ROBERT GOODMAN PROGRESSING

From Tuesday's Daily.

The latest reports received from Lincoln state that Robert Goodman, the young son of B. F. Goodman of this city, who was so severely injured at Havelock on Thursday, May 13th, is now doing nicely and hopes for his ultimate recovery is now very bright. The injuries of the young man were of such a severe nature that at first it was thought impossible for him to recover but he is now gaining so fast that his attending physicians are hopeful that he will soon be restored to his normal condition.

SENIOR CLASS GIVES ITS PLAY LAST NIGHT

"WHAT HAPPENED TO JONES" IS PLAY PRESENTED THIS YEAR BY THE YOUNG PEOPLE.

From Wednesday's Daily.

Last evening the Parmele theater was filled to its utmost capacity by a well pleased audience to witness the class of 1920 present their class play, which this year had been selected from one of the clever comedies of the last few years, "What Happened to Jones".

The comedy is woven around the startling developments that follow the visitation of Prof. Goodley with his prospective son-in-law to a so-called glove contest and which suddenly stopped by the arrival of a raiding party of police and which is followed by the escape of the professor and his son-in-law via the spouting of the building and are followed home by "Jones" also a participant in the unlucky match. To prevent exposure of themselves and to save Jones from arrest for assaulting an officer, the versatile Jones who is a combined bible and card salesman, is presented as the brother of the professor, Anthony Goodley, D. D., Bishop of Ballarat. The startling situation that develops followed the adoption of the role of the bishop by Jones makes the play a very interesting one. In the close the real bishop appears on the scene and after a harrowing experience is duly recognized and restored to his sweet-heart, Jones is exposed but wins the lady of his choice.

One of the most effective of the members of the cast was Miss Henrietta Waintroub, who appeared as the wife of the professor and in her part she was smooth and finished in her dramatic work. Miss Carla Brandt divided with the ladies of the cast the honors of the play and her part as the romantic old maid sister of the professor, was one of the most delightful characters in the play. Miss Nellie Mae Cowles as the worldly wise ward of the professor was very clever and kept "Jones" guessing during the entire play. As the Swedish maid, Miss Claire Creamer was delightful and aided materially in the comedy situations of the servant whose palm is constantly itching. Miss Janet Bajec took the character of the promised bride of Richard Heatherly and a daughter of the professor while Miss Mable Lee Copenhaver appeared as the eldest daughter who was interested in Darwin and the theories of evolution and the younger sister was devoted to poetry and romance. Miss Myrtle Petersen appeared as a nurse caring for the escaped patients from a sanitarium.

The principal role of the play was taken by Harley Becker who appeared as "Jones" and Mr. Becker carried out this part in a most pleasing manner and displayed remarkable cleverness in handling the part of the traveling man whose line was bibles in a dead town and a fine assortment of playing cards in a "live one". The unfortunate professor whose troubles were many and varied, was taken by Ernest Janda in a very pleasing manner. Marion Duxbury appeared as the young man engaged to the daughter of the professor and who was responsible for steering his father-in-law up against the prize fight that resulted so unfortunately for them both. As the real bishop, Harley Cecil gave a most pleasing presentation of the character and his contribution to the offering of the evening aided materially in its success. Principal H. A. Stromsburg assisted the class by taking the role of the policeman detailed for the work of capturing the elusive Jones.

The play as a whole was one of the most interesting given by a graduating class of the school and a pleasing departure from the usual line of school plays and affording a greater opportunity for the young people to display their talents.

The enjoyment of the play was slightly marred at the conclusion of the first act when one of the revolving electric fans in the balcony tore loose from its fastening and fell, and very fortunately the fan and the metal pipe through which the wires led, fell in the aisle way and did not injure anyone although the suddenness of the accident caused a great deal of excitement among those sitting near the place where the fan fell.

During the intermission of the play Miss Honor Seybert gave a most pleasing piano selection that was much enjoyed.

WILL LOCATE IN CALIFORNIA

From Wednesday's Daily.

Dr. D. G. Golding of Fremont, Neb., who was in the city last week for a few days is preparing to remove from Nebraska to Fresno, California, where he has prepared to locate. Dr. Golding has just recently returned from the coast and brought with him a number of specimens of fruit, lemons and orange blooms, which are now on exhibition at the R. W. Knorr store. Dr. Golding will return to Plattsmouth the last of this week or the first of next week for a few days visit with his mother, Mrs. Levi Golding and his brother, Byron Golding, and from here will go on to the Pacific coast.

PAVING PROPOSITION SEEMS TO BE POPULAR

General Expression Over Action of City Council One of Approval in Starting of Improvement

From Wednesday's Daily.

The general expression of the residents in the various portions of the newly created improvement district seem to be that the city council was thoroughly right in their preparation for an extended paving proposition this year. For many years the residents along high school hill, north Sixth street and Seventh streets have suffered by the constant washing out of the streets by rains that have made the streets disagreeable to travel at certain seasons of the year. The extension of the paving on Oak street will take away some of the worst pieces of roadway in the city and which after a heavy rain are almost impassable for travel. That portion of Pearl street between Third and Fourth streets which adjoins the Alfa-Maize mill will also remove an unsightly spot and one that will link up the paving on Fourth street with that of Third.

The launching of the paving proposition out in the residence district and also along Seventh street from Washington to Chicago avenue has caused the property owners along Main street to desire some change in the present paving, but of course this will not interfere with the other work as Main street would be a proposition in itself. Just what is desired on Main street has not been fully determined. A five inch vitrified brick paving with concrete base seems the most popular at the present time, but a thorough expression will be secured as to the wishes of the property owners before any action is taken in this matter.

Ford

THE UNIVERSAL CAR

During all the years the Ford Model T One Ton Truck has been on the market, we have never had one complaint of rear axle trouble. We have had no complaints of motor trouble. As the motor and the rear axle are the vital fundamentals in a motor truck, we have the right to conclude that the Ford One Ton Truck has not only met the demands of business, but has done so in a satisfactory and economic way. There is no other evidence so convincing as that which comes from long practical experience. Ford One Ton Trucks are serving along all industrial and commercial lines. You will find them everywhere. If these statements were not facts, the demand for the Ford One Ton Truck would not be as large as it is, because people are not buying trucks which do not give service. Coupled with the dependability of the Ford One Ton Truck in all classes of usage, comes the economy in operation and maintenance. On the farm, in factory delivery, for the merchant, manufacturer, and contractor, in these days of modern business methods, this worm-driven One Ton Ford Truck has become an actual necessity. The recognition of this leading authority on school matters is a very pleasing matter to the patrons of the school and to the members of the board of education that have been devoting so many long weary months in getting the building prepared and ready for service and the success that it has given to the school system of the city has made the high school here the equal of any in the state.
