

Here's a pointer for you

SEVERAL months ago we made a fortunate purchase of men's silk shirts. They have just arrived and we are more than delighted with the splendid quality and patterns sent us. Understand please, these are not fibre silk, or near silk or cotton back silk, but all pure spun silk, with broad satin stripes, combined with purple, green, slate and gold stripes. The price—not $7 nor $6.50 nor $6 nor even $5.50, but

$4.95 EACH

See them in our corner window. Don't let the chance go by!

C. E. Wescott's Sons
"EVERYBODY'S STORE"

LOCAL NEWS

From Friday's Daily.

Mrs. Fred Englekemeier and Fred Leug were passengers to Omaha this morning where they will visit the son of Mrs. Englekemeier, at the Methodist hospital.

Mrs. Will J. Vallery and son, Gerald, of Havelock, came in this morning and are visiting with Grandpa and Grandma Peter J. Vallery and wife for a few days.

W. R. Bryan, wife and Miss Lucille, their daughter, departed this afternoon for Fort Collins, Colorado, where they will visit with another daughter for about two weeks.

Misses Blanche and Adella Sayles departed last evening for Cedar Creek where they will visit for a few days with their grandmother, Mrs. Geo. E. Sayles, and other relatives and friends.

Mrs. George A. Kaffenberger and two daughters, Misses Ola and Mima, departed this morning for Omaha, at which place they will visit with some friends for the day, and look after business matters as well.

Fred Weidman, of Plainview, came in last evening for a short visit with his mother, Mrs. George Weidman. He was a passenger to Omaha this morning, where he is in attendance at the Merchants' convention.

Miss Mary Troop, who has been making her home at Farnam, this state, for the past few years, came in this morning from that place and will visit for some time at the home of her brother, Robert Troop, of this city.

Earnest Harnsberger, of Ashland, Nebraska, came in this morning and is visiting with his cousins, the Fricke boys, for a short time. Mr. Harnsberger is one of the army officers at the training school at Ft. Snelling, and is home on a visit with his folks at Ashland.

Mr. H. H. Tyson, of Max, Neb., is visiting in the city with his brother-in-law, Mr. Q. K. Parmele. Mr. Tyson is a prosperous farmer living in the extreme southwestern portion of the state, and says things are looking fine out there. Mrs. Parmele is now visiting out there at the home of her brother.

Miss Ruby Smith, who has been visiting in the city for some time past at the home of her friend, Mrs. Thomas Wiles, departed this afternoon for Cedar Creek, where she will visit for a short time at the home of her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Adam Meisinger, before going to her home at Havelock.

Mrs. L. R. Blanchard, of Lincoln, who has been visiting in the city and south of town at the home of her aunt, Mrs. B. F. Wiles, since last Wednesday, departed yesterday afternoon, accompanied by her little son, Robert Miner Blanchard. Mrs. Blanchard was formerly Miss Beulah Miner, and will be remembered by her many friends here.

Mr. George McDowell, a druggist of Hardy, Nebraska, was a visitor in the city yesterday at the home of Mrs. B. J. Hempel, for a few hours between trains. Mr. McDowell is the husband of the former Miss Teresa Hempel, daughter of Mr. Henry Hempel, and came to Omaha to attend the Merchants' convention. He took advantage of the opportunity of running down here for a short visit with Mrs. McDowell's grandmother.

From Saturday's Daily.

A. H. Graves, of Murray, was a business visitor in Plattsmouth this morning.

Lewis Crabtree, of Mynard, and A. Jacoby, were business visitors in Plattsmouth this afternoon.

Mr. E. R. Mutz, of Eight Mile Grove, was a passenger to Omaha this morning, where he is looking after some business.

Wm. Sporrer, from near Murray, was a visitor in the city yesterday afternoon, looking after some business in the county seat.

A. B. Kreaeger, of near Eight Mile Grove, was a passenger to Omaha this morning, where he is looking after some business matters.

Mr. M. J. Wiles, wife and Miss Helen Livingston, were visitors in Omaha today, where they are looking after some business matters.

James Tigner, of west of Murray, was a business visitor in the city this morning, where he was looking after some business at the county seat.

Miss Eva Clark, of Minneapolis, Minn., arrived this afternoon for a visit at the home of her friends, Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Wiles, living just south of the city.

Miss Keo Currie, of Broken Bow, is visiting with her friends and sister member in the Sorority at the state university, Mrs. W. A. Robertson, of this city, for a few days.

Mrs. A. M. Searles departed this morning for Bushnell, Illinois, where she will visit for some time, going then to her former home at Geneseo, Illinois, for a visit with both friends and relatives.

