RETAIL PROFITS ON FOODSTUFFS TO BE REGULAT'D

PROFITEERING BY DEALERS TO BE MADE IMPOSSIBLE BY SAFEGUARDING.

LICENSE SYSTEM EFFECTIVE

Unreasonable Charge, Hoarding or Monopoly after Nov. 1, to be Dealt With Severely.

Washington, Oct. 29.—Profiteering by retail dealers in foodstuffs will be made impossible after November 1, the food administration announced tonight, under a plan to cut off supplies to those not satisfied with reasonable margins. Manufacturers, wholesalers and other handlers of foods, whose businesses will go under license, will not be permitted to sell to distributors who seek undue profits.

"This is one of the most sweeping safeguards," the announcement said, "against high prices, which will be incorporated in the licensing system, for which complete rules and regulations will be made known in a few days."

Entire Control of Prices.

This plan, food administration officials believe, will give the government entire control of retail prices. Wholesalers and others who continue to sell to retailers after they are forbidden to do so by the food administration will be denied the right to sell goods under license.

Authority for extending control to the retailer is cited in the announcement, as follows:

"The small retailers of food, of whom there are several hundred thousand in the country, while exempt from the licensing provisions, are nevertheless, subject to other provisions of the food control act. Every retailer, as well as every other handler of food, is forbidden under the law to make any unreasonable charge, to hoard, or to monopolize, waste or destroy food, or to conspire with anyone to restrict the production, distribution, supply or exact excessive prices on any necessities. There are no penalties provided, but the food administration hopes that the arrangement of restricting supplies to violators of the law will be of some effect, for the retailer will find himself unable to buy goods of any wholesaler or manufacturer."

Watch for Violators.
Federal food administrators in all the states will be directed to keep a watch for violators and send to the food administration the names of retailers asking excessive prices.

"The food administration," the announcement says, "does not intend to disturb any legitimate operations, and will initiate measures only against hardened and persistent violators of the law. It takes the position that the great majority of food sellers, retail as well as wholesale, are patriotic and honest, and are making every effort to comply with good business principles and to sell to the consumer at the lowest possible prices. Such dealers will be, in fact, protected from illegitimate competition. Those few who persist in abusing their opportunities and continue to take advantage of the emergency caused by the war will receive attention."

Wheat Flour Jobbers, Too.

New York, Oct. 29.—Supervision over jobbing departments of flour mills and other wheat flour jobbers, wholesalers, retailers, brokers, blenders, agents and reconitioners, in all cases where such businesses are operated as an auxiliary to a flour milling business or as part of such business, is to be exercised by the milling division of the federal food administration, it was announced here today.

The action is taken under the president's food proclamation of October 8, and applies to handlers of flour and mill products doing a business in excess of $100,000 a year, who are instructed to make immediate application for licenses. They will receive from the milling division a questionnaire requiring a detailed description of their relations with the flour mills with which they are associated.

GERMANS PLAN A TRAP FOR SLAVS IN RIGA SECTOR

RETIREMENT OF HUN FORCES BELIEVED A LURE FOR RUSSIANS.

Petrograd, Oct. 29.—The year's greatest German blow against Russia the springing of a gigantic trap is still looked for. Leading Russian military critics are now united in taking the view repeatedly advanced since the German naval drive in the Baltic, namely, that the recent Teuton retirement on a wide front north of the Dvina had two purposes:

- 1.—To shorten the German front temporarily.
- 2.—To lure the Russians on and then trap them.

No one in well informed quarters here believes for a moment that the Teutons have actually thinned their Northern front in the east and sent large forces thence to the Italian front. The German reserves on the latter battle field are from elsewhere, notably from the Galician and Rumanian fronts.

Germans Plan Landing.

The Germans have evacuated the Werder peninsula, according to official announcement made today by the war office. German forces landed on the Werder peninsula in the Gulf of Riga during the recent German offensive.

But the Teuton lineup North and East of Riga is as powerful as ever, with added menace from the German fleet in the Riga gulf. Already there are strong symptoms of a German plan to land a large force on the gulf's littoral, under cover of the Teuton warships' powerful long range guns.

