

FUNERAL OF MRS. HARNBERGER

A Short Biographical Sketch of This Most Estimable Lady, Who Lived at Ashland For So Many Years.

From Friday's Daily. This community was shocked and grieved to hear of the demise of Mrs. William A. Harnsberger, whose death occurred at the home of her daughter, Mrs. F. Arthur Jones, at Omaha, early last Sunday morning.

In the passing of Mrs. Harnsberger, Ashland loses one of its most beloved and respected citizens. She was a model wife and mother,—the ministering spirit of the home, and, although her home was the center of her affections, it was not the circumference; and as love begets love, her friends can be counted by the score. She was a woman of kindly and generous impulse, and will be greatly missed from the community.

Josephine Ernestine Wiggenhorn was born at Neshkora, Wis., January 12, 1858. She moved with her parents, the late Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Wiggenhorn, to Plattsmouth in 1867, and to Ashland in 1870, where she had since resided. She was married to William A. Harnsberger September 4, 1884. Her husband, four children, and one grandchild survive her. The children are: Miss Emma, Messrs. Ernest and Carl of Ashland, and Mrs. F. Arthur Jones of Omaha. She is also survived by four sisters and three brothers, the Misses Eugenia and Dora and Messrs. Hugo, Edwin and Ernest Wiggenhorn of Ashland; Mrs. A. W. Meyer of Watertown, Wis., and Mrs. A. C. Pancoast of Omaha.

The funeral was held Tuesday at 3 o'clock from St. Stephens Episcopal church, where thirty-two years ago occurred her wedding ceremony. The three brothers with Mr. A. C. Pancoast and Dr. A. W. Meyer, brother-in-law, and Dr. Albert Fricke, a cousin, acted as pall bearers. Dean Tancock of Omaha had charge of the service and was assisted by Dr. Darling. Two comforting songs were most beautifully rendered by Miss Evaline Hartley, of Emporia, Kan. The last tribute of love found expression in the numerous and beautiful floral offerings with which the church was tastefully decorated by loving hands.

Those present from out of town were: Dr. and Mrs. A. W. Meyer and Miss Doris of Watertown, Wis.; Mrs. William Reddish of Albia, Ia.; Miss Evaline Hartley of Emporia, Kan.; Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Green of Elmwood, Neb.; Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Keckler of Elmwood, Neb.; Dr. F. G. Fricke of Plattsmouth, Neb.; Mr. and Mrs. Carl Fricke of Plattsmouth, Neb.; Miss Dora Fricke of Plattsmouth, Neb.; Dr. Albert Fricke of Omaha; Mr. and Mrs. Russell Harris, Omaha; Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Pancoast, Omaha; Mr. H. T. McCaig, Des Moines, Ia.; Misses Irene and Imogene McCaig and Richard McCaig, Omaha; Mr. W. F. Baxter, Omaha; Mr. Fritz Koenig, Omaha; Mrs. Olin Harris, Omaha; Mrs. Elinor Pattee, Lincoln; Mr. Rupert Kenner, Lincoln; Mr. Charles Seaman, Lincoln; Mrs. Agnes Hollister, West Point, Neb.—Ashland Gazette.

STRAW VOTE OF THE REXALL STORES IN UNITED STATES

The straw vote that the Rexall stores in the United States, 8,000 in number, has begun to be announced from the stores all over the country. In this city the store of F. G. Fricke & Co. have the latest returns posted from all over the country and it shows the result in most states to be quite close, and especially so in the larger states of the east. The total popular vote received gives Wilson 107,288 and Hughes 80,519, while on the electoral vote, so far, Wilson has 265 and Hughes 266. Returns are constantly being received and the result of the vote has been changed considerably as the different stores report in their votes. The vote is a unique idea and gives everyone an opportunity to register their preference for their favorite.

CASS COUNTY POSSESSES MAGAZINE CONTRIBUTOR

From Friday's Daily. Cass county within its confines has one of the favorite contributors to the leading magazines of the country and a lady that is in fact making a pleasing mark in the field of the latter day literature. This lady is Mrs. C. S. Aldrich of Elmwood, who has for some time been a contributor to the leading eastern magazines with a number of stories that have received marked commendation from those who are judges of fine literature. Mrs. Aldrich, who writes under the name of Margaret Dean Stephens, has in the Woman's Home Companion of November a very interesting short story, "The Light of Day," that has been received with the highest commendation, and in the October Delenator another of her short stories appeared. It is to be hoped that this talented lady will continue her work in this line and give the public the fullest opportunity of enjoying her delightful stories and other contributions to the literary world.

