Obituary Mrs. Henry Thomas
Sylvia C. Palmer was born in Chautauqua county, New York, July 25, 1839, and at the age of 4 years moved with her parents to Boone county, Illinois, where she grew to young womanhood. Later the family moved to Clinton county, Iowa, and it was there she united with the Baptist church at the age of 18.

In 1861 she was united in marriage to Henry Thomas and to this union were born eight children, four girls and four boys, of whom all have departed this life, save Fred Thomas, of Courtland and Mrs. N. Beck, of Los Angeles, California.

Mrs. Thomas later united with the Christian church and was an active member until they moved to Alvo, and there being no Christian church here, she helped what she could with the work at the Methodist church.

She died on Monday, November 15, 1920, and funeral services were held at the Brethren church and she was laid to rest in the Alvo cemetery.

Fred Creamer went to Lincoln on Monday to see his wife who is in the hospital, having recently undergone an operation. At present she is getting along nicely.

L. G. Langhorst writes friends that he is enjoying ranch life in Colorado and that he is accumulating quite a bunch of cows and calves and will feed out a big bunch this winter.

On Sunday someone made an entrance through the side door at the Tyson Drug store and got away with some cash, candy and other articles. It is understood that a like thing has happened in one or two other places of business. It looks as though it would be a wise thing for some one to lay off of such capers as this.

The other day Harry Williams was firing up the furnace at his home in the city when as the story is told one leg popped out from under him and down apparently into space. When Harry took an inventory of things he discovered that there was a well in the cellar and in the hole that had been made by his foot falling through he dropped a piece of coal and down it went striking the bottom some distance below. An investigation showed the hole to be about 18 inches in diameter. Of course the question arose as to whether it was really a well or the entrance to an ancient still.

Mr. and Mrs. George L. Berger celebrated their golden wedding at their home at Orange, California, on Wednesday, November 3. Many of their Nebraska friends knowing this sent them cards of congratulation.

Mr. Berger is a native of Ohio and came to Nebraska by steamboat on April 28, 1857. Mrs. Berger, then a native of Illinois, came to Cass county in a covered wagon June 20, 1866, her maiden name being Florida Killzore. They were married November 3, 1870, near Louisville, by James Crawford, then justice of the peace of South Bend precinct. They are spending the declining and well-earned years of their life in California and are the two happiest people in the world.

George Lamson, the Walthill fighting Indian, will make his training headquarters in Papillion. He has rented the old Sarpy House and is equipping it with an up-to-date gymnasium outfit for both wrestling and boxing, says the Papillion Times. He has been booked for several hard goes during the winter.

The Louisville friends of Mr. and Mrs. George Stohlman, of Fremont, will be interested to learn of the birth of a fine boy weighing seven pounds at their home on October 21, 1920. Mr. Stohlman's wife, Louise Stohlman, has returned home from a visit with her son and family and reports them well and prospering and says her little grandson is the finest ever. The Courier extends congratulations.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Berge are now settled in their home in Richmond, where Mr. Berge was transferred from South Bend by the Rock Island company to the station at Richmond, which is a better paying position. Their many South Bend friends regretted their departure but were pleased to know that Mr. Berge had received the promotion. Mrs. Berge's mother, Mrs. William Anderson, of Louisville, and her sister, Mrs. Earl Baum, of Prague, visited her last week and Mrs. Baum came on to Louisville for a visit with her parents.

Mrs. B. G. Metzger and daughter, Miss La Verda, of Sarpy county, were shopping in Louisville last Friday afternoon. Miss La Verda is teaching her first school this year in the Oak Grove district west of town and boards with the W. A. Oliver family. She is having splendid success and likes her work and surroundings very much. Her mother drives after her every Friday when the weather is at all favorable and so far she has not missed a week end at home.

Fred Heil of near Cedar Creek called last week and had his name enrolled on our list of new subscribers. Fred is one of the younger sons of Mr. and Mrs. Wendell Heil, pioneer citizens of Cass county. He is one of seven brothers and only two are unmarried and left at home, his brother Walter also living at home, although both conduct their own farms. Mr. and Mrs. Heil also have three daughters who are married, so their family is much smaller than it was a few years ago.