Military experts expect that the landing will be attempted at some point along the littoral between Pernau and Hainasch. The landings on the shore of the Gulf of Hapsal and on the Werder peninsula were effected by limited forces and are regarded more as diversions than operations of any future consequence.

Retirement Deceives No One.

Immediately upon having creared the gulf of Riga of Russian ships, the German land forces on the Riga front began their retirement. It deceived no one connected with the Russian high command. It is fully realized that its aim is to draw the Russians as far down as possible toward Riga and then strike a powerful blow in their rear, taking the Russian northern army between the arms of a new "nutcracker," one being the German Dvina line and the other formed by the force to be landed to the north of the present Russian line.

As for the Gulf of Finland, the Germans have thus far made no move tending to show an attempt to force the gulf and drive on to Petrograd. Up to date there have only been U-boat reconnaissances at the entrance of the gulf.

Certain Cure for Croup.

Mrs. Rose Middleton, of Greenville, Ill., has had experience in the treatment of this disease. She says, "When my children were small my son had croup frequently. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy always broke up these attacks immediately, and I was never without it in the house. I have taken it myself for coughs and colds with good results."

KERENSKY AT FRONT TO REORGANIZE ARMY

Petrograd, Oct. 28.—Premier Kerensky has gone to the front. The newspapers today published a note to the effect that the war minister has begun the elaboration of a scheme for the reorganization of part of the army on the basis of separate nationalities.

PACIFIST KIDNAPED, STRIPPED, WHIPPED

HERBERT BIGELOW OF CINCINNATI TREATED ROUGHLY FOR ANTI-WAR ACTIONS.

Cincinnati, O., Oct. 29.—Herbert Bigelow, head of the People's church here, and a leading member of the people's council, who was kidnaped in an automobile last night just before he was to have addressed a socialist meeting was found near Florence, Ky., this morning.

Bigelow had been taken into a woods, his clothes removed and thrashed with a "blacksnake" whip by a party of men dressed in "long white robes resembling those described as being worn by the renowned "Ku Klux Klan."

Previous to "twelve lashes being applied to Bigelow's back" one of the party raised his hand commanding silence and then read from a paper he held as follows:

"In the name of the poor women and children of Belgium this man should be whipped," according to the report.

Bigelow was then turned loose and directed toward Cincinnati. He lost his way, however and wandered in the woods until he found himself in Florence.

BRITISH AIR DEFENSE IS TOO MUCH FOR GERMANS

London, Oct. 29.—Hostile air-planes endeavored to carry out a raid tonight on the southeast counties of England, but one of them was able to pass the outer defenses according to an official communication issued late tonight by Field Marshal Viscount French, commander in chief of the home forces.

An Old Man's Stomach.

As we grow older and less active, less and less food is required to meet the demands of our bodies. If too much is habitually taken, the stomach will rebel. When a man reaches the advanced aged of 85 or 90, you will find that he is a light eater. Be as careful as you will, however, you will occasionally eat more than you should and will feel the need of Chamberlain's Tablets to correct the disorder. These tablets do not contain pepsin, but strengthen the stomach and enable it to perform its functions naturally. They also cause a gentle movement of the bowels.

Well, its time for another trip to Chase county, and Rosey is going again next Sunday evening. Are you ready for the trip now? You surely have been thinking of this trip long enough to have made up your mind to go. See Rosencrans now for reservations for Sunday evening.

U-BOAT BLOW AT U. S. SENATORS IS FOILED BY GUNS

ATTACK BY SUBMARINE ON VESSEL BEARING KENDRICK OF WYOMING AND KENYON OF IOWA STOPPED BY GUNNERS.

London, Oct. 29.—The steamer on which were United States Senators John D. Kendrick of Wyoming and William S. Kenyon of Iowa and Representatives John J. Rogers of Massachusetts and James S. Parker of New York, was attacked by a German submarine off the coast of Wales Saturday.

The gunners on the steamer opened fire immediately and the submarine submerged before having time to launch a torpedo.

The Americans arrived in London safely and were entertained at dinner tonight by the Lord High Chancellor, Sir R. B. Finlay, with other American congressmen already here.

