County Judge.

Robert, your dinner won't be fit to "Never mind about it. I'm not hungry. Just be patient with me a few and crossed the room to the sofa, whereon he seated himself. For a sec-the severe examination. Perhaps she would not permit her to be slient while

"What are you thinking about, Rob

"I'd like to see that letter from Miss

"I can't show it to you," said May she wouldn't want any one but me to

"No, her mother wrote it for her."

Again-the words of the husband

"In other words," he said very de-who, it seemed to the agonized wife.

was acting the part of the grand inher mother to write to you concerning

"Perhaps not. Still, I'd like to see

"I want to know why, if you had a

"Who said I copied it on another

And once again the fateful Burke ap-

May could not answer for a moment.

"Oh, that was because-I did that veloping as fast and as thick as the the genie found open expression. His mental stress and tension. Something reluctant, something that told of heart-

"May, you are hiding something

"I don't know. But you are, never-

"I have destroyed it. I never keep

"Then why didn't you say in the first

Because you didn't give me as though I were a criminal. My head's whirling like a top. I can't

The deep lying tenderness of a husband who loves his wife sincerely spoke in Strickland's voice, but added to it there was the desire to know

Won't you tell me what's troubling you? We've never had secrets from

"But there's nothing to tell. There's again and seated himself at the table.

"I didn't look for this kind of a homecoming." he said and relapsed into si-

"There is nothing, dear-nothing."

ache also, spoke when be said:

theless. What is it, May?"

place that you destroyed it?"

stand it much longer."

that would not be denied.

from you?"

letter."

letters."

each other."

nothing to tell!"

When she did reply it was stammer letter containing your friend's address.

you went to the trouble of copying it the letter. I don't want to read it. I

"Why do you want to see it?"

only want to look at it."

on another piece of paper."

address on a piece of paper."

Strickland's tone.

ingly.

Green," said Strickland.

know about."

He rose from his seat at the table minutes more.'

Copyright, 1915, by American Press Association. CHAPTER XI.

"No. 206 Henderson Place." N the manner of the wife

there was a slight pause-oh, so very slight a pause!-and this time, as the attention of the husband was fixed without possible deviation on his wife, he noted the change in her. At the time it made ond he said nothing, while the wife little impression upon him, but after- stood walting for the next question in ward, in the long hours of meditation which came to him, it seared itself on | hoped that it was over. But her nerves his tortured brain. The pause seemed | were not in condition to stand an add. | merchants. insignificant to him, although it was ed strain of even a second. They probably only a fraction of a second before she replied:

"Ruth Green is her name." "Who's Ruth Green?"

"An old school friend of mine. 1 haven't seen her for years." "Then how did you happen to go down to see her yesterday?" "She wrote, asking me to come down.

Strickland seated himself at the table, put his elbow on the table and rested his chin on his right thumb between that member and the fingers. When he spoke next the words came selicuitye

"You haven't met her for years; then she suddenly asks you to come down | quisitor, came slowly: to Long Brauch to see her. Why didn't she come to see you?"

though she felt herself slipping, slip- ment when she is critically ill to get ping down the precipice of her fate. May Strickland still lied to her bus- matters which your husband daren't band. As is usual in such cases, her know anything about. Is that correct?" mind moved at terrible speed, sending | the words almost tripplingly from her treat. She must at all costs convince Robert now! Was that Doris moving oneasily in the next room? Oh, for her child's sake she must go on and on and on!

"She's critically ill, and she wanted to see me again." The words came fast and faster. "So she had me looked up. We used to be quite intimate in school."

Quite oblivious of the forture he was inflicting on his wife. Robert Strickland continued his unintentionally mercliess questioning:

"How did she manage to write if she's so ill?"

"Some one wrote for her." "From what is she suffering?"

What is a terribly dangerous disease? The first thing that entered May Strickland's mind was "Pneumo-

"Oh, she's dangerously ill, then?" asked Robert.

