The authorities parted this afternoon for their home were notified and the country was searched, but to no effect as no one answering to the description given of the man could be found. This morning Denny and Rogers returned to Plattsmouth, coming this way in search of the man, and stated to a reporter of this newspaper that Lefholtz was still alive, but in a nost precarious condition They reiterate that the man jumped into the road, fired the shot and escaped into the darkness before the car could be stopped. One of the men jumped across the seat, both being seated in the rear, and grabbed the wheel in time to prevent the car going into the ditch. They then drove hastily to the hospital in South Badger. NEAT SUM FOR THE RED CROSS.

From Saturday's Daily. Yesterday the Red Cross of Union was given a check by Mont Robb, who has been collecting hogs for shipping to Nebraska City and which were marketed at that place yesterday, bringing $1,114.00, which he turned over to the Union branch of the Red Cross. This is doing good work, and is placing the money, where it is greatly needed and will do an immense amount of good.

JOHN MCPHERSON GOES UP.

From Saturday's Daily. The Government dredge boat, John McPherson passed up the river last she is to do some work for the government. The steamboats are not the most common thing in these parts now, and when one passes by it is a curiosity.
