

THE BULGARS ARE DRIVEN BACK BY THE SERBS

Greece Reported to Have Yielded, and No Blockade and No Ships Seized.

OVERCOME A LARGER FORCE

Athens, Nov. 23.—Serbs have repulsed the Bulgars who were driving them southward and have regained their Veles-Prilep front, a Serbian official statement announced today. Serbs are rushing reinforcements to the small bands which, even after the Bulgars had taken Barubna pass, continued to defend heights dominating the western extremity of the Veles-Prilep line.

The Serb counter attack which forced the Bulgars northward followed a desperate Serbian rally in defense of Monastir. The Serbs followed their advantage with furious impetuosity, driving the invaders before them more than twenty miles.

40-Mile Strip Cleared of Invaders.

The stored line places the Serb right wing in touch with the French before Veles and clears a thirty to forty-mile strip of southern Serbia of the enemy.

Even though Bulgar reinforcements should compel another Serb retirement, the allies are confident now that an orderly retreat is assured, together with maintenance of communication between the Serbs, French and British and elimination of danger that the Serbs will be forced into Albania.

London, Nov. 23.—Ten thousand Bulgars have been killed or wounded in fighting for Monastir. Bulgars attacked the town on Saturday, Salonika advices say. It was learned here today for the first time that the assault was repulsed. Repeated earlier reports were to the effect that the town had fallen.

The Serbs, driven southward from Babuna pass and Prilep, rallied before Monastir and fought desperately at close quarters. The Serbs were heavily outnumbered, but their reckless courage turned the tide of battle in their favor. On Sunday the Bulgars fell back about five miles.

British Go to Monastir.

Monastir will now hold out, it is believed here. British troops are pouring in from Salonika to help the Serbs, big guns are being mounted and the town's defenses are being strengthened heavily.

A fresh Bulgar attempt to advance is looked for hourly. The Bulgarians have been reinforced from the north, but the Monastir defenders are now in a strong position.

A Bulgar repulse with the loss of 600 captured is reported at Vodoco, just north of Vranja. Previous reports indicated that no large Serb body remained in that district. The French have been operating in its direction, but to have reached it they must have taken Veles, which has not been claimed, or passed it to the east.

Geneva, Switzerland, Nov. 23.—Prilep, southern Serbia, captured by the Bulgars last week on their march to Monastir, is reported to be burning.

Greece Believed to Have Yielded.

London, Nov. 23.—Greece is believed to have yielded sufficiently to the allies' demands to have obviated the necessity for coercion. This conclusion is based on an official foreign office denial that Greek ships are being seized or detained by the British or that a blockade of Greek ports has been established.

If Greece had not promised to refrain from interference with the allies' Balkan campaign, it is assumed both these steps would have been taken.

Greeks Pray for Peace.

Greeks are praying that the country may not be involved in war, says the Daily Mail's Athens correspondent.

"We don't want to be another Belgium or Serbia," Minister of Justice D. G. Rhalis is quoted as having said. "Great Britain's attitude toward us is infamous. It is starving us, stopping our wheat ships and wants to force us to step in and die when no English soldiers have shed their blood in Serbia."

"If the allies are forced to retreat into Greece they can entrench, and we will even safeguard their retreat. They will not be interned."

Whether or not Rhalis was speaking for King Constantine in saying this is unknown.

The king, says the correspondent, is not pro-German, but he does not believe the Teutonic armies can be defeated. France and England, he thinks, will not deal harshly with his country, but he fears the Germans if he should show partiality for the allies.

Six months ago Constantine offered to aid the allies if they would give up the Dardanelles campaign and start a campaign through Greece in the Balkans.

The king fears that the allies' blockade will starve his country within two weeks unless German submarines disperse the blockading fleet. Three submarines are reported to have been destroyed, but eight others are said to be near Salonika. They are all large boats.

ITALY IS NOW EXERTING PRESSURE ON GREECE

Gives Warning of Damage Allies Are Able to Do If Demands Are Refused.

Rome, Nov. 23.—Greece's serious position, if she defies the allies, was strongly represented by Foreign Minister Sonnino to the Greek minister today.

In answer to King Constantine's argument that he cannot risk having his country overrun by Germany and her allies, as Belgium and Serbia have been, the allies are understood to declare that the German group cannot accomplish this, while the allies can make the Greek position impossible immediately.

Constantine is said to have consented to comply with the allies' wish if they send an adequate force to the Balkans. The question is what constitutes an adequate force.

Allied war vessels are searching Greek ships, but the blockade is not yet "airtight."

Cochin to Meet Constantine Today.

