The little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Shrader has been numbered with the sick.

The little child of Mr. and Mrs. Cornelius Bengen has been on the sick list for the past few days.

Wm. Sporer made a business trip to Plattsmouth last Tuesday, where he spent a few hours with county seat friends.

Alf. Gansmer has been putting up his ice this week. He was one of the last to complete the task but he is securing some of the finest quality.

Mrs. Frank Campbell has been pretty sick for the past few days, suffering with a severe attack of neuritis.

Miss Gertrude Long was visiting with her sister, Mrs. Robt. Shrader, in South Omaha for a few days the past week.

Arthur Young came in from the west last Wednesday, being called home owing to the serious illness of his mother, Mrs. F. M. Young, sr.

James Hill, who is in the St. Joe hospital in Omaha recovering from an operation for appendicitis, is getting along very nicely at this time, and every indication points to his speedy return home in former good health.

Mrs. D. A. Young, who was called to Moorehead, Iowa, last week owing to the serious illness of her niece, is expected home this week. The niece has recovered sufficiently to be considered out of danger at the present time.

Frank Valley and Earl Barger drove up to Cedar Creek Monday of this week, where Frank purchased some cattle a few days ago, and has been endeavoring to secure cars to ship them to the market. He has, up to the present time been unable to secure cars to ship them, which is indeed a very annoying condition of affairs to the farmer.

Mrs. Sam Latta has been numbered with the sick for the past few days.

Mrs. A. Schafer has been suffering from an attack of the grippe for the past few days.

Wm. Rice was looking after some business matters in Plattsmouth Wednesday of this week.

Our worthy blacksmith, Charley Good has been busy for the past few days, driving horseshoe nails. The icy highways call for new shoes for the horse.

Elmer Boedeker went to Plattsmouth on Thursday of last week to make preparations for his public sale to be held at his home on Wednesday, February 19th. You will find the property listed in another column in this issue of the Journal.

Mrs. W. S. Smith and Miss Margie Walker went to Omaha Tuesday evening where they attended the McCormick Grand Opera at the Auditorium. Mrs. Smith returned home that evening, while Miss Walker remained for a few days visit with friends in the city.

The wolf hunt scheduled for this territory last Monday was a very slim affair owing to the ice and snow that came with the rain Sunday. The west line failed to show up and the east line was rather slim, making the success of the hunt a complete failure, although some of the boys started a war on the poor cottontail, which lasted for a few hours.

Louie Puls has been among the genuine busy men of this locality for the past few days, looking after all the work around the garage, during the absence of his assistant. Mr. Moore has gone down to Missouri to make preparations for the moving of his family to Murray. They will arrive in Murray within a few days and make their future home here.

Minford & Creamer shipped a car of hogs to the South Omaha market Wednesday of this week.

Mrs. L. Rusterholtz, Mrs. Wm. Patterson and Wm. Brown were Plattsmouth visitors last Friday.

John Mutz, of Colorado, has been in Murray for the past few days visiting with his sister, Mrs. Minford.

Robt. McClanahan, a former Murray resident, was visiting old friends in and around town for the past few days.

It has been reported in and around Murray that M. G. Churchill will soon return to Murray and establish a barber shop here.

Albert Young returned home from a weeks visit in Brunswick and Plainview and other towns in that locality this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Walt Minniear, who have been visiting with friends and relatives in the northern part of the state, near Laurel, returned home last Monday evening.

Chas. McReynolds, the famous wolf trapper of these parts, caught another pet this week, making a total of some eight or nine wolves that he has captured this winter. If this is true Charley is sure some trapper or he has a lot of wolves around his place.

Col. Rex Young, the Murray auctioneer, has been busy for the past few days. The public sales are keeping him on the jump and he is covering most all of Cass county this winter. He is still fighting for the high dollar and always will be while he is in the game.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Lutz, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Puls, Mr. and Mrs. Ted Barrows, Mr. and Mrs. Alf. Gansmer and Mr. and Mrs. Puls spent Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Louie Puls in Murray, where they were treated to a most excellent dinner at the noon hour.

Frank Mrasek met with quite a painful accident last Thursday while assisting in the ice pack at the home of Dr. Gilmore. A heavy cake of ice fell on his hand and quite painfully smashed the member. While the injury was not serious he has suffered considerable from the effects of the same.

Mrs. Bessie Seybolt, as chairman, with the assistance of Mrs. Jas. Brown, Mrs. Jas. Deledernier, Mrs. Joan Lloyd and Mrs. Minford served refreshments last Saturday evening at the library. There was a good attendance present. On account of other engagements there will be no cats at the library on next Saturday.

The village contracting firm of Young & Scotton are getting up-to-date these days, and are preparing to do the work right in their line. They are completing the building of a new power saw in their shop for the purpose of sawing and fitting lumber for the erection of buildings that may come their way. Here they can cut the lumber to the proper dimensions much faster and save a great deal of time after the construction work has been under way.

