

A FULL SHEAF OF RIPENED WHEAT IS GARNERED SUNDAY

CALLED HOME AFTER A HALF CENTURY'S STAY IN PLATTSMOUTH

Member of the G. A. R. and One of Several from Here to Visit Vicksburg Last Fall

From Monday's Daily.

Last evening, after having been sick for less than a week, Uncle August C. Tartsch was called home, surrounded by his children at the late home in this city. Mr. Tartsch was born in Germany July 17, 1840 and came to this country, living in Wisconsin until 1878, when he came to this city to live. April 25th, 1864, he was united in marriage to Miss Caroline Lehnhoff, in Wisconsin, and from this union there were four children. Mrs. Charles Thornburg, Henry H. Tartsch, Delia Tartsch and George Tartsch. There is one grandchild, Miss Alice Thornburg.

Mr. Tartsch was a member of the G. A. R. having an excellent record in the Civil war. He was among the soldiers from here who visited Vicksburg on the occasion of the fifty years' peace jubilee last fall.

The wife preceded her husband in death by nearly three years. The funeral occurs from the St. Paul's church tomorrow (Tuesday) at 2:30 in the afternoon.

MARRIED BY THE JUDGE

From Monday's Daily.

They evidently desired to slip it over on the old folks—or some of their friends, for they said they had come from Omaha for the purpose of keeping it from the public there.

While we were in the office of the county judge today in popped Chas. B. Lyons and Miss Beulah M. Wood, both hailing from Omaha, and looking very happy and contented with this life and its viewpoint, and asked the judge malacholy like, as he was preparing to go to dinner, to allow them to have a marriage license, which the accommodating clerk did and then the ceremony was performed.

The groom said that if we published the wedding we would be shot but we are taking the risk. We asked from whence they had come, and he would not tell, but the bride said the reason they were not married in Omaha, was because they did not wish it known, and so the cat was out of the bag, notwithstanding the records which are open to the public. Well, we are wishing them many happy returns and a long and prosperous life as the best realization of youth's ardent hopes.

AN OBITUARY.

From Monday's Daily.

John Murray was born August 1, 1875, on a farm a few miles south of Plattsmouth, Neb. Died at 8:30 p. m. March 12, 1918 at Hennessey, Okla., age 42 yrs. 7 mos. and 12 days. He was the son of L. C. W. and Rebecca A. (Wiles) Murray, who are among the most prominent of our pioneer families.

He was married June 30, 1897 to Emma V. Young of Nehawka, Neb. To this union 7 children were born 2 of whom died in infancy. Those who with the widow survive him the Paul W., age 16, Mary Raye 8; George W., aged 6; Ruth Irene, age 4 and John Ralph, aged 23 months. His aged parents who reside at Weeping Water, Neb., 8 brothers and 4 sisters, 1 brother and 1 sister are dead. The brothers are Chas. A. of Avard, Okla., L. C. of Enid, Okla., Clarence of Parsons, Kans., David and Edward of Union, Christopher of Myard and Guy and Albert Murray of Plattsmouth. The sisters are Mrs. F. J. Spangler, Mrs. Philip Spangler of Weeping Water, Mrs. Isabelle Yost of Nebraska City and Mrs. J. W. Berger of York. Besides numerous other relatives and friends who mourn his loss.

Mr. Murray's entire life has been spent on the farm. He with his wife, moved to Alva, Okla., about 18 years ago, where they resided except about 2 years spent in Nebraska till last August, when he sold his farm there and bought 320 acres 1 1/2 miles northwest of Hennessey, Okla., where they have since resided.

He was converted at 11 years of age and has always been a prominent and influential member of the church. He was the teacher of a large Sunday School class and also a great worker in the Y. P. S. C. E. in the Christian church at Hennessey Okla., of which he was a member at the time of his death.

He was a good neighbor and public spirited man. A liberal man in his home, a man of bright ability, an energetic financier. He began life at the age of 21 years with nothing and by hard work and good management had made for himself and family a fine home. He was a member of the M. W. A. Lodge.

Funeral services were held at the Christian church at Hennessey, at 11 o'clock, March 13, after which the remains were brought to Murray for interment by the sides of his children in the Otterbein cemetery. Short services were held at the Otterbein church, March 14 by Rev. J. B. Jackson of Murray. His wife wasn't able to accompany the remains.

Mr. Murray was accidentally killed when the auto in which he and his wife and baby were riding was struck by a Rock Island train near Hennessey. They had mistaken the train for an auto as the railroad track here ran straight with the section line, the auto road running beside the R. R. tracks. Mrs. Murray escaped by jumping with her baby in her arms. The train was going 45 miles an hour when it struck the car.

