

Union Chautauqua

Saturday, Sunday and Monday, August 25-26-27, 1917.
Three Festival Days for our Community

PROGRAM

FIRST DAY

Afternoon—2:30 35c and 15c Evening—8:15. 50c and 25c
Morrow Bros. Male Quartet—Musical Prelude. Full evening program, featuring harmony, the Morrowphone, and other musical specialties.

SECOND DAY

Chicago Entertainers—Musical Pre-lude. Humorous and Dramatic Sketches. "The Kentucky Mountaineers," as told by one of them—Samuel Justin Sparks. Instrumental Numbers and Costumed Dramatizations. A First Class Program that will please.

THIRD DAY

Ewing's Zouave 22-Piece Band—Ewing's Zouave 22-Piece Band—Appearing in Zouave Uniform. A resplendent showing. With Soloists. Appearing in Evening Military Costume.

FINE OFFERING OF MUSIC, ORATORY AND DRAMATIC PRESENTATIONS

SELLS THRESHING OUTFIT.

Wm. E. Propst, owner of the Propst Garage, who a few days since went to the north part of the state, where he had a threshing outfit working, in charge of Ralph Spahn, has returned, having made the trip in a Ford car. Mr. Propst reports things looking fine up there, and said that Mr. Spahn has been doing fine work, but having had an opportunity to sell the outfit, did so, while he was there.

PLAYED AT LAKE MANAWA.

Richard Avard was at Lake Manawa, Council Bluffs yesterday, assisting in the famous Green band, which disperses music at that resort. Mr. Avard is a musician capable of playing anywhere, and can hold his end of the proposition up with anyone. "Dick" was for twelve years in the service of the government as a musician, and well knows what music is.

Miss Hulda Spohn was a visitor with friends in Omaha this afternoon.

EAT DINNER AT SOUTH BEND.

Monte Straight and wife, accompanied by Guy Straight and Mrs. O. M. Straight, mother of Monte, in his car, departed yesterday morning for South Bend, where they visited for the day at the home of Mr. Straight's cousin, Harry Long, of that place. They took dinner with Mr. Long and visited the fisheries, returning home in the evening.

HAVE HEAD-ON COLLISION.

While driving north of the city, last evening, just about dark, a son of Ferdinand Hennings, who was driving a Paige car, was run into by a car from Omaha, an Overland, and both of the front ends of the cars were crushed in. The car from Omaha was on the wrong side of the road, the driver acknowledging that fact, and will be held responsible for the accident.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Rishel and little son, and Miss Margaret Rishel of Glenwood, motored to this city yesterday morning and spent the day with relatives.

LOCAL NEWS

Raymond Larson came down from Fort Crook Saturday afternoon for an over Sunday visit with his parents.

Mrs. Maude Bunch of Omaha spent Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. McKay and family, in this city.

Leslie Neil was a passenger to Fort Crook last evening, where he visited with Raymond Larson for a few hours.

Mrs. Goldie Graham of Havelock was a visitor in this city over Sunday, being a guest of her aunt, Mrs. H. McKay and family.

Mrs. Levi Rusterholtz and brother, Mr. S. W. Brown, who makes his home on the Rusterholtz farm, were looking after business in the county seat today.

For Sale—New five-room bungalow, two blocks from postoffice; cheap for quick sale; situated 1½ block north of 7th St. Inquire at residence, H. Davidson. S-20-1fd

Charles P. McPherson of Benson was a visitor in the city over Sunday, a guest at the home of his mother-in-law, Mrs. Geo. W. Rennie. Mrs. McPherson is visiting at Western with her sister, Mrs. Aleen Adams, and could not accompany him.

B. F. Crook departed yesterday morning on his trip to the mountains, going first to Lincoln, where he will visit with his son, Ira, and thence to Benkleman, where he will stop with another son, Ray. He went to Lincoln on the train, and will not take the car until he reaches Benkleman.

