

HOW MUCH IS A GOOD LAUGH WORTH TO YOU RIGHT NOW

From Wednesday's Daily. Mary Ambrose, the jolly comedienne of Arthur Hammerstein's "High Jinks," has won fame and fortune with hers. Look at the picture two minutes and you can't help laughing yourself. It's contagious; that's why it's worth money. "There used to be an old accepted theory among our Puritan fathers that laughter was an ungentle emotion," said Miss Ambrose, "but if the blue-stocking colony had the opportunity of witnessing a musical jollity on the order of 'High Jinks,' it would have abandoned its severe and serious outlook on life. It would have done a little better and accepted the theory of Thaddeus Hood, that as smiles were tolerated by the pink of politeness and that laughter being but the full bloom flower of which the smile is the bud. It should be given unto us all to laugh and lapse into that elysium where all is happiness and serenity."

LEMON BATES DIES TUESDAY MORNING AT TABOR, IOWA

From Wednesday's Daily. Lemon Bates, for several years a resident of Cass county, but for the past few years has been residing with his son, David Bates, at Tabor, Iowa, passed away yesterday morning in that place after an illness of some months. Mr. Bates was born at Warsaw, Indiana, November 29, 1835, and when a comparatively young man came west and in later years was located near Nehawka, in this county, where he resided until moving to Iowa. He leaves the following children to mourn his death: Charles Bates, David Bates, Tabor, Iowa; George Bates, Nehawka; Mrs. Maude Krueger and Mrs. Minnie Sammons, Nehawka; Mrs. Fred Westlake, Eagle; Mrs. Nellie Gale, Minter, Minnesota, all of whom, excepting the daughter in Minnesota were present at his bedside at the time of his death, and the delay of the message did not allow her to reach Tabor in time to see the father alive. He was also the grandfather of Mrs. Frank Sivey of this city. The body will be brought here and the funeral held tomorrow afternoon at the Liberty chapel, south of this city, and the interment made at the Horning cemetery.

ENTERTAIN A NUMBER OF CHILDREN AT HALLOWE'EN PARTY

From Wednesday's Daily. The Christian Endeavor society of the Presbyterian church entertained a number of children at a delightful Halloween party Saturday afternoon in the parlors of the church. Various amusements in keeping with the Halloween season were indulged in, interspersed with various other games and amusements which children find so much pleasure in. At a convenient time refreshments, also in keeping with the Halloween season, and consisting of apples, cookies and popcorn, were served. The small admission fee of 10 cents was charged, from which the Endeavorers realized a neat sum, which will be used to carry on the work of the society.

SENATOR JOHN MATTES IN THE CITY TUESDAY

Senator John Mattes of Nebraska City, accompanied by A. P. Young and A. P. Moran, of the same city, were here for a few hours yesterday, being en route home from Omaha, where they had been spending a few hours, and while in this city the senator found time to visit a few of his friends and also was a caller at the Journal office for a few minutes, and the occasion was one that was much enjoyed, as the senator is a most genial and polished gentleman and one whom it is a pleasure to meet at any time. He has not as yet listened to the demand that has arisen in a great many places in the state to enter the race for governor, but it is safe to say that a better qualified gentleman from the standpoint of education and ability could not be found.

COMPLAINT FILED AGAINST WILLIAM COPE AN INEBRIATE

Complaint was made yesterday before the county board of insanity charging William Cope of Greenwood with being an inebriate and a fit person to be placed in the care of the state hospital at Lincoln. It is stated that the condition of the man is such as to cause great worry and it is necessary to have some man with him constantly to prevent him injuring himself. The condition of the man being such as to make it impossible to bring him to this city for examination, Dr. G. H. Gilmore of the board motored out to Greenwood to examine the man and determine what would be best to do with him.

"THE PLUNDERER" COMING TO THE GEM TUESDAY NIGHT

One of the feature pictures to be shown here will be that of "The Plunderer," with William Farnum in the stellar part, and the strong feature of the photo play makes it more thrilling than that of "The Spoilers," in which Mr. Farnum appeared. This will be shown at the Gem theater on Tuesday evening for 10 and 15 cents, and is a six-reel feature that is well worth seeing.

"The Plunderer" affords for William Farnum a real "Farnum Part"—big Bill Matthews of the Croix d'Or mine, a doughty, splendid steel-knit fellow, with a big, warm heart and a puna in each hand. Bill and his partner are harassed by a secret enemy who imprisons them in a mine shaft, causes a strike of the workmen and blows up the reservoir upon which the power of the mine depends. These are only a few of the thrills that keep you breathless—hanging on to the arms of your seat. The final climax, where Big Bill and his partner discover their enemy, is the most stirring of all.

A pulse-stirring battle with barfists in which Big Bill bests a score of drink-crazed miners in a fight, that for sheer thrills and heart-catching excitement has never been excelled on the stage, or screen, is one of the big features of this super-picture.

Then, too, there is a splendid double love story which leaves a happy glow in the spectator's mind. In fact, "The Plunderer" is as perfect a photoplay as has yet been achieved, and deals with clean, manly men, affecting sentiment, the lust for yellow gold and swift, dynamic drama.

