

MURDOCK DEPARTMENT.

PREPARED EXCLUSIVELY FOR THE JOURNAL.

(Keep this ad and let the first stock salesman who comes to see you, read it to you.)

Get Rich Quick! Promotion Stocks! Hot Air Salesmen!

Naturally we all want to get rich, if we can, and it would be simply fine if we could do it in a short time.

Last year this country was literally flooded with solicitors who were selling promotion stocks, automobile tire stocks, automobile and truck manufacturing stocks, creamery stocks, potash stocks, insurance stocks, milling stocks, packing company stocks, stocks in sky scraper buildings and hundreds of other kinds of stocks. Did you buy any and, if so, what do you think of your investment today?

In 1919 alone permits were issued in the United States authorizing stock companies to sell over twelve billion dollars worth of stocks, involving an amount about equal to three of our Liberty Loans. These companies are planning on selling this stock in the present year if they can possibly do so.

Of course, the man who will "Get Rich" from these stocks will not be the man who buys stocks, but the man who promotes these propositions, and the "Hot Air" salesman who sells the stock to you. Usually he gets twenty per cent or one-fifth of the amount of stock he sells. If he sells $5,000 worth of stock, he gets just one thousand dollars. Pretty nice, he ought to get rich quick.

When this "Hot Air" man calls on you next time, don't let him sell you the stock at once. Think it over and then call at your bank and ask about it. Find out what you are buying. Don't take the word of the fellow who is getting a commission for selling you this stuff—usually your banker can buy it for you much cheaper than the stock salesman sells it for.

THE BANK OF MURDOCK has your welfare and interests at heart, and will always try to protect your investments, should you ask our advice. We do not make a practice of assisting in the sale of stocks, but if you want any particular stock, ask us about it, and we will see at what price we can buy it for you. Just now we have quite an assortment of stocks offered to us, at prices much below what they sold for last year, and if you must buy stocks, why not buy them as cheap as you can? Tell your banker what you want, how many shares, price you want to pay, and he will attend to the rest. It may take a few weeks to get the stock, but you will be saving money by doing so. Better yet, don't buy them at all.

At the present time we have offered to us the following—

Bankers Realty Bonds @.....	$82.50
Hebb Motor Company stock @.....	97.50
Higgins Packing Company stock @.....	92.50
Iowa Packing Company stock @.....	74.00
Overland Tire Company stock @.....	7.35
Skinner Packing Company stock @.....	85.00
Skinner Company stock @.....	42.50
Sprague Tire & Rubber Company stock @.....	34.00

Some of these are from $30.00 to $40.00 less per share than the price at which the "HOT AIR" salesman sold them for.

Rev. A. H. Schwab and daughters were visiting with friends and looking after some business matters in Lincoln last Thursday.

W. H. Rush and wife were visiting at the home of J. H. Foreman north of Alvo last Sunday, enjoying very much the pleasant time they spent there.

W. O. Gillespie, who has been in the west for several days, reports some pretty cold weather there and says the snow was two feet deep in and near Denver. There were numerous cases of people having frozen to death from being caught in the storm that prevailed.

Mrs. W. H. Rush was a visitor in Lincoln last Friday and Saturday, going there to have some dental work done, and returning home Saturday evening.

Charles Lau, who was out in the west for a few days not long ago, reports things looking well in southern Colorado and also in western Nebraska.

Messames W. S. Kitzell, Foster and Voma Eccleston, all of South Bend, were visiting in Murdock last Friday and also looking after some trading as well.

Simon Schlueter purchased a new Ford Sedan a few days ago from Mr. Edward Thimgan and which was brought to Murdock by Mr. Thimgan last Thursday. Now Mr. Schlueter and family will have an elegant car to ride in.

Supt. Burwell of the Murdock schools, was a visitor in Lincoln last Thursday, going up to see Mrs. Burwell who has been in delicate health ever since suffering an attack of the flu. Mr. Burwell reports his wife as being somewhat improved.

"Sanitas," a superior quality of oilcloth, on the walls of your kitchen, wash room, pantry and bed room, etc., is easy to wash, strengthens the plaster and is more economical than paint. For particulars see M. Dusterhoff.

Messames Clara Fisher and C. E. Davis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Miller and wife of Elmwood, arrived in Murdock on the Rock Island from Indianola, Iowa, on last Thursday evening, and were met at the train by August East and Mrs. W. T. Hoover, the latter of Omaha, and who is also visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Miller. Mrs. Miller is not in the best of health and the presence of her daughters in the home will aid in her recovery.