Herman Beck, of near Nehawka, was a pleasant caller at this office today, and in conversation with him he told us that things were looking fine in his neighborhood, and that the threshing was about all finished, with good yields of small grain and good prospects for a bumper corn crop.

Mr. and Mrs. John M. Fitch and son, Eugene, and Mr. and Mrs. Lee Brown, of the vicinity of Nehawka, motored to this city Saturday afternoon in the Fitch car for a short visit with friends and to attend to some business matters. While here Mr. Fitch took time to call at this office and have his subscription extended for another year.

H. A. Hooeditz, of Visalia, Calif., was a visitor in Plattsmouth Saturday evening, stopping here on his return trip from Davenport, Ia., to his home in the west. He and his wife started June first with a Ford and made the distance in sixteen days, where they visited until two days since, when they started for their home, which they expect to reach September 3d.

Mr. J. G. Phillips, for over fifty years a member of the Masonic order, and at this time living at Lexington, came into Omaha last evening, and with his daughter, Mrs. V. V. Paxton, came down to visit the Masonic Home here this morning. They were guests of the Home, and departed this afternoon for Omaha. Mr. Phillips expects to go to Mexico soon, and desired to visit the Home before going, as he wanted to see some of the "boys" at the Home. Mr. Phillips tells of seeing Mr. Wm. Rinker at Lexington Saturday, and says he is getting around, having ridden with him in his wagon.

WE BUY USED FORDS.

We have two good bargains in used cars.
T. H. POLLOCK AUTO CO.

Stomach and Liver Troubles.

No end of misery and actual suffering is caused by disorders of the stomach and liver, and may be avoided by the use of Chamberlain's Tablets. Give them a trial. They only cost a quarter.

Journal Want-Ads Pay!

$100 Reward, $100

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages and that is catarrh. Catarrh being greatly influenced by constitutional conditions requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Medicine is taken internally and acts through the Blood on the Mucous Surfaces of the System thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing her work. The proprietors have so much faith in the curative powers of Hall's Catarrh Medicine that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address J. C. HENNEY & CO., Toledo, Ohio. Sold by all Druggists, 7c.

George Kay, the genial whole-souled farmer from near Rock Bluffs, was looking after some business in the city last Saturday.

Frank Hull and family were business visitors from old Rock Bluffs, last Saturday, and were transacting business with our merchants.

W. T. Hutchinson, Chas Sans and brother, Henry, as well as Gep Reynolds, from that patriotic center, Rock Bluffs, were business visitors in the county seat Saturday.

The Pollard brothers of Nehawka, last Saturday paid the sum of $841.45 inheritance tax on the property which they inherited from their father, the Isaac Pollard estate.

Wm. Shipley and wife, from La-Platte, were visitors in this city over Sunday, guests of Mrs. Shipley's father, Mr. D. M. Graves, and of Mr. Shipley's brother, Mr. Harvey Shipley and wife.

Miss Beatrice Seybert, who spent Sunday at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Seybert of this city, departed this morning for her work at Ashland, where she is employed as a stenographer in the law office of H. A. Bryant.

Mrs. George B. Cunningham, who has been visiting with relatives at Pawnee City, Liberty, Wymore and Beatrice for the past week, accompanied by her little son Floyd, returned home today.

Mr. Clinton Buckingham, of Carson, Iowa, accompanied by his wife were visiting in the city over Sunday, the guests of Mrs. Buckingham's sister, Mrs. F. E. Smith and husband, who is manager of the Nebraska Lighting company.

Mrs. R. H. Maxwell of Pekin, Ill., arrived in the city yesterday from the east for an extended visit with relatives and friends in and near Cedar Creek, and will while here be a guest at the homes of Peter Schroeder and George Stoehr.

Mason Wescott, and Robert Polk, who is here from Lincoln on a visit with Mason, departed this morning for Omaha on their bicycles, and will visit in Omaha, where they are the guests of friends for the day, providing they made the trip safely and without mishap. They expect to return on their wheels. It has been suggested by a friend that they will probably make the return trip in one of the varnished cars of the Burlington route, and check their bicycles. That, of course, will be to save wear on the bicycles. Ha! ha!

