

DELIGHTFUL HALLOWE'EN PARTY LAST NIGHT

Given in Honor of the Woodmen Circle Drill Team by the Captain, Mrs. Manspecker.

From Tuesday's Daily. A most delightful Halloween party was given last evening by the drill team of the Woodmen Circle at the home of their captain, Mrs. M. E. Manspecker, and the beautiful home was filled with the jolly members of the team and a number of friends. The house was decorated in a most beautiful manner in the Halloween colors of black and yellow, and in the parlor and dining room streamers of yellow and black interspersed with the tiny black cats and pumpkins, added a pleasing touch to the scene, while the bright red haws added to the general wealth of color of the decorative scheme.

A number of the party came masked, which added greatly to the merriment of the evening, as the different costumes were very novel and was a feature that added much to the general enjoyment. Various games were played and fortunes told and the bright future that was outlined for the members of the party brought forth peals of laughter as they were enlightened as to the future.

As the evening progressed the grand march was formed preparatory to unmasking and the charmingly attired party formed in line and were ushered through the different rooms down into the cellar, where the settings had been made as "spooky" as possible and ghosts and pumpkin faces were on every side to bewilder the guests and made the witching midnight hour one of the most interesting and which brought a fitting climax to the evening's enjoyment. Each member of the team had brought a friend and to add to the extreme delight of the members of the team and their guests were given the honor of having with them Miss Dora Alexander, supreme clerk, and Mrs. Ida Kelley, supreme banker, of the Woodmen Circle, who came down to attend the event.

ADOLPH GEISE MAKING NEW HOUSE OF GRAVES PROPERTY

From Tuesday's Daily. Adolph Geise, who recently purchased the Drury Graves property on South Fifth street, is having it enlarged and fixed up in fine shape and will have a most attractive home when it is completed. Mr. Geise has had quite an extensive addition made on the house that will give him a number of additional rooms, and porches will be built on both the north and south sides of the structure, making it quite an addition to that section of the city. Thus another new addition will be made to the building record of the year 1915.

"COME TO SUNDAY SCHOOL AND STAY FOR CHURCH"

From Tuesday's Daily. Next Sunday is to be observed throughout the length and breadth of Nebraska as "Come-to-Sunday-School-and-Stay-for-Church" day, and in every hamlet and district where there is a house of worship the people are planning to make it a day long to be remembered in this great state. It is a day which has been proclaimed by Governor Morehead, and the chief executive of the state has called on all who can to get in the observance of the Come-to-Sunday-School day and do their part in the development of the fellowship of man through the teaching of the bible and the work of the churches of all denominations. The day will be observed here in all of the churches and efforts made to get in touch with everyone in the city to have them in attendance on that day in the house of worship of their choice, no matter what it may be. The teachers in the Sunday schools are planning to meet the trains coming into the city and extending to the strangers arriving an invitation to attend Sunday school and church, while others will call up the patrons of the telephone lines and urge them to avail themselves of the invitation and be present in church on that day and all are cordially invited to come and bring friends with them, that the event will be heralded throughout the country as one when practically all Nebraska went to church and Sunday school.

DEATH OF WILLIAM A BOECK IN THE OMAHA HOSPITAL

From Tuesday's Daily. Yesterday morning at the hospital in Omaha, where he has been for the past few weeks taking treatment, William A. Boeck passed away after an illness covering a period of several years, during which time he has been suffering from a stroke of paralysis, and this had caused him to be a sufferer from mental trouble and he had been under the constant care of his family for years. He was 53 years of age and was taken to the hospital three weeks ago, at the time when his wife also entered the institution, and was not aware of the death of his wife, which occurred at the hospital two weeks ago, following an operation for appendicitis, and the condition of the husband was such that it was thought best not to tell him of her death. Two children, Miss Gretchen Boeck and Elmer Boeck, are left to mourn the death of the father, as well as Henry Boeck of this city, an uncle.

Mr. Boeck resided in this country for a few years and later moved to South Omaha, where he was interested in the shoe business for a number of years, and later in the construction of cement buildings. He had lived in South Omaha for more than twenty-five years. The funeral will be held Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the Brewer chapel.