Notice to Patrons

To the patrons of the Murdock Rural Free Delivery route: You will please provide yourselves with sufficient postage stamps for mailing your letters and parcels, as it is inconvenient for the carrier to search the mail boxes for pennies for postage, as is necessary when loose change is placed therein.

Yours respectfully,

H. H. Lawton is doing some interior decorating at the home of C. E. Kupke north of town and is making the home look very nice.

J. L. Carnicle and W. S. Nicholas of South Bend were visiting in Murdock and also looking after some business matters for a short time.

Mottled and Stippled walls of exceedingly charming colors and true artistic value. You will find them in Max Dusterhoff's wall paper stock.

O. Lefel of the Missouri Pacific agent at Eagle, had us place his name on the list of readers of the Journal, and will receive the paper in the future.

M. L. Williams of near Louisville was a visitor in Murdock last Friday coming after some medicine for Mrs. John Shellhorn who has been rather sick.

Harry A. Williams, of Elmwood, was a visitor in Murdock last Thursday, coming to look after some matters of business and also visit with relatives and friends here.

Herman Schmidt the assessor for Elmwood precinct, has been kept to his home for the past few days not feeling the best; but hopes to be out in a short time again at his work. Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Rouse, of Alvo, were visitors in Murdock last Thursday, coming over to fill a date with Dr. Trenholm of Elmwood, a dentist who makes Murdock every week.

James M. Robertson, clerk of the district court was a visitor in Murdock last Wednesday, looking after his chance for renomination to the position of clerk of the district court.

H. A. Tool, the banker has been very busy, both in the bank with his work and at home trying to get the grounds about his new home graded in proper shape and is kept very busy.

Wm. Gehrts was a visitor to Omaha last Thursday looking after some business, in connection with his auto and implement lines, and remained over Friday evening returning on the evening train.

Our friend Uncle August Panska has been under the weather for the past few days, being confined to his bed with a cold on his lungs and pains in his chest. It is hoped that he will soon be out again.

Wm. Bourke shipped a car of hogs to the South Omaha market last Wednesday and also another on last Thursday and had among the shipment, some hogs which weighed five hundred pounds and over.

E. L. Pothast of Lincoln was a business visitor in Murdock looking after the building of the new bank building, and other business, and while here was also looking after the purchase of some lots for a residence.

John Gerdes of near Wabash was a visitor in Murdock last Thursday looking after some business matters, and had his name placed on the list of the readers of the Journal, and will be a reader of this paper in the future.

Clarence L. Beal of Plattsmouth who is a candidate for the position of clerk of the district court, was a visitor in Murdock last Thursday for shaking hands with the readers and making friends with the Murdock people.

A letter from C. F. Hite, who recently went to Holyoke, Colorado, states that he is well pleased with his new place of employment and is making good wages with plenty of work to keep him busy during the next five or six months.

Wm. Gehrts sold a tractor and threshing outfit last week to the farmers club near Wabash, an organization composed of farmers who have associated themselves together to help each other maintain the outfit primarily to do their own work.

J. E. McHugh the manager of the Murdock Mercantile company, was a brief visitor in Omaha last Thursday afternoon, having some business which necessitated his presence and making a hurried business errand was able to return on the afternoon train.

L. G. Gortley has disposed of his Ford car to Louis Schmidt and has in return received a Buick, which necessitated a legal exchange and the securing of corrected permits to operate the cars. Mr. Schmidt also has sold his Mitchell car to Alva Borneier, which makes a change all the way around.

"Bud" Amgwert is surely a worker, and don't you forget it. He handed the contract for hauling away the dirt which came from the excavation made for the basement of the new bank building, the agreement calling for a uniform price of 60 cents per load. Bud went right after the proposition and is able to make from fourteen to twenty loads per day, depending on how hard he works.

Had Pleasant Time

Rain and storm never keep young people from having a good time as on last Sunday a number of them from Omaha boarded the morning train for Murdock, where they were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ferdinand Lau and family. The day was spent in music, games and singing.

The present were Misses Grace Breidenberg, Claire Parker, Agnes Borneier, Elizabeth Pofahl, Caroline Tagtmeyer, Martha Bohlander and Messrs. Edward Kuppig, Clarence Haas, Charles Peters, Max Rehschuh, and Herman Tagtmeyer of Omaha, and Louis Lau of Murdock. The Omaha folks returned to the depot on the evening train and pronounced it a most jolly time they had had as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ferdinand Lau and family.