MRS. HANS SEIVERS ENTERTAINS FRIENDS

From Friday's Daily. Yesterday afternoon the ladies of St. Paul's church were entertained in a very delightful manner at the hospitable home of Mrs. Hans Seivers in the north part of the city, and to enjoy the occasion there were some seventy ladies present to take part in the pleasures of the afternoon. The time was spent in visiting and in the plying of the busy needle, as many brought with them their fancy work and whiled away the time in this manner, which proved most enjoyable. Mrs. Seivers was assisted in entertaining by Mrs. Jacob Tritsch and Mrs. John Wichmann. At a suitable hour dainty and delicious coffee cake and coffee was served by Misses Mathilde Meisinger, Helen Lutz, Amelia Frederich, Anna Seivers and Mrs. Aline Franzen and Mrs. John Lutz, which added much to the pleasure of all those who were in attendance. The ladies realized $7.10 from the proceeds of the afternoon, which will be applied to their church work and greatly encouraged the members in their efforts for the upbuilding of the church. The event throughout was greatly enjoyed and it was with much regret that the ladies saw the hour of departure draw near that marked the end of a most delightful afternoon of both pleasure and profit.

HON. ROBERT HERRICK OF WISCONSIN HERE

From Friday's Daily. Hon. Robert Herrick of Wisconsin, who has been touring the state of Nebraska on behalf of the democratic national ticket, was in the city today for several hours en route from Louisville, where he spoke yesterday afternoon to a number of the voters, to Auburn, where he speaks tonight. Mr. Herrick was scheduled to speak in this city last evening, but owing to a mix-up on dates was not enabled to address the people of this city, and it is to be regretted that this occurred, as Mr. Herrick is one of the best men on the stump this year. Mr. Herrick has been campaigning through Minnesota, South Dakota and Nebraska and has been meeting with marked success. He was at St. Paul, Minn., at the time Senator Beveridge was speaking at Minneapolis for the Hughes ticket, and challenged the Indiana ex-senator to a debate, but this was not taken up by the republican orator. Mr. Herrick is a progressive who has been devoting the last few years to the public questions, and in Wisconsin is numbered among the ablest of the reformers in political life. He gives his opinion that the conditions in the middle west for president Wilson could not be better and that the great mass of the people are flocking to his standard on all sides, recognizing that the president is the man of the hour. Mr. Herrick left at 2:38 for Auburn, where he will address the voters there this evening.

P. E. O. SOCIETY HAS A PARTY FOR ITS FRIENDS

An Event Enjoyed Every Year in the Sisterhood of the P. E. O. and Grand Time Enjoyed.

From Friday's Daily. Last evening occurred an event that is enjoyed each year in the sisterhood of the P. E. O. society, when the ladies entertained the B. I. L. 'S., or the husbands, fathers or brothers of the members, and it is needless to say that the occasion was one enjoyed to the utmost, as the members of the party gathered at the palatial home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Harold to observe the occasion. The mere men, delighted at the opportunity of being even for a few hours permitted to be a part of the P. E. O. society, were all on hand and ready for the delightful treat that had been afforded them by the ladies. The occasion was largely devoted to the enjoyment of a three-course dinner that had been arranged by the ladies in anticipation of their hungry guests, and each one of the lucky gentlemen did the utmost justice to the repast. The beautiful dining room was tastefully arranged in a color scheme of red and white, red barberies being placed around the table, while red shaded candles lent a pleasing touch to the scene, and with the snowy linen and sparkling silver made a most alluring picture to the eye as the fifty-two guests were seated to enjoy the delicious menu arranged for the occasion. The dinner was served most charmingly by Misses Ione Dovey, Madeline Minor, Mariel Streight, Catherine Shoop, Bernice Newell and Gertrude Morgan. After the dinner had been enjoyed Mrs. Elizabeth Travis, as toastmistress, introduced Mrs. E. H. Wescott, president of the local chapter of the P. E. O., who in a few remarks welcomed the B. I. L. 'S. to the happy gathering and assured them of the pleasure the occasion had brought to the members of the society. To show their appreciation of the delightful occasion Mr. C. A. Rawls, Dr. J. B. Martin, Matthew Gering and Rev. H. G. McClusky responded for the gentlemen guests and conveyed to the ladies the spirit of thankfulness in which they had been allowed to enjoy the happy event. The remarks were well timed and greatly enjoyed by everyone gathered around the festal board. Several very witty and pleasing stories were contributed to the enjoyment of the party by T. H. Pollock, E. H. Wescott, Dr. E. W. Cook and W. J. Streight, which certainly added to the jolly feeling prevailing. After the dinner and speech making the members of the party adjourned to the parlors, where an informal musical was enjoyed. The members of the B. I. L. 'S. had prepared an original song for the benefit of the ladies, which they gave and which was received with marked approval, and after this the entire party proceeded to spend several hours in singing the old songs and having a real good social time until quite a late hour, when they departed homeward with a feeling of regret that this event was not held oftener during the year by the ladies.