"Oh, yes," said May, with an inward sigh of relief that she had chosen so "What are you thinking of, Robert?"

well. Again the fates decreed that the Long Branch newsdealer should cross there." "Burke"-

"Yes," said Robert, "at the Henderson place address. The house he went wife's actions. He crossed the room to. He said he found only an old housekeeper." "Oh, yes, I remember," said May. and she forced to her face. 201 the with his the ling moment, a glastly attempt at a For a few seconds May was silent goods to be carried require small insmile. "They seld they were going to also, but her taut nerves, attuned to vestment. For full particulars write words more of a torture than the words themselves had been. She must speak, or she would shriek. "What are you thinking about now?"

she asked. He did not answer, and she added: "I wish you'd eat your dinner in stead of exciting yourself about noth-Strickland's next voice came in a low tone. He was speaking to himself, but the words were distinctly audible to the waiting woman.

"Henderson place. Where is that card Trask gave me?" He searched in his pockets for the fine.

card. May knew-oh, only too well!for she had been listening unseen when Trask gave the address to her husband. but she professed ignorance when she

"What are you talking about?" Strickland's fingers found the card and drew it from his pocket. "Here it is! What's this? '14 right 2, 27.' No, that's not it. Yes, 206 Henderson place-206! That's the very number Burke mentioned, isn't it?"

(To be Continued)

Local News

From Friday's Daily. C. A. Gauer of Cedar Creek was in Mr. and Mrs. Stuart Rough. the city today for a few hours looking after some trading with the mer-morning for St. Paul. Neb., where several years, left Wednesday for Robert sat there meditating. So she elatives and friends.

Marquardt is spending her holiday Newman owns a farm near Padroni, will be absent over Christmas.

"It contains some personal matter that P. H. Meisinger drove in this morning from his farm home to spend a few hours looking after some matter "But she didn't write the letter herof business with the merchants.

> Joe Creamer and wife of Omaha came down this afternoon and will spend Christmas at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Creamar, near Murray.

Mrs. William Becker of Osmond liberately, "your friend whom you Neb., arrived last evening for a visit With terrible, eager insistence, al-hough she felt herself slipping, slip-ment when she is critically 4ll to get parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Mc-Guire.

William Fahleson departed this This time there was just a gleam of morning on No. 15 for Davy, Neb., defiance in May's voice as she replied: where he will visit over Christmas She had gone too far to relocality.

Miss Mary McHugh, who is teaching school at Atkinson, Neb., is in the city for a few hours' visit at the home of her sister, Mrs. Thom. Walling and family.

Lloyd Gapen, wife and son came ir this morning from their home near piece of paper?" There was a ring of Murray and departed on the early well simulated indignation in May morning Burlington train for Omaha, wheret hey will visit for the day.

George Knapp of Chicago, a brother of Grovernor Knapp of this city, ar-"Burke," said Robert. "He said the purse contained the Henderson place rived this morning on the early Burlington train for a short visit here with his brother and other relatives.

George Decker of Ohiowa, Nebraska, is here enjoying a short visit at the home of his brother-in-law, War-Now came the moment when Strick ren Tulene and family, and was a land's suspicion of his wife that had visitor in Omaha today for a few been gathering and growing and de hours. Mrs. W. T. Cole and daughters, smoke rose from the jar which held Mrs. Verna and Lillian, departed this voice was thick and hoarse, as though morning on No. 6 for Leon, Iowa, the long use had burt his vocal chords. where they will visit in that city with But it was not mere physical distress relatives and friends over the holiday that harshened his next words. It was season.

Gretna, Neb., where they will spend but was too busy to get away. Christmas at the home of relatives "Don't say that, Robert!" she exnear that place. claimed. "Why should I hide anything John Herring and wife came in this morning from their home west of this any great objection to showing me the tives and friends.

George P. Meisinger, jr., came in this morning from his tarm home west of this city and spent a few hour here visiting with his paracts, Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Meisinger, and looking afchance. You're cross examining me ter some trading with the merchants.

> Mrs. Mary McHugh and son, Ed, of Falls City; Jerry McHugh and family of Murdock, Maurice McHugh and wife of Falls City are here to spend

"May, dear, I don't want to hurt you. city. a right to demand an accounting of his time.