Charles Tigner, residing east of Murray, came up this morning from his home, accompanying Mr. and Mrs. Ed Leach to this city, and while here he called and added his name to the list of the Journal readers in his locality.

ONE OF THE FINEST OF MUSICAL COMEDY COMING

"High Jinks," One of the Cleverest and Most Catchy Musical Comedies Ever Presented.

From Tuesday's Daily. One of the cleverest and catchy musical comedies of recent years and which pleased thousands of the playgoers of New York and Chicago, was that of "High Jinks," which is to appear in the Parmele theater for one engagement on Monday evening, November 9th, and it is only by a stroke of good fortune that this show was secured by Manager R. M. Shlaes, as the company, which is to play in Sioux City the last of the week, had one open date in this state, and it lay between this city and Nebraska City to land the date, and Manager Shlaes was first to the management and secured the attraction at a considerable guarantee, but he felt that the high class of the company and the pleasing offering they are presenting was far too good to pass up and believes the lovers of a high-class musical comedy will appreciate it sufficiently to attend.

The company is one of the best of its kind on the road and is composed of only the best talent on the stage. The same company will be at the Boyd theater in Omaha on next Thursday, Friday and Saturday. The "High Jinks" company carries its own concert orchestra, which will add very much to the rendition of the musical program of "hits" which has been written by Rudolf Friml for the production.

Betty Bly, one of the Broadway favorites, is the prima donna of the company, while charming Mary Ambrose furnishes much a laugh with her clever work as comedienne. Whitlock Davis appears in the leading role of the production and is one of the greatest successes of the season as "Dick Wayne," in his production of "High Jinks." This is an offering that will please everyone and is one of the best companies that will be here this season. The company carries some fifty people with them.

W. C. T. U HOLD A MOST DELIGHTFUL SOCIAL AT SPANGLER HOME

From Tuesday's Daily. The W. C. T. U. held one of the best and most delightful social meetings they have held for some time yesterday afternoon, at the cozy home of Mrs. Henry Spangler on West Rock street. The parlors of the Spangler home had been very prettily decorated with chrysanthemums and which made them very attractive. During the devotional exercises the first psalm, the favorite psalm of Mrs. Jennie Schildknecht, one of the most faithful workers, was read. Another pleasing feature of the afternoon was the fact that six new members had been secured. After the school hours, a silver medal contest was held, in which a number of children participated and in which Miss Genevieve Whalen won the medal. Each number was given in a most excellent manner, many of them showing much improvement in the handling of their readings. The ladies of the W. C. T. U. will hold another medal contest in the near future and expect to have an elocutionist train the contestants, which will greatly assist them in their preparation for the contest. Prior to the close of this delightful afternoon's entertainment the hostess, assisted by her daughters, served an elegant luncheon, which was likewise most thoroughly enjoyed by the large number in attendance.

He reports Mrs. Stoll as getting along as well as could be expected and that it would not be many more days before she would be able to return to her home at Nehawka. While here Mr. Stoll had his subscription to this paper extended for another year. Mr. Stoll returned to his home at Nehawka last evening.

ED PARRIOTT IN TOWN FEELING AND LOOKING MUCH BETTER

Yesterday afternoon Ed Parriott came up from his home at Peru for a short visit here with relatives and seems to be greatly improved from his recent attack of paralysis with which he was stricken on September 2, and for several days his condition was most grave and occasioned his family a great deal of worry, but now he has shown remarkable progress and is feeling greatly improved, although the stroke has affected him to a greater or less extent. Mr. Parriott is one of the best known men in this section of the state, where his long connection with the work of the A. O. U. W. has brought him in touch with almost every community, as he has been very active and his friends are legion throughout this portion of the state of Nebraska, and in the Workmen circles he is known to the members of almost every lodge as one of the live workers of the order and who has had a great part in building the order up. The first intimation of the attack of paralysis came while Mr. Parriott was out walking a few miles from his home, when he was unable to speak for a few minutes and that evening the stroke visited him and for three weeks he was unable to feed himself, but is now able to use his hands and arms with ease and to walk around.

Ruhmann of Union were in the city yesterday for a short time looking after some matters with the county commissioners, motoring up from Union in the fine new Overland touring car of Mr. Porter, and while here were callers at the Journal office.

