

MANLEY STATE BANK

MANLEY, NEB.

CAPITAL AND SURPLUS $13,000

OFFICERS

FRANK STANDER, AUGUST STANDER, AUGUST PAUTSCH, THOMAS E. PARMELE, WM. J. RAU.

MURRAY STATE BANK

MURRAY, NEB.

CAPITAL AND SURPLUS $15,000

DIRECTORS

CHAS. C. PARMELE, President. FRED NUTZMAN, Vice-President. W. GLEN BOEDEKER, Cashier.

BANK OF CASS COUNTY

PLATTSMOUTH, NEB.

CAPITAL AND SURPLUS $80,000

OFFICERS

CHAS. C. PARMELE, JACOB TRITSCH, THOMAS E. PARMELE, R. F. PATTERSON, F. G. EGENBERGER.

BANK OF COMMERCE

LOUISVILLE, NEB.

CAPITAL AND SURPLUS $23,000

OFFICERS

THOMAS E. PARMELE, President. CHAS. C. PARMELE, Vice-President. PAUL FITZGERALD, Cashier. RALPH R. LARSON, Asst. Cashier.

FIRST SECURITY BANK

CEDAR CREEK, NEB.

CAPITAL AND SURPLUS $10,000

OFFICERS

WILLIAM SCHNEIDER, President. W. H. LOHNES, Vice-President. THOMAS E. PARMELE, Director.

Our Facilities Enable Us to Handle Your Business in this County Promptly and Economically and on this Basis We Invite Your Patronage.

OVER THE COUNTY

UNION Ledger

The Armenian fund raised in this precinct amounted to $264.00 instead of $24.00 as in the last issue.

W. H. Porter and wife autoed to Nebraska Saturday afternoon to attend the funeral of J. A. White-man.

E. J. Mouser shipped a car load of young cattle to Omaha the first of the week which brought him 16 1/2 cents.

Miss Dovey Barkhurst came down from Omaha Monday afternoon for a visit with relatives and friends.

C. F. Harris is now busy assessing this precinct. If you see him coming your way you know what to expect.

Mont Rob now has a force of men busy grading down the bank across the street from his home and having the dirt placed in the rear of his residence, which puts the yard in a much better condition.

T. W. Swan, who got his hand caught in the gears of a gas engine some time ago is getting along fine at present. It was thought at first he might lose part of his hand, but such is not the case.

John Chalfant, one of Cass county's old pioneers died at the home of his son, Jack, Monday evening.

Mrs. Minnie Anderson and son, Amos, returned home last week from Torrington, Wyoming, where they had been visiting for several weeks.

CASTORIA

For Infants and Children In Use For Over 30 Years Always bears the Signature of J. C. Watson

Plattsmouth Garage! 1/2 Block South from Main on Fifth Street. WE ARE READY AT ALL TIMES TO GIVE YOU SERVICE! Bring in Your Cars WE REPAIR ALL MAKES! No long waits. We have mechanics to do your work with a guarantee at all times. WELDING, BATTERIES, RECHARGED, HAWKEYE TIRES AND TUBES, GAS AND OILS! J. E. MASON, PROPRIETOR Telephone 394.

Mrs. Anderson intended to spend the summer there, but owing to the high altitude was compelled to return home on account of her health. During the time they were there, Amos shot a porcupine which he skinned and brought the pelt home. They had a very enjoyable trip and were sorry to be compelled to return home so soon.

ELMWOOD Leader-Echo

Wm. Long was on the sick list a number of days the latter part of last week.

Mrs. Orin Baldwin left last Saturday to join her husband at Big Springs, Nebraska, where he has land interests.

Virgil Long, who is teaching in the Beatrice public schools, visited with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Long on Saturday and Sunday.

A fine baby son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Oral Cox on Wednesday morning. Mother and baby are doing nicely and the proud parents are receiving hearty congratulations.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Creamer, of Harrisburg, Nebr., visited at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Creamer from Sunday until Tuesday, when they returned taking their automobile with them.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Cobb left the latter part of last week for Excelsior Springs, where they will remain for some time. Mr. Cobb goes there in the hopes of benefiting his health which has not been so good of late.

Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Berger returned home Saturday after having spent the winter in California and at other places on the return trip. They are both looking fine and say that they spent a most enjoyable winter, but are glad to get back home and to see their many friends here again.

John Olsen and family are now back again after having spent several months at Donopah, where Mr. Olsen had charge of a large mill. They have rented the Quinn property and will move to the same at an early date. Mr. Olsen has a part interest in the Elmwood Community Mill & Elevator Co., with Mr. Ring. The many friends of the Olsen family are glad to welcome them back to Elmwood again.

On last Sunday morning a little visitor arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Guy L. Clements and from all reports she intends to remain and become their "star boarder." They are happy because of the birth of this little daughter and Guy is stepping pretty high and of course Grandpa and Grandma Clements are mighty proud of their first grandchild and are receiving hearty congratulations along with the happy parents.

