Kansas and Nebraska are having a renewed controversy as to which is the greater state. Governor Capper very promptly lays claim to everything good for his state and denies the existence of anything bad within his borders. Governor Morehead of Nebraska simply points to government statistics as his answer to anything and everything the Kansas executive claims and says, "That's my answer."

Senator Hitchcock sent to the president a copy of the letter written by J. G. Porter, displaced as postmaster at Bridgeport, in which Porter apologized for the letter he wrote to the postoffice department which led to the order for his removal. On the facts which were before him at the time he reviewed the case, the president had concluded that the postoffice department was justified in displacing Porter.

Information has been received by State Superintendent Thomas that the new consolidated rural school recently created by several districts of Nebraska and Richardson counties going in together will open during the fall. This district will have a thoroughly modern educational plant. There will be six acres of land for agricultural instruction. There is a residence for the teachers, of whom three or four will be employed.

After spending some time hearing both sides in the controversy between the county board and assessor of Greeley county and sending Secretary Bernecker to Greeley to look the matter up, the board finally accepted the abstract of assessment as prepared by County Assessor Philbin as more nearly within the law than that prepared by the county board. The only difference was in personal property that of the assessor showing about $13,000 of a valuation more than that of the board.

BESTOR & SWATEK

IN PLATTSMOUTH FORTY YEARS AGO.

C. E. Perkins, the great B. & M. R. R. boss, is in town. Mr. Tolland of Greenwood came in to see us Tuesday.

Miss Hill, sister of Mrs. Wm. Ballance, is visiting her friends here.

The remains of Rev. D. Hart were brought to Lincoln last week by his wife and son.

Willie Gyger, salesman for Dewey & Stone, Omaha, is visiting his parents in Plattsouth.

Mr. Greenslate (surnamed Silas) passed through yesterday. He is also postmaster of Elmwood.

Dr. McCrea has been very sick indeed; but we are glad to know he is much better and may soon be expected at work.

We are glad to learn that Mr. Lewis is improving, although very slowly, and the probabilities are in favor of his recovery.

Among the lawyers attending court we notice the well known face of Mr. Marquette, a long-time resident of Cass county in the years gone by.

The son of Hon. Sam M. Chapman received a serious injury in the eye last week. It is hoped the sight is not destroyed.

Mr. Stone, among the younger members of our bar, is making a very good reputation for himself as a lawyer.

Mr. Morrison, our best looking young lawyer, and eminent debator, is looming up around the court house these days in fine shape.

Mrs. Solomon has returned to Plattsouth, and Mr. S. expects to return soon. They have rented the old Surveyor General's office on the hill.

The following persons were granted certificates at the last examination, all in second grade: Ursula E. Wiles, Plattsouth, 75; J. D. Graves, Rock Bluffs, 80; W. F. Smith, Rock Bluffs, 77; Edwin Jeary, Greenwood, 75. The figures in the above show the per cent of the questions answered correctly.

Robbery and attempted rape near Mount Pleasant, this county. We are informed that a man by the name of Elsworth, hired by a Mr. West, was left to take charge of the farm while Mr. West came to town, on Tuesday afternoon. Mr. West stayed in town that night, and this man attempted to outrage his wife and then forced her to tell him where the money was kept. While the villain was hunting the money the woman escaped to a neighbor's house. The sheriff is after him and he can hardly escape being caught.

Among the funny, were tin whistles till you couldn't rest! a huge, rusty old coffee boiler done up in an acre of paper and tied with rope; an elaborate bundle with forty wrappings and many Heralds interspersed with sticks of candy around it contained at last a small tin-whistle; several rattles, a complete set of dishes, tiny and dainty; a—if we begin to try to enumerate them all, the Herald would have to publish an extra, suffice to say the evening was a very happy one and will be remembered at the Herald home as one of the bright marks in their journey through life.

DEMO. COMMITTEE MEETING.

State Chairman L. F. Langhorst of the democratic state central committee was in the city for a few hours yesterday taking in the ball game and visiting with his friends. Mr. Langhorst reports the situation in the state as being very favorable for the party and the candidates for the different offices. Mr. Langhorst has also called the county central committee of Cass county to meet here on Thursday, August 31 for the purpose of taking up the work of the campaign and he desires that every committeeman as well as the candidates be present to take part in the meeting.
