THE MEETINGS ARE PROGRESSING FINE

Closing of Conference Meetings at St. Luke's Church Has Good Attendance.

From Saturday's Daily.

Last evening the last of the series of meetings held in the interest of the nation wide campaign of the Episcopal church was held at the St. Luke's church and despite the very unfavorable weather conditions prevailing the attendance was very satisfactory and showed the keen interest taken by the members of the parish in the work that is being brought to a close by the church. The members of the local parish had the unusual pleasure of having with them on this occasion the Rev. George Tyner of St. James' church of Fremont, one of the ablest speakers of the church in the state and his discussion of the needs of the church and the communicant for the awakening of the spirit of the church throughout the nation. Miss Catherine Hilliard of Omaha, one of the foremost of the lady workers of the church in the state was also present and gave a brief outline of the work of the church and its people in the great campaign just staged in the United States by the Episcopal church.

The meeting of the church tomorrow will be one of the most important that has been held in the local church in years as concerning the material progress and welfare of the parish and every member is urged to be present and take part in the meeting at the 11 o'clock service.

The church will prepare to take up their new system of conducting the business affairs of the church through the medium of the budget system as well as the pledges for personal service and at the session tomorrow the members of the working force of the church will receive their inspiration for the continuation of the campaign among the members of the parish for the extension of the church work.

LAWYERS AS WOOD CHOPPERS.

From Saturday's Daily.

One of the solutions of the problem of securing wood choppers seems to be that of having the members of the bar (not the mahogany) take up the work as several of the members of the legal fraternity have developed an unusual talent for the chopping of wood. Attorney Charles E. Martin is one of the chief ax wielders of the Cass county bar association and is making things hum at his home on Pearl street where he has a number of trees that are useless and he is now busily engaged in cutting these down and in a short time will have a nice supply of wood laid up for his use and at the cost of only a little spare time and muscle. Charley says it is excellent exercise and helps put the high cost of fuel down.

DEATH OF AN OLD RESIDENT LAST TUESDAY

MRS. JOHN CHALFANT, MANY YEARS RESIDENT OF CASS COUNTY, DIES AT UNION.

A DAUGHTER OF JUDGE GANTT

Pioneer Jurist of Nebraska Who Came to Nebraska City in 1868—One of First Judges.

From Saturday's Daily.

One of the best beloved of the pioneer women of Nebraska has passed from the scenes of her earthly activities to her final reward and laid to rest for the last long sleep amid the scenes where she had passed so many happy years. Mrs. Lena M. Chalfant passed away on Tuesday, December 2, at Union, Nebraska, where for the past few years she has been making her home with her son, John Chalfant, Jr., since the death of the husband and father.

The life of this worthy lady is closely interwoven with the history of the state of Nebraska and in which her father, the late Chief Justice Daniel G. Gantt, had such a distinguished part. Mrs. Chalfant was born in New Bloomfield, Perry county, Pennsylvania, June 1, 1848, her parents being members of one of the first families settling in that county, and here she spent her girlhood days, later being taken by the parents to Douglas county, Nebraska. Here amid the scenes of the early pioneer activities of the new territory of Nebraska, the daughter spent a number of years. In 1864 the father, Judge Gantt, was appointed United States attorney for the territory and which position he filled for a number of years. In 1868 the family removed to Nebraska City where they made their home for a number of years and where Judge Gantt passed away in 1878. Mrs. Chalfant in 1857 at the time of the death of her mother returned to Pennsylvania where she continued her studies along the lines of higher education which occupied some six years. She subsequently became a student at Brownell Hall, Omaha, which had been founded a short time before and continued her studies there for a number of years and later took up teaching in the schools of the state which her exceptional ability along educational lines made her one of the most efficient teachers in the state. On April 19, 1868, at Omaha occurred the marriage of Miss Gantt to John Chalfant, one of the young pioneer farmers of the state, and following their marriage Mr. and Mrs. Chalfant for many years made their home on the farm near Union where they won success and found happiness in the calm of home life and lived to see their family reared to manhood and womanhood as worthy citizens of the community in which the parents had had such an important part in forming. The children who are left to mourn the loss of the kind and loving mother are Mrs. Alice Wolfe, Lusk, Wyoming; Mrs. Hattie Nickels, Deadwood, South Dakota; Mrs. Nellie Johnson, Spearfish, South Dakota; Daniel G. Chalfant and Hugh Chalfant of Lusk, Wyoming, and John Chalfant, Jr., of Union.

The funeral services were held Thursday from the home in Union and the body laid to rest beside that of the helpmate who had preceded the wife to the better world several years ago.

A number of the old friends of the family from Plattsmouth and vicinity were present at the last sad rites to pay their tribute of love to the worthy lady whose long and useful life had been brought to a close.

To those who knew her best Mrs. Chalfant was a kind and generous neighbor and friend and her life filled with many acts of love and kindness will ever remain a worthy example of unselfish Christian loving to the children who are left to mourn her passing.

SHOULD BE QUARANTINED.

Many physicians believe that anyone who has a bad cold should be completely isolated to prevent other members of the family and associates from contracting the disease, as colds are about as catching as measles. One thing sure—the sooner one rids himself of a cold the less the danger, and you will look a good while before you find a better medicine than Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to aid you in curing a cold.

We print everything but money and butter. Let us serve you.

ENJOY FINE EVENING LAST NIGHT

Intermediate Department of Presbyterian Sunday School Have Fine Time.

From Saturday's Daily.