REJECTED AT SALT LAKE CITY.

From Wednesday's Daily.

Frank Miller who was among the boys which went to Camp Cody last summer, and was later dismissed from the service on account of physical deficiency and returned home after having been in the service for some four or five months. Since coming home he has made several attempts to enlist, and the last time he was accepted at Omaha, and sent to Mare Island, California, as a member of the Coast Artillery, and on the way was given an examination at Denver, which he passed, and again at Salt Lake City, this time he was rejected, and sent back to this place. When he asked in what particular was he deficient, physically, they told him that they did not make a practice of telling just what one was rejected upon. Surely Frank has done his part in his attempts to get into and remain in the service, but it seems that he is not to go.

MRS. ECHELBERY VERY SICK.

From Wednesday's Daily.

A message this morning coming from the east, from Zanesville, Ohio, the home of Mrs. Emma Echelberry, the mother of Mrs. Fred Mumm, telling of the very severe illness of Mrs. Echelberry, who is well advanced in years, telling of her being afflicted with hardening of the arteries. Mrs. Mumm departed this afternoon for the east going to the bedside of her mother, whom she wishes to relieve and minister to as much as possible. We hope in her reaching her mother's side, she will find her much improved.

RELEASED FROM QUARANTINE.

From Tuesday's Daily.

C. N. Hansen, Andrew Rabbe sr., and Andrew Rabbe jr., L. E. Spracher and Otto Kruger were released from quarantine yesterday and their places fumigated and pronounced as being completely recovered from the small pox.

CARD OF THANKS.

We desire to express our most sincere thanks to the neighbors and friends for their kindness and words of sympathy during the illness and death of our beloved husband and father. We also wish to thank the employees of the Burlington coach shops, upholstery department and paint shops, the Masonic lodge and friends for the beautiful floral tributes.

IMMEDIATE RELIEF NEEDED FOR ARMENIA, SYRIA

PEOPLES OF THESE TWO GRIEF-STRIKEN LANDS ARE DESPERATELY IN NEED OF FOOD.

Even the Bare Necessities of Life are Denied Them—You Are Asked to Lend Aid.

The War Relief Committee of Cass County can not be perfected before the first of April. The Liberty Loan drive begins the second week of the month and is followed by the Red Cross drive. These two drives would force the Armenian and Syrian sufferers to wait another month for the much-needed relief. These people are actually starving—think of it—and we are anxious to help them. Why not do it this Easter?

America has not grasped the magnitude of this modern Babylonian exile. If it were Belgium, France or Serbia, our government could and would loan millions of dollars per month to meet the need—but our nation can deal only with nations. It cannot loan or give money to a scattered, homeless people, although they may be with us in religious and national ideals, as are these Armenian and Syrian sufferers, no matter how destitute they may be.

These people, the Greeks, the Armenians and the Syrians, crushed, impoverished and facing starvation because of the war conditions in western Asia, look to the Armenian and Syrian Relief committee for the bare necessities of life. These people are the hope of democracy in the Near East. It is imperative that we have the fullest co-operation from each community in order that we may meet these, our obligations and responsibilities to a grief-stricken populace.

The starvation and privation under the winter conditions in the Russian Caucasus, Persia, Mesopotamia, and southern Palestine, as well as among the subject-races of the Turkish empire, demand action on a nation-wide scale during the week of March 24th to March 31st inclusive, from those communities which have not already generously responded.

400,000 orphan children and hundreds of thousands of war-stricken people are depending upon us for life itself.

Some parts of this county, as Louisville and Weeping Water, have already raised large funds for these sufferers.

At the request of the War Relief Committee of Cass county, we shall make an independent drive next week, March 25 to 30, inclusive, for the purpose of raising $6,000, Cass county's quota for these starving millions.

Each contributor to this most humane cause will be credited with his contribution and the amount will be placed on his card.

A. J. HARGETT,
County Chairman.

MEET AT C. G. FRICKE HOME.

From Wednesday's Daily.

St. Mary's Guild of St. Luke's church met at the home of Mrs. C. G. Fricke yesterday afternoon. This being their regular meeting a short business session was held. After the business session the ladies brought out their fancy work and very industriously plied their needles while sociability reigned supreme. About the hour of five the ladies dispersed, having spent a very pleasant and profitable afternoon. This, being the Lenten season, the ladies do not serve lunches at their meeting during this time.

LADIES AUXILIARY MEETS.

From Wednesday's Daily.

The Ladies Auxiliary of the Presbyterian church held their regular meeting yesterday afternoon and met at the home of Mrs. Adah Moore. The hostesses on this occasion were Mesdames Moore, G. K. Staats and J. T. Baird and the ladies were delightfully entertained. They held their regular business session after which the ladies very pleasantly whiled away the hours with their Red Cross knitting and needlework.