On Saturday afternoon as Si Les and a young man were coming to town, their team became frightened by an auto on the Brockman hill, the hit of one of the horses broke, and the team started to run. The young man jumped out but Si stayed with the team. The buggy was turned over, Si was thrown out and rendered unconscious for a short time. He was picked up and brought to the doctor's office where his injuries were attended to. His nose was broken. The team ran on up town and were finally stopped, but the buggy was totally demolished.

WEeping WATER Republican

The depot roof caught fire again Saturday from a passing train engine, but only a good sized hole was burned in the roof as usual.

Will and Dan Feltz and Bird Dawson autoed down from South Omaha on Wednesday morning and were shaking hands with old time friends on the streets.

W. J. Philpot returned the first of the week from Custer, Chase and Perkins counties, and says the crops look fine and there has been plenty of moisture.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Ganaway and daughter were in town Tuesday between trains while they were moving from Wahash to Auburn, where they will reside on a farm three miles from Auburn.

Treat Askew, wife and family, came down from Omaha Monday evening for a visit with home folks before they move to Denver, Colorado. Treat's run as baggage man will be from Denver to Ogden.

W. P. Sitzmann, the Republican's job and ad man, has been absent from the shop this week on account of sickness. This shortage in the force has put the Devil in the Editor's chair and the editor at work.

Mrs. A. E. Jameson received the sad news Saturday night of the death of her mother, Mrs. S. W. Strain, of Warren, Ohio. Mrs. Jameson did not go to attend the funeral as she was sick in bed when the message came.

Barney Lewis, of McCook visited at the home of his sister, Mrs. Fred Ronne a few days last week, leaving Friday morning. Mr. Lewis is a veteran of the Civil war and is engineer with a run from McCook to Imperial.

Another barber arrived in Weeping Water Friday morning. The young man will be apprentice for some time, but will make his home with Mr. and Mrs. August Sitzmann, who are overjoyed that so bright a young man has come to their house to stay. Mother and son are doing nicely.

Mr. W. A. Wood received word that his two little daughters, Gordtrude and Dorothea may soon arrive in Weeping Water on account of the critical illness of their grandmother, Mrs. James Holt, of Grand Junction, Colorado, with dropsy, with whom they have been making their home. Mrs. Holt for years formerly lived at Syracuse, where she will be remembered by many people.

H. H. Stoll, Harmon Beck and Glen Boedeker, who accompanied

Tom Cromwell to Perkins county last week were in a wreck. The sleeper they were in going out on Sunday night, jumped the track just east of Columbus, throwing Cromwell and Stoll out of their berths and bruising them up considerably. Mr. Stoll was in town Wednesday morning and was complaining that his shoulder was pretty lame, yet he said it was a close call as the sleeper came near turning over.

EAGLE Beacon

Mrs. J. H. Latrom and Mrs. Will Latrom went to Omaha Thursday, for a short stay.

C. H. Wetenkamp shipped a car load of cattle to Omaha the fore part of last week.

Mrs. Renner was taken very sick Sunday evening, but is some better at this time.

Carl Blomenkamp, of Hastings, spent Sunday with his brother, F. W. Blomenkamp and family.

Mrs. Nick Peterson is reported in an improved condition, and it is expected she will return home Sunday.

The condition of Mrs. H. K. Frantz is reported more favorable the past few days, and friends hope for her speedy recovery.

With one exception the teachers for next year have been selected as follows: A. K. Wilson, Lincoln, superintendent; Mary Spence and Miss Stander, Louisville, intermediate; Miss Pierson, Eagle, primary.

Mr. and Mrs. Clay Vaughn of Endicott, Nebraska, visited the family of Carl Price Sunday of last week. They were united in marriage the day before and came to Eagle to visit relatives and receive congratulations of friends.

Mrs. M. E. Bratner gave a fine chicken dinner Wednesday of last week to the following friends: C. W. Crabtree, wife and children, Mrs. Mamie Hudson and daughters, and Robert McManahan. The dinner was more than up to standard and all enjoyed it to the utmost, as well as the hostess's pleasant and hospitable greeting.

FOR SALE. 25 head of good young horses. All broke. Can be seen at the Tom Tilson farm home. For particulars, see Vallery & Tilson. 2-18-d&w

CHICHESTER'S PILLS THE DIAMOND BRAND. Indigestion, Biliousness, Headache, Constipation, etc. Sold by Druggists Everywhere.

WE BUY JUNK OF ALL KINDS and pay highest market price at all times. Bring in your rags, rubber, copper, brass, zinc, lead and iron. Turn that stuff into money, for you can use the money. BEN HANKINSON, Main St. Opposite Perkins Hotel. Shop Phone 599.

LOUISVILLE Courier

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Todd were up from Plattsmouth Sunday visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Mayfield.

Mrs. L. O. Remillard, of Omaha, has returned home after a week's visit with her old time friend, Mrs. Rudolph Heil.

Mrs. J. P. Wood has returned home from University Place, where she spent the winter with her daughter, Mrs. Louis Eddy. Mrs. Eddy accompanied her home for a short visit.