IMPROVEMENT TO BUILDING.

From Friday's Daily. The building on Third and Main streets owned by the J. V. Egenberger estate and occupied by the C. E. Hartford Coal company, is being improved both on the exterior and interior and put in first class shape for the winter season. The outer walls of the building are being treated to a coat of stucco that will add a great deal to the appearance of the building, while the interior of the coal office is being repainted and papered in an up-to-date manner. The front of the building was painted in a very artistic manner a few weeks ago and now the entire building will be one of the neatest in that portion of the city.

FATHER IN SERIOUS CONDITION.

From Saturday's Daily. Oliver Osborn, who is residing on the George Snyder farm near this city, last evening received a message from his brother, Dick Osborn, announcing the serious illness of their father, Alexander Osborn, at his home in Creston, Ia. Mr. Osborn left this morning for the Iowa city in response to the message and will visit at the bedside of his father. The message did not give the cause of his illness, but stated it was of a serious nature. Mr. Osborn will be remembered by a great many of the residents of this city as he made his home here for a number of years before removing to Iowa.

RETURNS FROM HOSPITAL.

From Saturday's Daily. Last evening Will DeWolf, who was operated on two weeks ago at a hospital in Omaha, was able to return home and feels a great deal better, although of course, is still very weak from the effects of his illness and the operation. His many friends will be pleased to see him return home so soon and trust that he may enjoy renewed health and vigor from now on.

MISS HELEN LIVINGSTON IMPROVING AT HOSPITAL

From Friday's Daily. The many friends of Miss Helen Livingston in this section of the county will be pleased to learn that she is showing much improvement in her condition since her operation on Tuesday morning at the Immanuel hospital in Omaha. Miss Livingston was taken with a very sudden attack of appendicitis and it was necessary to have her taken to the hospital at once and the operation performed without delay. Since the operation the patient has been showing marked improvement. Mrs. B. W. Livingston, mother of the patient, has been at the hospital with her daughter since the operation.

DR. WERNER OF OHIO SPOKE LAST NIGHT

From Tuesday's Daily. Last evening Dr. Eugene Werner of Ohio was in the city and addressed a meeting at the district court room at the court house. Dr. Werner is one of the ablest speakers that has visited this state and addressed his auditors in the German language, of which he is a very fluent speaker. The speaker gave an outline of the work of the administration of President Woodrow Wilson and his foreign policy in maintaining the neutral position of the United States in the great world war and in giving just treatment to the nations involved in the struggle, and in keeping the country from being involved in the conflict in the many opportunities that had been afforded them to be in the struggle between the nations already in the war. The speaker was a very forcible orator and in his polished manner explained the truth of the situation that has confronted the American government since since the outbreak of the war in 1914, and which has covered the greater part of the Wilson administration. Those who heard the speech were given the opportunity of having a great many points concerning the foreign policy made clear to them and to realize what has been done by the American government in keeping a strict neutral position to all the parties involved. Dr. Werner was introduced by Mayor John P. Sattler, who presided at the meeting.

