WESTERN MACHINE SHOPS A GROWING INSTITUTION HERE

ORDERS ROLL IN FROM EVERY POINT OF THE COMPASS TO BE TURNED OUT.

Twelve Expert Machinists Employed Now and Half That Many More Could Be Used.

From Friday's Daily.

The reporter of this paper made a visit at the works of the Western Machine and Foundry company yesterday and was shown through the place by the proprietor, Mrs. L. C. Sharp, who is one of the progressive and live citizens and business men of this place.

As we entered the machine shop there stood on a dray of the J. H. McKamey & Sons moving outfit in front thereof, a large machine cradled which bore the address of the American Cone and Water company, of Dayton, Ohio. When we asked Mr. Sharpe about the shipment he informed us that the machine was one used in the making of cones such as are used for dispensing ice cream in, and that it had a capacity of 20,000 cones per day. The one which went forward yesterday was the initial one of an order for twelve, the remainder of which will also be manufactured in the shops of the Western Machine and Foundry company. The machine sells for one thousand dollars, so it will be seen that this is a very nice sale for the local company, going as it does into the very heart of the east, where one would think there would be plenty of competition. Another shipment goes to St. Joseph, Mo., and the company is just now rebuilding two machines of this kind which Mr. Sharpe built in his Omaha plant some five years ago, they having been in constant use since that time. We noticed another large machine boxed for shipment and inquired as to what it was, whereupon we were informed that it was a Blanchard Vapor Bath outfit, made of steel, and like the other, was a product complete of the shops here. It was being made ready for shipment to Los Angeles and will be followed by others of similar design, until a total of fifty, now contracted for, shall have been delivered. This is the invention of one, Dr. Blanchard, of Los Angeles, being constructed of steel in order to better vaporize the water, and produce baths the equivalent of any mineral spring in existence. The water from the mineral spring is first analyzed and its constituent parts recorded, after which the same can be produced by chemical construction and the use of this device.

Two new turret lathes have been purchased just lately, one of which is being installed today, while the other will be put in place as quickly as possible. These are combination lathes carrying a number of tools mounted on a turret which may be turned at the will of the operator to bring any one of the tools into working position when wanted. New machines are constantly being installed, and more men put to work as fast as they can be secured.

Just at present there are twelve machinists working in the shops and six more are wanted, and can be put to work at once. Mr. Sharpe has been very discriminating in the selection of his help, and had brought in a number of fine families of the employees of his growing institution.

Quite lately the shops added about seven thousand dollars worth of new and special machinery for the manufacture of the Sharpe patent device for steering Ford automobiles. A contract has been entered into for 25,000 of this appliance, which alone will require twenty men to manufacture. Besides this there are endless numbers of contracts on the books of the factory, which aggregate $200,000.00.

The pressure for working room is such that Mr. Sharpe has been compelled to use the room which he has heretofore used for the foundry department, for the installation of the new machines and for machine work. This necessitates having the castings made in Omaha temporarily, but that work will be resumed here again in the spring when the needed room can be added. It is the intention of the company to build more work room space, also, in order that they may not be crowded in the installation of other new machinery, and may be able to take care of a much larger volume of work. While, at present, there is more work being offered than they can take care of, they hope by spring to be equipped to take care of it all.

There are, on the aggregate, from fifty to seventy-five patents granted every month, from what is known as this patent district, comprising Nebraska and several surrounding states. To every one of these patents the Western Machine and Foundry dry company sends a slip, which is a reminder of the ability and willingness of the company to make models or manufacture any and all kinds of machines. This method of advertising is constantly bringing business to the company, some of which becomes quite profitable.

The fact that the company is selling thousands of dollars worth of its products to every point of the compass, shipments extending to the most remote sections of the nation, is evidence of the worth of the work being turned out, and puts this town on the map as a place where the best of work can be handled and the size or kind of machines is open to all comers.

