

PATRIOTIC PARADE OF THOUSANDS IN OMAHA

America's Song of Songs and Old Glory Thrilled Thousands in the Metropolis.

ALL BUSINESS HALTS DURING THE PROCESSION

Omaha, June 16.—One of the greatest parades in the history of this city took place yesterday, Flag day, and the Star Spangled Banner waved from every house-top.

"My Country! 'Tis of thee Sweet land of liberty, Of Thee I sing;"

From the throats of the greatest multitude of people ever assembled in the streets of Omaha, these thrilling words of America's song of songs swelled to the sparkling blue skies as the gigantic Flag day parade swung swiftly into history yesterday afternoon.

For two long and intensely patriotic hours the principal thoroughfares of the business section of Omaha became vast canyons filled with dancing, fluttering flags of the United States—streaming swiftly onward to the lilt of music that has carried Uncle Sam's children to victory on many a bloody field of battle and to an ever-lasting pride in the land of the free and the home of the brave.

It was something more than a Flag day parade, this remarkable demonstration of yesterday, for in these fierce and lowering times abroad the inborn spirit of true Americans would seem to have been smoldering beneath the surface of a careful doubt, only to bud and blossom in one tremendous, colorful burst of fervor, the like of which had never been seen here before.

There was nothing of the jingo in the Omaha patriotic parade and yet it appeared that the souls of many men and women and children had been hungering in silence for these scenes and songs. The good citizens who marched and the throng which choked the streets were living and breathing and half sobbing the sentiments that had been imprisoned in their bosoms for a long, long time. There were cheers in wonderful volume, and there were tears, too! Old Glory had come back into its own!

A. O. U. W. OF THIS CITY OBSERVES THIRTIETH ANNIVERSARY SATURDAY NIGHT

From Tuesday's Daily. The A. O. U. W. of this city enjoyed a very pleasant time in observing the thirtieth anniversary of the order in the state of Nebraska last Saturday evening at the hall on Chicago avenue, in which the members of the order and their families joined in the very pleasant occasion. The meeting was a joint one of the four lodges and was filled with marked enthusiasm from start to finish.

Harry Johnson, one of the old-time members of No. 8, presided over the gathering as chairman, and in a few well chosen words introduced Mayor John P. Sattler, who spoke of the city of Plattsmouth as a garden spot of the state and welcomed to the city Grand Foreman Frank G. Simmons of Seward, as the representative of the grand lodge of the state.

Mr. Simmons spoke on "Fraternity" and illustrated its magnificence with a description of the great column of electricity at the world's fair at Chicago, it having Edison's name blazing on all four sides at the top, and suddenly the whole column sprang into light with a row at a time, and so it was with fraternal orders, with Upjohn Church at the top of the column like Edison, the wizard of electricity. He then told of the great work done by the order, having paid out for death losses and otherwise $12,000,000, almost as much as the entire valuation of Cass county.

D. C. Morgan gave a short address on the good of the order and in his remarks bore out the statements of the grand foreman as to the work of the A. O. U. W. Following a short reading by E. F. Grybsky, which was very much enjoyed, the guests were treated to a splendid two-course luncheon by the young men of the order, and this came as the climax of a very pleasant evening. During the evening a large number of members and their wives were entertained very pleasantly at cards.

Philip H. Meisinger, Jr., residing west of Mynard, drove to this city this morning to attend to some business matters, and was a pleasant caller at this office.

THE CELEBRATED LUXUS TEAM HERE SUNDAY

From Tuesday's Daily. The redoubtable Luxus baseball team of Omaha will be here next Sunday afternoon to take on the Red Sox of this city and the occasion is one that has long been looked forward to with the greatest of pleasure by the fans as it will give the locals a chance to line up with one of the teams that is supposed to represent the fastest line of baseball in the metropolis. The team will put the Sox on their mettle to see what they can do with the champion amateur baseball team of Omaha and a record-breaking crowd is looked for. Those who have seen both teams in action are of the opinion that the locals will be able to give a good account of themselves in the contest and if they play the class of ball they are capable of should prove a winner over the Omaha organization.

RAISES FINE STRAWBERRIES

From Tuesday's Daily. Attorney A. L. Tidd presented the Journal publisher with a box of fine strawberries Saturday that he raised himself and it is apparent from the lucid fruit that Mr. Tidd is as good in this line as in the legal profession and should he ever give up the law he ought to take up fruit raising.