At an appropriate hour the hostesses served dainty refreshments, which further added to the pleasures of the afternoon.

BUY A BALE OF COTTON.

From Wednesday's Daily.

Not so long since we heard the slogan "Buy a bale of Cotton" and we remember of seeing one in the office window of W. E. Rosencrans. Cotton was six cents per pound at that time, but yesterday it was $34.30 per hundred, and still going higher. A. S. Popper who sells overalls, was in this city today selling overalls and he has to say that it will not be long before a pair of overalls will sell at $3.00 per pair. Now he says better change the slogan, "Buy a pair of overalls, before they get out of sight."

IN NEW HOME

From Wednesday's Daily.

The Ladies Toggery and Busch Tailoring company, joint businesses under the management of Fred P. Busch, are now housed in their new home on Main street in the rooms underneath the Masonic hall. The building has been under course of remodeling for some time and a new modern front is among the various improvements added. Workmen are now busy arranging for the installation of a new furnace in the basement, also. The Busches completed the work of moving early in the week, but even yet have not gotten things straightened around very much, so busily have they been engaged in showing and selling merchandise. The electricians got one of the windows wired up yesterday afternoon and Leonard Meisinger, a local window dresser arranged a display of the ready-to-wear garments handed by the Ladies Toggery that was viewed with no small amount of interest by those who passed that way. The institution of this new business in Plattsmouth marks the first exclusive ladies wear store in the city and with a growing demand for women's clothes, made possible by increasing numbers of feminine wage earners there should be no question as to its success.

Mr. and Mrs. Busch regret very much that it is impossible to get their new fixtures installed just at present but hope to have them here the first week in April, when they will be enabled to formally open the new store to the general public. In the meantime they are going steadily ahead selling goods from off the improvised hangers and racks that will do service until the arrival of the fixtures.

KILLED IN AUTO WRECK.

From Wednesday's Daily.

Last Saturday night or rather Sunday morning, while Carl Allgaire, living between Nehawka and Avoca, was driving along the roadway with a young lady, Miss Taylor, the car in which he was driving was overturned, pinning them both under the car, killing Mr. Allgaire, and bruising and slightly injuring only Miss Taylor. When those who came along, overturned the car, which had kept the couple captive, they found Mr. Allgaire's neck broken and Miss Taylor, not seriously injured.

IS VISITING FRIENDS HERE.

From Wednesday's Daily.

Jack Estrange who formerly was an engineer on the Burlington here, and was known by a large number of the people of this city, but who some time since resigned here going to the west where he engaged in railroad work and in a wreck was injured in such a way that he has not as yet recovered. He is now making his home at Rose-dale, California, and dropped off here today for a visit with his many old time friends here and will visit here for a short time.

DAYLIGHT SAVING BILL NOW IS U. S. LAW

PRESIDENT WILSON SIGNS THE MEASURE PASSED BY SENATE AND HOUSE.

SET CLOCKS AN HOUR AHEAD

"Early to Bed and Early to Rise" to be the Real Thing After March the Thirty-First

Washington, March 19.—The daylight saving bill, signed today by President Wilson, is now a law. It will go into effect and be observed without the slightest disorganization or impairment of existing conditions. Trains will be run as usual, and every feature of daily life into which the element of time enters will remain unchanged—further than that the time of sunset will be one hour later and the time of sunrise one hour earlier.

Before retiring on the last Saturday of this month, the American householder will set his clock an hour ahead and then may go to sleep and forget entirely about daylight saving until the last Saturday of October. On that date he will reverse the process, turning back the hands of the clock an hour and the next day the nation again will run on "sun" time.

In the summer the American man actually will rise, transact his daily business and retire all an hour earlier than has been his custom, but with his clock an hour fast he will not know the difference. An hour of daylight thus will be conserved in the afternoon.

The practicability and efficiency of the plan has been effectively demonstrated in twelve European countries during the past year and in some of them the past two years.

DIES AT NORTH PLATTE.

From Wednesday's Daily.

Harry Richard Reese, son of Mrs. Elizabeth Reese, of this city and a brother of Mrs. Alice M. Eator, also here and father of Carl Reese of Omaha as well as of G. Reese and Mrs. C. W. Baylor of Vovina, Colorado, died at a hospital at North Platte yesterday morning, from the effects of an infection of his lungs, which has kept him in the hospital at that place since September 28th last. Mr. Reese was born in Kiethsburg, Ill., in August 1858, and would have been sixty years old his next birthday. He came to this city with his parents when about seven years of age, grew to manhood here and here married, was a fireman on the Burlington at the time of the great strike in 1888, and moved to North Platte, where he engaged with them, and has most of the time since been engaged in the engine service of that road, becoming an engineer, and having been in a number of wrecks.

