DON'T TAKE RISKS!
PROTECT YOURSELF

A GREAT many folks think this is the time to "take a chance." They close their bank accounts and plunge into the perilous stream of SPECULATION, sink or swim. In the past we have seen so FEW SUCCESSES and so many, many UTTER FAILURES that we say to you HONESTLY and SINCERELY, "Don't take risks; protect yourself."

Remember the Presbyterian Bazaar on Saturday, December 5th, and take dinner and supper with the ladies at the church.

The Kenosha Whist club met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Shrader in Murray last Friday evening. The usual good time was had by the large crowd in attendance. Excellent refreshments were served at the customary hour, and the usual program of music, both instrumental and vocal, and the whist games prevailed until a late hour, which only arrived too soon.

Will Murray Have Light?

A representative of the Alamo Engine and Lighting company in company with their local representative, Louie Puls, was in Murray Tuesday of this week, interviewing a number of the citizens along the line of placing in an electric light plant in Murray. Arrangements were made for the meeting of a number of the representative citizens of the town, at which time the advisability of a light plant in Murray will be discussed, as to the expense of installation and thereafter in the maintenance. Should these men think the plans offered by the Alamo company are proper solution of the light question for Murray they will no doubt exert every effort to land a plant. The Alamo people make one of the best gasoline plants on the market, and are giving the best of satisfaction wherever they have been installed.

The Ladies' Bazaar.

The ladies of the Presbyterian church are preparing for their Christmas Bazaar, which will be held at the church on December 5th. They will also give a big Christmas dinner and supper on the same day. The usual sale booths will be arranged, where different articles in fancy work made by the ladies will be found on sale. The ladies have been plying the busy needle for some time in preparing for this occasion, and the people of the locality should turn out and make it a grand success. Many beautiful articles suitable for presents will be found on sale.

Accidental Shooting.

Clement Edmiston, the twenty-year-old son of Harry Edmiston, residing near Union, met with quite a serious accident Monday of this week while out on hunting. The young man was in the timber just north of the John Clarence farm when his gun was accidentally discharged, the contents of which passed through the young man's right leg, just above the knee. Dr. G. H. Gilmore, of Murray, was called to look after the wound, which was properly dressed, and the young man is resting and getting along as well as can be expected owing to the seriousness of the wound. Under all favorable conditions the patient will recover and will not be crippled in any manner, but it will require several weeks.

COL. JENKIN'S STORE
BURGLARIZED AT AN EARLY HOUR THIS MORNING

From Tuesday's Daily.
At an early hour this morning some party or parties burglarized the store of Col. F. M. Jenkins at Murray and successfully got away with the spoils of the robbery, consisting of some ten or twelve pairs of shoes, a duck hunting coat and several knives and razors. The entrance to the store was made through a window in the rear of the building, which was pried open with a pry made from a part of a brake beam and points to the job having been carried out by tramps who had reached there by train. The discovery of the robbery was made by Colonel Jenkins early this morning, when he arrived at the store unusually early in order to get ready to go to Omaha, and as he opened the front door he thought he heard the rear door close and a further investigation disclosed the fact that burglars had been there and made their getaway. A thorough search failed to reveal the whereabouts of the robbers and it looks as though they had made their escape. The value of the goods is such that if the person or persons doing the deed are caught they will get a good sentence.

FUNERAL OF THE LATE MRS. FRED
H. RAMGE, JR.

A Large Number of Friends and Neighbors Attend the Last Sad Rites to Noble Lady.

From Wednesday's Daily.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Fred H. Ramge, jr., was held yesterday afternoon from the late home, two miles northeast of Murray, where for the past few years Mr. and Mrs. Ramge have lived and made their home among an ever increasing circle of friends, who will miss the departed lady most sadly. The home was filled to its utmost with a throng of sorrowing friends, whose grief was most profound. Rev. Robb of the Christian church of Murray had charge of the services and preached a most touching sermon on the life and services of Mrs. Ramge and gave words of comfort to the sorrowing friends and relatives gathered around the bier.

The body was brought to this city, where it was laid to rest in Oak Hill cemetery, and was followed by a large concourse of mourners to pay their last long farewell to the young friend gone from them forever. The active pall-bearers were: Albert and Burton Young, Lloyd Gopen, Warren Wiley, Demmie Hiatt and Charles Read. A number of the ladies of the vicinity of Murray acted as honorary pall-bearers as follows: Mrs. J. F. Brendel, Mrs. T. J. Brendel, Mrs. L. D. Hiatt, Mrs. S. L. Lawton, Miss Viola Wiley and Mrs. Arthur Baker.

The death of Mrs. Fred Ramge Sunday afternoon cast a gloom over the entire community of Murray. In the passing of a woman like her it requires implicit faith in God to say, "All is well," when to us it seems impossible to fill her place in the home, where she leaves four little children, and in the community where she was such a favorite. She was a woman of ambition, able to overcome obstacles, ready and willing to help where needed. She had a faculty of dispelling gloom and one took on a new sense of encouragement after associating with her. The most beautiful tribute is to live so that we will be missed, and one could ask no more than that our friends stand as blank wondering who can fill the gap made in the rank and file of life. Mrs. Ramge was only 28 years old. She leaves a husband and four children, one boy and three girls, the oldest 8, the youngest 1 year and 10 months old.