The visiting congressmen were entertained at a luncheon in the House of Commons today by Ian Z. Malcolm, unionist member for Coryden. The other guests included former Premier Balfour; the lord mayor of London, Sir Horace Plunkett; Lord Beresford, Sir Eric Drummond and Colonel John Buchan.

Mr. Balfour delivered a speech of welcome to the congressmen. Congressman Dill replied by saying that, while the visit of the Americans was unofficial, the party was in the war area to learn and hoped to go back to the United States better equipped to be more helpful to the allies.

SUCCESS ON ITALIAN FRONT PUTS AN END TO AUSTRIA'S PEACE HOPES

Zurich, Oct. 29.—Austrian hopes of a "speedy and honorable peace" have been raised by the Austro-German successes on the Italian front, the president of the reichstag said in an address to the deputies, as quoted in Vienna dispatches. He admitted there had been great anxiety in regard to Trieste which had now been removed.

"The report of the proceedings in parliament adds that the German and Polish deputies arose and cheered the emperor and the army, implying that the Czechs did not join in the demonstration.

The safety of Trieste seems to be the chief cause of rejoicing in Austria. The Neue Freie Presse of Vienna says that ever since Italy declared war the monarchy has not ceased to be anxious for that city. It speculates as to whether British and French influence will prove strong enough to prevent the collapse of Italy's war policy or whether the mass of population, recognizing the seriousness of the situation will become convinced peace is necessary.

ALWAYS ROOM AT THE TOP.

From Tuesday's Daily. Myola Propst, was offered a position in a bank at Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, and which being a pretty good position she accepted. This left a vacancy in the offices of the Burlington shops office that was filled by the promotion of Miss Roe Mae Creamer, which left a vacancy in the position which she had filled and Miss Hilda Brinkman was promoted, while Miss Alice Weyrich occupied the place vacated by Miss Brinkman, then Pauline Olson, who has been the messenger girl, was placed in that position, and on being offered the position of Messenger girl, Miss Della Frans accepted and is now filling that position.

The wheels are turning and all we have to do is a little more than fill the position which we occupy, not just about fill it but more than fill it and the road to promotion is open.

REX YOUNG BUYS QUARTER OF LAND IN PERKINS CO.

From Tuesday's Daily.

Frank Valley, James Mraeck and Rex Young returned this afternoon from a trip to the western portion of the state, where they were looking over the country and the prospects grown there. In speaking about the country out that way, Mr. Mraeck said that he had learned more in the trip, comprising but a few days, than two years of schooling would have taught him. He stated he did not know the world was so large out that way.

While they were gone Mr. Young purchased a quarter section of land in Perkins county near the town of Grant, with which he is very well pleased, both as to the lay of the ground and the quality of the soil.

Mrs. P. O. Stuchell Tells How She Cured Her Son of a Cold.

"When my son Ellis was sick with a cold last winter I gave him Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It helped him at once and quickly broke up his cold," writes Mrs. P. O. Stuchell, Homer City, Pa. This remedy has been in use for many years. Its good qualities have been fully proven by many thousands of people. It is pleasant and safe to take.

WASHINGTON IS RELIEVED AS ITALIANS SHOW FIGHT

INDICATIONS OF IMPROVED MORALE ARE OBSERVED WITH EAGER INTEREST.

Belief Prevails German Drive Theatrically Staged for Political Effect.

Washington, D. C., Oct. 29.—Word from Rome today that the Italian line was holding against the terrific assault of the Austro-German forces was received by official Washington with eager interest and frank relief. Military authorities here have not disguised their anxiety as press reports showed the Italians wavering under the crushing blows of the enemy.

Satisfaction was found also tonight in the announcement from London that steps had been taken by the French and British to support the Italian front. There was no indication of what operations that announcement might foreshadow.

Even accepting the German claims at face value, many officers here believe General Cadorna will be able to check the drive if the morale of his army was not shattered. The announcement from Rome that all elements of the Italian forces were obeying orders of the general staff was viewed as setting at rest, for the time at least, the gravest fears for the final outcome of the struggle.

Believed Forces Reuniting.

The announcement was taken to mean that General Cadorna had succeeded in reuniting the forces scattered by the first fierce rush of the Austro-Germans and was falling back behind a well organized defense to the line selected for a stand.
