MARRIED.

From Saturday's Daily.
Miss Frances Davis of this city and Mr. Charles Everett of Avoca surprised their friends by going to Lincoln last Wednesday and getting married. They left in the morning in the car and were accompanied by Miss Leona Everett, sister of the groom, and Edward Davis, brother of the bride.

The bride is the oldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Davis and has been a successful teacher the past three years holding positions at Washburn, Murdock and Cascade schools respectively. She is a very capable young lady and will be a competent helpmate to her husband.

The groom, who is not so well known here, but who has hosts of friends at Avoca, has been in the garage business until his building and all his tools were destroyed by fire some months ago. He is now mail carrier on the R. F. D. at Avoca. Mr. Everett served in the army in Texas and was discharged because of defective eyesight, even before our boys were sent across to France.

The young couple will be at home after August 15th at Avoca, Nebr. The best wishes for a successful future goes with them to their new home.—Weeping Water Republican.

The friends throughout the county will extend their best wishes to the young people.

A Traveling Man's Experience.

You may learn something from the following by M. H. Reiland, a traveling salesman of Louisville, Ky. "In the summer of 1888 I had a severe attack of cholera morbus. I gave the hotel porter fifty cents and told him to buy me a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic and Diarrhoea Remedy and to take no substitute. I took a double dose of it according to the directions and went to sleep. At five o'clock the next morning I was called by my order and took a train for my next stopping place a well man."

S. S. Gooding was among the business visitors in Omaha today, going to that city on the afternoon Burlington train.

Mike Price, Jr., was a passenger to Omaha this morning, going up to visit his father, Mike Price, Sr., at the St. Joseph hospital.

Howard Boyle has the facts to prove that it doesn't pay to work. Last year he had a 9-acre piece of wheat that made fifteen bushels to the acre. He disked the ground once expecting to plow the ground, but on account of the dry weather nothing more was done to the land and this year he harvested and threshed twenty bushels to the acre. This worked all O. K. this time, but we don't think that a good plan to follow as a permanent policy.

ADDS ANOTHER CHAPTER.

From Saturday's Daily.
Another chapter seems to have been added to the story of the King Eight roadster which was captured by Sheriff Quinton on the 20th of June while in the possession of a man giving his name as James Thomas. This car at the time of its capture was in charge of the man Thomas who was captured near Fort Crook by Sheriff Quinton after a chase from this city and was used for transporting intoxicating liquor. The car and the man were brought back to this city by the sheriff and a fine of $200 placed on Thomas who plead guilty to the charge of transporting liquor while the car was taken over by the sheriff and advertised for sale. Before the time for the sale of the car Michael A. Boylan came down from Omaha in company with an attorney and securing local counsel secured the car on a writ of replevin. As a part of the action a bond in the sum of $1,200 was put up with Frank E. Schlater as bondsman but in order to have protection in the matter Mr. Schlater, who is not interested in the case save as to the bond, had the parties give him a check in the sum of the amount of the bond for his protection and this check was then endorsed to Mr. Schlater. Now comes the rub as it seems the check was returned from the bank on which it was drawn with the statement that the man drawing the check had not sufficient funds to cover the check. This complicates the case somewhat but Mr. Schlater is protected in the matter as the check was endorsed by Attorney D. O. Dwyer and it will become necessary for the parties endorsing the check to make the drawer of the check make it good.

A Great Remedy.

The merits of Chamberlain's Colic and Diarrhoea Remedy are well known and appreciated, but there is occasionally a man who has no acquaintance with them and should read the following by F. H. Dear, a hotel man at Dupuyer, Mont. "Four years ago I used Chamberlain's Colic and Diarrhoea Remedy with such wonderful results that I have since recommended it to my friends."

An Old Fault Finder.

An irritable and fault finding disposition is often caused by indigestion. A man with good digestion and bowels that act regularly is usually good natured. When troubled with indigestion or constipation take Chamberlain's Tablets. They strengthen the stomach and enable it to perform its functions naturally. They also cause a gentle movement of the bowels.
