VERY PRETTY HOME WEDDING WEDNESDAY

MISS MAY GLEN IS UNITED IN MARRIAGE TO MERL LANNING, OF EAGLE.

TWO HEARTS NOW BEAT AS ONE

Depart for Omaha and from There Go to Michigan to Drive New Car Home from Factory

From Friday's Daily.

One of the prettiest home weddings witnessed in this community for a long time occurred Wednesday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas W. Glen, in this city, when their daughter, Miss May Glenn, was united in marriage to Mr. Merl Lanning, of Eagle.

The home had been decorated with flowers and ferns, the bride, gowned in Organdie, taking her place with the groom under a large wedding bell that was situated in one corner of the spacious parlor, while the Rev. Harmon of the Methodist church of Eagle, after the fashion of the marriage ritual of that church, performed the ceremony that joined the lives of the young people for life. The ring ceremony was used, the groom placing the ring on the finger of his bride.

There were many friends present from Eagle, where the groom lives and where the bride has been teaching school the past year, as well as relatives from other points away from Plattsmouth and the confines of Cass county.

The bride was but a small child when she came to this city, and has lived here most of her life, attending school here and graduating from the Plattsmouth High school. She has a large circle of friends. The groom, who is engaged with his father in the automobile business at Eagle, is a young man of high qualities and is well thought of in his home town as well as over the county where he is known.

The ceremony was performed at 8 o'clock, followed by a sumptuous wedding supper, after which the happy couple departed for Omaha, and from there went yesterday to Chicago. They will spend some time in Michigan, stopping at Lansing, and will visit the Buick auto factory at Flint, which is nearby, securing a new Buick car for the garage at Eagle, which they will drive back. The trip back should be a most delightful one and doubtless will be to these happy newlyweds.

The Journal takes pleasure in wishing them a joyous journey thru life and as much happiness as falls to the lot of mortals with as little of the cloudy side as possible.

A KITCHEN SHOWER

From Friday's Daily.

Another charming social event for the June brides was the delightful kitchen shower given by Mrs. R. F. Patterson and Mrs. John W. Falter, at the pretty Patterson home on North Sixth St., Wednesday afternoon. This charming shower was in honor of Miss Marie Donnelly and Miss Edith Dovey. The spacious rooms of the Patterson home had been made very lovely with decorations of Mrs. Ward's roses and in a color scheme of yellow and white.

The afternoon hours were very pleasantly whiled away by the guests in hemming tea towels and wash cloths, as well as embroidering their initial in the corner of each, which, when completed were given to the brides, which will be appreciated by them in years to come.

At an appointed hour the guests were invited to the dining room where the bridal parties were seated at the large table, while the guests were seated at small tables, surrounding the bridal table. A dainty and elegant two course bridal luncheon was served.

After the luncheon, the brides were showered with various kitchen utensils, which will be useful to them in their new homes.

The invited guests were Misses Gretchen and Marie Donnelly, Nora Livingston, Lillian Dwyer, Helen Cass, Elizabeth Falter, Jeanette Patterson, Ruth Fitzgerald of Louisville, Edith Dovey, Matilda Soennichsen, Madeline Minor, Margaret Doan, Charlotte Hayes of Milwaukee, Wis., Clara Herrman, Watertown, Wis.; Mesdames J. T. Begley, E. R. Travis, W. C. Soennichsen, George Falter of Fort Crook, B. A. Rosenkrans, Madame Leete, W. S. Leete, Jack Davis, H. C. McMaken, T. R. Rutledge of Omaha and Father Leete.

AUTOMOBILE GOES INTO DITCH.

Car Injured Considerable. Driver Fortunate As He Escapes Injury.

From Friday's Daily.

Last evening while driving along Lincoln avenue, the car in which Edward Lutz, Jr., was riding along, took a notion to go into the open ditch just opposite the home of Fred Geis, with the result that the car was broken up pretty badly, while the driver Mr. Lutz escaped without any serious injuries. This is the place of a portion of the exposed creek with the precipitate banks, which has received a good deal of airing before the council during a number of their meetings, and which was reported on at the last meeting as not being able to protect, on account of there being no fence posts which they could obtain. The car is at the garage of J. H. McMaken & Sons for repair, while Ed himself does not need be repaired. The place is rather dangerous, and it looks like the city should get in clear on it before a worse accident occurs.

FRANK H. SMITH SENDS PICTURE

From Friday's Daily.