Local parties can make good money working all or part time for large manufacturing concern. Stock of temove her to the hospital today. But, the rapid former interchange of ques- Ulysses Mfg. Co., Dept. C, Plattstion and answer, found the cessation of mouth, Neb.

NEHAWKA. News.

Mr. B. Wolph and wife returned ter spening several weeks at the ex- implement business.

Maria faria de despuisação de despuisação de similarida de se de despuisação de d

Mother and sons are getting along home.

Mrs. J. C. Head returned to her from Lincoln, where he underwent an home in Palmyra, Mo., the latter part operation at a hospital. He is feelof last week, after a visit with her ing fine. daughter, Mrs. R. N. Pollard.

William Rice of near Murray was the past few years Mr. Beck has been Switzer, departed for their home Wedin the city for a few hours today head man at the Lincoln quarry. He nesday afternoon. They are now on

J. W. Hale and family departed this have been residents of Nehawka for they will spend the holidays with their Union, where they will visit a short County Superintendent Miss Eda their new home in Colorado. Mr. vacation with relatives at Avoca, and and here they expect to make their future home.

J. A. Pollard and wife returned to their home in Chester, Vermont, Wed-Pollard and two daughters, Rowena after the farm duties. and Mrs. Altoin St. John, and son, Merritt, accompanied them to Union.

> ELMWOOD. Leader-Echo.

eferferferferfe eferferferferfe eferferferferfe eferferferfe

المراجات المراجات المراجات المراجات المراجات المراجات

"Grandma" Mullen is suffering from juries sustained when she fell on an cy walk last Tuesday.

Little James, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Tollhurst, was quite sick sev- December 20th, a six and one-half- Keystone Pipe Co. of Kansas City, eral days the first of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. I. M. Liston of Lane. Kas., arrived Sunday morning for a and family.

Fred Schneider came in Saturday from Bancroft, Neb., to pay an extended visit to his parents and other where he has been visiting relatives relatives and friends.

Last Saturday morning a nine and Miss Abbie Judkins, who teaches in one-half-pound baby daughters arrived the Hastings public schools, came at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. home Saturday of last week to spend Gash to brighten and cheer. "Dad" her Christmas, vacation with home is as proud as can be and says that tolks. she is the "best ever."

of the week from his trip to Pipestone, proud parents of a six and one-half-Minnesota, where he had gone with pound girl which arrived at their the Buick car, where it will be left so home Wednesday morning, Decemthat they will have it handy when they ber 22. move there in the spring.

Dwight, arrived Wednesday evening where he has been in charge of an from Aldersyde, Alberta, Canada, on extra gang, and has resumed his edy-Doan's Kidney Pills. The exa visit to Mrs. Brarett's parents, Mr. duties as foreman of the east section. known persons, living far away. The Mrs. Alvin Jones and Mrs. Warren and Mrs. M. W. Waltz of this city. Tulene departed this morning for Mr. Barett had intended coming too, Wyoming the first of the week and Harry Miller came very near having an automobile accident on Monday. He was taking a traveling man to been busy putting up improvements. Murdock and was going along at a He will move his family there in the kidney troubles. They have proven amine and report on the vacation of a city and departed on the early Bur- pretty good clip and thought the near future. lington train for Manning, Iowa, to bridge at the bad turn in the road "Well, then, I can't see why you have visit over the holidays there with rela- was clear. A rider and horse, however, made its appearance on the bridge. He just had time to throw the brakes and slide off in the ditch, coming within a fraction of an inch of upsetting. He says it's as close the later to be being the later to be a same that the same that as he wants to come.

C. King, was taken very ill Sunday ings and Archer, Neb. and after a careful examination by our doctors they agreed that he don Sunday evening to spend Christhad a very severe attack of appendi- mas with his mother. citis and that it was necessary to perthe holidays at the home of Mr. and form an operation. He was placed dilla, Neb., visited the latter's sister, month. Inquire of Frank Marshall, Mrs. Thom. Walling and family in this in an automobile, and accompanied Mrs. H. E. Thiele and family, this keeper of U. S. rifle range, or call by his parents and the physician in week. Mrs. George A. Kaffenberger was charged, was taken to a hospital at Mrs. John Koop and two daughters among those going to Omaha this Lincoln, where an operation was per- went to Berlin, Neb., Saturday, for a morning to visit her daughter. Miss formed. The case was very severe and short visit with her mother. Gladys, at the Immanuel hospital for the operation was performed in the Mrs. Yant of Keokuk, Iowa, visited Strickland's countenance became the day. Miss Kaffenberger is report- nick of time. At the present time the her son, R. C. Yant and family, a few stern. Now he was the man who had ed as doing very nicely at the present little fellow is resting easy and it will days this week, on her way for a visit not be long until he will have com- with relatives in St. Louis. plete recovery.