Prof. A. F. Becker, superintendent of the city schools, of Louisville, was a business visitor in the city for a while yesterday. He was looking after some business in connection with his school, at the office of the county superintendent of schools.

Mrs. George Rummell and little daughter, Miss Lucille, who have been visiting at the home of Ed Rummell, of Mynard, and Will Rummell, living west of Plattsmouth, and their families for the past week, departed last evening for their home at Bellevue.

A. W. Wilber, who is employed at the farm of A. A. Wetencamp, west of Mynard, is having considerable trouble with a hand in which he has contracted blood poisoning as a result of wearing a blister on it while working. The hand has been in very bad condition, but is some improved now and promises to be all right in a short time.

Martin Steppat and son, Eddie, whose home is near Blair, drove down in their car yesterday afternoon, and visited for a short time with friends in the city. They then went out for a short visit with another son of Mr. Steppat, Frank, who resides northwest of the city, departing late last evening for their home at Blair.

Mrs. W. H. Kirkendall, of Eddyville, Nebraska, who has been visiting at Weeping Water for some time past, a guest at the home of John Davis and of Francis Flemming, came over this afternoon to take the train to Hamburg, Iowa, where she will visit for some time at the home of her daughter, Mrs. M. J. Welch before returning to her home in Nebraska.

Chronic Constipation.

It is by no means an easy matter to cure this disease, but it can be done in most instances by taking Chamberlain's Tablets and complying with the printed directions that accompany each package.

Mrs. May Taylor and son, Russell, who have been visiting in the city for the past few days, the guests of Mrs. Alice Cowles and her daughter, Mrs. W. E. Probst, departed last evening for their home at Madison, Wisconsin. Mr. Probst took the folks to Omaha via automobile, from where they departed on the train making the best connections for their home at Madison.

Frank R. Gobelman departed last evening for Billings, Forsythe and Lewiston, Montana, where he will spend a week. He goes to Forsythe, near where he has a sister, who is holding down a claim, and who is desirous that her brother come out, as she wishes his advice in some matters pertaining to the claim. Mr. Gobelman has not seen his sister for about five years, and goes partly as a visit, as well as to see if he can assist her in the things about which she wishes to ask his advice.

MAKE TRIP TO LINCOLN.

Yesterday Sewell Sanderson and family came down from Lincoln for a short visit with the family of Geo. K. Staats, and was accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Staats' son, Clarence V. Staats. During the day they visited at the Staats home and in the evening returned to Lincoln. The family of Mr. Staats accompanied them for a visit. Mr. Staats returned on the early Burlington train this morning while Mrs. Staats remained for a longer visit.

ASKS TO GO WITH FIRST CALL.

C. E. Mungler, of Mt. Pleasant precinct, who was drawn, not in the first call, and whose number will not come for some time yet, has come to Plattsmouth and made known his desire to be allowed to go with the first call, as he wants to get into the service as soon as he can.

TAKES CHILD TO HOSPITAL.

Mrs. George Barr departed for Omaha this afternoon, where she takes her little daughter, Elsie, to the Methodist hospital. The little girl will have an operation for the removal of a growth in the nose which has been causing the child some trouble of late. Mrs. Barr will also visit her father, Mr. J. B. Higley, while there. He is now making satisfactory progress toward recovery.

PIANO INSTRUCTION.

On September 3rd Miss Olive Gans will begin the Fall term of her class in music. Telephone 222 any time after August 30th. a27-1wday

LETTERS UNCLAIMED.

The following unclaimed letters in the Plattsmouth, Nebraska, postoffice will be sent to the Dead Letter office on September 10, 1917, if not called for before that date:

W. J. Bud Brown
Mr. Ernest R. Zeigen.
In calling for any of the above, please say "Advertised."
D. C. MORGAN, P. M.

EASTERN STAR PICNIC.

Home Chapter, No. 159, O. E. S., will hold their annual picnic Friday, August 31st, at the Masonic Hall. Supper will be served at 6 o'clock. Initiation at 8 o'clock. All members are invited to be present.

Miss Esther Noyes, of Louisville, was one of the teachers of the Cass county schools in the city today attending the teachers' institute.

TOLD IN PLATTSMOUTH

A Resident Known to All Our Readers Relates An Experience.

Readers of the Journal have been told again and again of the merits of that reliable, time-proved kidney remedy—Doan's Kidney Pills. The experiences told are not those of unknown persons living far away. The cases are Plattsmouth cases, told by Plattsmouth people.

Theo. Starkjohan, retired farmer, Locust and Ninth streets, Plattsmouth, says: "For several years Doan's Kidney Pills have been used in our family for backache and other symptoms of kidney trouble and they have always proved to be all that is claimed of them. Whenever my back feels a little lame and my kidneys are not acting as they should, I take Doan's Kidney Pills a few days and they never fail to do me good. Doan's can't be equalled and anyone having kidney trouble should use them, for they are reliable."