FARM FOR SALE.
The Beins homestead, 3 miles south of Plattsmouth. Inquire of E. W. Beins, or call Phone 4211.

FOR SALE.
A good 7-room house, all modern, except furnace, on South side of Main street, between 10th and 11th. Price $2,600. W. R. Bryan. tf

FOR SALE.
New, strictly modern 6-room house and 5 lots; good outbuildings; cistern and well on place. Charles W. Hula, Plattsmouth, Neb., phone No. 299.

SENTENCE SUSPENDED.
John Scheurer, who was caught in the act of robbing the store of Ashley Ault of Cedar Creek a few days since, was given a trial before district Judge J. T. Begley this afternoon. He admitted to having stolen goods from the store. In consideration of the passing of sentence was suspended, and Mr. Scheurer paroled, on the payment of the costs and one-half of the amount stolen, which was a little in excess of $250, and the payment of the remainder within one year.

VISITING IN PLATTSMOUTH.
B. S. Rhoades and wife of Cambridge, O., are visiting at the home of Mr. Rhoades' sister, Mrs. G. O. Schwenacher, of this city, and have been here for the past twenty-seven years. He is selling books and giving recitals, he being a musician and public speaker. His wife is assisting in the entertainments which they are furnishing. They will give an entertainment at the Methodist church Tuesday evening, and will also visit for some time at the home of their relatives here.

CASTORIA
For Infants and Children
In Use For Over 30 Years
Always bears the Signature of Wm. D. Galt

UNION Ledger

A fine ten-pound baby boy was born to Mr. and Mrs. Ben Roddy Tuesday. Mother and baby are getting along nicely.

Miss Bessie LeRue went to Omaha yesterday to meet her cousin, Miss Alma Dodson of Magnate, who returned home with her.

Mrs. Frelburgouise and children, who have been visiting at the home of Myron Lynde, left Thursday to spend the week in Falls City.

Mrs. D. C. LaRue and son, Lucian, returned home Monday night from a three weeks' visit in northeast Nebraska and the southern part of South Dakota. They report a splendid trip.

Mrs. Fred Clark and daughter, Marion, went to Omaha Wednesday afternoon to join Mr. Clark, and from there they motored to Carson, Ia. They returned home late Thursday afternoon.

W. G. Clark, of Kansas City, Mo., made a sudden and unexpected appearance last Saturday evening. He visited several days with his daughter, Mrs. Exa Frans, and also his parents, who live in Weeping Water. He returned home Wednesday night.

J. A. Whitman was in Union a short time Monday. Mr. Whitman, who lives a mile south of Nehawka, is well known here and his many friends will regret to hear that he is compelled to walk with crutches on account of a bad attack of rheumatism.

Orval McQuin, who recently purchased a new Paige touring car, had a collision with a man from Omaha driving a Ford, near Nebraska City, Sunday evening. The Paige had its running board and fender badly battered up, but the Ford was not much damaged.

Mrs. Della Anderson and little daughter, Dorothy, and Mrs. Ida Applegate, went to Omaha Saturday for a short visit with Wayne Dixon and family. From there Mrs. Anderson went to Maupin, Ore., where she will join her husband, who is in business there, and where she will make her home in the future.

NEHAWKA NEWS.

Leona Pollard, who has been sick the past two weeks, is reported as being much improved.

Roy Malcolm, who has been in the west the past two months, returned to Nehawka the first of the week.

Miss Dorothy Graw of Omaha, who has been a guest at Mrs. E. M. Pollard the past two weeks, returned home Friday.

John Swartz and daughter, Etta, left Tuesday for Lexington, Neb., where they intend to visit Walter Swartz for a couple of weeks.

Miss Lucy Keifer of near Superior, Neb., visited last week at the Malcolm Pollard home, Miss Keifer was principal of the Nehawka High school four years ago.

