

Rugs, Carpets, Matting, Linoleums, Floor Oilcloths, Wizzard Mops and VACUUM SWEEPERS

Silk Waists!

White Silk Embroidered waists; long sleeves, flare collar—sizes 34 to 44—price

$2.50

White Crepe de Chene, accordeon plete—price

$5.00

Our Winter Stock of Night Robes

for Men, Women and Children—regular and irregular—are now ready for your inspection. Going at $1.25, $1.00, 75c and

58c

Fur Trimmings and Marabon in all Shades and Colors.

This Smart Ladies' Jumper Dress

is included with many other stunning chic styles in the new December Butterick Fashion Sheet. You may call at our Butterick Pattern Department and get a copy FREE.

"Forest Mills" —Fine Weave— -Knit Underwear!

Fine in fabric, perfect in workmanship. The cold winter days are drawing fast upon us. Have your winter underwear. Protect yourself from colds and sickness by wearing

Forest Mills Underwear

NOTIONS! Snaps, Wizzer Ties, Stiff Collars and Cuffs and Fancy Lace Ones; Fancy Ribbons and Baby's Knit Hoods.

Blankets—all sizes, all kinds and all prices.

E. G. DOVEY & SON

J. H. Donnelly departed yesterday afternoon for Lincoln to resume his duties as bank examiner after an over Sunday visit here with his family.

"Don't Lie to Your Wife." It pleases the classes and the masses. It has the punch and proves it. At Parmele theatre one night, Friday, November 13.

Ed. Schulhof departed this morning for Glenwood, where he goes to look after some matters of business there in connection with his piano tuning business.

Mrs. W. G. Matthews and son, George, returned home last evening from Omaha, where they have been visiting for a few days with relatives and friends.

Henry R. Gering of Omaha was in the city over Sunday visiting at the home of his mother and family here.

returning to Omaha on the afternoon Burlington train.

John Schneider and little son, Carl, of Murdock were in the city Saturday for a few hours looking after some matters of business, having driven over in the auto from their home.

Sell your property by an ad in The Journal.

EAGLE. Beacon.

Born—To Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Root, Thursday, November 5th, a seven-pound girl.

Jim Rivett, of Springfield, Ore., and Mrs. Charles Rivett, of Bethany, are visiting at the A. M. Trumble home. Mrs. J. W. Horn returned home Tuesday morning from an extended visit with relatives in Illinois and Missouri.

Freeman Stites of Brock, Neb., and Clem Stites of Julian, Neb., visited over Tuesday night with their uncle, Noble Taylor.

S. B. Short loaded his household goods and personal effects into a car the fore part of the week and with his family departed for Sioux City, Iowa, to make their home.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Lehmann left for Dodge, Neb., the latter part of last week, at which place they will make their home. The best wishes of their many friends here go with them.

Mrs. Alina Rakestraw arrived here from Arkansas, Sunday, for an extended visit with her niece, Mrs. N. J. Vinson, and other relatives near Eagle and Palmyra.

Word has been received from Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Mann of Chadron, Neb., announcing the arrival of a fine baby boy at their home October 13th. Mr. Mann is a former principal of the Eagle school.

George Oberle purchased the old harness shop building and lot on which it stands from Oscar Lehmann last week. We understand that George is contemplating tearing down the old building and erecting a fine two-story cement stone building in its place early in the spring.

Jerome Burdick loaded two carloads of personal effects Wednesday, and accompanied by his eldest son, departed for South Dakota, where they will make their future home. Mrs. Burdick and children will follow in a few days. We are sorry to lose this family from this community, but wish them unbounded success in their new home.

NEHAWKA. News.

Mrs. Holmes and the two children left on the early train for their home in Rawlins after a short visit to home folks here.

Mrs. Humphrey, Mrs. Banning, Mrs. Cunningham, Miss Mae Vallery were entertained at dinner yesterday at the E. A. Kirkpatrick home.

