Thrift Stamps--

The war is costing the United States $1,000,000 an hour. To offset this steady and tremendous drain upon the nation's cash resources, there must be a corresponding stream of dollars flowing into the national treasury.

Thrift stamps and war savings stamps offer the people an opportunity to deposit their daily, weekly or monthly savings with the government.

In return the government will repay the principal with 4 per cent interest, compounded quarterly. As an example of how the inventor's money will grow, sixteen war savings stamps, costing 25 cents each, or $4.00 in all, with 12 cents added, will entitle the depositor to $5.00 on January 1, 1923.

As an investment, safety considered, there is nothing better on the market today. All the resources of the richest government on earth are behind the stamps.

MURRAY, NEBRASKA

Walker Gilmore has been working for W. J. Philpot during the school vacation days.

Miss Margie Walker was visiting with Plattsmouth friends the latter part of last week.

Young & Scotten are building a tenant house on the farm of Roy Howard, south of Murray.

Rex Young returned home from Plainview, Nebr., this week, where he conducted a couple of good sales.

Mrs. Ona Lawton is at present engaged as nurse for Mrs. Cassie Lloyd, who has been suffering for the past few weeks from a severe attack of rheumatism.

Miss Clara Young came down from Plattsmouth to spend Sunday with home folks, returning to her duties Sunday evening. She is employed in the Burlington shops.

George Jenkins departed Tuesday morning for Rosalia, after a few days' visit with home folks, owing to an injury he received some few days ago on an enery wheel.

Electrical wiring seems to be the order of the day in Murray just at present, as everybody wants to be ready for the new lights as soon as they arrive in Murray. The poles are already set three miles south of Plattsmouth, and they are arriving every day to complete the line to Murray, so it will only be a matter of a few weeks at most until we have an electrically lighted town.

Word has been received here that Miss Olga Minford, who was quite sick for several weeks this winter, did not regain her strength sufficiently to return to her studies this spring, and that it is possible she family will return to Murray. They will certainly be warmly welcomed by their many friends back home, but at the same time all regret that Miss Olga suffered such a seige of the grippe.

Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Pitman returned home from their California trip last Friday. They report a most enjoyable visit on the coast, but are at the same time glad to get back to the old home in Nebraska. A larger portion of their visit was spent at the home of their son, Sam, and wife, the former being engaged in business out there and doing fine. They are feeling fine after spending the larger portion of a most severe winter in the sunny coast state.

Have you noticed that broad smile on Glen Boedeker's face for the past few days? We noticed it a week away in Murray last Tuesday and thought perhaps it was because he was just about through with the income tax business for this community, which would relieve him of a great deal of work. Upon asking him the cause he informed us that the stork had been very kind to him and delivered at his home last Sunday the finest girl baby in the land, and his entire household was almost as happy as he was.

Emil Walters, of Plattsmouth, came down this week to superintend the concrete and brick work on the new L. H. Puls residence, the foundation of which is being laid this week. The new structure will be of brick veneering and Mr. Walters will look after the brick work. Mr. Theo Bouton, the new Murray carpenter and contractor, will look after the wood work on the new building. Mr. Bouton is a man with a great deal of building experience and ability and will no doubt give Mr. Puls a choice residence when completed.

Dr. A. D. Dunn, of Omaha, was called here in consultation with Dr. Gilmore in regard to the condition of Miss Alice Creamer, who is seriously ill with scarlet fever. Raymond Creamer is also sick with the same trouble, but not so serious as Miss Alice. Miss Henrietta, who has been sick for the past few weeks, is getting along very nicely at this writing. Mr. Creamer has also been quite sick for the past few days, suffering with another attack of blood poisoning; this starting from a sore on his nose that became infected, and his condition at one time was quite serious, but he is getting along very nicely now.

Good Farms for Sale

170 acres, good house and well improved, good farm and stock proposition, known as the Goos farm just south of Plattsmouth.

Also 51 acres adjoining Union on the west, all good farm land, and a good seven room house. Possession can be had immediately.

