REQUIREMENTS IN NOMINATION OF DELEGATES

TO THE CONSTITUTIONAL CONVENTION EXPLAINED IN DETAIL BELOW.

AUGUST 9TH IS CLOSING DAY

For Filing Petitions, which May be Secured Through the County Clerk—Law Quoted.

From Tuesday's Daily.

It is very important that the people of the state fully understand all of the legal requirements for the selection of delegates to the constitutional convention. The following statement of the law relative to the matter is furnished the Journal by Arthur L. Weatherly, secretary of the Constitutional Convention committee of One-Hundred:

1. Blank nominating petitions can be secured from either the county clerk or the secretary of state.

2. Delegates to the constitutional convention are elected from representative districts. Each representative district is entitled to as many delegates to the constitutional convention as it had members in the Nebraska house of representatives.

3. If the representative district comprises only one county, the nominating petition must be filed with the county clerk of that county. If the representative district comprises more than one county, or if the candidate is a candidate for float delegate from two or more counties, the nominating petition must be filed with the secretary of state.

4. All nominating petitions must be filed with the county clerk or secretary of state, as the case may be, not later than August 9, 1919.

5. Extreme care must be taken to see that the nominating petition is in proper form before being filed. Five of the signers of the nominating petition must go before a notary public, or officer who can administer oaths, and sign a certificate at the bottom of the nominating petition to the effect that the petition is without fraud. The candidate must sign a statement at the top of the petition to the effect that he is a candidate and is eligible to the office.

6. "Sec. 9 Senate file No. 217: 'If in any representative district, the number of persons nominated by nominating petitions, equals or exceeds three times the number to be elected delegates to the constitutional convention from such district, a non-partisan primary shall be held in such district on the second Tuesday after the first Monday in September. At such primary, twice the number of persons to be elected delegates shall be chosen from those nominated by nominating petitions and those so chosen shall be deemed nominated for delegates and their names only shall appear on the ballot at the special election, hereinafter provided for. At such primary each elector shall be entitled to vote for as many candidates as the district in which the election is held is entitled to elect as members of the constitutional convention. No party or political designation shall appear on the ballots, either at the primary election or the special election by this act provided for.'

GAME LAWS IN GERMANY.

From Tuesday's Daily.
In the July issue of the Field and Stream, appears an interesting letter written by Horace E. Ruffner, formerly of this city and who is still in the army of occupation along the Rhine. Mr. Ruffner who while in Nebraska served as a deputy game warden, during the last winter in Germany in search of a few rabbits to vary the regular mess of their company and while so engaged they became tangled up with one of the German game wardens. It seems that rabbits are well protected by the game laws of the Hun country and in fact all of the native game of that country is protected by close seasons while the migratory birds are left at the mercy of the hunters. The season is open on wild geese and pigeons all the year while other migratory water fowl, snipe, cranes, plover are left without protection almost the entire year.

ACCEPTED ANOTHER POSITION.

From Monday's Daily.
Warren R. Wassell, who has made his home in this city as the representative of the Cass County Monument Company, has accepted a position with the W. A. Forbes Monument Company at Nebraska City, and will go to that place, the first of the coming week. The position is a very flattering one compared with the one at this place. Another man will be sent by the company to care for the position left vacant here. Mr. Wassell has made his home with his family in this city for the past three years, and with them has made many friends here. Their removal from this city will leave a vacant place in the social and religious circles of this city. Mr. Wassell is an efficient marble cutter, and well qualified to hold any position which may come to him. The Journal joins with his many friends in wishing him an abundant prosperity.