ANOTHER BIG DRY RALLY ON SATURDAY EVENING

The meeting of the Dry Federation held Saturday evening at the corner of Fifth and Main streets drew quite a large crowd and for several hours the audience was treated to an interesting discussion of the dry side of the prohibition question. The team from Union that is assisting in the dry campaign, had charge of the meeting, and they brought with them a number of automobiles and a fine array of singers and workers who took part in the meeting by giving a number of songs and yells and cheers of the dry workers. Preceding the meeting the automobiles formed a parade on the business streets of the city and added this touch of enthusiasm to the evening. Rev. C. E. PerLee of the Christian church of this city, introduced Rev. Randall of Union, who delivered the opening address of the evening, and was followed by several of the campaign songs. The principal address of the meeting was delivered by Dr. Pifer of Denver, who in the course of his remarks told of the workings of the prohibition law in Colorado, and the benefits that had been derived from it, and made a plea to the voters to take action in this state on the matter in favor of the prohibitory amendment.

DEMOCRATIC RALLY AT THE COURT HOUSE

This evening at the court house the democrats will hold a rousing rally, when three of the candidates for state offices will be present to give to the citizens the message of the party that has in the past two years given such an able administration to the affairs of the state. Keith Neville, candidate for governor, will be with the party and state his position on the issues of the day and his stand for the enforcement of all laws that are now in force or may hereafter be adopted by the people. He is one of the bright young business men of the state and to hear him will be a treat to those who are interested in the continuance of good government. Attorney General Willis E. Reed, one of the ablest orators in the state of Nebraska, will be one of the speakers, and in his able and forceful manner present the result of the work of the state administration for the past two years. Edgar Howard, the brilliant newspaper man of the state and who is the running mate of Mr. Neville for lieutenant governor, will also speak, and his address will be one well worth hearing, as Edgar Howard is one of the able men of the great commonwealth of Nebraska.

Carl Neumann of the United States marines, who has been here visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Neumann, for a short time, departed this morning for St. Louis, where his headquarters are located, to prepare for recruiting services for the navy department.

STRUM ENDORSED BY EX-GOVERNOR GEORGE SHELDON

Sheldon Puts Up the Case of Andrew F. Strum.

Wayside, Miss., Oct. 26.—I desire through your paper to urge my friends in Cass and Otoe counties to work and vote for Andrew Strum for state senator. I am moved to make this appeal not because he supported me loyally and enthusiastically, but more particularly because he stands for the people's welfare and for civic righteousness. Andrew Strum is conscientious, industrious and efficient. He is an unselfish public spirited citizen. He will fulfill his position and platform pledges. He is deserving of and should receive the vote of all those regardless of party affiliations who desire honesty and square dealings in politics. GEORGE L. SHELDON, Nebraska State Journal, Oct. 27, 1916.

MISS GORDER ENTERTAINS LAST EVENING

From Saturday's Daily. Last evening Miss Catherine Gorder entertained in a most charming manner at her home in honor of her friends, and a most delightful time was enjoyed by the jolly crowd of young people in attendance. The event was in the nature of a Halloween party and the Gorder home was tastefully decorated in keeping with the spirit of the occasion with streamers of orange and black, interspersed with the Jack o' lanterns, that lent a pleasing touch to the scene. The young people enjoyed games of all kinds for several hours, and in the contest of pinning on the eyes of a Jack o' lantern, Juno Marshall secured the first prize; Miss Lenora Snyder, second prize, and Miss Ellen Nolting, the consolation prize. A number of very pleasing musical numbers were given by the talented young ladies in the party that added to the enjoyment of everyone, and a short time was spent in the Virginia reel, and in this a great deal of pleasure was derived by the members of the jolly party. At a suitable hour, as the time was passing on toward the witching hour, a luncheon was served of the good things of the season and to this the members of the party did ample justice. It was at a late hour when the members of the party departed homeward, expressing their pleasure at being present on the happy event. Those who were in attendance at this pleasant event were Misses Mary Wetenkamp, Leonora Snyder, Mina Kaffenberger, Agnes Bajbeck, Ida Tschirren, Della Frans, Beatrice Seyber, Kathryn Schrack, Grace Nolting, Alice Weyrich, Ellen Nolting, Abbie Brown, Irene Truscott, Kathryn Gorder, Messrs. Glen Elliott, Everett Spangler, Albert Janda, Frank Palasek, Will Nolting, June Marshall, Fred Speck, Joe McMaken, Vern Hutchison, Will Schmidtman, Howard Wiles, Ruben Kronstedt, Raymond Larson.