FOR SALE.

barn and outbuildings; 3 blocks Mrs. Henry Hayflinger of Wakee-Homer Shrader.

WEEPING WATER. Republican.

W. O. Allen, president of Doane hired man, Chris Colby, to Omaha New Year's with Col. George Framp- Withelmina G. Tigner, Plaintliff, looking after some trading with the now intends to try his luck at farming. the return route from a visit in Cali-be joined on the way by their son, Harry, who left from Lincoln, where he is attending the state university.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Noell, three chil- Saxon. dren and Miss Ruth Shanklin left Friday evening for Yuma, Colo. The Delaney will come home the fore part nesday, after spending a short time change in altitude will benefit Mrs. has been confined in a hospital. with the former's brother, Malcoln Noell's health. When Ben gets the Pollard and family. Mr. and Mrs. M. family located he will return to look Pleasant Hill school after the holidays.

> EAGLE. Beacon.

Ed Peterson returned home the first of the week from Reynolds, Neb.

sick list and enjoying good health. who reside south of town, on Monday, pound boy.

Mrs. A. B. Headley and Dewey and Bennie, left Wednesday of last week visit with their son, Dr. O. E. Liston for Chattanooga, O'lahoma, where they will visit relatives until spring.

Jacob Hursh returned home Monday morning from Broken Bow, Neb. for the past two months.

Mr. and Mrs. John Rudolph, who

Chris Ronnefeldt returned the first reside southwest of town, are the Charles Renner returned home the Mrs. L. W. Barrett and litle son, first of the week from Tait, Neb., Ernest Jack returned home from visited until Thursday evening with his parents at Avondale. Ernest has 414 Main St., Plattsmouth, says: "I filed on a claim near Buffalo and has > LOUISVILLE Courier.

fajesjesjesje simjesjesjesje sjesjesjesjesje sjesjesjesje

Miss Alice Stander has returned Ross King, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. from a visit with relatives at Hast-

Frank Rathbun came in from Gor-

Ralph Twiss returned last Saturday | 4 from a trip to the Pacific coast. He |visited a short time on his way home

11-3-tf-d&w the holidays with her daughters, Mrs. Suitable for all kinds of gift articles. No. 2825.

delete the leteral description of the control of th ago also, to spend Christmas with her Setar Fall for the Estate of John daughters. She is an old resident of To All Persons Interested.

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Mayfield returned home Wednesday from El Paso, Texas, where they have been for the past two months visiting their daughter, Mrs. F. A. Second and family. They had expected to remain in the south all winter, but found that the climate did not agree with them and decided after all that there is no place like Nebraska.

The state of John Peter Kell, Deceased, alleging therein that said estate has been fully administered, and practing that said estate be finally settled and the property assigned as provided in the will of said Deceased, and that the said Executrix be disclarged. That a bearing will be had upon said petition before this Court in the County Court Rooms at Plattsmouth, in said County, on the 30th day of December, 1915, at nine clock a m.

Witness my hand and the scal of the County Court of said County this John day of December, 1915.