The intermediate department of the Presbyterian Sunday school enjoyed a very pleasant time Thursday evening when they participated in a sleighing party and closed the evening with a big oyster supper which was thoroughly enjoyed by the young people. The members of the party occupied two of the big old-fashioned hob sleds, one of which was acting as a trailer of a high powered automobile of J. F. Wolff and this served to take the young people spinning across the snowy roads of the city and vicinity of Murray and served to make several hours very enjoyable to the jolly party of young people. After the delights of sleighing and with appetites whetted by the cold and sharp winter air the young people were invited to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. Creamer where a fine oyster supper was awaiting them and it is needless to say that they did ample justice to the fine feast that had been prepared for them.

The young people spent the remainder of the evening in music and games and it was unanimously voted that this had been one of the most pleasant occasions in the history of the intermediates and they are hopeful for many more such happy events in the future.

PLATTSMOUTH WINS OPENING GAME, 33-22

BENSON DEFEATED BY SCORE OF 33 TO 22 IN HARD FOUGHT GAME LAST NIGHT.

LOCALS SHOW UP STRONG

First Team Players Show Speed and Skill in Game That Surprises Coaches and Followers.

From Saturday's Daily.

Last evening the Benson five journeyed down to mix up things with the team representing the local high school but the result was in their defeat by the score of 33 to 22. The game was snappy and hard fought from the first but the decided superiority of the locals was evident from the manner in which the plays of the visitors were blocked and in the throwing of baskets and in the first half the visitors were able to secure only one field goal and four fouls. In the second half the substitute players of the Plattsmouth team were placed in the game and allowed the visitors to annex several additional baskets and made the score more even and for a short time the spurt of the visitors looked as though they might get away with the goods but the lead secured was too much for them to overcome. Calvert Brown, captain and left forward of the visitors, was easily the star of his team and secured a large number of the goals made by Benson and scored all the field goals for his team, six of which were thrown in the last half. Captain Brown was also very accurate in placing the foul goals.

For the Plattsmouth team Schubeck and Brubaker, the two forwards of the regular team made a splendid record and their playing demonstrated their ability in the basket ball work. Hallas also in his initial appearance on the floor made good and undoubtedly will be given a place on the regular lineup of the High school team for the season. Bookmeyer was also one of the clever players for the locals and his work aided in the victory secured.

Following the basket ball game the box supper given under the auspices of the junior class of the school was given and the first part of the program was occupied by a very interesting entertainment prepared by the young people of the High school and which was very enjoyable and a fitting opening for the pleasant evening that followed. The array of beautiful boxes, filled to the brim with many good things to eat was however the chief feature of the evening and the result of the work of Auctioneer Rex Young brought to the junior class the sum of $98.60 which will be applied on the fund for the junior-senior banquet to be held this winter. The bidding for the various boxes was quite spirited and the young men were right on the job in securing the dainty and attractive boxes prepared by the girls for the big event. Owing to the lateness of the hour the beauty contest was not held and proved a sad disappointment to the young people who had anticipated much pleasure in this feature of the evening.

WEDDING OF WEEPING WATER GIRL

Miss Eleanor Christensen Joined in Holy Matrimony with Mr. Rosco Sill a Week Ago.

From Saturday's Daily.

A very pretty wedding took place last Friday evening at eight o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Christensen, just north of town, when their daughter Miss Eleanor was united in marriage to Mr. Rosco Sill by the Rev. W. H. Riley, pastor of the Congregational church in the presence of many relatives and friends.

Mendelssohn's wedding march was played by Mrs. Arthur Jones, Miss Anna Christensen, sister of the bride, was bridesmaid and Jack Christensen her brother, was best man. The bride was dressed in a tailored blue serge and carried a bouquet of bride's roses.

After the ceremony and the viewing of the many beautiful and useful presents bestowed upon the young couple, delicious two-course refreshments were served.

The bride and groom departed on the early train Saturday morning for Bradshaw where the groom is superintendent of the Bradshaw public schools.

Among those present to enjoy the occasion were Mrs. W. Priestley, a sister of the groom and her husband, of Western, Nebraska, where Mr. Priestley is superintendent of the schools and Mrs. Priestley is principal; Miss Grace Spencer, of Lincoln, friend of the bride; Miss Olga Rasmussen of Astor, Iowa, friend of Jack Christensen.

Among the home folks were Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Anton Jorgensen, Mr. and Mrs. Neils Pederson, Miss Mary Heneger, Mr. and Mrs. Chris Elgaard and family, Mr. and Mrs. N. C. Nelson and son Alfred and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Christensen.

As to the bride she is well known to our readers, having graduated from our high school and been before the public in the telephone office work for a long time. The groom is a graduate of Wesleyan university, served his country in the world war and holds a responsible position as superintendent of schools at Bradshaw.

her services were held at the church nor the grave.

The husband passed away at the old farm home near Louisville and after a few years the widow moved to the farm near Greenwood, where she has since resided. She leaves eight children of her own and four stepchildren. Her first two children by a former marriage are Ben Thompson of Ashland and Mrs. Al Sturzbach of Boelus, Nebraska. The other six children are Raymond Waldrat of Roca; Mrs. Amanda Erierson, Neligh; Mrs. Nettie Core, Neligh; Andrew and Charles Waldrat, Ashland, and Levi Waldrat, who lived at the home near Greenwood. The stepchildren are Mrs. Henry Ahl, Louisville; Mrs. Duff, Cedar Creek, George Waldrat, Stanton, and Mrs. Grace Kunzman of Surprise.

The Waldrat family were pioneer residents of this county and were well known by all in the early days. They were highly respected and were much loved by all their neighbors and friends and the passing of these sturdy old characters who helped to make the history of the state of Nebraska, is always a matter of regret to all who read it.—Louisville Courier.