Price 60c at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Starkjohan uses. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

Ready for School --- Vacation's Over!

Very soon brother and sister will have to give up long days of play; the ringing school bell will call them to hours of study; the pleasure of the summer vacation will be over. Summer vacation days play havoc with children's clothes; before school commences "mother will have to be busy preparing the necessary school dresses, getting a supply of hose, etc. We're ready to help her with a complete selection of serviceable, practical garments and accessories.

Pretty and Serviceable—these Beautiful Gingham!

And there's such a variety of beautiful patterns too—so many attractive ways of making them. All are absolutely fast colors, a consideration not to be overlooked in children's apparel.

Children's Undergarments!

So necessary to the comfort and health of the child are suitable union suits, waists, etc., that their selection is of great importance. In our assortments you'll find undergarments to meet every need.

H. M. SOENNICHSEN,

Phones 53 and 54.

Get a Good Supply of HOSE!

While stocks are complete we urge you to buy in sufficient quantities to take care of the children months to come.

We Like to Serve

GETS BIG JOB IN IOWA.

Last Saturday J. W. Peters, of the firm of Peters & Parker, was the successful bidder for a contract to build a new wing for a kitchen, on the Institute for the Feeble Minded at Glenwood, Iowa. The contract pays, for the work and material, $10,000, which added to the work this firm already has on hand and under way, will furnish them work for a good long time in advance.

ATTEND WEDDING IN EAST.

Jacob Tritsch and wife and Mrs. Phillip Tritsch, with her little children, Mayne and Elizabeth, departed this morning for Calloway, Nebraska, where Mr. Tritsch goes to look after some business, and the ladies will attend the wedding of Miss Rachel Gilmore, a daughter of Joseph Gilmore, a former resident of this county. The party will be away for about a week.

SOME TOMATO.

Yesterday afternoon, Mrs. J. A. Wilson, Sr., who formerly resided in Oklahoma, and who moved to the old Hiatt place, near Murray, last fall, was in the city, and while here brought a huge tomato and a head of cabbage to this office. The tomato is some large one. It weighs 2 3/4 pounds and Mrs. Wilson states that there were seven of this size on one vine, and that she has a large number of good sized tomatoes, ten of which will fill a 3-gallon bucket. The head of cabbage she brought weighed 11 1/2 pounds, and she has some 200 heads nearly as large.

Miss Kittie Cummins, Piano teacher, Fall term will begin Monday, September 3rd. Residence Studio at 902 First avenue. Phone No. 19. a27-1wkdaw

Mrs. Robert R. Brisse, who has been visiting in the city for some days past at the home of B. C. Hyde and wife, departed yesterday morning for her home at Table Rock.

Ever-ready entertainment
The unexpected guest is royally entertained with the music of the

Victrola

The world's best music always at your instant command—a pleasure to your friends as well as to your family.

Come in and let us introduce you to the joys of this wonderful instrument.
Victrolas $15 to $300.
Victrolors $10 to $100.
Terms to suit your convenience.

JOY IN THE HOME.

There is joy in another household, this time on Winterstein hill, where the stork left a nine pound boy at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Polin. The little one came Saturday and is doing nicely as is also his mother.

Box Paper and Correspondence Cards at the Journal office.

Fred Garder, from Weeping Water, was a visitor in the city today looking after some matters of business at the court house this morning.

John Lloyd, of southwest of Murray, was a business visitor in Omaha this morning, coming to this city in his car and taking the train from here for the metropolis.

Hey Boys!

—Is your vacation suit as near "all in" as your vacation?
—A healthy boy needs a good healthy suit for school—one that will stand wrestling, sliding and marbles.
—Better come in get fixed up with a suit of "BEST-EVER" clothes
—you can't wear 'em out when you wear 'em out.

$5.50 to $8.00

Philip Thierolf
VALUE GIVING CLOTHIER

"BEST-EVER" Boys' Clothes

Tire Conservation Day

Propst Garage

brings to the motorists of this city and vicinity first-hand information for all who are interested in increasing the wearing power of their tires and so reducing this item of expense.

A well-known tire expert will give personal attention to the tire problems of all who come to the demonstration. His interesting exhibits show all kinds of tire wear—preventable and unpreventable—and his mission is to reduce to the minimum the preventable kinds of tire failure for motorists of this community.

This demonstration is free. It makes no difference what kind of tires you use—you are urged to come—for your good.

Remember the date and remember the place—

Tuesday, August 28

Propst Garage, Plattsmouth, Neb.