CELEBRATE 22ND BIRTHDAY.

From Wednesday's Daily.

Last evening at the Modern Woodman Hall the Knight and Ladies of Security celebrated in an appropriate manner the twenty-second anniversary of the organization of that lodge or society in this city. A very nice program was rendered, and sociable time enjoyed by all who were fortunate to attend the function and a delightful feed, was the capping of the climax of the evenings enjoyment. This order is experiencing a healthy growth in its membership, and of a good character or people.

IS INSTITUTING A POP CORN MACHINE

From Wednesday's Daily.

Edward Egenberger is putting in a very complete pop corn vending machine in his Luxus Parlor, and will have it in operation in a short time. The proposition should bring a good revenue to this place of business, as with it he will have fresh roasted peanuts as well.

Charles Good of Murray, the blacksmith was looking after some business in the city this morning.

STRUCK BY AN AUTO.

From Tuesday's Daily.

Robert Stimpson, the son of Dick Stimpson, while playing with other children in the street near his parents' home in the third ward and while attempting to pass in front of a moving auto, was struck by the car's fender and thrown to the walk, which prevented him from being run over. The car which was a strang one, was stopped within 8 feet of the place where it struck him, and was therefore under pretty good control. The little fellow was somewhat bruised but not seriously injured.

ANOTHER AMERICAN IN PLATTSMOUTH

From Tuesday's Daily.

There is a happy father in Camp Funston and happy mother here all because of the arrival of Major General Dalton, who is the son of Sergeant Carl Dalton and wife, the mother and son doing nicely as well as the grand father. Grandpa Frank B. Schopp, is going to pull through alright. But just notice that smile and the sprightly step of great grandfather W. H. Newell. It is wonderful now a little thing can stir up the whole community, but no wonder for this is a fine boy and no mistake. Grandpa Dalton is also in ecstasies.

VISITED HERE YESTERDAY AND SUNDAY

From Tuesday's Daily.

Dr. E. W. Cook, arrived in the city Sunday morning, and visited here as well as looking after some business, for the time, departing last evening for Lincoln, where this week he will take some of the higher degrees in Masonry, and will take the Scotch rite, which includes the thirty-second degree. He will return here next Saturday for a short stay on his way home. This morning Mrs. Cook and her mother, Mrs. Hawksworth, who have been visiting for a short time at Burlington, arrived and will visit here for the week.

FINAL HEARING AND SETTLEMENT TODAY

From Tuesday's Daily.

The matter of the estate of the late Valasco V. Leonard was up for final hearing and settlement in the county court today, the proofs and claims all being settled, and the joint administratrix, Mrs. Rose Leonard, the widow, and Miss Verna Leonard the daughter being the ones who were released, and the estate closed up.

NEBRASKA CROP OUTLOOK EXCELLENT, SAYS OLLIS

PROSPECT THAT PRODUCTION WILL BE GREATEST IN THE STATE'S HISTORY.

Machines Make Up Labor Shortage Under Spur of High Prices—Farmers are Awake.

Lincoln, March 18.—"More land will be farmed and farming will be better done in Nebraska this year than ever before," said J. A. Ollis, appraiser for the Omaha federal land bank, who was at the capitol today. "Despite the shortage of farm labor due to men being taken for military service," I am confident that the state in 1918 will produce more foodstuffs than ever before in its history.

"Everywhere I have been the farmers are up and coming and they are going at their work with the utmost energy. They want to help win the war and the prices guaranteed them for their products assures them of a profit. Blacksmith shops in all the smaller towns of the state are busy making repairs on farm machinery, a large part of which is being reclaimed after its owners had once discarded it.

"The shortage of labor will be felt of course, but the farmers are using tractor engines more than ever and that will help make up for it. I have noticed a tendency of men who have gone back to town in recent years to get back to the farm and in many instances they have responded to the emergency by doing it. Agricultural prosperity is assured for years to come, and as the conditions of life in recent years have improved there is every inducement to return to the soil."

FINAL HEARING AND SETTLEMENT TODAY

From Tuesday's Daily.

In the case of John A. Clinton deceased, formerly of near Weeping Water, came in for hearing this morning, and the settlement of the matter given, and the matter closed up. Attorney C. E. Teft of Weeping Water appearing for the estate.

The estate also of Luverne Campbell, also of near Weeping Water, was up for final hearing, and all proof being made, the administrator was discharged and the affairs of the estate closed up.
