BISHOP SHAYLER IN FAVOR OF LEAGUE

Head of Episcopal Church Here Says He Can't Vote For Harding—Flatly For League.

"I believe in the principles of the league of nations and am extremely sorry that both of the political parties do not come out flatly for them," said Bishop E. V. Shayler of the Episcopal church in an interview with a World-Herald reporter.

"Personally, I feel the republicans by their failure to make an affirmative stand on this subject now of so great importance to the world, have shown a feeling of indifference, shall not vote for a candidate who does not come out flatly for the league."

"I heard Lloyd George in an address declare the nations of the world, already in the league, would be disposed to America practically have her own way in entering this world organization. He said the smaller nations especially had been looking across the water for the moral support of their allies in the United States and that the welcome for this nation in the league of nations would not be hedged about by any conditions such as some on this side of the water seem to fear."

"It seems to me the principles of the league would go very far just now toward clarifying the world situation."

"While abroad, I was permitted to get many viewpoints on present day subjects at meetings of the English Speaking Union, Americans generally, who have lived abroad for a time, took the view that by joining the league of nations, their interests would not be endangered in any way and I quite agreed with them."

"It is with deep regret that I see the stand taken by the republicans on this vital issue."—World-Herald.

FOREMAN SHOCKED AT THE REVELATIONS

Grand Jury Determined to Go to the Bottom of Baseball Gambling—Amazing Testimony by Benton

Chicago, Sept. 24.—Investigation of a report that George M. Cohan, New York theatrical producer, and Mont Tennes of Chicago, had lost large sums bet on last year's world series was understood today to be the incident into the "fixing" charges will be pushed to the limit, according to a statement made by Henry H. Grigham, foreman of the grand jury, who declared that he was "shocked at the rottenness so far revealed."

He added that "Chicago, New York, Cincinnati and St. Louis gamblers are bleeding baseball and corrupting players." States Attorney Hoyne, according to a statement received from him in New York, declared he "had no doubt that the 1919 series was crooked and that at least one Chicago player was crooked." He added that a report that Cohan and Tennes had information regarding alleged base ball crookedness would be thoroughly investigated by his office.

Rube Benton, New York Giants pitcher who told the grand jury yesterday of being offered a bribe to lose a game, naming "Buck" Herzog, Hal Chase and "Heine" Zimmerman in connection with the alleged offer in a statement published today, named four White Sox players as having been named to him by an alleged member of a baseball gambling ring in a discussion of alleged "fixing" of the 1919 series. These players, Benton declared, were Eddie Cicotte, pitcher of the first game; Claude Williams, pitcher in the second; Chick Caddell, first baseman, and "Hap" Felsch, center fielder. According to Benton's statement the players were mentioned by a Cincinnati "betting commissioner" named Hahn. Benton said that five White Sox players demanded $100,000 for "throwing" the series and that this was paid them by a group of Pittsburgh gamblers.

VOTE OF COUNTY WAS VERY LIGHT

Only 1,172 Men and 282 Women Took Advantage of Right of Franchise Last Tuesday.

The vote on the various amendments to the state constitution at the special election of September 21, was the lightest of many years and the total of the men vote was 1,172 while 284 women of the county took advantage of the opportunity to vote. Amendment No. 6, providing for the increase of the state senators not to exceed fifty lost in this county by a small majority but all others carried. The total of the vote in the various precincts was as follows:

PELL BARROWS NAMED BY SONS OF VETERANS

Nebraska Lieutenant Governor and Former Newspaper Man of Plattsmouth, Honored at Convention

The Sons of Veterans at their convention at Indianapolis have named as the national commander for the year, Pell A. Barrows, Lieutenant governor of Nebraska, and one of the active workers of the organization.

The success of Mr. Barrows will be very pleasing to his host of friends over the state and particularly in this city where he was for some time engaged in the publication of the News-Herald, as Mr. Barrows is personally a most agreeable gentleman and eminently well qualified for the position to which he has been elected.

RETURN TO THE BOMB THEORY.

New York, Sept. 24.—The cause of the Wall street explosion was as unknown tonight to the police and federal authorities as when it occurred nine days ago.

The theory that an accident—probably a collision—caused the explosion was reported today to have been cast aside by the September grand jury. Hereafter the jurors will concentrate themselves on the bomb plot theory, it was said. They will follow the lead of William J. Flynn, chief of the bureau of investigation of the department of justice.

Ern Young left Friday evening for Perkins county. The train was an hour late so Mrs. Young drove him to Lincoln to catch his train.

Charley Sitzer, son of our former Dr. Sitzer, was in town Wednesday. He drove over from Shenandoah, Iowa, where he is located as a dentist. He reports that his father died some two years ago.

Mr. and Mrs. N. C. Halmes drove to Omaha Saturday to see when they could get possession of the house they bought and found they could get it now, so Mr. Halmes quit his work at the Wiles elevator Tuesday and they will move to Omaha as soon as he can dig his spuds and get ready.

B. F. Ruby brought down an ear of evergreen sweet corn last week that had started to dent. He said he planted the corn between the potatoes the 10th day of June. At this rate the field corn ought to be safe by this time with favorable weather of late, as it has been hot and dry. The constitutional amendment election here Tuesday was a quiet affair as there was only about one-third of a regular vote cast. The first ward had thirty-five men and seventeen women out; the second ward thirty-five men and six women. George Stoner and Wm. Ash carried

CONGOLEUM GOLD SEAL ART-RUGS. "THAT Seal Guarantees you Satisfaction,"—says the salesman as he points to it on the rug. "We have no hesitation in recommending Congoleum Art-Rugs because nothing else serves so well where a low-priced, long-wearing floor-covering is desired. "They are waterproof, sanitary, and quickly cleaned with a damp mop. The smooth firm surface does not take up dirt or stains. "They are wonderfully beautiful and in good taste for every room." "Every one is sold on the basis of Satisfaction Guaranteed, or your Money Refunded." H. M. SOENNICHSEN Phone 53 and 54

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lau and two daughters, Misses Augusta and Helena, and son Charles and family, drove to Murray Sunday to spend the day with another daughter, Mrs. William Wiles and family.

Rev. Cuthbert Elliott, of Missouri, is the new pastor assigned to the Methodist church of Louisville. Rev. Elliott will arrive in time to preach his first sermon next Sunday. His family consists of his wife and two children.

Grace Noyes, Edith Stander and Theo. Stander of Louisville, who have registered at Nebraska Wesleyan in University Place this fall, find the attendance largely increased and students still arriving. Many additions have also been made to the faculty so that the university is able to offer unusual advantages to its students in their preparation for life.

W. T. Starkey, of St. Paul, former Burlington agent here, visited with friends in Louisville over night last week and was the guest of his brother-in-law, Howard Jackman, and family. Mr. Starkey lived in Louisville long enough to know everybody and to make a lot of friends who regretted the departure of himself and family and he reports that they miss their old home and friends, although they find St. Paul a lively little town with good churches and schools and the business men all boosters.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Loberg and John Johnson spent Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Alexan in the country two miles south of South Bend. Mr. Alexan driving in after them and bringing them home again. Mr. Alexan will move his family to the Schroeder farm south-east of Louisville in the spring and not to Minnesota as we were informed recently. He owns land in Minnesota and his trip to that country was to look after his interests there, but with no view of moving there for the present.