The Lyceum Course.

The Lyceum Course most generally has its anxious moments for the local management, and the present one here is no exception to the rule. About two o'clock on the date of the first number scheduled here, the manager at Lincoln telephoned that the Luce Co. were most all sick and would not be able to fill their engagement here and that they were also unable to substitute. Earnest efforts were put forth to find some one to make an evening of entertainment, and finally four girls with the help of Mr. Joiner, of Nebraska City, gave a very satisfying program. One of the girls was a daughter of Mr. Joiner and possesses excellent musical talent. Miss Bertah Koppke, a teacher in Nebraska City, also a student of the conservatory at the State University. Miss Margaret Teal and Miss Gladys Johnson, both of whom have pretty voices, made up the first number on the Lyceum course, and was a very nice entertainment. The Ladies Aid Society and the Library Association tried to see that every one had an opportunity to buy season tickets. The next number will be Dean Harmon, on Friday evening, Feb. 2. Dean Harmon is most highly recommended and the public is looking forward to a rare treat.

ICY SIDEWALKS HAVE CAUSED NUMEROUS FALLS

From Wednesday's Daily.

The past few days has been productive of some very close calls from serious accidents on the sidewalks and streets, which have been covered with an icy coating that has made travel for man or beast difficult, and the list of those who had falls as a result would comprise the greater part of the city directory. A number of the residents of the city who were out early Sunday morning shoveled off the snow and sleet before it had hardened by the freeze and this has made a few of the walks as havens between the icy wastes of the other walks. The storm made good use of the surplus supply of cinders, however, as they and ashes were in the greatest of demand as first aids against the slippery sidewalks. The condition of the streets has become a little better with the autos and wagons cutting the roadway so that it is now possible to get through without having the autos slide and skid around on the smooth and icy streets, and the horses are much better fixed to stand up in pulling their loads over the highways. Parties in autos who have made the trip from the center of the county state that the roads are in fair condition with occasionally very icy places that makes the driving of a car very difficult.

From Tuesday's Daily.

Miss Bessie Tolliver, 623 South Sixteenth street, Saturday sued Dr. George W. Todd, dentist, for $10,000 damages, alleging that while treating her teeth he cut off a sound tooth and damaged her jaw so that the expression of her face has become changed. —Omaha News.

FILES SUIT TO QUIET TITLE.

From Tuesday's Daily.

This morning in district court an action was commenced by W. H. Rainey in which he seeks to have title to certain real estate owned by him quieted. Attorney W. A. Robertson appears as representative of Mr. Rainey in the action. The defendant named is Samuel Hahn et al.

B. G. WURL HAS BAD FALL.

From Tuesday's Daily.

This morning when B. G. Wurl, the genial cigar manufacturer, was engaged in some work around his home on Granite street, he experienced a rather painful fall on the sleet and snow on the sidewalk in the yard. He had just stepped out of the door when he slipped and fell bruising on the right shoulder, bruising it in a very painful manner and making it difficult to use the right arm. He was able to be on the job, however, despite the painful injury.

Success in Business is the built-up result of a number of detailed improvements over customary methods.

This is January of a new year, the natural time for planning ahead; getting your line up for the Spring work. Look over your farm implements and if you are going to need any new ones come in and tell us. Get our prices; let us figure with you; we may be able to save you some money. Give us a trial; we will appreciate it.

We are interested in your success, because the success of our business depends upon the success of our customers.

Now just remember that we handle the one best line for the man who wants the best—the John Deere full line of agriculture implements, wagons and vehicles, represents more than 75 years of experience in manufacturing QUALITY GOODS, and we consider ourselves fortunate in securing the agency.

MOVING INTO NEW HOME.

From Wednesday's Daily.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Tidd are engaged today in moving into their handsome new home on Oak street, which is now ready for occupancy. The home is one of the coziest in the city and fitted in every way for the comfort of the family. Those who have inspected the house, including one of the leading architects of Lincoln, pronounce it an ideal home in every way.

SECURES A RARE BARGAIN.

From Tuesday's Daily.

Last night Bill Ferguson who resides on a farm south of the city, dropped into the Plattsmouth Fruit and Grocery store and spent a few minutes in conversation with Ben Hankinson, the proprietor. Now, both Bill and Ben are very eager to pick up a bargain where they can, and as they were standing in the store a cat, a pet of the Hankinson family, came into the store room, and Bill at once asked Ben what he would take for the animal. "Fifteen cents," was the reply of Mr. Hankinson, and in an instant Bill had the coin out, paid it over and gathered up the cat and started to leave. All offers to buy the cat back at an advance in price but failed, and Bill states he would not take $1 for the bargain, which is now at the Ferguson home enjoying a fish diet.