(Seal)

ALLEN J. BEESON, County Judge. Roy Coatman moved to Elmwood ed home Wednesday from El Paso, nome on the early train Saturday af- Tuesday, where he will engage in the Texas, where they have been for the J. W. Kintner, southeast of town, ter, Mrs. F. A. Second and family. Born, to Mr. and Mrs. John Kear- left Tuesday morning for Indiana for They had expected to remain in the ney, Tuesday morning, twin boys. an over-Christmas visit at his old south all winter, but found that the Frank A. Davis returned Saturday decided after all that there is no place like Nebraska,

Mrs. Andrew Schoeman and soon, Chris J. Edgaard accompanied his Freddie, will spend Christmas and In the District Court of the County of Omaha, where she will make her home this winter with her sister, Mrs. We have been informed that Mrs.

object in the trip is in hopes that the of the week from Omaha, where she Miss Edith Frans will teach the This school was taught by Miss Olive Clark, who will resign Friday on account of her recent marriage. المرامة والمرامة والمرامة والمرامة والمرامة والمرامة Rev. W. A. Taylor, we understand will finish his term of service as pastor of the Baptish church here this coming Sunday, providing another minister can be secured to fill his W. B. Banning, president of the Keystone Pipe Co., of this place, went John Spath's family is again off the to Wichita, Kansas, last Friday on Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Burdick, sas City, Kansas, where he made arrangements for the organizing of the Kansas. This new company will be incorporated with a capital of $10,000. One of the company's plants located at Union is doing a thriving business and when spring opens up their busines will be more than trebled to what it is at present.

Paints and Oils. Gering & Co.

TOLD IN PLATTSMOUTH

A Resident Known to All Our Readers Relates an Experience.

Readers of the Journal have been told again and again of the merits of that reliable, time-proved kidney remcases are Plattsmouth cases, told by Plattsmouth people.

Jonathan Hatt, general storekeeper. consider Doan's Kidney Pills a very To All Whom It May Concern: good medicine for backache and other | The Commissioner appointed to exly have also tried Doan's Kidney Pills, procured at Rynott & Co.'s Drug Store.

WANTED.

Horses and cattle to pasture for winter. Good feed, grass and corn. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Ludwig of Una- Could handle sixty head. $1 per phone No. 445. 12-21-1wk-d&w

> W. A. ROBERTSON, Lawyer.

ઋૄ૾ઌૺૣઌૄ૽ઌ૽ૢઌ૽૽ૢ૽૱૽ૢૻઌ૽૽ૢઌ૽૽ૢઌ૽૽ૢઌૺૢઌ૱૽૽ૢઌ૽ૢ૽ઌૺૢઌૺઌ૽ૢ૽ઌ૽૽ૢઌ૽૽ૢઌ૽૽ૢઌ૽૽ૢઌૺઌૺૢઌૺ

East of Riley Hotel. Coates' Block, Second Floor.

STATE OF NEBEASKA

*Cass county and has many friends and acquaintances in this vicinity.

You are hereby notified that there has been filed in this Court, petition of Elizabeth Katharina Kell, Executrix of Elizabeth Katharina Kell, Executrix of the estate of John Peter Kell, December.

Freddie, and Mrs. Henry Sass and son, NOTICE OF SUIT TO QUIET TITLE.

dulphter, Mrs. R. N. Pollard.

W. O. Allen, president of Doas a university at Crete, arrived in town Tuesday afternoon for a visit at the Stuart Rough and B. Wolph homes and others.

Mr. and Mrs. Fries returned to their home in New Castle, Neb., Tuesday after spending several weeks with the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jake Wessel.

Miss Myrtle Rough of Crete, Ethel and Ginevera Rough of Falls City, and Elizabeth Rough of Cambridge came home Saturday to spend their Christmas vacation with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Stuart Rough.

R. N. Beek and family moved to their new home, a few miles southeast of Weeping Water, Monday, For the past few years Mr. Beck has been residents of Nehawka for Every Large and Mrs. John Colbert and son, how have been residents of Nehawka for Every Large and Mrs. Short time with relatives before going the return route from a visit in California.

Mr. and Mrs. Stuart Rough.

R. N. Beek and family moved to their new home, a few miles southeast of Weeping Water, Monday, For the past few years Mr. Beek has been from a visit in California.

William Newman and family, who had spent a week with their sister-in-law, Mrs. L. D. Show have been residents of Nehawka for Every Large and Mrs. Short time with relatives before going the past for the past few years with relatives before going the past for the past few years with relatives before going the past for the past few pasts and the presentatives and all other persons inferested in the estate of Sarah. New Year's with Col. George of Lincoln, where the wedding of Mr. Trand framily, in Oklahoma. They will lake attend the wedding of Mr. Frampton's daughter, Miss Ida, while in Oklahoma. The latter's brother, Stuart Subart Rough.