NARROW ESCAPE FROM A GENUINE FIRST-CLASS BLAZE

From Wednesday's Daily. The home of County Treasurer W. K. Fox came near being made the scene of a very serious fire yesterday morning and but for the fortunate fact that the young lad who delivers milk, Paul Winscot, was able to detect the odor of burning wood, the entire building must certainly have been destroyed. Mr. and Mrs. Fox had departed on the early Burlington train yesterday morning for Omaha and in the hurry to leave the house an electric iron that had been in use was left sitting on the ironing board with the current turned on. Shortly after this the boy who delivers the milk called at the Fox home and while knocking at the door detected the odor of burning rags and wood, and glancing through the window was surprised to see the ironing board smoldering away while a portion of the charred board had fallen to the floor and burned a hole in the rug on the floor in very bad shape. The boy at once called Mr. M. E. Manspeaker from the livery barn and they got busy and secured entrance to the house and put the fire out before it could do any further damage. It was certainly a most fortunate occurrence that the boy visited the Fox home at the time he did or there would have been a very serious fire resulted.

BAD, SIR

The drooping of leaves of plants, behind closed windows, in winter, is a sign of bad air, which destructively affects the delicate organism of the plants. The impure air also affects the people living in such badly ventilated rooms and they become pale, tired and cross, their stomach and bowels are out of order. This condition demands immediate attention.

The first thing to do is to get plenty of fresh air and to use at once Triner's American Elixir of Bitter Wine in order to clean out the bowels. This reliable remedy will restore the appetite and improve digestion, the circulation of blood will be stimulated and the body will regain strength, health and energy. Price $1.00. At drug stores. WOODMAN CIRCLE HOLDS MEETING

From Wednesday's Daily. The Woodman Circle met last evening in a most interesting session at the rooms in the Modern Woodman building, and one of the chief points of the meeting was the initiation of two new members into the order. The evening was spent very profitably in the discussion of the business of the lodge and the ladies felt well pleased at the advancement shown by their order in the city in the past few months.

Miss Golda Noble was among those going to Omaha this morning, where she will visit with friends.

THE MIDGET WEDDING AT THE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

One of the most enjoyable entertainments that has been given in this city in a long time was that which was held last evening at the First Presbyterian church when the "Tom Thumb Wedding" was given by a large number of the little folks of the city, ranging in age from 3 to 5, and to those attending the occasion will long be very pleasantly remembered as one of the rarest pleasures.

The members of the wedding party numbered in the neighborhood of seventy of the little folks and every one looked very sweet and winsome as they were seated to await the coming of the bridal couple and attendants. The little misses taking part were attired in a most fitting manner with dainty wedding dresses, and the bride, Jane Fricke, made a most charming picture in her white bridal dress with long, flowing veil. The boys were all attired in the regulation evening dress suits and bore their parts with dignity. The part of the groom was taken by Bobbie Livingston with much effectiveness and dignity and he was assisted by Charles Jay as the best man, who was a very clever appearing little man. The father of the bride was Paul Grassman, who greatly appreciated the dignity of his position, while the part of the mother was taken by Gretchen Warner in a most charming manner. Little Miss Edith Craig was selected as maid or honor and looked very sweet in her costume. The wedding ceremony was performed by Norris Cummins, who made a most pleasing minister, and Margaret Baurer took the part of the minister's wife. The two little ushers, Chris Eulin and Linville Wiles, were two of the most pleasing members of the wedding party.

Taken as a whole, the entertainment was of the rarest enjoyment and those in attendance felt well repaid for their presence. The wedding was given under the auspices of the Q. Z. society of the Presbyterian church.

H. Pollock of the Commercial club from Grand Secretary Francis E. White of the Masons shows:

"As I was one of those who visited the Nebraska Masonic Home on the 6th inst., I willingly testify that the citizens of Plattsmouth rendered every assistance possible to make the visit of the members of the grand lodge satisfactory in every way. Many expressions showing the appreciation of the members of our fraternity were heard, and the citizens are entitled to the thanks that were tendered them by the grand body.

DELIGHTFUL ENTERTAINMENT AT THE R. F. PATTERSON HOME

From Tuesday's Daily. Last evening the pleasant home of Mrs. R. F. Patterson on North Sixth street was the scene of a very delightful gathering when Mrs. George E. Dovey, Mrs. G. H. Falter and Mrs. Patterson entertained Miss Janet Clement and the members of her bridal party, as well as the St. Luke's choir, at a most charming miscellaneous shower.

The guests all came with dainty and beautiful gifts for the bride-elect which were presented to her and will be treasured as remembrances of the many kind friends in the years to come. During the evening a number of very enjoyable vocal numbers were given by the members of the party and Miss Emily McGregor of Sargent, Neb., favored the guests with a most charming instrumental number. One of the chief amusements of the evening was found in writing verses on cards presented to each guest and which bore on them some symbol of the wedding ceremony, and in this contest Miss Elizabeth secured the prize.

