owned by the Futt Bros., formerly of Plattsmouth, too. These gentlemen are too well known and respected to require further notice here. We have also two resident physicians of unquestionable skill, viz: Drs. M. Youngstedt and H. D. Root. Dr. Youngstedt keeps a well-stocked drug store and is doing a good business. We have two blacksmith shops and one wagon and carriage shop, all appearing to be doing well, considering the season. Joe Connor is here buying corn, and it is simply astonishing to see the amount of corn that comes in and the boys. We understand that the B. & M. R. Co. are contemplating running another train as far as Greenwood, but whether this is just to accommodate Joe, or whether they calculate running it further than Greenwood we have not yet ascertained.

We have just organized a debating society to be known as "The Greenwood Debating and Literary Society," with a good string of members. The officers elected are, President, H. D. Root; Vice-President, Edwin Jeary; Treasurer, L. C. Hanson; Secretary, S. O. Salisbury. The first regular meeting of the above mentioned society takes place at Greenwood next Friday night, and the subject for discussion is as follows: "Resolved that the Grange Movement in the United States was more a detriment to the Interest of the Farmer than a Benefit." Affirmative, J. Connor, M. Youngstedt, J. D. Rouse, W. Eheredze, J. Tutt, Olin Salisbury, H. Knowles, L. C. Hanson and John Faulk. Negative, H. D. Root, N. A. Cornish, J. T. Welburn, H. Jeffers, C. Youngstedt, Edwin Jeary, J. McWilliams, Andrew Tutt and W. J. Mastin. Craving pardon for intruding so much on your valuable space, I am yours truly, ARGUS.
