NAVY MAN IN TALK ON SER- VICE WAS HERE

CAPTAIN STATEN SPOKE AT THE CITY LIBRARY LAST EVE TO A SMALL CROWD.

BEEN IN NAVY THIRTY YEARS

Says Winning the War Depends on Our Getting Troops to France and Supplying Them.

From Saturday's Daily.
Last evening at the auditorium of the public library, Captain Staten addressed a rather small crowd, but a very much interested one, on conditions in the navy and marine service of the United States and the importance of keeping a line of communication open between here and Europe.

The meeting was opened by a patriotic song, after which Rev. Truscott offered the invocation, and E. H. Wescott, as chairman, introduced the speaker. Captain Staten said that the matter of winning the war depends largely on our getting troops to Europe and supplying them after we have gotten them safely over-seas. This is the proposition that confronts the United States, and if we can do that we have the war won, but to do this we need ships—and more ships, and we will have to make them in increasing numbers—faster—faster—faster.

Of first class battle ships, he said we have about fifty and for plying the Atlantic, we have to have about five colliers for a large battle ship. At present we have 24 colliers and are sorely in need of nearly three hundred more. By the aid of England we have been able to land some troops in France, and are at this time landing about ten thousand a day, which if we could keep up the average would, in the course of a year, place us in a position to do effective fighting. Captain Staten declared that so far we have lost more on the sea than we have lost in land battle. The intention of the United States is to supply 30,000 airplanes, which will require a million men in the aviation department alone. In order to put these million men and 30,000 airplanes on French soil, we are in need of eight million tons of new shipping, and the only way to get it is to build it. Good progress has been made, but the unions, which are composed quite largely of Germans and Austrians, 80 per cent of the membership being foreign born, are obstructing the matter of ship building by just at this time having introduced in congress bills making it unlawful for any one to offer inducement to workmen to speed up their labor, even though they may be well paid for it, the proposal being to carry the bills on the ground that men would over-burden themselves through greed for the added wage offered. This is not true, and the number of men broken down in health through overwork is so small in a score of years as to be insignificant. Captain Staten dwelt at considerable length and desired to have the people get in touch with their congressmen to the end of having the anti-efficiency bill defeated, in order that the ship building program may be speeded up to a rate of production that will insure troops going forward and supplies following them in large quantities. For what would it avail us to send our boys to France and then not be able to feed them or supply them with arms and ammunition.

GRADUATES THIS YEAR.

From Saturday's Daily.
Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Bates received an announcement of the Commencement exercises at Louisville, Neb., from Miss Fern Grassman. The Commencement exercises were held Wednesday evening, May 29th at the Louisville Opera house, at 8 o'clock. In looking over the program we notice that Miss Fern was the Salutatorian of the class. Miss Fern was the oldest daughter of the late Ed Grassman and resided in this city for a number of years.

CULTIVATORS.

We have for walkers—a genuine New Tongueless Departure. For Tongue Cultivator the Jenny Lind. For Rider—a New Century and Badger. For 2-row listed Corn cultivator, we have Jik, John Deere and the Rock Island. John F. Gorder. 5-23-tfd&w

D. A. R. DE- CLAMATORY CONTEST

HELD LAST NIGHT AT PARMELE THEATRE—ANOTHER BIG AUDIENCE PRESENT

PRIZE WINNERS ANNOUNCED

Those Gaining Honor in Contest and Best Composition Students Receive Recognition.

From Friday's Daily.
Last evening, to a house crowded almost to its capacity, was held at the Parmele theatre the annual declamatory contest given under the auspices of the Daughters of the American Revolution.

The evening's program was begun by the singing of "Freedom for All Forever," by a chorus directed by Mrs. Mae Morgan, after which Gladys Kaffenberger, the first speaker on the program gave a reading entitled, "The Unknown Speaker," which was well rendered and elicited much applause.

Miss Henrietta Waintroub followed with a humorous number entitled "No News," which she rendered in excellent manner, also receiving evidence of gratification.

"Your Flag and My Flag" was sang by the chorus. Miss Una Crook followed with "Now Father's Talking," an amusing character-sketch in which she impersonated the Grouchy Dad who arrogated all to himself. An excellently presented humorous number, was the general verdict.

Miss Goldie Kaffenberger followed with a piece of much merit, in which she showed long preparation and unmistakable ability in delivery, as her number was highly applauded.

After another number, Miss Helen Pontias gave a reading entitled, "Talking Over the Telephone," in which she demonstrated her ability to please an exacting audience and the people were demonstrative of their satisfaction to a marked degree of applause.

Wm. Sprecher, a popular young man of the high school, had to wait until his greeting had somewhat subsided before he could begin, but, once started, he sailed right in, and with "The Gladiator," a dramatic utterance, produced what the judges and the audience pronounced as being near perfect.

Then followed a sketch, "Knitting," by Elenor McCarthy, 2 Clara Mae Morgan and Helen Pontias, and so vigorously were they encoored that they responded with another song, "Evening Bells."

Elenor Hiber next delivered "The Meaning of the American Flag" in a manner that showed understanding of the theme as well as the mere words used to express it, and she received the appreciation of the audience. Miss Myrtle Beverage handled "The Unknown Speaker" and it being the same as that rendered by Miss Kaffenberger, one could not distinguish between them, both being excellent.