ELMWOOD

12:30 Friday night by the illness of one of their members, Dave Shogren. The two teams had been to Oteo for a basket ball game where both teams were defeated by the boys 15 to 5 and the girls 25 to 5. During the game Shogren got knocked out and was senseless for a time. A physician was called and it was thought the young man could make the trip home, but before they reached Weeping Water he got very sick. His condition was so alarming that they stopped at the L. N. Hunter home, carried the young man in and called a physician. After a diagnosis of the case, the doctor recommended leaving the patient where he was until next morning. Supt. Hawk and Minford McDonald were the volunteers to spend the rest of the night with the sick comrades and the members of the party, numbering sixteen, proceeded on home in the Ford truck which was the only conveyance for the entire party numbering nineteen, including the driver and the three teachers, Supt. Hawk, Miss Mary McGrew and Mrs. Kida. The next morning the injured young man was able to walk to the train for home, although not fully recovered. Some two years ago this young man was thrown from a truck, striking his head, which rendered him unconscious for a time. It was thought he must have struck this spot on his head at this time.

Women to Have Part in Big Meeting.
Women are to have an important part in the meetings of Organized Agriculture at Lincoln, January 3 to 7. In addition to attending the general session on Wednesday they will have a three day program of their own, beginning Tuesday. The Nebraska Home Economics Association and Nebraska Homemakers' Association are co-operating in a joint session. Several farmers' wives and specialists of the State College of Agriculture and the United States Department of Agriculture are on the program to discuss subjects of vital interest to women. Now that politics are out of the way for a while the women will turn their attention to home and community problems. Every farmer attending the meetings of Organized Agriculture is supposed to bring his wife and daughters.

DID NOT EXPECT TO EVER BE WELL

Burlington Woman Overjoyed at the Way Tanlac Has Restored Her Health.

"I am a well and happy woman once more after I had almost given up hope of ever being any better," said Mrs. M. V. Robinson of 607 Ertrude street, Burlington, Iowa.

"A year ago last March I had a severe attack of influenza and it left me dreadfully weak. My stomach was badly disordered and everything I ate seemed to hurt me. I suffered from terrible cramping spells and gas would form till I could hardly stand it.

"My heart would palpitate terribly and at times I felt like I was smothering. I also had a bad case of rheumatism that troubled me a long time. My legs ached and my knees were so stiff I could hardly get up or down. My feet swelled so at times I could hardly wear my shoes.

"Tanlac put an end to those days of suffering. The very first bottle helped me and I continued to take it until now I am free from all my troubles.

"My digestion is perfect, everything tastes good and gives me strength and energy. My heart action is normal and my breathing is free and easy. The swelling and stiffness have disappeared and I never feel a trace of the rheumatism any more."

Tanlac is sold in Plattsmouth by F. G. Fricke and Company; in Murray by the Murray Drug company and the leading druggist in every town.

If it is in the market it is at the Journal, is the saying in regard to the Thanksgiving decorations and novelties which is borne out by a look at our large and complete stock.

MANLEY NEWS

John Fleiselman was a visitor in Lincoln last Tuesday, where he had some dental work done.

Herman Dall was looking after some business matters at Murdock last Thursday, driving over in his car.

Miss Lena Stander of Omaha, was a visitor for a short time in Manley and guest of her sister, Mrs. Walter O'Brien.

The light plant for the St. Patricks church and parsonage was placed in excellent condition last week by a workman.

August Krecklow was a visitor at the county seat last Tuesday, where he was looking after some business matters for a short time.

Adolph Steinkamp and Charles Gerlich were looking after some business matters in Louisville last Wednesday, going over on the train.

Wm. Stohlman of Louisville was a visitor in Manley last Friday looking after some business matters for a short time.

Miss Mable Coon was a visitor in Omaha one day last week, going to have her eyes tested for glasses, her eyes having been giving her some trouble for some time past.

Many of the young people of Manley and vicinity were in attendance at the recital of the class play which was given at the Louisville school last week. Many of the young people are students in the Louisville school this year.

Miss Louise Bourke, who has been in Manley for some time, remaining after having been in attendance at the funeral of her mother, Mrs. Michael Bourke, to look after some business, returned to her home at York last Monday.

The boys who have been creating a disturbance at the mid-week meetings are cautioned that they are cultivating some trouble and it would be well for them that they refrain from the practice, for the penalty will be pretty severe.

The children of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Asch, who now make their home at Weeping Water, but who formerly were residents, and the children attending school at Manley, were visiting at the school with friends here for the day last Wednesday.

Whether from exposure to the late sudden cold snap, or from the shock of the recent election, no one is exactly determined, but from some cause or other Joseph Wolpert has been numbered as one on the sick list, but it is hoped from whatever source his malady arrived, it will be of but short duration.

At the examination which was given to the scholars of the public schools of Manley, testing their eyes, it was found that the most of them had normal eyes and with nothing the matter with their vision. A few in need of glasses for the correction of their vision, but the per cent was high of those being normal.