William Jameson arrived Saturday tiles presented the estate of Sarah New Year's with College of Lincoln, will also attend the wedding of Mr. Trand framily in Oklahoma. The past Ida and the Health of Mrs. The Ida and the Health of Saturday in the estate of Sarah (Saturday and Health of Mrs. Ida and Ida and the Health of to enjoin each and all of you from having or claiming any right, title, lien or interest, either legal or equitable, in or to said lands or any part thereof; to require you to set forth your right, title, claim, lien or interest therein, if any, either legal or equitable, and to have the same adjudged inferior to the title of plaintiff and for general equitable relief. This notice is made pursuant to an order of the Court.

You are required to answer said peti-You are required to answer said peti-on on or before Monday, January 51, 16, or your default will be duly

WILHELMINA G. TIGNER. Plaintiff. W. A. ROBERTSON, 12-20-4 wks

NOTICE OF SUIT TO QUIET TITLE. In the District Court of the Cass, Nebraska. Sarah M. Harrison, Sarah Elizabeth Martin and Eva May Harvey, Plaintins,

William Harrison, et al., Defendants To William Harrison, if living, if dead his heirs, devisces, legatees and per-sonal representatives, and all persons interested in his estate, whose names are unknown, and Harrison, wife of said William Harrison, of the County of Cass, Nebraska, against you and each and all of you as defendants, the object and prayer of which petitlen is to quiet plaintiffs title in and to the following described real estate, to-wit: The Southwest quarter (SW1;) of Section eight (8), in Township Twelve (12). North of Range ten (10), East of 6th 1. M. in Cass County, Nebraska, to forever exclude and enjoin you and each of you, and all persons claiming by, through or and all persons claiming by, threigh er under you, from claiming any right, title, claim, lien or interest in or to the said real estate or any part thereof, and to require each of you to set forth your right, title, interest or lien there-in, if any, either legal or equitable, and in, if any, either legal or equitable, and to have the same adjudged inferior to plaintiffs litle to said land, and for equitable relief. Plaintiffs allege that ther and Samuel W. Harrison, from whom they inherited said real estate, have been in the actual, continuous, open, notorious, exclusive and adverse possession and ownership of all said lands, claiming the same against all the world and especially against the defendants berein, since prior to the efendants herein, since prior to the defendants herein, since prior to the year 1888.

You and each of you are further notified that you are required to answer said petition on or before the 7th day of January, A. D. 1916, and if you fall so to do, your default will be entered therein and judgment entered in accordance with the prayer of plaintiffs'

Dated this 17th day of December, A. SARAH M. HARRISON. SARAH ELIZABETH MARTIN, EVA MAY HARVEY, PALMER, TAYLOR & PALMER, ROAD NOTICE.

their value to me. Others of my fami- road commencing at the Northwest corner of the Northeast 14 of Southwest 14 of Section 4, Township 10, They think just as much of them as I Range 11, Cass County, Nebraska, thence running east along the north Price 50c at all dealers. Don't simp- line of said Northeast 1/4 of Southy ask for a kidney remedy-get west ¼ of said Section 4, to half sec-Mr. Hatt had. Foster-Milburn Co., easterly direction to a point where said road intersects the prolongation of the public road running north and south between Sections 3 and 4, in said Township 10, Range 11, in and through the Northeast 14 of said Section 4, has reported in favor of the vacation thereof; and all objections hereto, or claims for damages, must be filed in the County Clerk's Office on or before noon on the 29th day of February, A. D. 1916, or such road will be vacated without reference thereto.

Dated this 27th day of December, 1915.

FRANK J. LIBERSHAL, County Clerk. 12-27-4wks

Thoroughbred Rhode Island Red Cockerels for sale. Price $1.00 to A complete line of Dennison's $2.50 each. Troy E. Wiles, Cedar from Columbian school. Inquire of ney, Kansas, arrived Monday to spend Christmas Boxes at the Journal office. Creek, Neb. Weeping Water 'Phone