DR. B. F. BRENDDEL GOES TO VISIT SICK INDIANA BROTHER

Yesterday afternoon Dr. B. F. Brendel of Murray departed for the east where he was called by a message announcing the serious condition of his brother, Dr. John T. Brendel, who has been stricken with paralysis, and his family have become quite worried and called Dr. B. F. back to Zionsville, Indiana, to be present at his brother's bedside. Doctor Brendel was accompanied back to Zionsville by Mrs. Parr, mother of Mrs. Brendel. The many friends throughout the county of Dr. J. T. Brendel will trust that he may be able to recover from his affliction and soon be on the highway to restored health, but his condition at present is most serious. He was for a number of years located at Avoca, in this county, where he was engaged in the practice of his profession, and possesses many warm friends who will learn with the deepest regret of his affliction.

"HIGH JINKS" AT THE PARMELE MONDAY NIGHT

Brief Sketch of Miss Eileen Gibson, the Leading Lady in the "High Jinks" Comic Opera.

Miss Eileen Gibson, of the "High Jinks" company, is said to be possessing of an education enjoyed by few women in any walk of life. Miss Gibson was born in Philadelphia twenty-one years ago, and for fifteen years studied under private tutors until last year, when she adopted the stage as a profession.

The young woman was born in Philadelphia, where her father was a noted physician. At the age of 5 she was sent abroad to begin her educational career with Dr. Wunt at Sandringham, England, and when she had finished the ordinary kindergarten course she was then taken to Berlin by her mother, where, under the direction of the famous linguist, Dr. Sneckelberger, she took a course in language.

At 14 she was in the conservatory of Jean De Reska, in Paris, and after a nine-months' course in voice culture, went to Rio de Janeiro, where she joined the South American Opera company.

At 17 she went to New York City, where she became an instructor in language, but the young woman became affected with a sort of wanderlust and a year ago became a member of Arthur Hammerstein's production of "High Jinks," with the end in view of training herself for grand opera.

Miss Gibson speaks nine languages fluently and is said by Prof. Munster of Harvard to hold in store for herself a career as one of America's greatest astronomers. The young woman is wealthy in her own right, but regards travel on the road as a chorus girl as much in the nature of a diversion as she does in the hope of fulfilling her ambition.

NEW SON BORN TO MR. AND MRS. E. P. STEWART

The news has been received here of the birth of a fine new son and heir to Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Stewart, of this city, yesterday. The little son is one of the finest men in the world, and being the first son, is a person of some importance in the Stewart household. The birth of the little boy occurred at Central City, where Mrs. Stewart is visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Cobb, and the occasion has been a most joyful one to the parents and grandparents and to the little sister, who will have a new playmate. The mother and son are both doing nicely.

HURRYING TO GET ADDITIONAL LIGHTS INSTALLED SOON

The Nebraska Lighting company are hurrying as fast as possible the installing of the additional lights ordered by the city for the street lighting and considerable of the new wiring has been put on in the residence district, and as soon as the new poles to be used in the extension of the line arrive the work will be completed. The new lights on Main street will be put in as soon as possible, and being of high power nitrogen lamps should make a great deal more light than those at present in use. They will be strung in the same manner as the present arc lights, as the most satisfactory means of handling them. The avenue leading to the Missouri Pacific depot will be much better lighted, as there will be a light placed in each block and which will prove a great convenience to the traveling public.

ADAM KURTZ VERY DANGEROUSLY ILL AT PLAINVIEW, NEB.

Adam Kurtz, who several days ago departed for Plainview, Neb., for a short visit with relatives and friends in that section, has been taken quite sick and his children have been summoned to his bedside, as his condition is such as to cause much apprehension. Mr. Kurtz has not been in the best of health for the past few years and his advanced age and general poor health makes his recovery rather doubtful. The family are all at his side doing all in their power to aid in his recovery.

LARGE CONGREGATION AT THE METHODIST CHURCH LAST NIGHT

Last evening one of the largest congregations that has been in attendance at the revival services at the Methodist church was present to enjoy the splendid sermon delivered by the pastor, Rev. F. M. Drullner, on "An Eternal Sin." Preceding the services at the church the pastor and the assistants in the services gathered at the corner of Fifth and Main streets and held a fine church meeting, which was not only largely attended, but a great deal of interest manifested by the on-lookers, most of whom later took part in the meeting at the church.

One young man, a stranger, who had arrived from Omaha yesterday afternoon, was present at the services on the street and later attended the church meeting, and when the call for those who desired to start life anew in a Christian spirit was made he came forward and related his story to the members of the congregation, and in it was one that is common to a great many in the larger cities, and in front of the assembled congregation he renounced his past and looked forward to the future with faith and belief in the Christian religion.

Special musical numbers are furnished for the meetings by the large chorus choir, and the attendants at the meeting are getting the rally song, "Help Somebody Today," down in fine shape and its thrilling and inspiring words are proving a great feature of the work of the meetings.