WHY YOU SHOULD PATRONIZE THE HOME MERCHANTS

Your Best Friend, the Man Who Stands With You Every Day.

From Tuesday's Daily. The home merchant. Who is he? He is the chap who meets and when you are financially broke, and carries your accounts until you are able to pay.

He is the chap who gives you back your money or makes exchanges when you are not satisfied with what you have bought.

He is the chap who stands behind his guarantee, and makes restoration of all losses that you may sustain on the goods you buy.

He is the chap who meets you at the door with a handshake, and lets you out with a message to the "kids" and a real come-again goodbye.

He is the chap who meets and greets you on the street every day in the year, and takes a neighborly interest in your family and your affairs.

He is the chap whose clerks and bookkeepers live in Nebraska and spend their money with you and other Nebraska people.

He is the chap who pays heavy taxes to help support Nebraska schools, and build Nebraska streets, and maintain Nebraska fire departments, and police departments, and parks, and lighting and water service.

He is the chap who helps support Nebraska churches and hospitals and charity organizations, and Nebraska lodges, and talks for Nebraska and boosts for Nebraska every day in the year.

He is the chap who visits you when you die, and follows your body out among the trees and tombs, as far as human feet may travel with the dead. He is the home merchant—your neighbor—your friend—your help in times of need.

Don't you know that every dollar that you send out of Nebraska for merchandise, is sent to strangers—to men who never spend a dollar in Nebraska, to men who would not trust you for a box of matches, to men who would turn you over to the police if you should enter their offices?

You don't save much, frequently nothing, when you send your money out of Nebraska and you take all the risk yourself of short weight or measure and of getting damaged or inferior goods. And don't you know that?

THE IDEA OF PUTTING CITY PRISONERS TO WORK IS GOOD ONE

From Wednesday's Daily. This morning Frank Myers made his appearance at the court of Judge M. Archer with a complaint checked against him for being drunk and conducting himself in a manner contrary to the peace of the community, and to this charge the gentleman acknowledged his guilt and threw himself on the mercy of the court and received as his punishment the sum of $2 and costs, and in view of the fact that the amount of "kale" necessary to liquidate the same was not forthcoming he was given a ticket to work out the amount on the streets under the supervision of the street commissioner, and at once was put to work helping make the streets more beautiful.

The plan of Chief Barclay and Judge Archer in putting the city prisoners at work on the streets is a mighty good one and will result in saving the city considerable money and giving them more work on the streets, and if continued will result in the professional tramps giving this city a mighty wide berth in the future when they get wise to the fact that to get in jail means that they will get to perform manual labor.

ANOTHER DIVORCE CASE FILED IN THE DISTRICT COURT

A suit entitled Joseph A. Halmes vs. Mary E. Halmes, has been filed in the district court and in this the plaintiff asks that a decree of divorce be granted him from the defendant on the grounds of desertion, and in his petition states that they were married at Kansas City, Missouri, February 19, 1901, and that on November 1, 1913, the defendant deserted him and has since continued to make her home away from the plaintiff. He further asks that the two minor children be placed in the joint care of the two parents until such time as they are of an age to make choice for themselves. Attorney W. A. Robertson appears for the plaintiff.

JUDGE BEGLEY SENTENCES THE HIGHWAYMEN

Thomas C. Byers and Aameh Mosher, Who Held Up Sam Folman, Go to the Pen for 3 to 15 Years.

This morning Thomas C. Byers and Aameh Mosher, the two men who had held up Sam Folman, the Omaha chicken buyer, south of this city, were arraigned in district court before Judge James T. Begley, and entered a plea of guilty to the charge preferred against them by County Attorney A. G. Cole. The court sentenced the men under the statute to from three to fifteen years in the state penitentiary at Lincoln, and they will be taken there as soon as possible to begin the serving of their sentence, and rid this county of their presence.

The law states that the sentence shall not be less than three nor more than fifteen years, and after the three years have passed their case will be in the hands of the state board of pardons, which can take what action they think is best in regard to the serving of time. The two men are not very good looking citizens and in all probability will get to serve a greater part of their sentence in the penitentiary.