Card of Thanks.

We take this method of returning our sincere thanks to those kind friends who so willingly assisted us in the recent illness and after death of our beloved wife and daughter. Your many kindnesses will never be forgotten.

MYNARD.

E. J. Richey has been receiving a new stock of shingles and sand the last few days.

Miss Eva Porter of Omaha spent Sunday at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Porter.

Next Thursday is Thanksgiving day—the day we eat turkey, cranberry sauce and pumpkin pie. O, say, ain't 'em good.

Adam Meisinger and Lee Cole have a new shelling outfit which they are willing to initiate at any time anyone calls on them.

Rev. G. A. Randall and wife returned home last Monday afternoon from Union, where he held services, both morning and evening.

Rev. J. W. Ebbree, superintendent of the Methodist church, held the first quarterly conference at this place last Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. Harva Barker and son, Albert, who have been visiting relatives here for several days, have returned to their home at Atlanta, Neb.

We are glad that pleasant weather is still with us, as it may not be long until the snow will be flying and we are having cold weather.

Revival meetings were begun last Sunday evening at the Liberty U. B. church by Rev. J. M. Eads, who will be assisted by Rev. McLaughlin of York.

Robert Propst was on the market last week for a new Joliet corn sheller. He says he is getting it so as to have something to keep the boys busy.

Farmers, with the exception of a few, have finished shucking their corn, and as a general thing they claim the yield was larger than it has been the last few years.

What Mynard needs most of all now is a good blacksmith. A shop here has made good money for a good many years, and there is no question why it won't do it yet.

John N. Schwartz came in from his home near Nehawka Monday afternoon, and in conversation with us he said that he would finish painting Will Fight's house in a few days. This is another nice home built in our neighborhood.

We are sorry that our old-time frier, R. L. Propst, is going to leave us. He has rented the Robert Windham property, east of the Christian church in Plattsmouth, and is moving there. But Robert for himself, he is not going to stay, as he will be back to see us.

ANNUAL VISIT OF OUR OLD FRIENDS, "MUTT AND JEFF"

Once again the merry-making "Mutt & Jeff" will be with us. The season of laughter is about to begin. "Mutt & Jeff in Mexico" in a brand new dress comes to the Parmele next month with a bigger and a better show than has ever appeared before under the well known title. Giving "Mutt & Jeff" a new and superior production each successive year is an act of diplomacy on the part of Gus Hill. Bud Fisher's eccentric characters can live for a century or they can die as dead as a "door nail" in sixty days, if allowed to do so, but it is decidedly to the interest of both Bud Fisher and Gus Hill to see them live for years innumerable, which they will do so long as Fisher is able to furnish "new dope" and up-to-the-minute comedy situations and as long as Gus Hill furnishes a new and acceptable vehicle for their work. Both of these gentlemen seem to be successfully keeping up their pace at the present writing. Mutt & Jeff in Mexico" will represent the "last word" in musical comedy production, everything being new but the name. The American public never wanted to laugh more than they do at this time. They seek comedy even in motion pictures. Gus Hill's mission since his entry into the theatrical producing game has been to make people laugh. He is the acknowledged dean of cartoon comedy production, never having offered a play of this sort that did not prove a success. It is, therefore, distinctly evident that the enormous success of "Mutt & Jeff in Mexico" is due to proper handling, by catering to the wishes and desires of the theater-going public. This season's show consists of a sixty-foot carload of scenery, properties and costumes. A cast of fifty capable artists and the inevitable chorus of pretty girls without which he "Phun Phest" would be incomplete. Don't miss "Mutt & Jeff in Mexico" at the Parmele December 24th.

THE CHRISTMAS TIMES SALE AND THE WAY TO GET THE MOST BUSINESS

How are you prepared to care for the Christmas trade? This season presents exceptional conditions. Of foreign-made toys there is a scarcity on account of the war in Europe. Yet there are plenty of the American kind to supply the needs of young Americans. So long as there are children, there will be a demand for toys. However, during the few years passed, there has been a growing sentiment in favor of the giving of useful gifts at Christmas time. Things of genuine utility will be called for this year more than ever before. The reason for this is that the war is making people cautious, and greater economy in purchase of things for Christmas will be marked. It is up to the merchants to supply the demand. The one who has prepared himself to deliver the useful and nice things, is the one who will win out, but in order to do so he must judiciously advertise what he has to offer. Christmas advertising is most important. Now is the time to begin. Six weeks more and Christmas will be past. Tell the people of your community what you have. Use liberal newspaper space, and if you have a mailing list, get out an attractive circular, and an earnest invitation to the people to call on you early while your stock is complete. Christmas goods are the kind that must be disposed of or carried over, and the carrying over of goods is always expensive and cuts a big hole in profits. The mail-order houses are already out with the most alluring kind of literature for capturing Christmas trade. If you want your share of business, get busy.—Omaha Tradesman.

Anyone wanting some article of needlework or fancy work for a Christmas present will find just what they want at the Christmas Shop which the ladies of St. Mary's Guild will hold Friday and Saturday of next week, December 4th and 5th, in the vacant room in the Riley block.