JOHN MILLER IS ASSESSED ONE DOLLAR AND COSTS

John Miller, who stated that he was employed as a section man on the Missouri Pacific, last evening strayed a little too far from the straight and narrow path and became involved in a heated argument with one J. Barleycorn, and although he attempted to put Barleycorn down and out he was only partly successful, as while he put him down he was not able to put him out, and as a result Miller was decidedly under the weather and was taken under the wing of the police and lodged in the city jail over night to rest up and meditate on the folly of his ways. This morning he was brought before Judge M. Archer, who decided that it would take $1 and costs to straighten up the matter, and Miller shelled forth the necessary amount and was allowed to go on his way rejoicing and with a promise to hereafter avoid the flowing bowl.

GREENWOOD WANTS SCHOOL BOUNDARY RE-ADJUSTED

Yesterday the board of county commissioners were presented with a petition from a number of the residents and taxpayers of school district No. 35, in the village of Greenwood, asking that the board make a readjustment of the boundaries of the district in compliance with the new school law, which would entitle them to additional territory for their district. The matter was laid over until later for action, as there is a case involving a matter of this same nature before the supreme court, and it is desired to get a decision in this matter before making the change in the district. There will probably be other petitions presented to the board for this readjustment of boundaries, and the matter may open up a most serious question for the different school districts if the boundaries are to be changed.

ANOTHER GREAT SHOW AT THE PARMELE LAST NIGHT

Another of the splendid bills of the Empress Advance Vaudeville was offered last evening at the Parmele theater and was enjoyed to the utmost by the large number who were present, and was throughout one of the most pleasing that has appeared here this season and was of a nature that gave an opportunity for a varied bill, and every act was a feature in itself.

The showing made by Swain's Cockatoons was enjoyed thoroughly and these birds showed an almost human intelligence in the different acts they performed and furnished a high-class feature act that was fully appreciated by the delighted auditors. McManus & Don Carlos, in their musical act proved one of the treats of the evening and these ladies, with their rag-time warbling proved a most enjoyable feature of the bill and one fully appreciated. Granville & Mack introduced a novelty in the performance in their Italian organ grinder sketch and some very clever comedy was enjoyed while these two were presenting their part of the evening's entertainment, and they received repeated encores for their extremely clever work. Something new and interesting in the way of acrobatic novelty was furnished by the Latel Brothers, and these two gentlemen, who are splendid physical specimens of mankind, were extremely clever in their various stunts and received well deserved appreciation from the audience.

The show was very pleasing and furnished an evening's entertainment hard to beat for their price. Three reels of high-class pictures were shown in addition to the vaudeville.

Omaha Couple Married Here.

Yesterday afternoon County Judge Allen J. Beeson united in marriage at the court house Mr. Frank C. Wood and Miss Virginia Gift, both of Omaha, the young people motoring down from the metropolis to have the matrimonial knot tied, and were accommodated by the judge, who performed the ceremony in his accustomed affable manner, and the newly wedded couple sent back to Omaha rejoicing in their new-found happiness.

Model Preparation of Medicine.

In the preparation of medicines, whether in small or large quantities, we should keep in mind that it is, in the first place, absolutely necessary to select the best ingredients, then to work in absolute cleanliness, to have a good and tried formula and to employ the most skilled and perfectly reliable help. This is the way in which Triner's American Elixir of Bitter Wine is prepared. That explains the great effect of this preparation upon the digestive organs. Both, the herbs and the wine, used in this preparation, must undergo a strict analysis and must be found perfect before being used. It stimulates the organs to work, relieves constipation and diseases complicated with the same, regulates the appetite, gives new energy. Price $1.00. At drug stores, Jos. Triner, Manufacturer, 1333-1339 S. Ashland Ave., Chicago

If you need a medicine for rubbing the body in rheumatic or neuralgic pains, try Triner's Liniment. Price 25 and 50c, postpaid 35 and 60c.

WENT TO THE HOSPITAL.

C. E. Blanchard, postmaster, Blanchard, Cal., writes: "I had kidney trouble so bad I had to go to the hospital. Foley Kidney Pills completely cured me." Men and women testify they banish lame back, stiff joints, sore muscles and sleep disturbing bladder ailments. Sold everywhere.

Miss Graco Monroe, with the big musical comedy "High Jinks" at the Parmele Monday Night

John Crook of the Monarch Engineering Co., of Falls City, who has been here looking over the bridge situation with the county commissioners, returned yesterday afternoon to his home.

Miss Mattie Larson came in last evening from Hastings, Neb., where she is teaching school, and she was a passenger this morning for Omaha to attend the State Teachers' association meeting.

It is surprising the chance men will take in their clothes buying. They'll pay somebody a low price for a suit or overcoat without even the hint of a reputation and in about a week or ten days they find their bargain spells bunk. We say: Pay $20 or $25 for KUPPENHEIMER CLOTHES. Thousands of merchants endorse them, and tens of thousands of men certify the endorsement. We guarantee them on the basis of satisfaction or your money back, taking the risk, if there be any, on our shoulders.