Miss Harriet Wallace of Long Beach, Cal., arrived last Friday for a visit with her uncles, Raymond and Ernest Pollard, and other friends and relatives.

E. M. Pollard, who was chosen as a member of the exemption board of the South Platte district, went to Lincoln Monday, where the board is still busy on hearing and deciding upon exemptions for the army.

Dr. W. W. Claybaugh of Lincoln, a physician of many years experience, arrived in Nehawka the first of the week. Mr. Claybaugh will have charge of Dr. Thomas' practice in the future, while he is away with the Red Cross Hospital corps.

Three automobile accidents have occurred at the Whiteman corner, south of town, this summer, in which more or less damage was done to the cars, but fortunately no injuries were sustained by the drivers or occupants of the autos. This is a dangerous place and no one should take any chances. Some step should be taken to remedy the conditions at this place.

ELMWOOD.

Leader-Echo.

Dr. J. M. Neely and daughter, Elsie, returned on Thursday of last week from their eastern trip. They report a fine time.
Herman Keuhn has disposed of his 160 acres of land in Deuel county and made quite a nice little sum of money on it. Emil Kuehn sold the farm for him.

Albert Kunz, Robert Kunz and Miss Esther Kunz left Tuesday in an auto for Imperial, Chase county, Nebraska, where they will spend a number of days visiting.

It is reported that Ralph Uhley has rented the Royer property and will move his family from Alvo to this place. Ralph is assistant traveling auditor for the Missouri Pacific railroad.

Mr. and Mrs. John Stoiz of Milford visited Monday at the home of their daughter, Mrs. Emil Bornemeier, and attended the wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Simon Mornemeier.

On last Sunday a little baby girl came to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Roll Miller. The little lady and mother are getting along nicely and congratulations are extended to the happy parents.

On Tuesday Richard Deles Dernier and family left in their car for a western trip. They expect to be gone several weeks and will take in a number of places, including Denver, Colo., and points in Wyoming.

Grandma Hollenbeck was up town on Monday. She had been confined to her home some time on account of sickness, but is able to get about again. She is looking quite well, and her many friends are glad to see her about again.

Miss Izella Fentiman of Waterloo, Ia., arrived Monday evening for a three weeks' visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dan Fentiman and other relatives. She is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Fentiman, who formerly lived here.

On Tuesday afternoon Melvin Jackman, the 13-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Jackman, dislocated his shoulder and fractured one of his arms. He had been swinging on a rope attached to a tree when he lost his hold, with the above result. The injury is very painful and he will be laid up for repairs for some time.

Ed Earnst has just finished threshing his wheat and oats. His wheat averaged thirty bushels to the acre and the oats fifty bushels. This is especially fine for wheat this year, and Mr. Earnst had about twenty-five acres. Others have fairly good wheat, Ed Bornemeier had a fair yield, and Will and Emil Rosenow also. It looks as though some of this good wheat could be used very nicely for seed for the next year's crop in this section.

Henry Ragoss was in town Tuesday. He tells the Courier that the last job of threshing has been completed in his neighborhood and that oats was a good crop, averaging all the way from thirty-five to seventy bushels per acre. "There is but little wheat in Cass county," said Mr. Rogers, "but I raised about 900 bushels on fifty acres, of the finest winter wheat you would care to see."

Mrs. Anabell and baby of Saratoga arrived last week to visit her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Davis, and her aunt, Mrs. Will Morse, in the country.

Rev. W. J. Davis, who has been here for some time visiting his nephews, Frank and Troy Davis, returned to his home at Ozark, Ark., Wednesday morning.

George Brown left Wednesday morning for Wichita, Kan., with his son, Miles, who has been a cripple for a number of years. The object in the trip is to see a specialist regarding the boy's affliction.

Archie Crozier, who has been having a siege of illness for several weeks, has improved so that he was able to come down town this noon in a car. It is hoped that he will soon be able to walk down.