ANOTHER DIVORCE CASE FILED IN THE DISTRICT COURT

From Saturday's Daily. Yesterday afternoon in the district court a suit entitled Mathilda Matschulatt vs. William Matschulatt was filed in the office of Clerk of the Court James Robertson, and in this suit the plaintiff asks that a decree of divorce be granted to her from the defendant. In her petition the plaintiff states they were married in February, 1885, in East Prussia, Germany, and came to America in 1892, and have since that time been residents of Nebraska and for the greater part of the time of Plattsmouth. It is further stated that the defendant is the possessor of 160 acres of land in Holt county, twenty-five acres in Knox county and the home in Plattsmouth, valued at $1,200, as well as some $2,000 in money, and the plaintiff asks that a suitable amount for alimony be given to her. The charges preferred are extreme cruelty and non-support.

AT T. J. SOKOL HALL. The T. J. Sokol society will give a social dance at their hall on next Saturday and every person who enjoys a good social time should be present. The music will be furnished by the Holly orchestra.

L. G. LARSON INJURED IN A VERY PAINFUL MANNER

From Saturday's Daily. Yesterday morning L. G. Larson, the contractor, was injured in a very painful manner in falling from a small plank which was placed on two trusses and while the distance was only two feet, the right arm of Mr. Larson struck the truss in falling and it was injured painfully, the full extent of the injuries not being determined as yet. It was necessary to have the injured man taken from the E. J. Richey home, where he was working when the accident occurred, to the office of a physician, where the injured member was dressed and made as comfortable as possible. It is thought the arm was not broken but only painfully bruised.

DEDICATION OF NEW LIBRARY

On the Afternoon and Evening of Wednesday, November 1, When New Building Will Be Formally Opened.

"Open house" will be held from 2 to 5:30 p. m. and this will give all those interested an opportunity to go through the building and view the splendid structure which is now ready for the use of the patrons of the library. At 3:30 there will be a story hour for all children of the first three grades of the public schools. Miss Hazel Dovey will have charge of this part of the program and tell the stories to the children. The auditorium in the basement will be used for the story hour. The formal dedication services will be held at 8 o'clock in the evening and from 7:30 to 8 o'clock the Holly orchestra will give a musical program, and following the concert the following program will be given: Selection—Plattsmouth Male Quartet, Messrs Merman Hough, H. G. McClusky, R. W. Knorr and Bert Knorr. Address—"Historical Sketch of the Plattsmouth Public Library, and the Presentation of Key of New Building to the City," A. L. Tidd. Response to Presentation Address—Mayor J. P. Sattler. Greetings, from Miss Charlotte Templeton, secretary State Library association. Greetings, from Miss Tobitt, Omaha City Library. Presentation of Flag to the Library, W. R. C. ladies. Vocal Solo—Mrs. E. H. Wescott. Dedicatory Address—"The Library in the Community," M. G. Wyer, librarian State university and president State Library association. The public is most cordially invited to attend these exercises. The new library belongs to the citizens of Plattsmouth. They should come and see what an excellent plant they have, for it is one in which we can all take a great deal of pride. Remember the date, Wednesday, November 1, 1916. A special invitation is extended to the city council, board of education, and all organizations and people interested in the public library.

MRS. FRANK SVOBODA DIED SATURDAY

Saturday afternoon at her home in the west part of the city, Mrs. Frank Svoboda passed away after an illness that had covered more than seven years, and during the greater part of that time she had been helpless and a great sufferer, but bore with sturdy fortitude the misfortunes that had been visited upon her during all these years. One of the pathetic features of the illness of Mrs. Svoboda was the care and devotion shown to her by her son, who himself is crippled but who has in all the years of his mother's illness been constantly at her side to minister to her wants and assist her as much as his condition would permit. The family have resided in Plattsmouth for the past two years and a half and came here from Wisconsin, where Mr. Svoboda was engaged in farming for a number of years, until the illness of the wife made it necessary to sell the farm, and since that time the family have made their home for the greater part of the time in this city. The funeral services were held this afternoon from the late home and the interment was in the Catholic cemetery. Mrs. Svoboda leaves to mourn her loss the husband and one son.

TO UNDERGO AN OPERATION.

From Friday's Daily. Miss Helen York was taken to Omaha this afternoon, where she will enter the Immanuel hospital in that city to undergo an operation for appendicitis as soon as possible. She has been suffering from this affliction for several days and it was decided that an operation would be necessary to relieve her from her suffering, and this will be performed as soon as possible after her arrival at the hospital.