Folman, the man who was held up, was fortunate in recovering his money, as he only loses $1.10 out of the $30 taken from him, as the two robbers paid $1 to be taken across the Missouri river by a fisherman and one enjoyed a shave out of his share of the robbery, but they were caught before they could spend any more of the money. The fact that it was not necessary to hold a trial in the case will also result in saving the county a great deal of money that would have had to be paid out if the two men had stood pat and demanded a trial by jury.

WHILE MOVING MUMM BUILDING THE PAVEMENT SINKS

From Wednesday's Daily. While moving the residence from the Mumm property on Vine street to the lot of C. H. Fuller on Granite street, it was necessary to move the house on Vine street to Sixth and thence south to Pearl, and while moving on Sixth street this morning a cave-in of the pavement in front of the Elks' building occurred and the pavement sunk to the depth of eight inches for a space of several feet, and it was necessary for a good deal of work to get the house past the sunken place and start in to fill the place where the pavement had sunk. It seems from the indications that the dirt here was quite soft and the weight of the house caused the cave-in, although it was feared at first that the sewer at this point had caved in, causing the pavement to settle.

Football by Lamplight.

Last evening the boys on Wintersteu Hill enjoyed a very pleasant time in playing a game of football by the aid of the electric lights, and a real exciting time was enjoyed in playing the game. The boys report that the playing of "Red" Neumann was one of the features of the game.

DEATH OF PERRY UTTERBACK AT COUNCIL BLUFFS

After an Illness of Several Years He Passes Away at the Age of 49 Years.

From Wednesday's Daily. Monday morning at his home, 2400 East Broadway, Council Bluffs, Iowa, Perry Utterback, well known in this city, died after an illness covering a period of years, and in fact, since leaving here some nine years ago he has been in very poor health and gradually grew worse until his death.

Mr. Utterback was 49 years of age and was well known both in this city and Mills county, Iowa, where he had made his home off and on for the greater part of his lifetime. While a resident here Mr. Utterback conducted a restaurant, and after disposing of his interests in this city he was interested in the barber business in various points in Mills county, going to Council Bluffs about three years ago, where he was employed by the Rasmussen barber shop until his illness made necessary his retirement.

He leaves besides his wife, one sister, Mrs. N. Ryckman, of Council Bluffs, and three brothers, Henry Utterback of near Cedar Creek, A. H. and E. Utterback, to mourn his death. The funeral was held this afternoon at 2 o'clock from the residence and the interment made in the Fairview cemetery. To those whom he was best acquainted with Mr. Utterback was a warm friend and his passing will cause a feeling of grief among those who knew him best in this section.

DEATH OF JOEL DIVID PARKER, SON OF MR. AND MRS. J. D. PARKER

This morning at 1 o'clock at the home of his parents on West Elm street, Joel David Parker, the 13-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Parker, passed away, after a few days' illness from a most baffling ailment, and while he had been complaining for several days, there was nothing thought to be dangerous of the matter until last evening, when the young man began to sink quite rapidly and the father was called from his duties at the postoffice to return home, and from then till the end the lad continued to grow weaker. The first that the parents knew of his being unwell was on Sunday evening, when he complained slightly and was kept home from school and seemed to be falling into a sort of stupor, and never fully recovered from this. Joel was born in this city on February 2, 1902, and had spent his few years of life right in this city, where he had been attending school and he will be greatly missed from the family circle, as well as from his young friends and associates, who will miss him greatly. The funeral will be held tomorrow afternoon and the interment made in Oak Hill cemetery west of this city. The sympathy of the many friends will go out to Mr. and Mrs. Parker in their loss.

THE RESTAURANT MAY SOON BE RE-OPENED

It is hoped to soon have the restaurant in this city, which was closed a few days ago, reopened under new management, as Messrs. Drum & Palmer are desirous of having someone take charge who will be able to look after the business as it should be and take up the lease on the property which these gentlemen have with William Barclay, the owner of the building and fixtures of the restaurant. It is sincerely to be hoped that someone is secured, as the loss of the restaurant has proven very inconvenient to the people in general. The size of the city should warrant the success of a restaurant of the first class.