Mrs. C. W. Bish and little daughter left Saturday for Colorado, where they will join Mr. Bish. After he gets his business affairs attended to they will visit Estes Park until school time.

George Halmes, who has been in the Fort Harrison officers' training camp, has completed the course of training and is now visiting at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. N. C. Halmes.

The list of men accepted for the second officers' training camp at Fort Snelling, contains the names of Will Kithley of Syracuse and Victor Sturm of Nehawka, both young men are well known here.

Mr. and Mrs. Reuben Grosser, little child, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Wiles and daughter, Miss Theresa, left this morning for Sutton's Bay, Mich., for a couple of weeks' visit at the home of Mr. Grosser's parents.

Les Gregory came in from Chase county Sunday morning and returned Wednesday. He reports the harvesting just done. Threshing will commence at once. He says there is wheat there that will make from fifteen to twenty bushels, and barley about twenty bushels.

The stork has been a busy old fellow the last week, and Wednesday he called at the Carl Sill home, southeast of town, with a fine baby boy. On Thursday, he called on Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Hutsell in the south part of town, and left a fine young daughter. On Sunday night he called on Mr. and Mrs. Dan Sudduth on the Gibson farm and presented them with a nine and a half-pound son.

LOUISVILLE Courier

W. F. Diers and Henry Sass will leave next Tuesday for Wibaux, Mont., to look after their land interests.

Fritz Terryberry has returned from Dubois, Wyo., where he visited his cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Boedeker. Mrs. C. E. McLain and daughter, Marie, of Hershey, Neb., have been visiting her aunt, Mrs. Ellen Rathbun, and other relatives.

Dr. and Mrs. L. P. Hall, parents of Adjutant General Hall of the "Dandy Sixth," were in Louisville on Sunday, stopping at the Hotel Drake for lunch.

Mrs. E. D. Smith and daughter, Claire, have returned from an extended visit with Mrs. Smith's parents at Hubbell, and other points in that vicinity.

Prof. and Mrs. A. F. Becker returned Tuesday from a week's visit at Fremont with Mr. Becker's mother. They also attended the chautauqua and the tractor show.

Mrs. S. C. Keckler returned this week from Ipswitch, S. D., where she was called over two months ago by the illness of her mother, Mrs. August Brunkow, who passed away Thursday, August 2, at 1:30 a. m.

Attorney H. O. Palmer and mother, Mrs. Alma Palmer of Omaha, have gone to California, where Mrs. Palmer expects to remain next winter. Mr. Palmer, who recently underwent an operation for appendicitis, will be away several weeks.

F. H. Ossenkop has received notice of his reappointment as postmaster at Louisville for another four years, having just finished a four-year term of office. He has sent in his acceptance, together with the necessary papers, to the department at Washington.

Mrs. W. F. Diers and two children, Billy and Katherine, left Sunday for Littleton, Colo., near Denver, for a visit with Mrs. Diers' nephew, Ellis Hart. Mr. Hart's father and mother and sister, Mr. and Mrs. James Hart and Miss Esther, of York, are also visiting him.

Henry Ragoss was in town Tuesday. He tells the Courier that the last job of threshing has been completed in his neighborhood and that oats was a good crop, averaging all the way from thirty-five to seventy bushels per acre. "There is but little wheat in Cass county," said Mr. Rogers, "but I raised about 900 bushels on fifty acres, of the finest winter wheat you would care to see."

Ed Betts was called to Omaha on business Tuesday.
Rev. Shepherd is transacting business in Filley this week.
Mr. Shaw and son, Jim, of Lincoln, visited Mrs. Stanley Sunday.
Mrs. H. L. Swanson and daughter visited the Renner home over Sunday.