Milton, the little son of Mrs. William Chandler, was taken to Lincoln this week for surgical attention on account of an affection of his ear.

Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Hillborn were here this week from Lincoln. They have just recently returned from South Dakota, where they spent the summer.

Corn husking is in full swing and the musical thump of the ears in the hush of a frosty morning sound good—chart—we sleep by an open window.

W. I. Smoot, the contractor who is erecting the auditorium, smashed one front wheel and sprung the axle on his car Saturday in a successful effort to avoid running into a buggy on the bridge south of town.

The apple crop at the big Pollard orchard was only about one-half what it was last year, many of the trees that bore so heavily last season having none at all. Prices were a little better this year, and quality was our standard.

John Griffith of Mexico, who has been in Lincoln since the Mexican war broke out, is here visiting his cousins, the Griffith boys. He has worked in Mexico for many years, but because of the unsettled conditions came back to Nebraska in May.

Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Pollard and son, George, came in Sunday morning from Vermont, where they have been visiting for the past six weeks. George Switzer accompanied them back from Ohio, where he spent the time while they were farther east. They all report a good visit, except that Mr. Switzer was quite sick for a time.

Try This for Your Cough.

Thousands of people keep coughing because unable to get the right remedy. Coughs are caused by Inflammation of Throat and Bronchial Tubes. What you need is to soothe this inflammation. Take Dr. King's New Discovery, it penetrates the delicate mucous lining, raises the phlegm and quickly relieves the congested membranes. Get a 50c bottle from your druggist. "Dr. King's New Discovery quickly and completely stopped my cough," writes J. R. Watts, Floydale, Texas. Money back if not satisfied, but it nearly always helps.

LOUISVILLE. Courier.

Ed McNeely left this week for the south, where he spends every winter because of ill health.

Chas. Hoover was home from Lincoln this week visiting old friends and registering his vote on the side of the down-trodden women.

Pearl Mayfield is home from the Wayne normal school spending a week's vacation during the State Teachers' association meeting at Omaha, all of the teachers being in attendance.

James Masters and family returned Tuesday evening from a ten days' visit with relatives in Atchison. Ed Eager took charge of the semaphore during Mr. Master's absence.

Andy Lutkins of the Lincoln-Omaha Railway and Electric Light company, is back to town and rumor has it that there will be something doing in the extension of their lines before snow flies.

Mrs. William Trembley left Saturday for Denver, where she will spend several weeks with Mr. Trembley's mother, for the benefit of her health. Her friends in this vicinity hope she will return much improved.

The many Louisville friends of T. C. Amick will learn with surprise and regret that he is in a hospital at Tekamah, Neb., where he underwent a very critical surgical operation for the removal of a tumorous growth on his neck.

L. F. Haddon underwent a second operation Wednesday morning at his home on Cherry street, this time having his appendix removed. At time of going to press he was reported resting well and the attending physician has every hope that his recovery through his case was a most dangerous one.

Claude Seivers is carrying his port side in a sling and all because his motorcycle going at forty miles an hour ran into a brick and the animal jumped the track. Claude ascended in the air as gracefully as Beachey, but the "hit" he made on alighting was fully as great, and that he came out altogether is a miracle. His machine was damaged considerably and they will both be on the sick list for some time.

ELMWOOD. Leader-Echo.

Pearl Woodard, who has been on the sick list for a week or so, is able to be around again.

Mrs. Milligan of San Bernardino, Cal., a former resident of this community, is here visiting Mrs. Mollie Royer and her many other friends.

Ray Eidenmiller and family of Holt county came in Friday and will spend a week or so visiting with their relatives here.

Dr. G. W. Todd and family of Omaha were in the city Sunday visiting with friends. The doctor was formerly an Elmwood dentist.

Mr. and Mrs. Sylvester Baldwin, of near Des Moines, Ia., returned Saturday to their home after a ten days' visit at the home of the latter's brother, John Turner, and wife.