Among the machines now being manufactured in the plant here is a machine used in making a patent end gate. This is the patent of a man by the name of Paul, of Thurman, Iowa, where he is engaged in the banking business. Mr. Paul is thinking seriously of establishing a factory here for the building of these end gates, and if he should, both the machine for their manufacture and the end gates themselves, would be wholly Plattsmouth products.

Thus from a small institution employing but a few men has the Western Machine and Foundry company built up the business to its present magnitude, and is still growing. But few of our people who have not kept pace with the development of this business realize what the shops are doing and the investment that has been made and will be made there during the next few months.

MANLEY DOING HER BIT FOR THE Y. M. C. A. WORK

From Friday's Daily.

Last evening the crew of Y. M. C. A. workers, C. A. Rawls, Mrs. Lillian Caldwell, E. H. Wescott and wife, with D. C. York and Mr. and Mrs. Baird, went to the village of Manley, where they held an enthusiastic meeting, at which a fine program was given, including a musical number by D. C. York, while Mrs. Caldwell entertained the assemblage with a violin solo and Mrs. Baird gave an elegant reading. Mr. and Mrs. Wescott and Mrs. Caldwell also gave another special number. Mr. Rawls addressed the meeting, giving the facts regarding the things which the Y. M. C. A. is doing for the soldiers, explaining the workings of the society in the army and appealing to those who were interested in the boys to do their 'bit' for the fund, which is to go to make things even better for the boys, wherever they may be located. The response was a shower of subscriptions, which promises to put the amount away above the apportionment allotted to Center precinct.

There are, on the aggregate, from fifty to seventy-five patents granted every month, from what is known as this patent district, comprising Nebraska and several surrounding states. To every one of these patents the Western Machine and Foundry

GERMANS INCITING MEXICANS TO FIGHT

EMBASSY AT WASHINGTON DECLARE VILLA IS NOT LEADING REBELS.

U. S. TROOPS IN READINESS

Reinforcements Hurried to Presidio, Texas, to Repel Attack.

United States soldiers sent to reinforce the small cavalry force guarding Presidio, Tex., against Mexican bandits.

Mexican embassy officials at Washington declare Villa is not leading the Ojinaga raiders.

German propaganda held responsible for anti-American spirit manifested in renewal of Mexican disorders.

Bandits fire across border upon American guard at Yelita.

American guard along Mexican border ordered to "shoot to kill."

Presidio, Tex., Nov. 15.—Colonel Langhorne, commanding United States troops at Marfa, Tex., today sent reinforcements to the garrison here after being notified of threats made by the Mexican bandits holding Ojinaga that they would raid the town. Presidio is guarded by only a small troop of cavalry and would be at the mercy of the bandits.

It is now generally conceded that the bandits are not led by Pancho Villa, but are being incited to violence by German propagandists.

Say Villa is in Durango. Villa is not leading the marauding bandits in northern Mexico, say officials of the Mexican embassy. They claimed positive information that Villa is now in Durango, hiding in the hills and recuperating from a serious wound.

Presidio is in a quiver of excitement and terror in apprehension of another bandit raid. The bandits rode to the ford this morning and shouted across that now they had captured Ojinaga and routed the government forces they would sweep the Big Bend border and then capture Juarez.

Many Captives Executed.

Scores of prisoners captured by the bandits at Ojinaga last night, it is declared, were executed this morning. Many of the raiders formerly were associated with Villa.

Mexican officials believe the attack upon Ojinaga is the work of a small band of bandits who have no connection with the Villistas whatsoever, pointing out that the term "Villista" is now used in Mexico to designate any sort of a bandit. They declare the occupation of Ojinaga is no military feat at all, for it was unprotected.

Nevertheless, General Murguía of the Constitutional forces, is hastening northward with a large force. He has been operating in southern Chihuahua and has been ordered to the border to protect Mexican citizens from the bandits who have taken Ojinaga.

Fighting still is in progress at Ojinaga.

U. S. Prepared to Defend the Border. Washington, Nov. 15.—Elaborate preparations to protect the American border from bandit raiders from Mexico were taken today. The war department has lodged supreme authority in the hands of the commanding general of the Southern department and he has plenty of troops available for service.
