

Miracles in Money

A city skyscraper seems a miracle in steel and stone. But it is only a vast number of girders painstakingly braced together—a vast quantity of bricks placed end to end and one above another.

Miracles in money are seeming miracles only. You can work miracles in your own life.

Saving Wins Success

You can have a big prosperous farm, own a car, or travel wherever you wish.

Men who have rarely succeeded—S-A-V-E. You can win the same success. You do not need a lot of money to do it. You need no great education.

You need only the determination to start now and continue. Let us help you.

HEARTS OF THE WORLD A PICTURE OF LOVE AND WAR

LOVE—LIFE AND HAPPINESS— FOLLOWED BY WAR—SEPARATION, DEATH

But Withal a Most Attractive Picture Filmed Amidst Shot and Shell of German Cannon.

The great photoplay, "Hearts of the World," staged by D. W. Griffith, producer of the "Birth of a Nation," "Intolerance," etc., will be the big feature attraction at the Parmele next Tuesday and Wednesday, August 12th and 13th. It is one of the most elaborate productions ever staged and is the war itself—a mixture of love and war—real, grim war in its terrible specter and not paper mache scenery or artificial scenery of any kind—a combination that is hard to surpass and is a distinct relief from the flood of ordinary camouflaged war pictures that have been flooding the country of late. It is the appealing voice of humanity crying out for justice and liberty.

Around the heartiness of the children of the earth Griffith has built his masterpiece. It is love—life and happiness—then war—separation, horror and death. And yet what it is not unattractive to the spectator. There is a fascination to its realism and an appeal that is truly tremendous.

Back in the little French village of Nevon, close to where the American soldiers fought so bravely after the United States entered the war, Mr. Griffith laid the scene of his story. And upon his arrival there with the stars Dorothy and Lillian Gish and Robert Herron, the village had survived two tides of Hun—none going toward Paris, the other toward Berlin. There amid shot and shell from huge boche cannon, the big company of motion picture actors were baptized in modern warfare. There they enacted the greatest heart story of the war to picture taken under the auspices of the British war office.

Two American painters lived in France, as the tale unfolds. One had a daughter, the other a son. They met and loved and were happy as young lovers always are. The picture opens with the peaceful scene of the pre-war days, the dawning love of this happy boy and girl, their courting and engagement.

Then came Germany's decision to rush the world with France as her first victim. The boy, although an American citizen, enlisted in the arm of France, believing that "the country good enough to live in is good enough to fight for." The development of the story shows the struggle of the little French band to hold their village from the Hun against tremendous odds—their faith and the terrible experiences of

RETURNS FROM HOSPITAL FOLLOWING AN OPERATION

From Tuesday's Daily—
Miss Mable Gravit returned home this afternoon from Omaha, where she has been for the past few weeks recovering from an operation for appendicitis. Miss Gravit is feeling much improved, although she is still quite weak. The friends of the young lady will be delighted to learn of her return to her home here to recuperate, she having been working in Omaha for some time previous to being taken ill, and hope for her early recovery. Mrs. William Gravit, who was with her daughter at the Lord Lister hospital during her illness and operation, accompanied her home.