Frank H. Smith, formerly the reporter on this paper, but for now nearly a year in the service of the United States Government, in the army, and located most of the time at Camp Cody, sends the proprietor of the Journal, a picture of the 126th Regiment, composed almost entirely of Nebraska men, and of which there are fifteen from this county. They being: Lieut. H. Floyd Stone, Corporal Maldon Brown, Sergeant Earnest Trumble, Corporal Matt Jirusek, Sergeant Otto Lutz, Corporal Warren L. Trumble and Privates Lloyd Gilmore, Harry Gilmore, Arthur Sampson, Carl Wolforth, Roy O. Vickers, Raymond Larson, Albert H. Kearns, George F. Meade and Roy A. Wade. These make an excellent picture, and will be on display in a short time in the window of the Journal office, where it can be viewed by everybody.

HAS A CAR STOLEN

From Friday's Daily.

Harry Marquardt of Avoca, last evening had a car stolen, and this morning has not found the car or any trace of that would lead to the capturing of the thief or the return of the car. At Avoca last evening there was a patriotic meeting which was well attended, and while the interest was high, some one slipped away with the car, and made good good their escape.

THE KAHKI CLUB DANCE.

From Friday's Daily.

The ladies of this community have organized what is known as a Kahki club, and have rented the former Turner Hall, on Washington Avenue, which will be used for a club house, and will keep the place open for the use of the soldiers, from four in the afternoon until ten o'clock at night. There will be some ladies in charge, and the soldiers will be made welcome. It is arranged that there will be given a social dance at the home this evening, and the numbers having been placed at fifty cents each, should bring out a large crowd as the proceeds will be used for the caring of the place for the soldiers. The soldiers which have been here for the past three weeks will depart for Ft. Crook tomorrow, and there will come one thousand more here on Sunday, this will make more than what has been here before. There will be soldiers here during the entire summer, and their entertainment is a thing which this city is desirous of looking after.

Mrs. E. R. Jahrig was a passenger to Omaha this morning and accompanied by one of the children will visit with her brother August Doering for the day.

PAY TRIBUTE TO HEROES - DEAD AND LIVING

BUSINESS SUSPENDED AND PEOPLE REVIEW DEEDS OF YET FORMER WAR DAYS.

STEVENS SPOKE ON THE WAR

Iowa Supreme Court Lawyer Paid Respects to Old Soldiers and Championed Our Cause

From Friday's Daily.

Yesterday morning was largely spent with the business houses of the town staying open only long enough to transact such emergency business as the disposal of perishable fruit previously order for delivery, and such other necessary business, when the stores were closed for the balance of the day. Some were closed all day, some closed by the middle of the forenoon and none remained open after the noon hour.

In the forenoon, a committee with the assistance of the Boy Scouts marked and decorated the graves of all members of the Grand Army of the Republic. There were also present at the cemetery a large number of people, who were there to decorate the graves of departed friends and ere the noon hour had arrived the entire cemetery had taken on a different appearance as a result of their efforts. During the early part of the forenoon a shower of light proportions fell, after which the breeze dried up the moisture and made the ground just right, while the air was delightful.

Services at the Parmele. In the afternoon the sun came out and shone with brilliancy and heat, and although the atmosphere was sultry following the morning's rain the Parmele theatre was filled to standing capacity with citizens who gathered to listen to the Decoration day program and pay tribute to the heroes of another war—both living and dead—as well as to urge fidelity and devotion to the cause for which we now are fighting.

The program at the theatre was opened by the singing of "America," led by Mrs. Mae S. Morgan, in which all joined with a spirit of patriotism. Then followed the salute to the flag by the school children under direction of Mrs. Morgan, as the flags were held by Thomas Wiles, commander of the local post, G. A. R., and Edward Patterson of the Junior Boy Scouts. Mr. Wiles was chairman of the meeting and announced the numbers on the program. Following the flag salute, Rev. M. A. Shine invoked the blessing of Almighty God on the meeting, on this country and on the world, and especially the boys who are fighting this day for the principles of Liberty and Justice.

"The Red, White and Blue" was the next song and led by Mrs. Morgan, the audience sang it with a fervor that bespoke their love for the song and the sentiment it implies. Mrs. Jennie M. Dodge then read the Gettysburg address of Abraham Lincoln.

"The Soldier Boys of '61" was next sung by Comrades Glen and Windham. The audience went wild over this number and would only be satisfied when these two gentlemen of the old school made acknowledgment of the encore.

Roll Call of Members. Adjutant Windham called the roll saying that it had been the custom to call the roll of the departed ones, but the number now being about 150, it would be more convenient to call the roll of the living only. This roll call showed the living membership of McConnechie Post to be L. D. Bennett, Los Angeles, absent; Wm. Burke, sick at his home in the city, absent; W. H. Freeze, present, and upon rising to his feet he was greeted with applause and hand-clapping in recognition of his services, as were greeted all those answering present, and Col. J. H. Thrasher, who was absent. The balance of the roll call showed John Fight, present; William Gilmore, present; Thomas

Wiles, present; R. W. Hyres, in Colorado, this being the first time he had missed Memorial services in this city for more than thirty years; Fred Heirich, at his home in the city; N. H. Isabel, A. Jack, Justus Lillie, Wm. McCauley, John Renner and W. H. Newell, present; Isaac Wiles, in the western part of state; Robert Troop, in northern part; R. B. Windham, Thomas W. Glen, present; Geo. Wall, lives at La Platte; D. W. Foster, at Union; P. T. Walton, departed recently for trip up into the state, and C. M. Barrows, at Murray; Col. J. H. Thrasher, in Montana, while Jas. W. Anthony was present and Ezra Brown a visitor from out of the state. Col. M. A. Bates was present and was called to his feet by Comrade Glen, whereupon he was given an ovation.