A very delightful buffet luncheon was served during the evening, that proved a most pleasing feature of the occasion, and was thoroughly enjoyed by the party. The Patterson home was very prettily decorated for the occasion with yellow daisies, which added their touch of beauty to the general handsome appearances of the rooms.

ANOTHER DELIGHTFUL PLAY AT THE AIR DOME LAST NIGHT

The attendance at the Airdome last evening was somewhat larger than on previous evenings and those in attendance were well pleased with the performance given by the Moore-Eddings Stock company, which gave as its offering the great play "The Beginning of the End," in which the members of the company appeared at their best.

This evening there will be given a play adapted from Opie Reed's great novel, "The Juckings," in which the members of the stock company will be seen at their best, and this delightful, breezy and wholesome play is one that will be enjoyed by everyone. The play will not be started until after the close of the band concert, in order that everyone can attend both events and enjoy the music as well as the high class dramatic entertainment.

THE PAVING ON THE STREETS IS PROGRESSING NICELY

The operations on the new street paving on Third, Fourth and Fifth streets are progressing as rapidly as possible, with the frequent rains of the last few days to interfere with the preliminary stages of the work. Contractor J. H. McMaken has the paving brick on the ground, all ready to be put down as soon as the grading can be completed to put the street at the proper depth for the laying of the pavement. The curbing on Third street has been put in, and that on Fourth street will be started at once in order that there will not be any unnecessary delay in the work. On Third street the paving will extend south past the Western Machine Foundry company building, which will be one of the biggest improvements made in that section of the city and one that will add greatly to the value of property in that section of the city. On Fourth and Fifth streets the paving will only extend back to the alleyway, but will do away with a great nuisance in the way of mudholes which have formed after every rain on these streets. A large number of men are employed on the paving work and they are all "hopping to it" in fine shape.

NEBRASKA PROGRESSIVES SEEM TO BE DOING SOME THINKING

Lincoln, Neb., June 14.—Lincoln progressives do not take so kindly to the suggestion of republican papers in Nebraska to return to the camp.

One of the most prominent members of the party in this state said upon his return from Chicago today: "The small coterie of fellows who seemed to be running the republican convention proposed to show our crowd where to head in and they certainly did. Now, just how many will head in is another question; a good many will and a goodly number will not."

"I have always affiliated with the republican party, but never have believed very much of the hot air talk about the country going to the dogs if the other fellow is elected, and I imagine there are hundreds of thousands of former republicans in the progressive party who feel the same way I do."

A VERY QUIET WEDDING

From Wednesday's Daily. On Sunday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. August Richter in the south part of the city occurred the marriage of their son, William Richter, to Miss Vena McCanaha of Union. The wedding ceremony was performed by Rev. J. H. Steger of St. Paul's church and was attended by the relatives and friends of the contracting parties. The young people will reside on a farm near Mynard.

FLAG DAY WAS OBSERVED

As yesterday was the anniversary of the origin of the flag of our country, the offices in the court house were closed during the afternoon while the officials and deputies assisted in honoring Old Glory. A part of the force spent a few hours in Omaha, looking over the big parade, while others spent their brief vacation at home.

HAS A SPLENDID SHOWING

From Wednesday's Daily. Frank A. Clويد, assistant postmaster, has just completed his examination of the Nebraska mail routes, which is required by the government, and as a result of the examination he received a per cent of 99.82, which is a remarkably good showing and one which he can feel proud of. Of the 1,100 cards handled during the rigid civil service examination, Mr. Clويد missed only two, and his rank of per cent is one that is far above the average. This is the highest rank of any so far received by the clerks in the local postoffice.

THE PARKING ALONG THE STREETS IS PROGRESSING

The parkings along the streets which are being added to each year are being looked after in fine shape by members of the park commission, who are seeing that obstructions along the streets in the shape of weeds and the like are being kept down, as well as having the trees trimmed up. The work is being looked after by C. C. Despain and he is busy all the time looking after this part of the plan for making a city beautiful. There is nothing that adds more to the appearance of a street than a neat and attractive appearing parking, and this city is forging to the front in this direction, and the citizens are taking a greater pride in the appearances of the surroundings of their homes, all of which tends to boost along the plans for a city beautiful.

The Ancient Roman

THE Ancient Roman wore a toga thrown over his shoulders and fashionable men of the day, it is said, spent much time before the mirror adjusting their robes.

Today the fit of high-class ready-to-wear clothes has been reduced to almost an exact science.

You won't have to spend very much time adjusting a Society Brand, Kuppenheimer or Clothcraft garment. You will find them remarkable in their fitting qualities.