Also several other Cass county farms—Frank Vallery, Murray, Nebraska; phone 27, Murray exchange.

Fount Wilson drove to Omaha on last Saturday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Wolfe were Plattsmouth visitors last Saturday.

E. R. Queen, of Plattsmouth, attended the Leach sale last Saturday.

Mrs. Guy Kiser has been numbered with the sick for the past few days.

John Hobscheidt, Jr., was transacting business in Plattsmouth last Saturday.

John Hobscheidt is having a tenant house erected on his farm east of Murray.

The little child of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Campbell has been sick for the past few days.

Harry McCullough has been suffering with the scarlet fever for the past few days.

Mrs. Martin Bartlett has been sick with a seige of the measles for the past few days.

Charley Good spent a few hours in Plattsmouth Wednesday afternoon and evening.

Mr. and Mrs. John Harris and Mr. and Mrs. Nick Friedrich were Omaha visitors last Friday.

A. F. Nickles departed last week for Hot Springs, Ark., where he will spend the summer.

Lee Nichols and sister, Miss Etta and George Parks autoed to Plattsmouth last Saturday.

J. W. Edmunds was in Plattsmouth Monday, where he had some business matters to look after.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Oliver, of Louisville, spent Sunday with W. P. Hutcheson and family.

Mrs. John Hendricks, who has been seriously sick for the past few weeks, is improving slowly.

Miss Etta Nickles returned home Thursday from a visit with relatives at Creighton and Bloomfield.

Ray Campbell and wife were transacting business in Plattsmouth on last Saturday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Andy Campbell were looking after some business matters in Plattsmouth last Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Gussie Pullen, Jasper Queen and Miss Fern Dill were Omaha visitors last Sunday.

Gussie Pullen and wife motored to Council Bluffs last Sunday, where they spent the day with Mr. Pullen's brother.

The public sale held by Ed. Leach last week, was pretty well attended and all the property brought good prices, with the exception of the horses.

Dr's. Brendel & Brendel were Plattsmouth visitors last Saturday.

Dr. B. F. accompanying the insane boat, composed of Dr. Brendel, James Robertson and C. A. Rawls, to Elmwood, where they had an insane case that demanded their attention.

Dr. Brendel was in Plattsmouth Monday, also in Omaha, where he accompanied Frank Mraok, to see a specialist and have an X-ray taken of his broken arm. They were assured that Mr. Mraok's arm was getting along as well as could be expected.

The call meeting held in Murray for the purpose of launching the card index campaign, was pretty well attended, and officers were elected with the intention of pushing the drive through as rapidly as possible. W. C. Bedeker was selected as chairman, E. S. Tutt, secretary and Walt Sans, vice-chairman, in charge of East Rock Bluffs. E. S. Tutt will have charge of the classification in West Rock Bluffs, and the two precincts will be worked from Murray, and it is the intention to index every resident in both precincts. When you are called upon to make a report, you are requested to do just as early as possible.

Leander White Dead.

Leander White died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Clem Whiteshead, near Nehawka, Monday morning, March 18th of paralysis. The deceased was eighty-three years old, and had been very sick for the past few days only. The funeral was held Tuesday afternoon and interment was made in the Mt. Pleasant cemetery.

The deceased was born in Indiana, where he lived for many years, coming to Cass county about twenty years ago. Later he moved out west, and just returned to Cass county, and the home of his daughter, a few weeks ago. Mr. White was an excellent old gentleman, loved by all who knew him, and his friends were counted by the acquaintances he made. The bereaved relatives have the sympathy of the entire community.

FUNSON MEN IN WAR; THE CENSOR PASSES NEWS

START MADE FOR TRENCHES AND DUGOUTS OF FRANCE SOME TIME AGO.

Men Left Behind Only Ones at Camp to Show Any Regret.

Camp Funston, Kas., March 19.—(Passed by the Censor)—It is now permitted to be known that troops from the draft army in training at this cantonment are in the war.

