COYOTES STILL COME IN

From Monday's Daily.
This morning the coyote market presided over by County Clerk George Sayles, received a large consignment of scalps of the animals that the state is desirous of having cleaned out and if all the counties of the state prove as industrious as Cass county, there is no doubt that they will be successful. Harley Cecil proved that his training has not been confined to selling clothes as he and John Rutherford, Jr., were fortunate enough yesterday to secure a mother coyote and five young ones while hunting on the Platte bottom. Mrs. J. H. Welch of South Bend was also among those to claim the bounty of $3 per head for the coyotes as she presented the scalps of nine to the county clerk and was given the reward.

From Monday's Daily.
Yesterday morning Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Barger departed from this city for Los Angeles, California, where they expect to make their home in the future. They will go via Kansas City, traveling over the Santa Fe out of the Missouri city. Mr. and Mrs. Barger have been preparing for several months to move to the California city where their son, Earl and their daughter Mrs. Roy Reiland and family are now making their home. The friends are very loath to see this estimable family leave the city, but trust that the best of success may be their lot in the new home.

JUSTICE COMES CHEAP

From Monday's Daily.
Police Magistrate M. Archer and his opponent at the primary, W. B. Rishel, today filed their expense accounts with the county clerk and the total sum expended was $5 each for the filing fee. Both gentlemen will contest at the November election. A. A. Wetencamp, the successful republican candidate for county commissioner also filed his expense account and shows that the nomination did not cost him the expenditure of one cent to secure the honor of opposing C. F. Vallery at the November election.

JOHNSON IS CALLED "SMALL AMERICAN"

Des Moines, Ia., May 4.—In urging adoption of a resolution instructing officials of the Methodist general conference in session here today, to declare for a league of nations, Dr. Frank Larkin, delegate from California, undertook to knock Hiram Johnson out of a big lot of votes in California primary to be held Tuesday. He said Johnson was a "small American" and if the conference would come out in a declaration for the league of nations, it would have its effect on Tuesday's primaries in his home state.
The resolution was referred to the committee on state of the church.

NEMAHA VALLEY WHITE.

A pure type of corn. From a field of ten acres we did not find an ear of red cob. A large corn, ears in a good crop will run 12 inches in length, rows 20, some 22 and 24. Matures in 110 days. This corn pleases us so well that the name originates with us and is called Nemaha Valley White. We recommend this corn to every grower because the results given the past seasons have been more than satisfactory. Price $4.50 per bushel, shelled and graded; seamless bags 70c each extra.—Edward Bartling Seed Co., Nebraska City, Nebraska.

The merchant who doesn't advertise only when business is good will eventually quit it entirely.

WHERE IS TRINER'S THERE IS HEALTH
This slogan is correct even under the worst circumstances. Mr. A. P. Pencil, a miner from Galloway, W. Va., wrote us on January 15, 1920: "As to the results of Triner's American Elixir of Bitter Wine, I recommend it sincerely to the miners in case of constipation, headache, stomach-ache, etc., caused by the vitiated air of the mine or by the powder-smoke and carbon gases after blasting, when the miner returns too early to his work before the smoke and dust have been sufficiently removed. Triner's American Elixir of Bitter Wine makes me and my brother more hardened and keeps us in good health and others to whom I have recommended this remedy report the same result." If Triner's remedy helps under such circumstances, it must be good, and its results in normal conditions must be peerless. Ask your druggist or dealer in medicines also for Triner's Liniment which is excellent for rheumatism, neuralgia, sprains, swellings, etc.—Joseph Triner Company, 1333-43 S. Ashland Ave., Chicago, Illinois.