Athens, Nov. 23.—Another conference has been arranged between King Constantine and Denys Cochin, French emissary, who has personally looked over the military situation at Salonika, conferred with the Serb war minister and is now ready to show why it will be hopeless for Constantine to resist the allies' demands. The allies do not insist on armed aid from Greece, but they require assurances of a hands-off policy by the Greeks, no matter how the Balkan fighting may develop.

NOTHING AGAINST MEN PICKED UP NORTH OF BURLINGTON DEPOT

From Tuesday's Daily.

This morning the brother and sister of one of the men who was taken up here yesterday by the police, came down from Omaha, where the three men lived and spent the day here arranging for the release of the man. The younger of the two men was sent home yesterday afternoon, and on reaching that city recounted the plight that himself and companions had found themselves when they were gathered in by the police, and the relatives of the man who had been held here at once got busy in trying to discover some way of getting him out. The Omaha authorities give the two men a clean bill as far as being wanted in that city, and the only charge that could be placed against them here would be that of carrying concealed weapons, but if the men return to the metropolis and avoid this city it is probable that they will be released. The third member of the party, who made good his escape, is also an Omaha man and a friend of the other two men and seems to have been the ringleader.

FROM PERU NORMAL

The Y. M. C. A. is organizing a vocal quartet which is to be an important part of the gospel team it is expecting to send out during the Christmas vacation. Such teams have been sent out by the normal for the past three years and have done some excellent work in the towns visited.

The Y. M. C. A. was instrumental in bringing to Peru last week Dr. Winfield S. Hall, professor of physiology in Northwestern university, Chicago, who gave several lectures on various social problems. On Wednesday morning he occupied the regular chapel period; Tuesday evening he lectured to men, and Wednesday afternoon to women. On Tuesday evening an informal reception was given him by the faculty members.

The game with Kearney Normal Friday closed the football season. A large and enthusiastic audience did all in their power to win the game, but the visitors proved too much for the local team and carried away the honors by a score of 27 to 0. This is the seventh game of football played between the two schools, and Kearney has won four out of the seven. About fifty students, including the Kearney band, accompanied the team to Peru, and students and faculty joined in giving them a royal welcome. A wide-awake booster committee planned the program and did some effective decorating. A rousing rally in the chapel at 10 o'clock was followed by a big parade through the principal streets of the city, and a big general reception was held in the gymnasium in the evening.

Enrico Palmetto, who gave a program in the chapel Monday evening, November 15, as one of the lecture course numbers, is a Danish tenor of national reputation as a concert singer. He has a full, brilliant voice especially well adapted to the singing of the great dramatic songs of grand opera. Although his program comprised numbers in five different languages, it was thoroughly enjoyed by every member of the especially large audience which greeted him.

Study center courses are being offered again by the normal. The object of this plan is to take the school to those who cannot come to the school, and to offer teachers in service an opportunity for growth advancement. The plan is for the faculty members of the normal to organize classes in any of the subjects offered in the regular courses of the school. Three courses will be offered in any town in southeastern Nebraska where ten or more persons will join the class. The only expense will be the traveling expenses and local entertainment of the instructor conducting the work. Full credit will be allowed for all the work completed in these classes.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflammation of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; and cases of deafness are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give one Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Sent by circular free.

CITY EXTENDING THE SEWERAGE IN WEST PART

From Wednesday's Daily.

The extension of the private sewer in the west part of the city has been gotten under way in fine shape and already a block from Ninth to Tenth streets, on Granite, has been placed, and from Eleventh street the sewer will be extended one block north to Pearl street and thence three blocks west on Pearl and two blocks north of Pearl on Eleventh street, which will give that section of the city the most desirable sewerage system that could be desired for the residence portion of the city. The cost of this improvement has been quite heavy to the residents there, but they are confident that the outlay will be money well spent.

Thanksgiving!

—Thanksgiving has ever been home-coming time—a day when all of us turn toward the family hearth, pledging again, in the bounties of nature, those ties we hold most dear.

—Truly, this has been a strenuous year—a year of tremendous activity, of events crowding one upon the other with startling rapidity, and as we pause amidst the tumult, one great thought must come home to all of us—Peace and the bountiful blessings of peace are ours—let us be thankful.

—This great store of service is moving steadily ahead upon the highway of progress. Old friends remain steadfastly with us; new friends, in greater numbers, are coming to know our greater values, and the satisfaction which comes only from faultless merchandise, satisfaction which makes for true thanksgiving on their part and our—satisfaction made possible by such good merchandise as KUPPENHEIMER and SOCIETY BRAND CLOTHES.