Chas. S. Williams was called to Lincoln Monday, before the Board of Examiners.
Wm. Christopherson and family left Thursday for Lexington, Neb., for a week's visit.
Miss Bertha Miller, of Omaha, visited the L. W. Piersoll home 3 miles southwest of Eagle this week.
Mrs. George Peterson went to Lincoln Wednesday to meet her brother, Willis Scouten, of Oklahoma, who is visiting relatives hereabouts.

Jay Peterson and family are removing to Nebraska City to reside. Mr. P. has a position in the packing house there. They have the best wishes of Eagle friends.
Fred Dihel, who served 4 years in the U. S. Navy, and whose term expired about a year ago, has been recalled. He left Wednesday for Chicago, and expects to take up his duties at once.
Carl Price accompanied his father and mother to Crab Orchard one day last week. His father, Mr. C. C. Price, went to consult a physician and Mrs. Price went along for company and the auto ride.
Mrs. Shepherd received word from her brother, A. L. Burpo, saying that with the exception of broken arches in his feet, he passed the physical examination before the exemption board. He was rejected on account of his feet.

Mr. Wm. Snyder, of Candler, Florida, came in Wednesday evening to visit his son, C. P. Snyder, host of the Eagle hotel. Mr. S's coming was unheralded, but a cordial reception was accorded. He is eighty-eight years young and as spry and jolly as a three-year-old. He formerly resided here.

Mr. Wm. Snyder, of Candler, Florida, came in Wednesday evening to visit his son, C. P. Snyder, host of the Eagle hotel. Mr. S's coming was unheralded, but a cordial reception was accorded. He is eighty-eight years young and as spry and jolly as a three-year-old. He formerly resided here.

Mr. Wm. Snyder, of Candler, Florida, came in Wednesday evening to visit his son, C. P. Snyder, host of the Eagle hotel. Mr. S's coming was unheralded, but a cordial reception was accorded. He is eighty-eight years young and as spry and jolly as a three-year-old. He formerly resided here.

Mr. Wm. Snyder, of Candler, Florida, came in Wednesday evening to visit his son, C. P. Snyder, host of the Eagle hotel. Mr. S's coming was unheralded, but a cordial reception was accorded. He is eighty-eight years young and as spry and jolly as a three-year-old. He formerly resided here.

Mr. Wm. Snyder, of Candler, Florida, came in Wednesday evening to visit his son, C. P. Snyder, host of the Eagle hotel. Mr. S's coming was unheralded, but a cordial reception was accorded. He is eighty-eight years young and as spry and jolly as a three-year-old. He formerly resided here.

Mr. Wm. Snyder, of Candler, Florida, came in Wednesday evening to visit his son, C. P. Snyder, host of the Eagle hotel. Mr. S's coming was unheralded, but a cordial reception was accorded. He is eighty-eight years young and as spry and jolly as a three-year-old. He formerly resided here.

Mr. Wm. Snyder, of Candler, Florida, came in Wednesday evening to visit his son, C. P. Snyder, host of the Eagle hotel. Mr. S's coming was unheralded, but a cordial reception was accorded. He is eighty-eight years young and as spry and jolly as a three-year-old. He formerly resided here.

Sensational Auto Value of the Age!

The Crow-Elkhart

MULTI-POWER CAR!

The most wonderful range of power you have ever known in a light car—a quality of smoothness that is new. The most car for the money on the market today. Look into the wonderful performance of this car with such economy—18 to 26 miles on a gallon of gasoline. Look into the high qualities of this car, and you will wonder how it can be sold at the popular price. A big powerful looking car that dominates the roads, for

$845 f. o. b. Factory

For Demonstration See

GEO. M. HILD, Agent

PLATTSMOUTH, NEB.

The Nehawka Mills

are now Rolling and Manufacturing the "Letter Roll" Flour!

"Letter Roll" Flour needs no boosting. For on the top shelf it now is roosting. The best cooks wherever you go Use this famous flour, you know. They just set their yeast and go to bed. For they know on the morrow they will have good Bread.

J. M.

C. D. ST. JOHN, Prop.

JOE MALCOLM, Head Miller.

For Sale by All Dealers