NEGRO GOES THRU QUEER TACTICS

Seems to Have Had Too Much Clothing on for Comfort—Peculiar Case at Elmwood.

From Saturday's Daily.

According to reports of school children in the district two miles south and one-half mile east of town on Monday evening they saw a negro get out of a car close to the culvert there. The car drove on and the negro remained and took off most of his clothing, stacking them in a pile and crawled into the culvert. Of course the children who had to pass that way were somewhat frightened, but it was not thought much of until the children saw the negro there again on Tuesday evening.

A report was sent to town and four or five auto loads with Justice Nothart went to the place to make an investigation. Judd Sutherland, however, was on his way with a shotgun to make an investigation, and arrived just ahead of the cars.

An investigation was made and a thorough search made with an investigation of all the straw stacks and barns in the community, but no negro was to be found, nothing but a pair of overalls, a couple of shirts and other wearing apparel being found.

The whole thing seems to be a queer affair. The negro evidently had a superabundance of clothing and desired to get rid of some of it, or had a number of changes so that he might be able to hide his identity. The probable conclusion is that he was insane from his actions. Nevertheless he disappeared and the whole affair remains a mystery.—Elmwood Leader-Echo.

COAL STRIKE TO EFFECT OUR LIGHT SERVICE

CONDITION OF AFFAIRS HERE IS NOT SERIOUS—MAY BECOME SO IN FEW WEEKS.

OMAHA PLANT IS PREPARING

Nebraska Power Company Issues a Warning to Consumers to Aid in Saving of Power.

From Saturday's Daily.

The continuation of the coal strike over the country is beginning to be felt in the large power plants that supply electric power and among these is the Nebraska Power company, which furnishes part of the electrical supply to the city of Plattsmouth. Vice-president Davidson of that company has issued an appeal to the patrons of the company urging a saving of electric current in every possible way in order to assist in the conservation of the coal supply of the company.

In this city, the condition at the local plant has not been affected by the strike among the coal producers, but as the strike goes on the condition will become more serious. At present there is a coal supply sufficient at least for the next thirty days and Superintendent Kuykendall has been able to secure a small amount of slack from local parties, that will act as a reserve supply in case the supply of coal is exhausted. Should the strike continue over the next two weeks the result with the electrical power plants will be serious however and make necessary radical steps to conserve the power of the company to within the supply of coal.

The company, both in this city and in Omaha will serve its patrons with electricity as long as it is possible to do so, but in the event that the coal supply is exhausted it will be necessary to close the plants until relief can be had in the way of a sufficient coal supply.

It is well at the present time to inaugurate a conservation of the light service and to burn only what amount is absolutely necessary as the less lights that are burned the less will be the consumption of coal at the power plant.

EXCITEMENT ON PEARL STREET

From Saturday's Daily.

The residents along Pearl street yesterday afternoon were much excited when a strange canine that had been shot and mortally wounded made its appearance along that street and after wandering around the neighborhood between Ninth and Eleventh streets finally strayed into the yard at the home of Mrs. Peter Bates where the suffering animal made his final exit from the earthly activities. The ownership of the dog or the identity of the person shooting it remains a mystery but its unfortunate condition greatly excited the sympathetic feelings of the good people residing in that locality. The city authorities have been notified of the demise of the animal and a bury up call for the official burial wagon of the city has been made.

Large Number of Memberships in the Greatest of Beneficial Organizations Secured in City.

From Saturday's Daily.

The sale of memberships in the American Red Cross was opened in the city yesterday when the girls of the Toka campfire took up the task of selling the memberships at the postoffice and other places over the city and the response to their appeal from the generous people of the city has been very pleasing. There is nothing in the world more deserving than the work of the Red Cross and the amount asked is so small that few cannot afford to give their aid to the movement. The members of the Boy Scouts are also assisting in the work of securing members for the great charitable organization and with the campfire girls are demonstrating their patriotism and love of their fellow beings in aiding the society that is for the assistance of humanity. If you have not become a member of the Red Cross do not fail to enroll this evening and help on the good cause.

