IS SHOWING MUCH ENTERPRISE
SEEING THE NEED OF BETTER FACILITIES HE IS WILLING TO FURNISH IT.

From Saturday's Daily.
The matter of taxi service in this city has been spasmodic, some times there has been a half dozen cars awaiting at the railway stations for business, and some time many trains without any. People have not known what to depend upon. Charles Tilton has entered the game, and with a determination to succeed and to do so, he is doing all he can to please the public and give them what they are demanding. With the coming of the cold weather he has seen the necessity of closed cars, and he has prepared a new Sedan car, which will be comfortable even in the coldest of weather. He makes all trains with one exception. When these cold nights and mornings come, you will enjoy the provision that he has made for the public comfort.

SCARED DEVIL TO DEATH.
From Friday's Daily.
The devil was dancing a Prussian jig in a cozy corner of Pell, and bragged of the way he'd run the earth since Adam and Eve both fell. He had stoned the prophets and killed the Christ, buried the truths they told and in his own image a Kaiser made, for a thirst of power and gold. "What a rushing biz," the Devil exclaimed as he wiped his brimstone chin, when an outside imp with a troubled look came bringing the war news in. "What is the matter?" old Nick inquired as he swatted a monster bat. "Behold the Americans are after Bill, your Majesty—look at that!" The Devil gazed at the big headline—"Crown Prince's Host Retreat"—as the imp curled up like an old meat skin, and fell at the Devil's feet. "Unloose all the hands of Hell!" Nick cried; "save Germany at any cost! If the Yanks should kill my dear old Bill, Hell itself is lost!" Then Nick fell down in a prostrate heap, and lashed his tail on the floor, for the Boches fell by the Allied sword—and the Devil and Hell was o'er.

LEGAL NOTICE.
To George R. Bird:
You will take notice that on the 20th day of June, 1918, Hermina E. Windham filed her petition in the District Court of Cass County, Nebraska, against you, the object and prayer of which is that she may be adjudged owner in fee simple of lot 19, block 95, in Plattsmouth, Nebraska, freed from all claim of estate or interest therein of the said George R. Bird; and that the said George R. Bird and all persons claiming, by, through or under him be perpetually enjoined from claiming any right, title or right of possession adverse to the title and rights of the plaintiff, her heirs or assigns, and from interfering with the peaceful enjoyment of said lot by the plaintiff. You are required to answer said petition on or before Monday the 18th day of November, 1918, at your default will be entered therein and the allegations of said petition taken as true.
By R. B. WINDHAM, Attorney.

GETS JUDGMENT OF $7,424.49
From Friday's Daily.
In the case of Mrs. Emma Kaufman Palmer, vs. T. E. Parmele, for an accounting for telephone stock placed in his hands by Wm. Volk, and on which he has borrowed money, which occupied the attention of the court for some days past, the jury returned a verdict last evening, awarding the plaintiff the judgment of $7,424.49. This case has been tried before, and sent back from the supreme court. This is the first time that a lower court has given a verdict in favor of the plaintiff.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.
This is not only one of the best and most efficient medicines for coughs, colds, croup and whooping cough, but is also pleasant to take, which is important when a medicine must be given to young children. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has been in use for many years and has met with much favor wherever its good qualities have become known. Many mothers have given it their unqualified endorsement. Wm. Scruby, Chittenden, Mo., writes, "I have raised three children, have always used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and found it to be the best for coughs, colds and croup. It is pleasant to take. Both adults and children like it. My wife and I have always felt safe from croup with it in the house." Chamberlain's Cough Remedy contains no opium or other narcotic.