Many thousands of the sons of the middle-west, who have been in training at Funston since last fall, started sometime since for the ultimate goal—the trenches and dugouts of France. It is not permitted to say how many men entrained some days ago for the trip overseas, nor their route to port of embarkation or name of the port. Conscription regulations also forbid publication of whether they are still in the United States or landed in France.

The men from Funston did not go as a division. The nucleus of the Eighty-ninth division, from which they were taken, remains at Camp Funston. The men have been joined to another division more fully prepared. In like manner the Eighty-ninth will be filled when its turn comes to set out for overseas duty.

Since these men left their homes in Kansas City, in Omaha, and on the farms of Nebraska, Missouri, Colorado, Arizona and New Mexico, and every other portion of the seven middle-western states, they have spent their time well. Drills and formations, marches, schools, practice hikes and musketry have kept them employed every day, and they have shown marked proficiency in acquiring the technique of the soldier. In fact, they are a different lot from the motley array of clerks, tradesmen, artisans and farmers who came into camp last fall.

They came as boys, for whatever of work or pleasure the camp afforded; they leave as men—equipped and ready to do man's part in the world war; in defense of the principles for which the middle-west stands with the nation.

There was no suggestion of sadness in their departure. Soldiers they were, and their officers had reason to be proud of them. When their trains pulled away from the station at Funston there was a bedlam of hounds, cheering and singing. The only melancholy note visible was among the men "elected" to remain behind. These, however, made the best of their fate—they've learned to be soldiers—and contented themselves with giving their departing comrades such a sendoff as must live in their memory through many months of active service. Officers say their period of training in France will be short. They lack only the finishing touches to be acquired only in the vicinity of the battle lines; the "polish" of actual field conditions. They are the best the middle-west affords, for only the best were picked to go—and those left behind may console themselves with the certainty that if they cannot be considered the "best" they still are head and shoulders above some of the "best" that other divisions will send.

In due time the war department will announce the number of the division to which these men have been drafted, and then the interest of the middle-west will be divided, share and share alike, among the division in question, the regiment of engineers that has been in France for months, and the signal battalion and ammunition train of the Rainbow division, all of which are made up from among these men of Funston.

W. H. Firearm and J. Elliott, both from Smith Center, Kansas, were visiting in this city this morning, just having come from Manhattan, Kansas, where they had gone with the intention of engaging in the taxi service there, but finding the business over crowded they came to this place, and have been considering the matter of engaging here. They will go to Omaha first and see what there is to offer there.

Carl Stimpson and wife, accompanied by Mrs. Stimpson's brother Wm. Russell of Emerson, Iowa, who has been visiting here departed for that place this morning, where Mr. Stimpson and wife will visit for some time, this week returning to the latter portion to resume his work at the Burlington shops, from which he has been laying off on account of sickness.

Wm. Miller returned home this morning from a trip to Omaha, where he has been visiting with friends for the past few days.

Our Service

AND WHAT IT MEANS TO YOU!

You Can Avoid Costly Buying Mistakes

Instead of Buying Blindly from Pictures in a Catalog You Can See the Real Implement Before You Buy.

This is the best year you ever saw to buy good implements, and the worst year you ever saw to buy poor ones.

Crop prices are sure to be high. All that you will have to do to make big money will be to raise big crops. And getting big crops will depend largely upon the kind of implements you use.

You can't afford to risk any implement uncertainty. Inferior implements will mean the loss of the extra bushels and extra tons that the use of good implements gives. Remember, the extra bushels and extra tons will mean a lot this year—much more than enough to pay for good implements.

See before you buy. Be sure that an implement is what you want before you let it work for you. Avoid the expensive delays of sending an unsatisfactory implement back to some distant concern and getting in exchange another of unknown quality.

Our service prevents costly buying mistakes on your part. You can come to our store, take full advantage of our stock—study the implements, get fully acquainted with their every feature, and buy judiciously.

That way of buying will help you get the most from the big year that is coming.

Drop in the next time you are in town and see our stock.