MEMBERSHIP OF A. F. & A. M. GROWING

SIX CANDIDATES GIVEN THE E. A. DEGREE LAST NIGHT, BEGINNING AT FIVE.

HAVE MUCH WORK AHEAD

Past Year Has Been One of Much Activity—Many Taking the Higher Degrees.

From Saturday's Daily.

Activity in local Masonic circles has made wonderful strides during the past year, the climax being reached last night when six candidates were given the Entered Apprentice degree at the hands of the master workmen of Plattsmouth lodge No. 6.

The lodge met in special session at 5 o'clock and ere the coming of the call from labor to refreshment, three candidates had been introduced to the fundamental teachings of Ancient Craft Masonry. Adjournment was then taken to the dining hall in the Masonic temple where a tempting repast had been prepared by the stewards of the lodge, and to which all did ample justice. While the number in attendance exceeded the expectations of the officers, by quick work they were able to so far stretch their feeding facilities that no one was permitted to go hungry, although it did require a "second" table to accommodate them all.

At 7:30 the session was continued in the lodge room and three more candidates were given the E. A. degree, after which the lectures of the degree were expounded in able manner by Past Master O. C. Dovey.

When the work was concluded it was found that the hour had grown late, but a few moments were indulged in for brief talks, among which was a most excellent one by William Baird, superintendent of the Burlington shops.

The work last night was only a part of that before the local lodge for the next few weeks. Numerous other petitions have been received, and a good number of candidates are in line for the F. C. and M. M. degrees.

The attendance last night was exceptionally good, there being in the neighborhood of seventy-five present throughout the long session, while nearly half as many more came and left as the time at their disposal would permit.

There is a tendency on the part of many Blue Lodge Masons to take the higher degree work this year alone, and a number of teams in the Royal Arch chapter have recently been advanced along the York rite while the Commandery has numerous petitions on file which are soon to be acted upon, and work in that branch will be begun presently.

In addition, a proposition to secure a class to take the work from the third to the eighteenth degree, inclusive, is meeting with much success. Plattsmouth already has a goodly number of Scottish rite Masons and from present indications the coming year will see many more added to the ranks.

The officers and members of Plattsmouth lodge No. 6, A. F. & A. M. are to be congratulated upon the splendid growth the past few months have witnessed in lodge membership, and all the more so because of the fact that no man is ever solicited to identify himself with the order.

FUNERAL OF MRS. N. H. ISBELL

From Saturday's Daily.

The funeral services of Mrs. N. H. Isbell was held yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock from the late home west of the city and was quite largely attended by old friends and neighbors who gathered to pay their last respects to the memory of the well beloved friend who had been taken from them. The services were in charge of Rev. A. V. Hunter, pastor of the Methodist church. The body was laid to rest in the family lot at Oak Hill.

NEW ARRIVAL IN PLATTSMOUTH

From Saturday's Daily.

At an early hour this morning the population of the city was increased by the advent at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. O. Moore of a very charming little daughter, who has been christened Joan Elizabeth Moore. The occasion has been one of the greatest joy to the parents and the friends will rejoice with them in the new happiness that has visited their home. Both the little daughter and the mother are doing nicely and Andy is simply in the heights of glory over the addition to the family. The little one has brought much pleasure also to the grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Leyda and Mrs. Ada Moore, as well as to the uncles and aunts of the little lady.

CURB AND GUTTER SHOWS PROGRESS

The work of installing the curb and gutter along South Fifth street is getting along in fine shape and Bert Coleman, the contractor, in charge of the work is expecting to have it completed in a very few days and in readiness to turn over to the city for inspection and acceptance. The hill leading from Main street to Garfield park certainly presents a vastly improved appearance as the result of the installing of the new curb and gutter and the grading that has greatly reduced the steep grade formerly existing there. The rapid work on the south Fifth street hill gives hopes of having the north hill curbed and guttered before the winter weather set in and aid in the completion of a very extensive street improvement program for the year.