Bill Mencham, manager of the creamery, complains that someone tore down a flag from his building Sunday night. He says he knows the boys who did it and would warn them not to repeat the offense.

Mrs. Mary Fitzgerald is expected to arrive home in the near future from an extended stay in Hot Springs, Ark., where she went to accompany relatives, Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Kelly, of Greenwood, for the benefit of Mrs. Kelly's health.

Charles Gaebel returned home from the hospital in Omaha last week, where he went for treatment. He is not feeling very much better and is not as strong as he could wish to be, but his friends hope that he will regain his usual good state of health.

C. C. Vosburg, a retired farmer, living at Weeping Water, died Wednesday of last week from heart failure at his home. Mr. Vosburg formerly lived in Louisville and owned the property on Railroad avenue now owned by Elmer Sundstrom. He was 83 years of age.

Mrs. E. E. Hardin and little son, who have been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Trodine, in this place, and with her sister, Mrs. Darwin Vancocoy and family, at Lincoln, expects to return to Camp Cody, New Mexico soon as her husband, Lieutenant Hardin, is expected to be sent to France soon.

Mrs. Rudolph Heil left for St. Francis, Kansas, last Thursday to attend a reunion of her family. Her mother, Mrs. S. A. Loveland is at St. Francis for an extended visit and the other members of the family gathered there for a short reunion. Mr. Heil was unable to get away because of spring work which cannot be neglected at this time.

Mrs. Rachel Noyes received word recently that her sister, Mrs. John Carter, of Weeping Water, was quarantined for smallpox. She went to the country to nurse a sick child, where there was smallpox, but was not aware of the fact and did not learn of it until after she had contracted it herself. She suffered only a light attack and the worst feature of it was the quarantine.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Troop and sons, Robert and Tommy were Omaha visitors Wednesday.

Mrs. Pearl Schwartz and children visited at the Philpot home Sunday. Margaret stayed all night with Tessie.

Mr. W. H. Schomaker and Lois Carsten returned from Excelsior Springs Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. J. W. Gamble of Omaha, returned home Saturday after a week's visit with her daughter and family, Mrs. H. L. Thomas.

Mrs. Chloro Allen moved to Plattsmouth last Saturday, into her home purchased a few weeks ago. Mrs. Allen will be missed from the lodges

U. S. OWNS NO MAN'S LAND IN LORRAINE

With the American Army in France, Wednesday April 17.—American troops operating on the Lorraine sector have taken over control of No Man's Land. Patrolling parties are making almost nightly visits up to the German wire entanglements without encountering any resistance.

A family reunion will be held at the home of Grandpa Bock's, father of Mrs. Geo. Hansen, Wednesday. The occasion being in honor of his birthday.

Mrs. Lottie Rosencrans of Plattsmouth was a home visitor for a few days, returning to her home Tuesday evening, her mother and brother accompanied her.

We called at T. E. Fulton's home the first of the week and found him sick in bed. The illness is due to kidney trouble, being painful and altogether very annoying.

The Seniors had their pictures taken at Lincoln Saturday. Miss Sheldon took the girls down in her car. They returned in the evening Fern Cunningham stayed over for a visit with an aunt, returning Monday morning. The class is wearing new pins which they received Monday.

The long-looked for event is finally to take place. The Juniors announce that their play, "Her Ladyship's Niece" is to be presented Friday evening, May 3rd. The Juniors have already spent a great deal of time in practicing and will put on a very creditable performance. Watch for announcements next week concerning the sale of tickets.

SEED CORN FOR SALE. White Seed Corn. Call Phone No. 253-W. R. C. Cook. 4-22-2wkskwy

EGGS FOR HATCHING. Barred Plymouth Rock Eggs for sale. Inquire of C. L. Wiles, Phone 3421. 4-22-2wkskwy

T. D. Daniels was a passenger to Council Bluffs, Iowa, this afternoon, where he is visiting with the Rev. J. M. Wells of that city, and formerly a resident of this city.

Miss Katherine Egan was visiting with friends for the afternoon at Omaha going on the early afternoon train.

STOP STOP SPENDING ALL YOU MAKE PUT SOME OF IT IN OUR BANK

WHILE YOU ARE ABLE TO WORK AND EARN MONEY WHY CAN'T YOU PUT SOME OF IT IN THE BANK? YOU CAN OPEN A BANK ACCOUNT WITH A LITTLE MONEY AND YOU CAN ADD LITTLE SUMS THAT YOU ARE NOW FIDDLING AWAY, UNTIL SOME DAY YOU'LL FIND IT HAS GROWN INTO A BIG SUM, AND IT WILL WORK FOR YOU IN YOUR OLD AGE. WE PAY 4 PER CENT ON TIME DEPOSITS, AND 3 PER CENT ON XMAS SAVINGS CLUB. COME TO OUR BANK. Farmers' State Bank THE NEW BANK. SAFETY DEPOSIT BOXES 50 CENTS PER YEAR