Hiatt & Tutt,

MURRAY, : : : NEBRASKA

A box supper will be given by the Murray school Nov. 26. Everybody is invited.

Messrs. Zach Shrader and Mont Shrader shipped a car of sheep to the Omaha markets last Monday.

Dr. G. H. Gilmore and W. J. Philpot were looking after some business matters in Plattsmouth on last Tuesday.

J. W. Cox, living near Nehawka, has been very sick at his home for several days, but is showing much improvement of late.

C. H. Budeker is spending this week in Texas, where he is looking after some business matters and visiting with friends for a short time.

Don Arries was a visitor in Murray for a short time looking after some business matters. He drove down from his home at Plattsmouth.

Edward Slocum, living north of town, has been feeling poorly for a considerable length of time, but is reported as being much improved of late.

George W. Shrader, who has been confined to his bed for several weeks is reported as being much improved and able to be up a part of the time once more.

G. H. Minford is constructing a large concrete platform on which he will feed his hogs, keeping the feed out of the mud and protecting it from damage.

W. G. Budeker has been spending considerable of his time up at Plattsmouth this week, he being a member of the jury panel at the November term of court.

Frank L. Sheldon and Mike Kline, of near Nehawka, were visitors for a short time in Murray last Tuesday on their way to Omaha, where they were looking after some business matters.

Searl Davis received a car load of cattle a few days ago which he will feed on his farm near Weeping Water, driving them to his place immediately after unloading them at the station here.

W. H. Sutton, of Plattsmouth arrived in Murray last Monday morning and is assisting in the picking of the corn crop at the home of Con DeJung, who lives a short distance northwest of Murray.

George Nickels, of the firm of Eanning & Nickels, was a business visitor in Omaha and Plattsmouth last Monday, at both of which places he looked after the transaction of some business matters.

Dwight Surface and wife, of near Union, were in Murray last Tuesday, bringing with them their little daughter who has been on the sick list, and consulting with Drs. Brendel and Brendel regarding the condition of her health.

Walter Sans, who has been feeding a car of sheep on his farm east of town for some time, shipped them to the South Omaha market this week having completed the fattening process to a point where he could realize handsomely on them.

County Surveyor Fred Patterson came down to Murray last Tuesday, and was met by Mr. Walcott of the First National Bank of Weeping Water with his car, and taken over near Weeping Water, where he had some surveying to do on the Teegarden farm.

George Hild and family and Louis Friedrich and family were visitors in Murray last Monday being guests at the home of L. H. Puls, W. H. Puls and Fred Hild for the day, and returning home in the evening, after having had a most enjoyable time with the relatives here.

Fred Hild has been kept busy for a short time past hauling sand from Murray to the farm of Otto Schaeffer where a new home is being built. On the return trips he hauls a load of wheat to town for Mr. Schaeffer, thereby killing the proverbial two birds with one stone.

Last Monday W. A. Scott, the merchant, was compelled to go to Plattsmouth to secure ice for his wares, the weather remaining too warm to assure the goods he carries against spoiling. This speaks well for the climate here, when one has to have ice in the winter time for their merchandise. Running a very close competition with the south and southwest.

Returns to Omaha Hospital Last Tuesday Mrs. Fred Hild, who has been feeling very badly, and who has been confined to her bed for the past more than a week, was taken to Omaha for examination and consultation with Dr. Loughridge. Her husband and Dr. B. F. Brendel accompanied her to the city, where she will remain at the Ford hospital for some time.

Henry Creamer shipped a car of hogs to the South Omaha stock market last Tuesday.

Morton Bartlett and Dr. J. F. Brendel were looking after some business at the county seat the first of the week, having driving up in Dr. Brendel's car.

The Capital Bridge company, of Lincoln, is constructing a concrete culvert at the Ran Minford corner east of Murray, which will add much to the condition of the road at that place when the work is completed and the grading done.

Fred Condon, who is employed with the Oldham farms, accompanied Ben Noell to the stock market at Nebraska City last Tuesday with a truck load of hogs, which were sold to the packing house. The trip was made with the auto truck of Mr. Puls.

Box Social and Program At New Hope school, 2 1/2 miles west and 1 south of Murray, November 21. Everybody come. Ladies please bring boxes.