Then followed "The Slacker from Minnesota," a humorous production, by William Polieck. This was a piece very difficult of delivery, yet well rendered by the young speaker. This concluded the speaking and as a closing number the chorus sang "When the Boys Come Marching Home Again." While the prizes were being awarded Miss Altman rendered a violin solo, which was certainly received with much pleasure by the audience.

There still being a little time before the judges were ready to report, the "Marseilles," set to American words, was sang by the chorus.

The judges then having concluded their work, Mrs. Hazel B. Smith, one of the members of the D. A. R., in a very pleasing address named the winners, both of the evening's contest and also of the essays which have been a feature of the last few weeks of the school year.

Wm. Sprecher was awarded first prize for his oration and Miss Una Crook received second prize. In the essay writing contest Miss Josephine Manners, Eighth grade received the first prize and Miss Marie Nemetz of the Seventh grade was awarded second place.

This concluding the exercises, the audience stood and joined in singing "America."

IT SEEMS A BITTER DOSE.

From Friday's Daily.
The cartoon in the World-Herald this morning which a picture of an introduction to the kaiser, of the vanguard of the millions of soldier boys from free America, which he has been attempting to control thru disloyal and ungrateful people living in this country, is far from his liking. He had better see and discern the "Hand Writing on the Wall", for the quicker the easier it will be. The sneer which the average German has worn, will soon change to surprise and then again in the twinkling of an eye to fright, for "The Hosts of Free Men are Coming, Many Millions Strong."

WANTED FOR ARMY.

From Friday's Daily.
During the calls of the veterinarians for service in the army under 538, but few appeared, for that purpose, and in order to get the men which are needed, the department has modified the call, and now it includes three classes and volunteers, and the call is for "Men who have had extensive experience in handling horses." This should include men who are not within the present call, of class one, and from the reading of the call might mean those not in the draft at all, but of this it is not certain. But should there be such as are not in the draft at all, who have the knowledge, they can find out regarding it by applying to the secretary of the local board. Any way the government wants men with horse knowledge, you who have had the experience go see.

ANNUAL FLOWER MISSION MONDAY

From Friday's Daily.
The members of the W. C. T. U., will hold their Annual Flower Mission meeting at the home of Mrs. J. E. Wiles on Chicago Avenue, Monday afternoon. They will, also, observe the birthday of Jennie Cassidy, the founder of the Flower Mission. A good program is being arranged and a luncheon will be served. Everybody invited.

MRS. ROY MAYFIELD VERY SICK.

From Friday's Daily.
Word was received last evening of the extreme serious condition of Mrs. Roy Mayfield, and the call was for the children and her parents to come at once. They departed on the evening Missouri Pacific train for Omaha and found Mrs. Mayfield suffering greatly, from peritonitis, and but little or no hope was entertained for her recovery. During the night she became a little easier, and rested until morning which was the last word from her bedside as we go to press.

MYNARD RED CROSS DRIVE A SUCCESS

CONTRIBUTIONS OF CASH AND FARM ANIMALS FROM PROSPEROUS LOCALITY.

PEOPLE GIVE MOST LIBERALLY

And a Total of $1,276.18 is Realized to Help Carry on the Work—List of the Donors.

ASK THE SOLDIER BOYS

"Absolute knowledge I have none, but my aunt's washerwoman's sister's son
Heard a policeman on his beat
Say to a laborer on the street,
That he had a letter just last week
Written in the finest Greek
From a Chinese coolie in Timbuctoo,
Who said the Indians in Cuba knew
Who got it straight from a circus clown."

That a man in the Klondike heard the news
From a gang of South American Jews
About somebody in Borneo
Who heard a man who claimed to know
Of a swell female society rake
Whose mother-in-law will undertake
To prove that her seventh husband's sister's niece
Has stated in a printed piece,
That she has a son who knows a
Zulu chief
Who knows that Red Cross funds are not used for relief."

The Mynard Red Cross chapter has just completed a drive in their community for funds in order that they may carry on their work in surgical dressings and hospital garment work.

The drive has been very successful and proves once more what the farmers are doing to help win this war.

The territory was divided among the five ladies of the Finance committee and each home was solicited.

The ladies in charge of the drive are Mrs. Grover Will, chairman, assisted in her territory by Mrs. A. W. Lenoard, Mrs. Guy Kiser and Chas. Barnard.

Mrs. Sherman W. Cole, assisted by Mr. Cole and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Barnard.

Mrs. Ed Spangler and Mrs. S. A. Wiles working together.

Mrs. Joseph J. Johnson, assisted by Mr. Johnson and son.

NOTES

We wish to thank each contributor and every one who has helped in any way to make this drive the big success it has been. We feel most grateful for the way our fellow citizens have come forward to help us whip the "Kaiser."

We also wish to thank Mr. Thed Amick and J. H. McMaken for the use of their trucks and drivers to gather up the hogs; Mr. Charles Barnard who had charge of gathering the hogs; Mr. Bert Satchel who paid the expense of trucks, which was $7.00 and Mr. W. F. Gillispie, who shipped the hogs to Omaha free of charge.

Our Chapter has just purchased a new Singer sewing machine and the agent, Mr. Stevenson, let us have it $20.00 cheaper as his donation.

We would be glad to have all members of the Junior Red Cross meet with us and any other persons interested in the work. Meetings are every Thursday afternoon from 2 to 5 p. m. at the church in Mynard.
