Committee in Charge of McKelvie Meeting Receives Announcement Late in Afternoon

From Thursday's Daily.

Quite a good sized crowd assembled at the district court room in the court house last evening to hear the announced speech of Governor S. R. McKelvie-but the governor came not. The change in plans came late in the afternoon and the committee of the Harding-Coolidge club that was arranging for the meeting did not have time to make public anouncement of the change in plans. In place of Governor McKelvie, Hon, Ernest M. Pollard, of Nehawka, was present and gave a very practical talk along the lines of state and naional issues, appealing for the restoration of the grand old party to power in the national offices. The meeting was presided over by Hon. R. B. Windham and was very pleasing to the members of the audience although many had been disappointed in not seeing the governor, who they had never met and who is known to them only through the public press. Mr. Pollard is an excellent and practical speaker and his alk embraced a great deal of the igures on state management.

H. K. Frantz, of Eagle, representative from Cass county, and candidate for re-election came over and attended the meeting, remaining to visit with friends and look after his interests here.