Those who had passed away during the past year were five in number, their names being Wm. S. Porter, Benjamin Decker, Rozziel Morrow, A. C. Tartsch and J. W. Johnson.

Thomas Wiles told of how just 54 years ago he was in a battle in Arkansas, when J. W. Anthony was wounded, as he himself was also, and how he had picked up Comrade Anthony and was able to get him to safety, but the latter was not able to do any more fighting during the war. The same day of which yesterday was an anniversary, Mr. Wiles rode thirty miles on a mule to a hospital.

Male Quartette Good.

The song, "Never Let the Old Flag Fall" was next sung by a quartette composed of F. A. Cloidt, Rev. H. G. McCluskey, Roy W. Knorr and Don C. York. At the close of the song, Mr. York asked the audience to join in singing the chorus with them, which they did, although rather feebly.

Mayor H. A. Schneider then arose and in a very pointed and patriotic little talk introduced the speaker of the afternoon, Hon. Judge T. S. Stevens, of the supreme court of the state of Iowa, who delivered the address of the afternoon.

Americanize America

Judge Stevens showed himself an excellent speaker and won the audience right from the start. He spoke of the war and the causes that led to our participation in it, saying that fighting the forces of autocracy in Europe today is eminently necessary to save ourselves from having to fight them in America some time in the future. He laid stress on the before-the-war attitude of trying to foreignize America and showed how the reaction now demands that we Americanize America.

Judge Stevens recommended the speaking of no language in this nation save the English. He avers no one can speak a foreign language and be quite as patriotic an American as he would be if he spoke the English tongue and no one can meet the requirements unless his sympathies are with the allied armies equally with those of our own nation. He said, further, "When the American boys go to Berlin (and as sure as there's a God in the heavens, they'll get there) there will not be found in all of Germany a single ravished wife, nor a single German boy with hands, arms, ears of other parts of his anatomy cut off, nor will there be a single German baby crucified on the point of an allied bayonet." Thus advocated the judge we will impress on the hearts of the German people that ours is a war of love and a fight for the principles of justice and make them see the error of their barbaric ways—ways taught them through years of "kultur" at the hands of avarous and unprincipled rulers of the nation.

Government of democracy will survive, declared Mr. Stevens, and one by one the nations of the world will come to a form of government similar to ours.

Following the address of Judge Stevens, the audience stood and sang "The Star Spangled Banner," after which Rev. McCluskey offered a few words of benediction and the meeting was over.

NO WITNESSES ARE FOUND TO COMPLAIN

AGAINST CITIZENS WHO ADMINISTERED LAW ON PRO-GERMANS AT AVOCA.

EVERYONE SEEMS SATISFIED

Crimes Complied Of Said to Have Been Committed Before New Sedition Law Effective.

From Friday's Daily.

There has been no prosecution of the one hundred and fifty people who administered their interpretation of the law a short time ago, but giving some refractory citizens a coat of tar, and chaff from a straw stack. The matter is only a rumor as far as the law is concerned, while the complaint has not reached the courts, and the people who were given the free entertainment do not and in fact refuse to enter a complaint, it looks like everybody was satisfied. The language which an affidavit, which sets forth the matter, says was used, and which was made by a man, who is closely connected with the people, is of a nature that is now seditious, but the offenses were committed before the going into effect of the law. The man who was the leader of the uprising, has two brothers in the service, and his wife also has two brothers in the army. With these facts before the people it is not difficult to understand how he with the others of the 15 people should be incensed, at the talk, especially when one of the parties was being solicited for contributions for the Red Cross, asked "What are you going to do when coming to you for German Red Cross?" while another said that "We would be better off if we had the kaiser in the place of President." Is it any reason the people could not stand it, any righteous red-blooded American would be tempted to take measures which would be adequate to the offense. There are 31 people enlisted from the little precinct since this happened, and with this feeling the people who were not giving loyalty to the principles of American institutions were in eminent danger of getting called to an accounting. The recipients of the administrations of this select committee of 150, came to this city to consult with the district judge, and not finding him at home, went to the governor, and not finding him there, went to the Federal investigator, and then breaking away from an attorney who had picked them up in this city, returned to the city and took up the case with the county attorney and sheriff, saying to them that they did not wish to complain against any one, nor did they desire to have one of the one hundred and fifty arrested. It looks like the scum of disloyalty is working out as the pot boils, and that patriotic Americanism is coming out of the matter.

