PENSIONS OF WIDOWS OF THE OLD SOLDIERS

There has been a great deal of inquiry over the working of the new pension act which was passed in September by congress and received the signature of President Wilson, and which gives to the widows of the old soldiers of the civil, Mexican war and the war of 1812, a pension of $20 per month instead of $12 as has been the rule for the past few years.

The method of proceeding to secure the increase was taken up by request of a number of the widows by Postmaster Morgan, and he has received notice from the department at Washington that the blanks necessary had been sent, and Mr. Morgan will fill these out for those desiring them. The law gives the $20 per month to any widow of a veteran who was his wife at the time of his service in the army, and to any widow who is past 70 years of age regardless of the fact whether she was the wife of a veteran during his war service.

The blanks can be filled out by the widows and sent in to the pension department, where they will be placed on the rolls of the department and the widows receive the benefit of the increase that the president and congress has given them.

HOG SALE OF W. B. PORTER

A VERY SUCCESSFUL ONE

The sale of W. B. Porter, held at his home at Mynard on Monday afternoon was one of the most successful that have been staged in this county in recent years. The hogs, all of the fine thoroughbred Duroc-Jersey breed, brought a good price and the result of the sale was very satisfactory in every way to Mr. Porter. This gentleman, who has been one of the leading breeders of fine hogs in the county, has decided that he will for the present at least retire from active work in this line and will enjoy a rest. He may decide to later engage in the raising of fine blooded hogs and if he does you can depend upon it that they will be strictly up to the minute in all the requirements of fine blooded swine.

Your First Move!

IN PLATTSMOUTH FORTY YEARS AGO.

General John R. Clark and family spent Sunday in this city.

Miss Anna M. Dakin, left for a visit at her home in Decatur on Tuesday.

Mr. W. F. J. Comly of the Hastings Journal, gave us a call on Monday, on his way east with wife and baby.

G. W. Holdrege Esq., the assistant superintendent of the B. & M. rail road, is in town looking after the interests of the company.

Mr. Grover, one of the proprietors of the Chronicle, was in town looking up a foreman on Monday, guess he found them about as scarce as hens teeth.

Rev. Mr. Barrows, state evangelist of the Christian church, commenced a course of daily meetings at their church in this city on Saturday and draws crowds.

Captain L. D. Bennett has again made his appearance, looking hale and hearty, after his long stay in the Black Hills. He reported the climate on the mountains as delightful.

Our friend Egenberger, across the way, is getting quite a comfortable home-like place. He has improved the looks of his house wonderfully.

C. J. Horning dropped into see the Herald on Monday last and talked Pennsylvania awhile. He thinks he has one of the finest corn crops in Cass.

Mrs. Mockenhaupt, wife of Chris Mockenhaupt, a resident of Plattsouth, died very suddenly on Saturday evening. An inquest was held and the physicians pronounced it disease of the heart.

Eaman-Wiley—By the Rev. A. B. Chase, of Weeping Water, at the residence of the bride's father, Dr. W. W. Wiley, near Three Groves, Thursday, November 22d, James M. Eaman to Lottie A. Wiley; both of Cass county, Neb. The bride, Miss Wiley, is the daughter of one of the oldest settlers in the county, both Dr. and Mrs. Wiley are known far and wide for their hospitality. The groom, Mr. Eaman, is also one of the old settlers in Cass, he himself living now, though, on Wood River, where he has a cattle farm. The wedding took place at 11 a. m., Thursday last, at the old farm house. Mr. and Mrs. Dorste, Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Wiley, Mr. and Mrs. Eaman, relatives, Mr. and Mrs. John F. Buck, Mr. and Mrs. DuBois, Mrs. Klepster, and other friends of the family not personally known to the Herald were present. A bounteous repast followed the ceremony, and the happy couple departed for Plattsouth where they took the train for Chicago and further east in Illinois and Indiana. This is about the last wedding we can have down to Doc's, and the Herald made the most of the opportunity, in stowing away more good things than usual. From the kiss we stole of the bride to the last mouthful of turkey, we enjoyed every bit of it, and only hope the next wedding down there will come around while we are yet above ground.

Mrs. Wiley did not forget the printers, neither Mr. Eaman, as a huge cake and lots of cigars at the office can testify. Verbum sap.

GEORGE PLATT HERE.

Yesterday George K. Platt, democratic candidate for sheriff of Mills county was in the city for a few hours and of course called at the Journal office to visit with R. A. and T. B. Bates, old friends in years gone by in Silver City, Ia., where they were all residents. Mr. Platt is making a strong canvass for the office of sheriff and if elected should make Mills county a strong officer and be right on the job.

W. E. Rosencrans and wife and daughters, Misses Nora and Mary, and son, Blythe, returned last evening from Gretna, where they attended the funeral of the late Mrs. Samuel Raker.

What Prohibition Has Done!

IN THE STATE OF WASHINGTON

IN SIX MONTHS FROM JAN. 1, 1916.

THE SEATTLE TIMES (a paper which fought the prohibition amendment) July 2, 1916 says: 7,165 new Savings Accounts opened in Seattle since January 1, 1916.

Bank clearings increased more than fifty-five millions. Bank deposits in general have greatly increased. Savings accounts have increased in numbers and totals.

Real estate transfers have increased and higher prices are being paid for property than in the first six months of last year.

Collections have wonderfully improved, being called by certain authorities 50 per cent better than in 1915.

Suicides and murders have decreased one-half. This item would not have been mentioned, but for the public assertion of liquor dealers that crimes of violence were increasing in Seattle as a result of the sale of "drug store" or "blind pig" liquor.

Again and again the newspapers of Missouri, Montana and California have printed assertions that crime was much more prevalent in Seattle under the dry law than previously. Let us look at these figures:

Total arrests going to police blotter in first six months of 1915 10,152

Drunks turned loose after sobering down, names not going to blotter, in same period 1,136

11,288

Total arrests first six month 1916, none being turned loose without names going to blotter, and including violations of liquor law, which should not properly be included in comparison 5,444

Total human beings kept out of jail, apparently by operation of prohibition law 5,844

Think of the sum total of human anguish being reduced in that amount! I confess that it makes me ashamed of myself for ever having dared to argue that the saloons should not be disturbed.

Absolutely Prohibition Does Prohibit!