The quarterly examinations at the school were had last week and showed on the average a very fair state of progress and while some were very good, some were not as high as they should be. Let those who were not up to the average apply themselves a little more vigorously to their tasks, and win for themselves a better standard.

Frank Bergman and family, and Phillip Flemming and family, were in Plattsmouth last Tuesday attending the funeral of Mr. John Bergman, who passed away at the Emanuel hospital at Omaha, where he underwent an operation for cancer of the stomach. The folks here drove over in their cars and found the roads very bad.

NEW FIRE TRUCK IS NOW ON HAND

Apparatus Brought Down from Omaha Yesterday by Chairman McCarthy and Alvin Jones.

The long expected fire truck which is to place the fire fighting equipment of the city on a modern basis, arrived yesterday afternoon from Omaha, being brought to this city by Chairman L. L. McCarthy of the fire and water committee of the council and Alvin Jones, who did the driving of the machine.

The truck was secured of the Anderson company of Omaha and the chassis is built by the Douglass company and is one that is especially designed for the work on the long and steep hills of the city while the truck has been prepared with two chemical tanks, hose, ladders and other necessary equipment by the Anderson company.

It is a fine looking piece of equipment and will fill a long felt want in this city, where the old fashioned hose carts that were hauled to fires by hand have long been in use, and the new fire fighting equipment will enable the fire department to reach a fire quickly and do effective work during the early stages of the blaze and before a great deal of damage has been done.

The department has been handicapped in the last few months by the fact that members of the department working in the shops have found it difficult to get away from their work without a great sacrifice of their wages and with the fire truck and equipment it will be possible for a few men to handle the ordinary class of fires that occur in this city.

The fire truck will be kept at the Batur garage, owing to the fact that several houses have no heating facilities and the equipment will be under the supervision of Alvin Jones, who is an expert in the care of motor vehicles, and who will also handle the truck at all daytime fires, while at night a driver will be supplied by Leonard Humber.

There is a great improvement in the city and one that will be appreciated in case of fire.

The creek and Jameson's lake were frozen over Wednesday morning when the thermometer registered 18 to 20 above zero. This morning (Thursday) seemed much colder on account of the wind, but the thermometer showed about 2 degrees warmer. The cold snap followed several days of rainy weather.

Mrs. Lester Shrader returned Wednesday evening from Omaha with her little two-year-old daughter, where she had been the last eight weeks at a hospital, where the daughter had been treated for the injuries received by being run over by an auto. The child seems to be getting along nicely now, and it is thought that her limb may be saved, but for a time it was doubtful whether it could be saved. They took the baby to the home of her aunt, Mrs. Chas. Hobson, where she will be cared for until the roads and weather permit her being taken to the farm home northeast of town.

The Louisville high school basket ball teams, both boys and girls, were detained here for a short time about

HAS BEEN FAITHFUL TO DUTIES

Judge Archer Rounding Out Service of 30 Years as Police Magistrate of the City of Plattsmouth

As long as the memory of the present generation covers there has been but one man presiding over the police court of this city and that has been the present occupant of the office, Judge M. Archer, who is rounding out thirty years of service and has been elected by a practically unanimous vote for an additional term in the office. Judge Archer has also served 32 years as Justice of the peace.

In the by gone days the office of police judge was a plum much sought after in the city politics and Judge was a rock ribbed democrat, has always turned up a winner at the election with but one exception when the office was secured by William Weber, who held it for one term, but the people decided that the brand of justice handed out by the venerable Judge was the real article and he was elected again and has held office continuously since that time.

During his service to the city as presiding officer of the police court Judge Archer has given the fullest measure of service and the office has been open every day for the transaction of the business of the court.

In the past few years many of the old familiar figures who were often on hand to greet his honor with "good morning judge" have disappeared from the scene of activity and the business has been cut down to a great extent by the taboo on the wild women and prohibition, but still Judge Archer has been able to secure a neat sum for the city treasury each month.

Judge Archer will have passed his eighty-fourth birthday on December 8th and is still alert and capable of handling the affairs of the office to which he has brought such splendid service in the past. Incidentally while other city officials have received salary boosts, the venerable Judge is still receiving the same salary, $30 a month, that he has for the past fifteen years and this seems a very unjust amount for the splendid service that our old friend has given the city of Plattsmouth.

It would surprise you to know the number of people who use and recommend Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. Mrs. N. I also gave it to my little granddaughter three and a half years of age when she had croup last winter. It broke up the attack at once. I have recommended this remedy to many of my friends and neighbors who have also used it with good results."