L. F. TRIMPE AND WIFE WERE VISITING HERE

From Friday's Daily.

Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Trimpe of Omaha were visitors in this city yesterday coming to attend the memorial day, and to participate in the same. Their especial object in coming was to visit the last resting place of the parents of Mrs. Trimpe, Mr. and Mrs. Z. T. Brown, who are resting at Oak Hill Cemetery. Also to visit with their many friends here. Mr. and Mrs. Trimpe have just returned from a trip to Camp Cody, where they were to visit with Corporal Maldon Brown, the brother of Mrs. Trimpe. They were much pleased with the country down that way and to find Maldon enjoying the best of health, and liking his work well. They departed for their home in Omaha last evening.

WILL YOU RUN FOR THE TRAIN TOMORROW MORNING

From Saturday's Daily.

Sunday morning June 2nd, that is tomorrow, you will be confronted, you who desire to go to Omaha, with the proposition of catchin' the morning train number fifteen, just one hour earlier. That will make the leaving time here 7:16 instead of 8:16 as heretofore.

Other changes are also made, among which is a turn around or stub train will leave here for Pacific Junction to connect with number five from Chicago, this train departs from here at seven forty, and returns at eight ten. Number six, the same time as now. Number 14 the train which has arrived here at nine thirty at night will leave Omaha hereafter at eight o'clock and five minutes and will arrive in Plattsmouth at nine o'clock just thirty minutes earlier.

Those who travel and who make trains will please observe the changes, as they cannot ride upon a train that has passed before you arrive at the station from which it departs.

HAD A LIVELY RUNAWAY

From Saturday's Daily.

A team hitched to a junk wagon, created some excitement yesterday afternoon on north Fourth street, when the holdback strap broke, allowing the tongue of the wagon to fall, which caused the team to run away. With the driver holding on tightly and hollering 'whoa' so strenuously the steeds were urged to greater speed, and continued the mad plunge until they struck the curb between Wm. Holly's clothing store and the Waterman Lumber company's office. The wagon was badly demoralized but the driver was uninjured although badly frightened.

TEACHERS BID MISS DRIFTMEYER GOOD BYE AT DEPOT

From Saturday's Daily.

Last evening a large number of the High School scholars were at the Burlington station, bidding good-bye to the teacher of history, Miss Bertha Driftmeyer, who with the closing of the school year is departing for her home at Clarinda, Iowa. Miss Driftmeyer has proven an efficient teacher, having great capacity, and a natural knack of making friends with the scholars, and all are willing to swear by her. All of the scholars are her friends, and it is slightly hinted that she has a friend dearer, whose friendship will intervene between her and the scholars of another school.

SHORT LETTER FROM BROTHER SOON TO SAIL

PHILIP THEIROLF NOW STATIONED AT CAMP MILLS, LONG ISLAND, NEW YORK

SAYS HE IS FEELING FINE

He Had Fine Trip On Way to Camp and Saw the Most Beautiful Scenery Along the Way.

From Saturday's Daily.

Philip Theirolf, who is stationed at Camp Mills, Long Island, N. Y., writes his brother Henry at Cedar Creek, telling of his impressions of the service, and how he likes it.

The letter reads as follows: Camp Mills, Hempstead, L. I., Co. B, 355th Infantry, N. Y.

Dear Brother Henry, Well we finally got to our stopping place, where we will stay for a few days and then we will be on our way still further. We sure had a fine trip coming out here. We went through Kansas, Missouri, Iowa, Illinois, Indiana, Ohio, Michigan, Ontario, Canada, New York, Pennsylvania, New Jersey, then back to New York, where we are at the present time. There was sure some nice scenery on the way down here. We passed quite near the statue of Liberty and seen the Brooklyn bridge and a thousand and one other things. Well how is Mildred by this time. I hope she is well again and able to be up and around. As far as I am concerned I am alright and feeling fine, and if you have anything you want to tell me you better write right away and now I guess I will bid you all good-bye until you hear from me again.

I am your brother, PHILIP.

GLEN TUCKER DIES AT SAN DIEGO, CALIFORNIA

From Saturday's Daily.

Last evening L. B. Brown received word of the death of his great nephew Glen Tucker at San Diego, California, where he passed away at the army hospital yesterday from typhoid fever. The young man is a son of Mrs. Kittie Tucker, who is a niece of L. B. Brown of this city. Mr. Brown departed yesterday afternoon for Ft. Morgan to attend the funeral which will occur when the body shall have reached that place.