Mrs. M. A. Gollagher was taken to Lincoln Monday and was operated on for appendicitis. She has been suffering for a long time with this affliction. She is getting along nicely.

Otis Neely, who has been farming on his brother's place, Dr. J. M. Neely, and who left for Texas a short time ago, is now located at Fairwell, Texas. He had his goods, which were stored back of the American Exchange bank, shipped to that place on Tuesday.

William Vogt, who has been working for Marivan McCrory, shucking corn, was taken seriously ill last week. He was found to be suffering with a very severe case of appendicitis. On Monday he was taken to Lincoln and an operation was performed to relieve him from his affliction. At last report he was getting along all right. He is a brother of Henry Vogt of this place.

On Tuesday morning Mr. and Mrs. W. H. H. Cassel received the news that their son, Earl Cassel, who lives at Valparaiso, Neb., was dangerously sick with a complication of diseases, and was in the Clarkson hospital at Omaha, where he was undergoing an operation and treatment for the same. His condition was considered so serious that Mr. and Mrs. Cassel were requested to come to his bedside immediately. They left for Omaha Wednesday morning.

Just received—A car of Early Ohio potatoes, 70c a bushel. A. G. Bach & Co.

Do Your Christmas Shopping

NOW!

ONLY SEVEN WEEKS UNTIL CHRISTMAS!

On Thursday, November 12th,

we will have regular $1.25 kimono on sale for 98c. These kimono make lovely and practical Christmas presents and are unusual values for the price.

We have just received an excellent assortment of ladies' and men's bath robes. These bath robes are exceptionally nice ones, and we expect them to go rapidly. Do not hesitate too long before coming in to see them. We also have a few sample serge skirts and dresses left which we will dispose of at reduced prices.

APPLES!

Ben Davis Apples at 90c per bushel while they last.

Wine Sap Apples at $1.25 per bushel.

A car of New York Baldwins has just arrived and are of excellent quality. Telephone for prices on barrel lots.

POTATOES!

White Potatoes at 65c per bushel.

H. M. SOENNICHSEN,

Phone 53 and 54

The Daylight Store

WEeping WATER.
Republican.

UNION.
Ledger.

Mrs. M. A. Harmer enjoyed a visit Saturday until Monday from her sister, Mrs. Isaac (captain) Wiles and husband of Plattsmouth.

Riley Rector left today for a visit with his son, Frank, and his daughter, Mrs. Frank Fitzpatrick, and their families at Stockton, Kan.

Mrs. Joy Sipple and her two children of Ord came in Wednesday for a visit with her sister, Mrs. Frank Edelman, and other relatives.

James McNamee and nephew, Glen Biggs, went to Falls City Tuesday to spend a few days visiting the former's sons, Arthur and Clyde, and wives.

Francis Baldwin, who is working in the Missouri Pacific round house at Omaha, was at home Sunday. "Dutch" expects to go on the road as a fireman soon.

Mrs. W. D. Ambler returned last Thursday from a month's stay in Illinois, where she was called by the illness of her niece, who had a long siege of typhoid fever. She left her some better.

Harry Leffler, who has been working in the Burgess-Nash store in Omaha, resigned his position last week and after a week's visit at home returned to Omaha Tuesday to attend a business college.

Isaac Wiles purchased the splendid $4,000 home of Dr. J. E. Huneate on the south side last week. Mr. and Mrs. Wiles have made a good selection of a home and are the kind of people we like to see locate in our town. They get possession December 1st.

County Commissioners Heebner, Jordan and Pitz were in town Wednesday looking over the proposition of putting in a new bridge across the creek in the southeast part of town. A bridge here is very much needed by the traveling public, especially the school children.

Just received—A car of Early Ohio potatoes, 70c a bushel. A. G. Bach & Co.

Mrs. James W. Taylor has been at Woodrow, Mont., the past two weeks, visiting her son, Alva Stites, and wife.

