A Farewell Surprise.

Last Saturday about seventy friends and neighbors gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Fitzpatrick to tender this most highly esteemed family a farewell, as this good family will in the near future depart for their new home at Imperial, Nebraska. Mr. Fitzpatrick and family have been residents of this community for several years and have won a host of warm friends. The occasion was a most enjoyable one, but was filled with regret that these friends soon must part.

Several musical numbers by Misses Vera Vroman and Marie Davis added great pleasure to the occasion. At a suitable hour a delightful dinner was enjoyed by one and all.

Those who were present to wish Mr. and Mrs. Fitzpatrick and family happiness and prosperity in their new home were: Messrs. and Mesdames Frank Massie, George Lloyd, Charles Tilson, Lou Young, Ben Dill, John Murdock, Albert Murdock, William Patterson, George Fitzpatrick, Meek Davis, Lee Farris, Fritz Tigner, Ray Davis, James Tilson, Harmon Beck, John Durman, Mrs. A. Boedeker, Mrs. Colvin, Mrs. Charles Herren, Mrs. L. Puls, Mrs. Otto Puls, Mrs. Philip Hild, Mrs. Fred Lutz, Mrs. L. McVey, Mrs. Gus Minnear, Mrs. William Renner, Mrs. Gertrude Beckner, Mrs. William Troop, Messrs. James Tigner, Ed Boedeker, Roy Fitzpatrick, Paul Murdock, Robert Troop, Clifford Beck, Perry Minnear, Curtis Fitzpatrick, Harold Puls, Meril Beckner, Earl Puls, Misses Esther Lloyd, Vivian, Adele and Lola Fitzpatrick, Vera Vroman, Margaret Beck, Marie Davis, Naomi Adams, Lorene Durman, Marie Lutz, Joy Murdock, Frances Durman, and Laveta Renner.

One Who Was There.

Commercial Club Elects Officers.

The Murray Commercial club has taken on new life and will start things moving in the interests of Murray and vicinity in the very near future. They held a meeting on last Thursday evening, and although they have been rather quiet all the winter they are going to be up and doing all the time this spring and summer. New officers were elected as follows: Ted Barrows, president; G. M. Minford, vice president; Alf Gansemer, secretary, and W. G. Boedeker, treasurer. This meeting was well attended and there was considerable enthusiasm displayed along the line of everything that will be the best for Murray and her people. Let them have your help, as it will be needed.

BRIEF SKETCH OF THE LATE LEROY ALLISON

From Wednesday's Daily.

The death of LeRoy Allison, which occurred last Friday at his home near Murray, was an occasion for universal regret throughout this section of the county, and the Journal has been given the opportunity of printing the following brief biographical sketch of this gentleman:

LeRoy Allison was born in Green county, Pennsylvania, February 19, 1849, and died at Murray, Nebraska, February 17, 1916. Mr. Allison, with his parents, came to Nebraska in 1866 and had since made his home in the locality where he was residing at the time of his death. He was married to Mrs. Hattie Drost September 30, 1889, and to this union one child was born, which died in infancy. It was the greatest grief of Mr. Allison's life when his companion was called from his side February 19, 1914, and passed to her final reward. Mr. Allison left to mourn his death two stepdaughters, Mrs. E. E. Leach and Mrs. C. W. Tigner, both of Lewiston, together with many other more distant relatives. Mr. Allison is the last of a pioneer family who have lived in this county since the close of the civil war, and only one nephew, T. W. Swan, of Union, is left to represent the male line of the Allison family, although a number of nieces are left to mourn his death. He has made his home with his stepchildren, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Leach, during his last years.

We Overlooked This One.

By some means or other the Journal failed to mention the exciting time that was had on the closing night of the show company that filled the week engagement at the Puls & Gansemer hall, the week ending February 12th.

On the closing night prizes were awarded, on which tickets were issued during the entire week. One prize was given to the most popular lady in Murray, and this one was nailed with ease by Miss Katherine Brown, the prize was a wrist watch. A very handsome berry sett was offered for the best waltzer at the dance after the play, and this one was captured by Miss Isabelle Shrader. "Whistling" Bill Barker was the man that held the lucky number that drew the pig, ad all went home happy.

Now is the Time

We would like to have you come in and talk over your needs in our line. New goods are coming in every day and we are in a position to make you some very low prices on goods that we were fortunate enough to buy before the recent advance in steel goods. We have in stock a full line of John Deere farm implements, Rock Island gas engines, Mark Bros' harness. We can sell you the old trusty incubator just as cheap as you can get it from the factory and save you the freight. Come in and let us tell you about it.

Old-Time "Cronics" Meet.

There was certainly an enjoyable meeting of old-time "cronies" at the home of J. D. Tigner on Tuesday evening of this week, when Mr. Tigner, Walt Vallery, George Rhoden and last but no means the least, Silas Patterson, from Texas, met at the Tigner home for a review of genuine early days in Cass county. These men are among the best that ever hailed from any country, and as their boyhood days were spent here together, this evening of after years was indeed a pleasure to each of the four. Mr. Patterson will remain in this section a few days longer, and will then go to his old home in Pennsylvania, for a visit, before returning to his Texas home.

Pleasant Social Farewell Dance.

There was a very pleasant social farewell dance given at the farm home of Mr. and Mrs. Gus Minnear last Saturday evening. Mr. and Mrs. Minnear are preparing to move to Union, and this will be the last of their social gatherings in this locality for the present, this one being given as a farewell to their many friends here. There were a great many Murray people in attendance. There was a fine supper served during the evening.

Some "Swapper."

Nick Klurens was looking after some business matters in Plattsburgh Tuesday of this week. During the past few years Nick has become some sort of a "swapper," and is making all kinds of trades. Since moving to Nehawka he sold his farm and bought a residence and other property in Nehawka and moved to town. Now he has traded or sold his residence property in the city and is looking for something new.

Elmer Hallstrom Back on the Job.

Elmer Hallstrom, the genial assistant in the Murray State bank, is back on the job again, much to the satisfaction of Cashier Boedeker. Elmer was released from the scarlet fever quarantine at his home in Plattsburgh last Saturday, and he returned to work Monday morning. The many friends of the young man will be pleased to see him back in the old town again.

Combination Sale Well Attended.

The Young & Creamer combination public sale, held Tuesday of this week, was very well attended, but, according to reports, there were not a great many lively bidders on the ground, and the property sold rather cheap; this is according to the owners of the property, and they ought to know about what it should bring. J. D. Shrader was on the ground with the usual fine hot lunch, and business with him was about as usual—busy all the time.
