Bert Jameson, near Weeping Water, was in Murray Wednesday, driving up to see Dr. Gilmore for medical aid and attention to a fine, full-grown caruncle that has appeared on his right cheek, and is just simply giving him a woe lot of trouble. Bert says they are a genuine nuisance, and he can prove it.

Herman Smith, from west of Murray, was a Plattsmouth visitor last Saturday, and while in the county seat he paid the Journal office a pleasant call. We were sorry to learn that his father, J. L. Smith, has been on the sick list most of the winter, suffering with an attack of the grippe that he seems to be unable to get loose from.

A Splendid Meeting.

The Murray Commercial club held their regular meeting Tuesday evening of this week. The attendance was good and quite a number of important matters came before this meeting, and all were properly taken care of, the greatest of which was the coming big meeting and social time for everybody and their families, a genuine good old-fashioned social time like was given in Murray when the club was organized. This occasion will be given on the evening of April 6th, and S. R. McKelvie, of Lincoln, will be here to deliver a community interest talk; there will also be a big feed in store for you; also an excellent musical program. Committees were appointed as follows: Entertainment—Dr. Gilmore, Elmer Hallstrom and O. A. Davis, Supper—W. G. Boedeker, James Holmes, Ted Barrows and G. M. Minford. Publicity—W. W. Hamilton, Alf. Gansemer and W. H. Puls. It was also decided at this meeting to plow and grade the road leading up to the school house, one of the roads in Murray that certainly needs attention at once.

Enjoy Delightful Birthday Party.

Last Saturday afternoon there was a delightful birthday party given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Park, when the friends and schoolmates of their daughter, Wina, gathered to help her celebrate her thirtieth birthday. The afternoon was spent in games and such things as go to help make a good time for children. Miss Wills received many nice cards and presents to help her remember her thirtieth birthday.

At 4 o'clock Mrs. Park, assisted by Rose Read and Mary Park, served a two-course pink luncheon which was enjoyed by each one present. Another hour was spent, when the guests departed for their homes declaring they had spent a delightful afternoon and wishing Miss Wills many more such happy days. Those present were: Grace, Marie and Sophia Wagner; May, Alice and Will Creamer; Violet Kiel, Jessie Bird, Victor and Dorothy Wehrlein, Helen and Rose Read, Alice Nickles, Clara and Earl Marasek; Sarah, Elizabeth and Margaret May; Wiley, Nancy and Carl Park; Mrs. Mary L. Wiley and Mr. and Mrs. Warren Wiley.

Departs for Imperial.

George Fitzpatrick loaded his household goods Tuesday at this station and they were shipped to the new Fitzpatrick home near Imperial, Neb. The two boys went with the car of goods and Mr. and Mrs. Fitzpatrick and the balance of the family departed Wednesday evening. Mr. Fitzpatrick has purchased a farm near Imperial and they expect to make Chase county their future home. The Fitzpatrick family have resided in this locality for several years and have made a great many friends, who regret to see them leave Murray. They have made the best of neighbors, the best of citizens, and are the kind that we would all rather see remain in our midst. Success to them in their new home.

Injured While Chopping Wood.

Last Thursday there was a sort of a chopping bee held at the Otterbein church, where some eighteen or twenty men and young men had gathered to assist in chopping a supply of wood for the church. During the day several men were engaged in chopping a large tree, and in felling it to the ground, the tree struck on the left shoulder of Barney Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Smith, quite seriously injuring that member, and the young man's arm has been completely paralyzed since the injury, and up to the present time medical aid has been unable to determine whether or not it will be permanent. The young man is about eighteen years of age, and the accident will indeed be a very deplorable one should the injury prove a permanent one.

Murray Hardware and Implement Co.

MURRAY, NEBRASKA

Moving to Murray.

Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Young are moving to Murray this week, and will be comfortably located in the new home within a few days, and their son, Rex, is taking up his home on the old Young homestead east of Murray. There are but few old pioneers that can boast of residing on one place as long as Mr. Young. The place moved from was the old Young homestead, the place his father bought from the government, and Mr. Young has resided on this place continuously for sixty-one years, with the exception of three years, that he was in the western part of the state. This is sure some time on one farm.

From Near Union.

Jack Chalfant, one of the Journal's mighty good young friends, from near Union, was looking after some business matters in the county seat last Friday evening, and of course did not fail to pay this office a brief visit. Jack is one of our valued readers from Liberty precinct and is always a welcome visitor around the Journal office.

Thrashing Machine for Sale.

What has been known as the Maple Grove Thresher Co. have decided to dispose of their outfit, consisting of 20 H. P. Compound Aultman & Taylor thresher and water tank and truck. This machine is all in running order for the field. The only reason for selling is that half of the members have left the community and wish to dispose of their interests, and the remaining members, realizing the situation, decided to sell the outfit. For prices and particulars, phone or call on Fred Lutz, Phone No. 2214; L. H. Young or Puls & Gansemer store, Murray, Neb.

Warning to the Public!

From this day on, all people coming on my place after night, must make themselves known, and also their business, for if they do not I will not be responsible for what happens. JOHN W. LLOYD, Murray, Neb.

Lands a Pair of Rubber Boots.

L. D. Hiatt, of the firm of Hiatt & Tutt, attended the meeting of the Omaha Commercial club in that city on last Wednesday evening, at which meeting there were quite a large number of out-of-the-city merchants, and during the evening a drawing was held, at which all the visitors were given a prize. The prizes were awarded by the number placed in the possession of visitors. Mr. Hiatt succeeded in landing a fine pair of boys' rubber boots, an article that would have been very valuable to Mr. Hiatt many years ago.

Married at Plainview.

Mr. Roy E. Fryer and Miss Verna Tracy, both of Plainview, Neb., were married in that place on March 1. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Tracy and were old residents of Cass county. The bride is quite well and favorably known in this locality, and has a great many friends who join in extending congratulations.

Mrs. W. G. Boedeker Improving.

Mrs. W. G. Boedeker, who was operated upon in the hospital in Omaha last Thursday morning, is improving at this time, and while her operation was more serious than first anticipated, she is getting along nicely, and every present indication is that she will soon be restored to her former good health. Mr. Boedeker returned home Sunday evening.
