THE FUNERAL OF THE LATE ANDREW B. PIRIE THIS AFTERNOON

Pirie was held this afternoon from the Burlington train No. 24, on which the body was brought from the late home at Atchison, Kansas, and the casket was taken direct from the station to Oak Hill cemetery, where the burial was had in the family lot in that beautiful silent city. There were quite a number of the old friends of the Pirie family present to pay their last respects to their old and well-loved friend. The services were held at the home in Atchison Sunday evening at 5 o'clock, before the body was taken to the station for shipment here, and at the grave the burial services of the Episcopal church was read by Dr. T. P. Livingston, lay reader of St. Luke's church and an old friend of Mr. and Mrs. Pirie. The widow accompanied the body to this city to be present when it was laid to its final rest.

IN PLATTSMOUTH FORTY YEARS AGO.

Joseph Hraskey has opened a picnic garden over-by the machine shops.

We are sorry to learn that the rain Sunday night did some damage to Dr. Schildknecht's premises again, although slight compared with the last storm.

A young son of Mr. Newell, the plasterer, was kicked by a horse Sunday; fortunately Dr. Schildknecht was handy and the boy was soon fixed almost as good as new.

It is about time that examination of Mike Schnellbacher took place. About matrimony we mean. Come, Mike, Billy begins to look married all over and your turn is here.

People's meeting. Scene—the street. "Mr. President, I move that the city of Plattsmouth be moved to one side to make room for Loomis's barber pole." "Second the motion." Carried.

Married—Mr. B. Hendrickson and Miss Nettie Johnson were married on Saturday evening, June 20th, by the Rev. Mr. Burgess. No cards, and the happy pair, or part of the pair, at least, leaves for Deadwood in a few days. The Herald wishes them much happiness.

Now some of you who have the money start a building association for Plattsmouth. That's what we need. Give the poor men that are here a chance to get a home of their own, newcomers a decent place to live in, and hold out encouragement for mechanics and others to settle here, by providing work for them to do. That's the way to make a town.

Weeping Water notes: Mary Fowler is worse again. Reed Brothers have come out in a $400 rig.

Mrs. Nelson Sayles has lately returned from the east.

Jim Owen has left town.

Mrs. Thorogate is at Tabor, Iowa.

Mr. Shank, from Lincoln, has been visiting at Sol. Beardley's.

Mrs. John Chase is very sick.

Mary Jinks has returned from Tabor and will leave for Colorado in a few days.

All of Seymour Reed's family have the ague. Garry Trent's family have the ague. Mr. Woodford's family have the ague.

Frank Wolcott's family have been having the ague. Mr. Ingersoll's family have been having the ague. A great many other families either have or have been having the ague.

Will Coatman and Bell Malcolm are married. It is the same old story, the parents objected and the young folks run away from home to be spliced.

The Congregational church is without a pastor. The church is somewhat in debt, and they propose to pay the debt before hiring a minister. Your correspondent has made a mathematical calculation to ascertain how long at the present rate it will be before the debt will be paid. During the five weeks they have been running without a minister just 25 cents has been raised towards paying the debt. At that rate it will be only just 114 years, 11 months, 26 days, 7 hours, 16 minutes and 1 second before the debt will be paid and they are ready to hire a pastor. Query: How long can a church live without a pastor?

Lucile.

FANS DISAPPOINTED WHEN SHAMROCKS FAIL TO APPEAR

The base ball game between the Shamrocks of South Omaha and the Red Sox, which was scheduled to occur yesterday afternoon at the local lot, was not pulled off, owing to the fact that the representatives of Omaha's new addition failed to connect with the 2:41 Missouri Pacific train and thereby disappointed the fans, who had gathered to witness the fray. The Sox were on the grounds ready to go, but no foe appearing they were forced to withdraw to their homes to spend the day otherwise than in attempting to take the contest from the Shamrocks. The failure of the visitors to appear was very much of a disappointment to the management of the base ball association, as they had been assured that they would be here.

WHAT OUR NEIGHBORS SAY ABOUT PLATTSMOUTH

Plattsmouth has arranged to make Saturday afternoon during the summer, entertainment day. The object of the day is to get town and country people closer together and to increase business for the towns people. There will be band concerts and outdoor entertainments, a rest room for the ladies and Plattsmouth ladies will act as hostesses and entertainers of their sisters from the country. A fine scheme and it will not only result in establishing better business relations, but likewise a better feeling of brotherhood and sisterhood between town and country citizens. Plattsmouth people are the best what is and they understand just how to do the nice things at all times.—Lincoln Herald.