Not Susceptible Just Now

J. A. Bauers, Harry Gillespie, and Lacey McDonald, slipped away down to the Platte river last Tuesday, just to see if the fish were biting, but found no one at home as far as the fish were concerned. They placed the classiest catables before the Platte river tribe, but to no effect they would not be caught napping, neither on a hook.

Attended Shoot at Exeter

John Gakemeier and E. W. Thimgan attended a shoot at Exeter last Tuesday, where they mingled with some of the good shots of that and other portions of the state, and won some laurels, but no startling records were made by any of the shooters.

Returned From Service Friday

Wilber Thomas, well known in and near Murdock, but whose home was at Alvo prior to his enlisting in the regular army some four and one-half years ago, has completed his term of enlistment and returned to his home at Alvo Friday and is glad to be home again. Wilber has always made his home with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Thomas and was a bugler while in the service. He was discharged from Camp Zachery Taylor on March 20th.

We Hope They Get Oil

Some of the enterprising citizens of Murdock, who have invested in oil and whose wells seems to bid fair to prove very valuable, say that in case they get a "gusher" they will try to pave Main street in Murdock. Not alone for the getting of the municipal improvements, but for their benefit as well we are hoping.

63rd Marked the Passing

Last Sunday was the anniversary of the birth of Herman A. Gast, and while the weather was so that his friends and relatives out of the city could not get here, the families of E. W. Thimgan and Frank Rosenow, were able to meet with this couple and celebrate the event.

Has a Serious Mishap

Last Thursday, while engaged in discing some ground for oats, Fred Neban, living a few miles southeast of Murdock, was injured seriously, while riding on the seat over the discs, when the support suddenly gave way precipitating him on the sharp discs, and cutting a long gash in his right side. He was rushed to town, but as Dr. Hornbeck was out on a call he had to be taken to Elmwood to have the wound dressed.

Horses Feeling Fractious

Ivan Buskirk had an exciting experience with a team of horses he was working the fore part of the week. With four hitched together to a disc, he left them standing a few minutes when they took a notion to take a little sprint on their own account. After a long string of fence had been demolished, one of the animals was thrown on the ground, the others piling on it, and when Mr. Buskirk reached the team and got them quieted he found one had been cut severely by the sharp discs, although it will probably get all right again.

Celebrates Birthday Thursday

Uncle George Skiles, who has lived in Murdock for many years, passed his 80th milestone last Thursday, having been born April 15, 1840, at a point some six miles north and west of Montrose, Iowa. Mr. Skiles remembers the Mormons under the leadership of Joseph Smith, lived at Nauvoo, Ill., which town was but a few miles from his early home. He also recalls many incidents connected with their departure for Salt Lake City.

Mr. Skiles is some eight years older than his good wife, and they have lived in Murdock since 1882, residing prior to that time at Avoca and Alvo, or rather where these towns are now located, as they didn't exist at that time.

Mr. Skiles served three years in the civil war, joining at Jefferson Barracks, near St. Louis, when there were but 14 men in the regiment which he became a member of. He was with Sherman on his famous march from Atlanta to the sea.

Has a New Car Also

Lacey McDonald, the efficient and genial mail carrier has purchased a new Ford car, which he will use in delivering the mail. He bought the new auto through the Edward Thimgan agency and turned in his old car as part of the purchase price. Messrs. Thimgan and McDonald went to Elmwood last Friday to bring the new car home.

Moves to Murock

Mrs. Viola Cecil, who formerly resided at Wabash, but who has been staying in Lincoln for a short time, has disposed of her residence in Wabash to Warren Richards, who has moved into the place and will have it as a residence. Mrs. Cecil has rented one of the Ruge places in Murdock and moved here. She desired to be near her mother, Mrs. Crawford and may later conclude to either purchase or build a home here in the near future.

Makes Purchase of Valuable Animal

Herman Gakemeier recently purchased a short horn bull at a cost of $475 at a fine stock sale held at the fair grounds at Lincoln. At the same time Mr. W. O. Schewe purchased a heifer for $425.

A Relative of General Wood

Mort Shatto, a former citizen of Murdock, and who is now making his home in Omaha, is a cousin of General Wood, now especially prominent in the public eye on account of his candidacy for the office of president. Mr. Shatto's mother being a sister of Gen. Wood's mother.

Ladies Enjoy a Kensington
