THANKSGIVING PROCLAMATION

Nebraska Fortunate, "With Horn of Plenty Pouring Riches At Our Feet."

A proclamation calling for the observance of Thanksgiving day, November 30, was issued by Governor Morehead on Thursday, in which he says:

"To the people of the state of Nebraska, greeting:

"It is my pleasure as governor of $50,000 eo the state to again call attention to the near approach of that season so dear to every American citizen, in the 123.264 % festivities of which there is no semblance of sectionalism, but in which all point in one accord to give thanks $313,807 00 for the gifts which God in his providence hath bestowed. "The year draws to a close with the horn of plenty pouring its riches at our feet. We can be thankful for a great past, a happy present and a splendid outlook to the future. Nebraska is rounding into the fiftieth year of her admission into the union of states. Our citizens of all callings and professions have been and are taking a deep interest in the effort to place and keep in the front rank the state of their adoption and birth. Never in our history have there been higher standards of honor and manhood, of purity for womanhood and of training for children. For all of let us express our gratitude to the

"Now, I, John H. Morehead, as governor of the state and in keeping with the action of the president of the 50 000 00 United States, do designate and set apart, Thursday, the 30th day of November, 1916, as Thanksgiving day, the speedy coming of the day when peace will be restored to the nations 13 23 now at war.

MRS. TANNER OF SOUTH OMAHA BADLY BURNED

From Saturday's Dally.

Omaha, Neb., Nov. 24.-As Mrs. J. M. Tanner, wife of "Doc." Tanner, editor of the South Omaha Democrat, stood at her telephone yesterday her dress caught fire from a gas stove nearby and she was seriously burned.

Mrs. Tanner rushed screaming into the yard, her clothing, a mass of flames. Neighbors went to her rescue but not until part of her clothing had and succeeded in putting out the fire been burned away and a large portion of her body badly burned. Mys Tanner is under the care of a phy sician at the family residence, and i being kept under opiates.