Mrs. Ida Applegate went to Plattsmouth on the Wednesday evening train to visit her daughter, Mrs. Wayne Dickson.

Mrs. Myron Lynde departed on the flyer yesterday afternoon for Springfield, Mo., where she will visit her son, Dee Lynde, and wife.

Miss Hallie Daniel has arrived home from a six weeks' visit with relatives at Marion, Va., and Bristol, Tenn. Miss Daniel had a delightful visit, but is very happy to be at home again.

Mrs. George Eaton and daughter, Mrs. James Niday, arrived home Saturday evening from St. Joseph, where they had been called a few days previously by the death of a relative.

Miss Mary Veale of DeWitt, Ark., who was here visiting the Hoback families, departed Sunday evening for Omaha to make a visit there before returning to her home in Arkansas.

J. D. Graves of Peru, a brother of the editor, stopped here yesterday morning and made us a short visit while making an auto trip to Murray and Rock Bluffs to visit and look after some business affairs.

Mrs. Atha Delaney departed Sunday for an extended visit with relatives in the east and expects to be gone several months. She will go first to Ohio and from there to several points in Pennsylvania, thence go to Hall City, Florida, to visit her son, Hallie Delaney, and family and Amos McNamee.

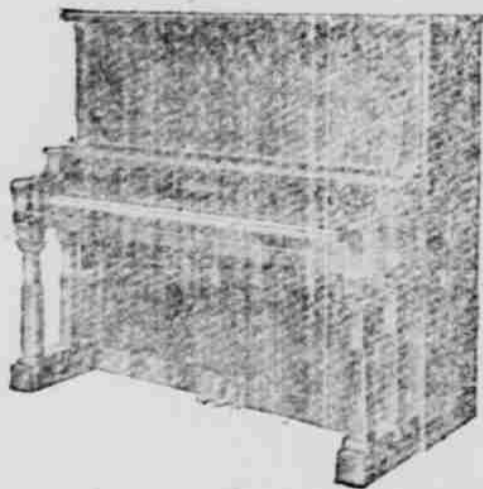

At St. Mark's Lutheran church, Omaha, on Thursday, October 29, 1914, occurred the happy marriage of Miss Lula Garrens, a well known and popular Union girl, to Mr. Robert H. Brewer, Jr., of Omaha. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Groh, pastor of St. Mark's, in the presence of numerous friends and relatives of the contracting parties.

Wedding stationery at the Journal office.

This Elegant Segerstrom Piano Given Absolutely FREE to the Party having most Certificates to their credit on May 1, 1915

How It Is Done!

This Piano will be given to the person or society securing the greatest value in certificates given with all money paid at our store. These certificates range from 5 cents to $10, and are given in amounts equal to money paid. We are going to make the contest interesting to everybody, and want all regular customers to bring their friends to the store and commence now and save certificates.

Nominate Someone!....

In order that everyone may have a chance to express his or her desire as to who should have the Piano (regardless of whether or not they trade here), it is our desire that everybody make use of the nominating coupon to nominate the one of his or her choice, and send it to the store as soon as possible.

(Fill Out, Cut Out and Mail, or Bring to Our Store)

Nomination Coupon

I wish to nominate as a candidate in your piano contest

I understand this is merely a nomination, not a vote, and does not obligate me in any way.

Name.....
Date..... Address.....

Cut OUT

Sign Name

Bring to Store Today

G. P. EASTWOOD,

Plattsmouth,

Nebraska

PLATTSMOUTH'S Basket Store!

OPPOSITE JOURNAL OFFICE

Potatoes 65c bu.

(MINNESOTA BURBANKS)

Will Deliver all Potatoes Ordered. Best potatoes for Winter. Lay in your supply NOW and SAVE money.

Bananas 15c per dozen—always

Oranges 15c per dozen and up

Grape Fruit 5c each

Cocoa Nuts 2 for 15c Nehawka Cidar

Always remember we save you money on everything. See us first.

OPEN EVENINGS.

PHONE