WILL HOLD REVIVAL CAMPAIGN IN MURRAY FOR WINNING OF SOULS TO CHRIST

CHRISTIAN CHURCH MEMBERSHIP PREPARING TO INAUGURATE AN EXTENSIVE EVANGELISTIC EFFORT

MONEY TO DEFRAY EXPENSES IS ALL RAISED

Rev. Levi W. Scott of Plattsmouth Will Preach while Wife Will Direct the Music—Hoped That Much Good May be Accomplished

At a meeting of the official board of the Christian church of Murray, composed of Elders B. A. Root and B. F. Brendel and Deacons Charles Reed, Warren Wiley and Lee Kniss, held Monday, it was concluded to hold a campaign for the winning of souls to Christ, and in their official capacity the board took action toward raising the necessary funds. Little difficulty was experienced in securing the necessary amount of money to defray the expenses, the following morning, as the major portion of the needed sum was pledged at the meeting the evening before. All that then remained was to look after securing Rev. Scott of Plattsmouth to conduct the campaign, with the assistance of his good wife, who is to direct the musical program at the meetings, which has since been done.

All the minute arrangements have been made, including the care of the church, the entertainment of the visiting evangelist and wife while in the city, etc., and everything is in readiness for the opening of the meetings, which are to begin on next Sunday, November 23rd. The church will be heated at the beginning of the meetings and the fire will not be allowed to go out during the continuance of the campaign. The enthusiasm with which the meetings will be carried on will be kept at such glowing heat as to rival the constantly burning embers in the furnace.

The excellent success with which Rev. Scott was met in his recent conduct of the evangelistic campaign at Nebraska City, which has only recently closed, convinced the members of the church here that he is the proper person to look after the soul-salvation efforts in Murray. Mrs. Scott is a very able musical director, and with the chorus which Murray already possesses, and such additions as she may be able to interest, some excellent singing is assured. In addition to the chorus singing there will also be numerous special solo and duet numbers.

While the series of meetings is especially arranged for the people of Murray and vicinity in general, a very cordial and urgent invitation is extended to the members of other churches in the community to participate in and lend aid to the campaign. Irregardless of whether members of the church or not they are invited to come and enjoy the services. Especially is this invitation extended to the members of the Christian church at Plattsmouth, at which place Rev. Scott is the resident pastor. Many times has the church at Murray enjoyed the visits and co-operation of the church membership at Plattsmouth and been benefitted thereby, and now they are extending a cordial invitation to them to again join in promoting the good work.

The meetings will continue as long as there is interest shown and service can be rendered the Master in bringing souls to him. All who attend will receive a very warm welcome. Come and assist in this work, and also receive a blessing through your own efforts to help others.

THE USUAL DINNER THANKSGIVING DAY

Lewiston Ladies Promise to be On Hand with the Big Eats and Social Festivities.

The ladies of Lewiston are preparing the ninth annual Thanksgiving dinner to be given at Lewiston on Thanksgiving day.

The proceeds of this dinner will be used for putting the cemetery and church in repair. Every one interested in the Lewiston cemetery will be expected to contribute. The dinner served will consist of turkey and all the trimmings, such as salads, pies, vegetables of all kinds and every known good thing to eat.

Rev. W. A. Taylor will conduct services at 11 a. m. and the afternoon will be devoted to a general good time, visiting with the old friends whom you have not met under similar circumstances since the dinner of last year.

At 6 p. m., an oyster supper will be served.

Plan to attend. Plan to give. Plan to assist in making this a successful dinner as have been those preceding it in years past.

CO-OPERATION

According to Webster is "working together for the same end."

Why can't this be applied to our community? If the town and business institutions of Murray are an asset to the community, the better they are the more service they can give, and the more value to the community and to each individual. A prosperous town is but the reflection of prosperous surroundings. You will never find a prosperous town in a dead community, for the simple reason it is the bonding together of individuals that make a community, and as the people are so is the community. Our town cannot prosper at the expense of the farmer or the farmer at the expense of the town—at least no lasting prosperity can be assured in this way. But by proper co-operation or working together, things can be accomplished that will not only build up our town and add value to surrounding property, but will make this the best community in the world in which to live. When we begin to realize that by helping one another we are only helping ourselves, there will be less knocking and more boosting.
