FOUND MUCH DAMAGE BY HAIL.

From Tuesday's Daily. Yesterday, R. A. Bates and wife and T. A. Bates and wife, were visitors at the home of Mrs. T. B. Bates' parents, J. J. Smith and wife, near Florence, where they spent a few hours. Mr. Smith is a very influential farmer living in that neighborhood, and known over the state to a great extent, being engaged in horticulture, and having an excellent orchard of apples and cherries as well as other fruits. The hail storms, which came on the 31st of May, has almost entirely destroyed the fruit, spoiling both apples and cherries, resulting in a loss of $6,000.

ATTENTION OWNERS OF MOTOR CARS

Do you know that the famous Watters New Gas Saver and Carbon Remover is a great success, and will actually keep the water in your car cool, and eliminate the accumulation of carbon in the cylinders and spark plugs. This device will force steam in your car and thereby soften the carbon. You will save from 25 to 40 per cent more on your gas, gives your engine more "pep" and more pull, to say nothing of the more mileage you will get from a gallon of gas. Thousands of satisfied users.

One of Ours.

I have one of the Watters Gas and Carbon Removers on my car, and it sure does all you claim for it. I get twenty-eight miles out of one gallon of gas, and besides it keeps the motor cool. ED. VERY BEAUTIFUL HOME WEDDING

MISS BLANCHE ROBERTSON, ONE OF PLATTSMOUTH'S POPULAR AND ACCOMPLISHED YOUNG LADIES, UNITED IN MARRIAGE TO MR. HARVEY C. GAMER OF OMAHA.

Many Friends in Plattsmouth and Elsewhere Extend Congratulations to the Happy Couple.

CASTORIA

From Wednesday's Daily. Yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock a number of invited relatives and friends assembled at the pretty home of Mr. and Mrs. James M. Robertson on Vine street, to witness the marriage of their daughter, Miss Blanche A. to Mr. Harvey L. Gamer of Omaha. The spacious parlors of the Robertson home had been made very attractive and prettily decorated in a color scheme of yellow and white, with a generous use of the yellow and white daisies and the foliage. In the center of the library, a beautiful arch of green and white had been erected, while in the background foliage had been banked and above this bower, a large American flag had been suspended. It was at this lovely arch the happy young couple plighted their marriage vows. At the appointed hour, Mr. E. H. Wescott took his place at the piano in the living room and Dr. R. P. Westover of Omaha, stepped forth and sang in a very happy manner, "I Love You Truly". Scarcely was the voice of the singer hushed, when Mr. Wescott sounded the chords of the Wedding March, which announced the coming of the bridal party. The procession led by tiny little Miss Vestetta Robertson, niece of the bride, as ringbearer, proudly carrying the wedding ring concealed in a huge rose, marched down the stairway, which had been decorated with ropes of smilax and white flowers, through the living room, into the library, to the arch, where they were met by the groom, who was accompanied by Mr. W. A. Robertson, brother of the bride as his attendant, and where Rev. H. G. McClusky, pastor of the First Presbyterian church awaited them. The bride was attended by Miss Elfreda Trulson of Seattle, Wash., as maid of honor and Miss Jessie Robertson, sister of the bride as bridesmaid. The bride entered the room and was accompanied to the marriage altar by her father, Mr. James M. Robertson. Standing beneath the pretty arch, and surrounded by the many invited relatives and friends, the marriage lines were read by Rev. H. G. McClusky and the vows were taken. After the marriage ceremony, a wedding reception was held by Mr. and Mrs. Robertson, during which time the happy young couple was showered with best wishes by their many friends. During this reception a buffet luncheon consisting of dainty fees with heart decorations and cakes were served in the dining room. The dining room was, also, very pretty in a color scheme of yellow and white, the yellow and white daisies being used here, too. Those assisting in the dining room were Mrs. W. S. Leete, Mrs. W. A. Robertson, Miss Diley of Kearney, Miss Helen Hunter, Miss Alfreda Trulson, Mrs. Cover and Miss Helen Best. The bride wore a lovely wedding gown of white Georgette Crepe, over white satin, with pearl bead trimmings. Her wedding veil of net with real bead trimming was arranged in a coronet for her head. She carried a lovely shower bouquet of bride's roses. Her Maid of Honor was attired in cream net, over Queen Yellow Taffeta and carried Mrs. Ward's roses. Her bridesmaid wore a white Georgette crepe trimmed in green and carried daisies. The tiny ring-bearer was a little fairy in her dainty dress of white organdy.

Mr. and Mrs. Gamer departed on No. 3, over the Burlington for the west, and will devote the coming summer months to traveling throughout the states of Wyoming and Colorado.
